Lamus, the fellow who lately broke out of Exeter jail, but was retaken, plead guilty to five indictments for stealing—for two of which he was sentenced to nine years' imprisonment.

James Townsend was sentenced to four years' imprisonment in the State Prison, for breaking into the schooner Betsey Ames at Portsmouth.

The Court then adjourned till 11 o'clock Monday morning.

NO BILL.—We understand that the Grand Jury, at Exeter, found no bill against Joseph Rousse, of this city, who was accused of setting fire to a building. Rousse had found bail, but his bondsmen gave him up a short time before the Court set. He is now, of course, discharged, in consequence of the failure to find a bill.

FROM EUROPE--3 DAYS LATER.

HALIFAX, Feb. 28.—The steamship Niagara, from Liverpool 14th inst., arrived here this A M.

On the rumored termination of the Persian war, the Daily News states that it is not intended to send out any troops from England to Persia. This announcement is made with confidence that it is correct.—We belive we may add that the force already at Bushire will not advance into the interior, and that every effort is being made to bring about a peace.

The News gives prominence to the following paragraph: "In another column we have stated that no troops are to be sent from England to Persia. We have equally good grounds for believing that none will be sent to China."

FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.

Steamship Illinois, from Aspinwall, arrived at this port about 7 o'clock, with California mails of the 5th inst. She connected at the Isthmus with the steamer Sonora, which brought down about $1,700,000 in treasure, the bulk of which was transferred to the Illinois, but the exact amount is not stated.

A Committee of the California Legislature reported that $124,000 had been taken from the Treasury. The Treasurer accounts for the disappearance by exhibiting a bond by the Pacific Express Company to pay, next July, interest on state debt.

At a meeting of the citizens of Mariposa county, it was resolved to resist Fremont's claim to the Mariposa tract.

A bill before the Senate, providing for working mines in grant, made before the treaty of Gaudaloupe Hidalgo, will, if passed, enable Mariposa settlers to defeat Fremont's claim.

Iowa Hills, Placer county, has been nearly destroyed by fire. Loss $150,000.

Mexican bandits were devastating Southern counties, and murdering the inhabitants. The Sheriff of Los Angelos and three constables, who went to protect the people, were murdered. The Legislature has appropriated $5000 to assist in exterminating the robbers.

The recent earthquake caused the ground to open ten feet wide for many miles in length, in the southern part of the state.

Business in San Francisco continued dull, and there had been no improvment in prices.

The mines were yielding largely, except the northern, which were blockaded with snow.

Kalmon & Co., dry goods dealers, had failed. Liabilities $200,000.

The news from the Isthmus is unimportant. There is nothing later from Nicaragua. The steamer Columbus arrived at Panama with Costa Rica dates to Feb. 5th.

She had twelve deserters from Walker's army. The captain of the Columbus reports that the allied squadron had captured a schooner belonging to Chris. Lilly, while carrying supplies to Walker. The schooner was taken to La Union, where Lilly and his partner Yates were detained prisoners of war. The former was to be sent to Guatemala for trial.

The Point of Trinidad, on San Juan river, was occupied by 400 Costa Ricans, well armed and provisioned. Rumors were current that 180 fillibusters, with a small steamer and 19 boats, were about to attack Trinidad.

The latest accounts state that on the 29th of January a steamer came up to Trinidad, when a few shots were exchanged, and the steamer retired. The forces of the allies were getting ready to go down the river in search of her.

In the actions of the 27th and 28th of January the Costa Ricans lost 60 killed and wounded.

The dates from South Pacific ports are same as brought by the Tennessee.

Dates from Oregon are to Jan. 24.—The Columbia river was becoming clear of ice. There had been great suffering from cold; many cattle died from starvation; and the soldiers at Fort Walla Walla were reduced to half rations.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A messenger who arrived here to night from Kansas reports that the members of the bogus Legislature have conspired to kill Gov. Geary for vetoing their measure. Sherrod, a Branken braggart, who has failed to get appointed Sheriff of Douglas county, is their ringleader.

Gov. Geary has notified the President of the menacing conduct of the Legislature, and explained to him his reasons for his vetoes; and his last dispatch to-night asks for additional power to sustain himself.—He announces that his private Secretary has been interrupted and assulted by Sherrod while in the discharge of his official duties, and that he [Geary] has been grossly insulted by the same person for refusing to confer upon him office.

Gov. Geary is at the head of the United States troops, backed by the Free State forces, and a fight is expected. The friends of Gov. Geary held an indignation meeting at Lecompton. Sherrod and bogus Sheriff Jones tried to break up this meeting. Sherrod, after having shot Mr. Shepherd of Pennsylvania, Gov. Geary's brother-in-law, was himself shot by a Free State man from Pennsylvania, named Jones.

The President has forwarded instructions to Gov. Geary, but their purport is not known.

A LACONIA BOY FOR WEST POINT.—Stephen C. Lyford, Jr., son of Stephen C. Lyford, Esq., of Laconia, has received the appointment of a cadetship at West Point.—Laconia Gazette.

Chimborazo, in Ecuador, has been ascended by a Frenchman and an Englishman. They reached an elevation of 6545 metres, 21,466 feet, and declare the ascent to be not only practicable but easy.

Lawrence's Carminative,
OR
CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.

THIS Invaluable Preparation is a favorite scientific prescription of one of the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in New England, and one who has been as successful as any other in the treating of

DISEASES OF CHILDREN,

and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically

A CHILD'S MEDICINE,

and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy sure to be followed by a "Dose of Pills and Powders."

The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty; and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues.

The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhœa, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness,

and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; sure to regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour Stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS,

and parents who value rest not full to buy a bottle, as they may depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir;—Having made trial of your Carminative, in several severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.

NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 23, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.

Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1853.

Mr. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infancy,—a class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than if sold here. Or Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

EXTRACTS, Etc., May 1, 1856.

Dr. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have found a cure for my worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. They will cure others as they do me, that is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. BEEBLE, Clerk of Sumner Church.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, Feb. 1, 1856.

Sir: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot honestly say they are the best cathartic we have, for we have none bitter to the taste in quick and decided consequences they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organs. Indeed, I have seldom found a case in which they did not speedily yield to them, and I do not see why they should not be resorted to in these cases.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

SCOTT'S OFFICE, HAMILTON, Liv. Co., MICH., Nov. 18, 1855.

Dear Sir: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and failing away for months. Most of us to be doctored at great expense, but we have found more good from your Cathartic Pills, which we cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of Worms and Dysentery, which had prostrated it so that my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars a doctor bills, and then much more, without benefit, and gave up the case. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

PORT ERIE, C. W., Dec. 1, 1855.

Dr. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to wait on in illness. To eradicate the acrimonious humors which they are apt to generate, they are the best cathartic we have known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HUMPHREY.

WARREN, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I write to inform you of the great benefit I have received from your Pills, and their an excellent purgative to clear out the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN C. BACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Skin Diseases.

From a Rheumatic Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 1, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of a disease upon her face that had baffled the skill of the physicians, and made her a loathsome object, miserable for years. Her mother has been long afflicted with blotches and pimples on her face and in her hair. And her child was cured of a humor in the head by your Pills, and they have cured me.

ASA MORSE, Merchant.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your Pills have given me, if I did not let you know it. My gout is settled in my limbs and bought on severe neuralgic pains, which existed in chronic rheumatism. Very distressing I had for years, and despaired of ever being free from it. Your Pills have done me more good than any medicine I have taken. I am your friend and patient in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. They cured me, but safer, by purging much less than those of others I have taken. Yours, ALEX. WOOD.

SENATE CHAMBER, ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatism—a painful disease, which has lasted me for years. VINCENT MATTHEWS.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and efficacious.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammatory Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of Ayer's Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although valuable remedies in skilful hands, is dangerous in a popular pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN CIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet in the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects, and there are few communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and insidious diseases of the throat and lungs. With it the chief powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it seems the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young children. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe that Ayer's Pectoral prevents many cases of consumption it pretends than these it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, now so very common, and so human skill can master the formidable that lurked out on the whole, and life saved. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and so they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need only state that long experience has proved its efficacy.

We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our art can bestow.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known National Consolidated Lotteries, of which B. FRANKLIN & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to supervise and certify that everything is conducted with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests or parties who reside at a distance are well cared for and all their business transacted with the utmost fairness and impartiality. Another feature in our favor is the fact that our prizes are paid in full, without any deduction, as is too generally the practice in other lotteries. Our system of dividing tickets and selling by the single number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and 1 ninety-fourth of a ticket vary in amount from $1 to $100. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1836.)

(No. 75 State st., opp. Kilby st., Boston.)

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, he now offers his services to the public of the United States: also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, to Foreign Countries, prepared and despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents, Inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents or ascertaining the probability of their success, that are not, if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below show the extent of business in this line, and the AT TALENT OF THE PARTIES, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has never failed to obtain patents, and continues, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice of the subscriber during the last twenty years has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who were more intelligent, more attentive, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful patent solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in the form most favorable to a fair and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE, late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the duties and rules of practice of the Patent Office, and with him as one of the most competent and trustworthy of the class of persons who practise before it, I have had official intercourse.

☞ The Spices are put up in 1 lb tins, and are warranted to be pure. The Teas are warranted to be strictly a pure article, and only need a trial to establish them in public favor.

☞ PASTRY COOKS—We would call the attention of customers and dealers to our Spanish Cutters as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by a patent process of grinding, one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 1 lb. ground other.

☞ DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our Mills, and put up in packages having our trade mark, and may be relied upon as the best and most approved mixture of dandelion and coffee.

TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root.—This article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, in a manner superior to any heretofore offered, and warranted, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee," may be relied upon as the GENUINE ARTICLE. The proportion used is about one half the quantity of Coffee. The price is 25 cents per pound, and it is warranted to be the same as that which has been sold for fifty cents a pound for Dragoon.

The medicinal properties of Dandelion are well known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root, with the addition of a small quantity of Coffee, mixed with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found cheap and economical, as a family beverage, one pound of which being equal to two pounds of coffee. It is prescribed by many eminent physicians to invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Bilious attacks, &c.

☞ Be careful to observe that all our Coffees have our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee."

☞ To Grocers and Dealers—Our goods are made on purpose for them to supply their customers at the same low rate.

☞ TO CASH PURCHASERS—Our object being to make large sales with small profits, we offer inducements which cannot be afforded by those who do business on the credit system; and we confidently invite an examination of the goods and prices, as our prices are compared with those of any other house.

ELIAKIM LIBBY.

The Portland Journal says, "this unfortunate man, to whom a correspondent has recently referred, is now dead; and a surviving brother, residing in this city, hands us a painful account. We commend it to serious perusal. It utters language easily understood; and speaks in tones which command attention."

DIED, in Scarboro', Eliakim Libby, aged 65 years.

This man, to my knowledge, and that of all who knew him, had been in the habit of drinking a irituous liquor when and where he could get it; but as long as his mother lived, she never would allow any brought into the house.

From the time the Maine Law came into force, and during Mr. Dow's first administration, he could not get a drop in Portland, for nearly nine months. Then he would go home with his team, sober.

But afterwards, he would go over to Coalkiln corner, to one Nicholas Hanson's, now dead, and there get his liquor; and that rumseller would go down to his house, while our mother was yet living, and take corn and oats; and so much of a brute was he, that once, when mother would not let him have grain, he took the old lady's setting goose from her nest, and the gander, too, and carried them off in pay for keeping her son drunk for two or three days at a time. I mention this to show what a rumseller will do with a full knowledge that a man will get intoxicated.

We always knew where our brother got his rum in Portland, for his team would be found there. It could be traced up Congress street to a place just above Mr. Blake's bake-house; and there it was found six weeks ago; and then was the time the rumsellers did the fatal deed—for knowing that he would get intoxicated, they sold him rum, and being old and infirm, they knew it would be next to impossible for him to get home on his team. On his way home, near Vaughan's bridge, there stood a other rumshop; there he got his bottle filled anew, and took his drink again, and then he could not keep up with his team, and froze his feet, one of them so badly, that it had to be amputated. But that would not save his life. Poor man! he is gone! and the writer of these few lines knows where he got his rum.

I have one favor to ask of those that travel by those places, and that is, not to drink! rum the same tumbler the old man drank out of, lest it be marked with the rumseller's fingers and frozen drops of blood.

If the old man had been murdered on his way home, by some highwaymen, what a cry-out there would have been? He might have been struck down by one blow, and that would have ended his suffering. But look, my friends, and see him lay on his bed for six long weeks, suffering as he did for the profit to a rumseller on a single pint of rum! The man who sold the liquor, and the man who filled his bottle, they are both well known. They may answer it to the law—they must to their conscience and their God.

J. S. L.

Portland, Feb., 1857.

Considerable excitement was gotten up in Winstead, last week, by the sudden disappearance of two little school boys, who it was feared were drowned. They were found finally, seven miles from home, drenched with rain, "going to California," because they had "such hard lessons to get," and they were afraid of a flogging at home, in case they did not get them! So taking each other's hands, the little "round-a-bouts" put out for California, with, perhaps, as much calculation, as one half that go to that delectable region.—New Haven Register.

SUICIDE.—On Sunday the 25th ult., Mr. Samuel Pitter of Little Deer Isle, cut his throat with a razor. He was living at the time with Capt Silas L. Hardy—was an old man about 70 years of age—and addicted to drinking—and has formerly been a seafaring man and very smart. On Saturday previous to his death he told Captain Hardy that he had rather die than go to the almshouse, where he expected to be obliged to go.—Ellsworth American.

"Doctors will write, their prescriptions in Latin,", said Mrs. Partington holding the document at arm's length as though from a distant view she could see through the mystery better. "Folks knowed once when they took medicine what they took, but now, written with a furring tongue, epecac is emetically sealed to us, and calumny is something else. And why don't they be more particular too in describing a thing? Here he told me when I put the Indian poultice on to the patience—and heaven knows he wasn't half patient enough—that I must give him something to keep it from striking in! Jest as if a poultice as big as that could strike in any way!" Mrs. Partington smiled as the last idea crossed her mind, but administered the drops, nevertholess.—Boston Sat. Eve. Gaz.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Monday Mr. Edward N. Wiggin was employed in painting the top of the gasometer of the Naumkeag Steam Cotton Mill, and unfortunately took a light to enable him to see more readily. By some mischance his own weight tipped the gasometer so as to allow the escape of a column of gas, which was ignited by his light and caused an explosion which started the roof and burned Mr. Wiggin severely. He retained presence of mind enough, however, to hold his hands to his nose and mouth so as to avoid inhaling the gas, and to run and jump into the water tank which was near at hand. He was so seriously injured that he died in the evening. Mr. Wiggin was a native of Tuftonboro', N. H., about thirty four years old, and leaves a wife and three children.—Salem Register.

PROGRESS OF INFIDELITY AT THE NORTH.—Black Republicanism—alias Abolitionism—is in deadly conflict with the Bible and Christianity; we have seen evidence enough to satisfy us. In New England, especially, the spirit of insubordination and hostility to the authority of Scriptures is rampant and portentious, clearing the way for the erection of the Pandemonium which they would substitute for the Evangelical Church. To show how this spirit is working in the land of the Pilgrims, a motion to instruct the Judiciary Committee of the Massachusetts House of Delegates to report a bill in favor of allowing Infidels to testify in Courts of law, which they are now prohibited from doing, recently passed by a vote of 208 yeas to 95 nays. We are glad to see that 95 members of the House took a stand against it, and hope that as these many righteous men are to be found in Sodom, the city will be saved from the threatened destruction.

So says the Petersburgh Va. Intelligencer. But what will the Intelligencer say to the opinion of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, against the old common-law doctrine? Hemmed in by "infidelity" on both sides,—Massachusetts and North Carolina,—how will the slaveholding christianity of Virginia maintain itself? Here is the item on North Carolina.

THE SUPREME COURT OF NORTH CAROLINA have delivered an elaborate opinion affirming the right of Universalists to testify in Court, which had been denied. The reasoning of the decision applies equally well to infidels and the spirit of it is in conformity to the bill which has been introduced into the Massachusetts Legislature.

STUDIES IN SCHOOLS.—We do not believe that any quicker progress is made in schools by putting heavy tasks upon the children. Yet from the numerous studies in schools, or some other cause, children are compelled to employ their evenings, or the time in which they should play, in learning their tasks for the next day. Short lessons would admit of a more thorough understanding of them, and, if a show of proficiency is desired at the end of a year, a better exhibit would be made on examination day, of real attainment, than could be possible if the little heads were crammed with over measure of studies, revealing but a smattering of knowledge of any of them. We have been shown geography lessons and arithmetic lessons, given to a child for a next day exercise, that hours of painful effort at home were required to master: and on being spoken with, about it, the little thing said she must do it, or be subjected to "checks" for failure. The road to learning is a hard road to travel, at best, but fearfully so, when the ones who travel it are compelled to carry such heavy loads. Teachers should be considerate.—Boston Sat. Eve. Gaz.

So they should, and Committees and parents too. Six hours is plenty long enough for anybody to study—and school-hours the time, and the school-room the place, to do that in. We don't believe in scholars "taking their books home." If they have more lessons than they can learn in school-time, lop off some of them. r.

☞ A gentleman connected with the Warren St. M. E. Sunday School, Boston, missing the cars, forty miles distant, on Saturday, started on foot at eight o'clock in the evening, determined to attend the Sabbath School on Sunday. He walked the whole way, and reached home at eight o'clock on Sunday morning. He must be one of the teachers, as well as one of the walkers.

FATAL TRAP.—Near Troy, Bradford county, Pa., a woman had been annoyed by the mysterious disappearance of her butter from the premises, without being able to detect the thief. At last she procured a quantity of strychnine and worked it into a batch of butter. This she placed where it would be taken by the thief. A few days thereafter two children of an Irish boarding house keeper fell suddenly ill and died, and several of the boarders likewise fell sick, and were, at last accounts, in extreme danger. The woman was immediately arrested and lodged in Tonawanda Jail.

PLOWING IN FEBRUARY.—The Ogdensburg Republican of Monday says: So thorough was our late thaw, the ground was in condition for the plow. We hear of one farmer residing within four miles of this village, who broke up about two acres on Wednesday, the 18th inst. Plowing in St. Lawrence county, in February, is as strange as snow among the everglades.

RAISING TEA.—A correspondent of the Western Recorder, writing from Greenville, S. C., says:

I am within a few miles of the place where the experiment was made of raising tea. It has proved a failure. The plant will grow well enough, but wages are too high in this country. We cannot afford to pick, to roll up and dry any sort of leaves here for a half a dollar a pound. In China, where a man is hired for a dollar a month and boards himself, it may be done.

INTEMPERANCE AND DEATH.—Joseph Miller, resident at No. 60 Gould street, South Boston, was arrested by the Police on Friday evening, on a warrant against him as a common drunkard. He is reported to have been in the habit of beating his wife, Elizabeth, who died on Saturday.—She leaves four children, the eldest not over eight years of age. Miller was brought before the Police Court and held in $200 for trial.

From the Traveller it appears that the treatment of Mrs. Miller by her husband, Joseph Miller, while upon her dying bed, has been brutal in the extreme, and probably tended, in no small degree, to hasten her death.

The husband is of intemperate habits, and in the failure of other means to supply the wants of his depraved appetite, has at various times attempted by threats and even by force, to obtain from his wife a portion of her little pittance which she had saved for the support of herself and children. She has been heard to scream when her husband shook her violently as she laid in bed, and bent the joints of her hands, in order to force her, to obtain release from this modern system of torture, into compliance with his demands for money. Thursday, a neighbor who had heard her screams, entered the room of the wife, and found there the husband, who was again attempting to extort money, and who compelled the neighbor to leave the room. In order to free the wife from this system of persecution, so that her remaining hours of life might be spent in peace, a police officer was sent for, and the husband was arrested on the charge of being a common drunkard.

☞ The people of Sylvania, near Toledo, Ohio, are greatly excited inconsequence of the murder of Mrs. R. J. M. Ward, by her husband. The citizens found evidence that the woman had been foully murdered, and that her body had been burnt in her own house! In a pile of ashes near the house human bones were found—an upper jaw almost entire, and pieces of a skull: also two finger rings, which were recognized as those worn by Mrs. Ward. Ward is a tailor, and married his wife at Adrian, Mich., last summer. She was his third wife. He has been committed.

THE BURDELL CASE.—The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal states that Dr. Spicer, who pretends that he received a letter from Dr. Burdell, acknowledging his marriage to Mrs. Cunningham, is the mere tool of her and Eckel; that, when he offered to testify before the coroner's Jury, he was as full as he could hold of rum, and that, when he testified before the Grand Jury, he involved himself in such repeated, gross, and palpable contradictions, that the Grand Jury did not believe one word he said.

DEATH OF THE ORIGINAL UNCLE TOM.—The Indianapolis Journal mentions the death in that city, on Sunday last, of Thomas Magruder, an old negro, aged about one hundred years. He is supposed to have been the one who suggested the name and the leading features of the character in Mrs. Stowe's novel, "Uncle Tom's Cabin." This supposition is based on the coincidence of name and character, and on the fact, says the Journal, "that Henry Ward Beecher, during his residence here, was a constant visitor of 'Uncle Tom's,' well acquainted with his history, and a sincere admirer of his virtues. We have been told that Mrs. Stowe herself sometimes called to see the old man. 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' too, was the name of his house among his acquaintances, and was a familiar phrase here long before Mrs. Stowe immortalized it. At all events, we know that it is the impression with all the friends of Mrs. Stowe and her brother, in this city, that 'Old Uncle Tom' was the original, or at least the suggestion of the hero of the 'Cabin.'"

☞ The law increasing the pay of the officers of the army, gives Lieutenant General Scott $1,828, making his yearly compensation $10,620. The increased pay of each brigadier general is $1,100; colonel $800; lieutenant colonel $650; major $550; captain $480; lieutenant $300—making their salaries, respectively, $7,500, $3,000, $2,000 $2,500, $2,200, $1,800, and $1,600. The average increase is $500 to each officer, or in all $525,000.—An old law provides that any increase in the pay of the army shall relatively affect that of the marine corps.

IMPORTS INTO NEW YORK.—In one week, says the Express, in cigars we invested the sum of $87,372; brandy, 50,339; rum, $4,924; whiskey, 2,979; gin, 23,001:—we also bought $9,763 worth of ale, and $3,710 of porter; $37,644 for Wines, and $11,246 for Champagne.

THE WILLIAMS COURT OUTRAGE.—The Boston Bee of Thursday says:—The inquest summoned by Dr. Charles H. Stedman, Coroner, to investigate the outrage upon the person of Ellen Desmond, and the circumstances attending her death, commenced several days since, was concluded on Wednesday evening, when a verdict was rendered which will be found below. Over twenty witnesses were examined.—The woman was most grossly and brutally violated, her person desecrated in a beastly manner, and in the desperation of her agony she leaped from the third story of the building where the miscreants had left her, the injuries growing out of which caused the most intense suffering, which was closed by a welcome death. The following is the verdict:

That the deceased came to her death at the Massachusetts General Hospital, in this city, February 10th, 1857, at 11 o'clock P. M., from fracture of the spine and other injuries received on the night of January 18th and 19th, 1857, by throwing herself from a window in the fourth story of a building called the "Herald Building," in Williams Court, in this city; she having been impelled to the act through fright, caused by the violation of her person and assaults made on her body by James Holland, Robert Sullivan, James White and Samuel A. Goodrich.

Dr. Stedman is entitled to much credit for the persistent and thorough manner in which he has pursued the investigation into this most damnable affair. Holland and Sullivan are still at large; Goodrich and White have been arrested.

These scoundrels, the fit patrons of the drunkeries and stews of Boston, are worthy of the most condign punishment—imprisonment for life at labor in solitary cells would seem most most appropriate:—feed them with bread, no meat—and give them water to drink—no stimulants, no excitants—let them work, and think, and read the bible if they choose, or let it lie closed in their cells,—but give them no book beside, nor newspaper.

Sullivan, another of the scoundrels, has since been arrested.

RATIFICATON MEETING OF COL. FORNEY'S HOUSEKEEPERS.—The Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Ledger says:

"A singular circumstance happened to Colonel Forney's residence, in this city, which was discovered a few days ago. It had been closed ever since he left here for Pennsylvania last fall, and intending to return during the next month, he had sent on orders to have it aired and cleaned. On opening the house every part of the furniture, from cellar to kitchen, had been gnawed to pieces by the rats, and the bed room floor looked as if the recent terrible snow-storm had covered them with its fleecy feathers."

☞ The head of Verger, who was lately executed for the assassination of the Archbishop of Paris, has been taken to the amphitheatre of the Ecole de Medecine, to be subjected to phrenological examination, and to allow casts to be taken from it. The authorities have also caused all the papers written by Verger, after he was conveyed to the prison of La Roquette, to be burnt.

☞ On Monday evening, Feb. 23d, Rev. Rufus W. Clark of East Boston, delivered an address on Temperance, to a large and interested audience, in the First Congregational Church in Rockport, Mass.

MR. BUCHANAN'S INAUGURAL SUIT.—Mr. Buchanan has got his inaugural coat made by an honest Dutch tailor of Lancaster, who has patriotically stitched it with stars, representing the thirty-one States of the Union.

LIQUOR IN MICHIGAN.—The Michigan Legislature has amended the prohibitory liquor law of that State so as to exempt from its provisions the sale of beer, wine and cider.

☞ Lawrence's Carminative, we learn, has a good reputation, is prescribed by some of the best physicians in New Hampshire, and we hear it well spoken of. See advertisement in to-day's paper.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

TO THE MILLION.—Prof. Wood, of St. Louis, has, after years of deep study and untiring research, succeeded in presenting to the public an article superior to any now in use, and indeed it is truly a wonderful discovery—we advert to his Hair Restorative; the only article that has been completely successful in cheating age of his gray locks, removing dandruff, itching, scrofula, &c. It restores the gray head to more than the original beauty; adds new lustre to locks already luxuriant; having the effect on coarse, harsh hair to render it glossy and watery; fastens permanently hair that is loose or falling, and many other qualities which will become known as soon as used.

The pride of mankind is singularly developed in the keeping and arrangement of the hair; perhaps from the fact that it is the only portion of the human body that we can train in any way we choose; how important then, having this portion left to our care, that we should use all the means science has placed in our hands to render it beautiful and permanent. If you would have beautiful hair, glossy hair, permanent hair, hair with its natural color elegantly preserved to extreme old age, don't fail to purchase Wood's Hair Restorative.—[Daily Iowa State Gazette.

LOCAL.

THE GLASS WORKERS.—We cordially recommend the Brothers Woodroffe to the notice and patronage of all our readers.—Nowhere can an hour be more pleasantly or profitably spent, than in their inviting room—witnessing their manufacture of solid or hollow articles of glass, or the wonderful working of their beautiful steam engine. Here may be learned, too, many a lesson in philosophy, not "dreamt of" by every one; for these young gentlemen are men of science as well as skilful artizans.

This evening, as will be seen by their advertisement, they will give an entertainment in Temple Hall, when, in addition to their usual performances, which are worth more than the 15 cents charged for admission, they will distribute many splendid articles of their manufacture, as gifts among the audience. For particulars, see their small bills and advertisement.

THE PRINTING CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION. In answer to inquiries at home and abroad, whether any other than mere newspaper reports of the late interesting Printing Celebration in Portsmouth, has been made,—we would state that we have never heard of any—or rather, that we have only heard of it, and have never been blessed with a sight of it. And about five months having now elapsed since the holding of that literary festival, we begin to doubt the appearance of the oft-promised record.

We merely refer to the matter now, to express our regret that so important and interesting a feature of this celebration should be omitted—especially in reference to a Printing Celebration. We go in, even now, for appropriating a part of the $250 of the unspent funds of the committee of arrangements, for this purpose.

SMELT BAIT.—For three months past frogs have been at at a premium in Newburyport, as bait for smelts. The hind quarters of the frog only are used, and thus the consumption is large; in fact, the supply has hardly been equal to the demand. The price has ranged from one to three cents per head, which has allowed a very fair remuneration to the juveniles who have exhumed them from their winter quarters in springs and bogs.—Herald.

About here, various articles have been used as bait for smelts—bits of beef, &c.; but we have not heard that the "spring chickens" have been disturbed before their time. Beach worms are, we believe, considered the best thing, by those who know of them, and where and how to procure them. They are dug from the salt flats, at low tide; and it requires perhaps as much experience and skill to get this bait, as it does to use it to good purpose afterwards.

The smelt fishery has been followed to some extent, on Great Bay this winter;—but not so generally or successfully as last season. The weather has been unfavorable to out-door employments generally.

☞ The Inauguration Ball, to be held at Congress Hall to-morrow evening, will no doubt be one of the grandest things of the kind, that has come off in Portsmouth for years. Many of whom the Democratic Party can't claim allegiance (though equally good democrats with any of them,) will of course be there; and with a fine hall neatly decorated, the best of music, and a good company, the dancers ought to enjoy themselves. Br. Fuller, of the Gazette, is one of the chief managers of the affair; and will see that things are done up in shape.

☞ Mr. Whiting's lecture before the Granite State Lyceum, advertised for Monday evening was postponed to Monday next—the inclement weather detaining many of the season ticket holders at home last night.

Hutchins' Hair Dye.

The very best now in use, as the many thousands that have tried it will testify.

THE great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price this Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, Feb. 28.

The Senate passed several House bills, and also the deficiency appropriation bill, striking out from the latter, the appropriation of $185,000 for books for members. In evening session, the legislative and judicial appropriation bill being under discussion, an amendment was adopted, creating a mission to Persia. Another amendment, proposing to apportion department clerks according to the federal ratio of representation, was discussed and rejected, after which the bill was passed.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, a resolution was adopted requesting the President to communicate to the Senate, all the correspondence with Gov. Geary relative to the affairs in Kansas.

The House took up the resolution to expel Mr. Edwards of N. Y., for corruption. Mr. Edwards spoke in his own defence, and ended by resigning his seat. The resolution, expelling Messrs. Simonton and Triplett, reporters, was adopted. The bill to protect the people against secret and corrupt influence in matters of legislation, was discussed and passed; afterwards this vote was reconsidered, and the bill was laid on the table.

[Very well that it was,—for, as described by Mr. Quitman and Humphrey Marshall, it was one of the silliest, most unconstitutional, preposterous affairs ever proposed. It was fairly of a piece, however, with most of the work of the corruption committee.]

The House refused to concur in the Senate's amendments to the Tariff bill. A Committee of Conference was therefore chosen.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Mr. Buchanan dines at Baltimore to-morrow, and will be here in the evening. Our hotels are overflowing, and office-seekers are abundant.

Mr. Lee, who killed Mr. Rume yesterday, has been discharged from the Pension office. There is much excitement consequent on the event, and Lee, who is out on bail, has gone to Virginia to avoid unpleasant consequences.

Wm. B. Draper, who was connected with the Japan expedition as chief of the telegraph corps, was attacked with paralysis on Saturday. The whole of his right side is paralysed, and he is speechless.

FROM KANSAS.—St Louis, 27.—A letter from Lecompton, dated 17th, says that Gen. Richardson of the Kansas militia, and member of the Territorial Council, died on the 14th. Capt. Walker had been arrested, and examined before Judge Cato. He was held to bail in $13,000.

A bill had passed the Legislature, giving Judges jurisdiction in criminal cases, and people may be tried before the petty courts without a jury and without an indictment.

FROM KANSAS.—St. Louis, Feb. 28th.—Advices from Kansas state that a law has passed both branches to punish rebellion with death. All resistance to territorial law or authority is declared rebellion. The bill repealing the test oaths, which passed through the Council, has been almost unanimously defeated in the House. The Council condemned by resolutions, the outrage on Gov. Geary, while the House fully justifies Sherrod. Geary fears assassination.

DEATH OF SHERROD CONTRADICTED.—The latest advices from Kansas state that Sherrod was not killed, and that Mr. Jones who was arrested, was not the Governor's Secretary. He had been held to bail in $5000.

Lawrence's Carminative,

OR

CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.

THIS Invaluable Preparation is a favorite scientific prescription of one of the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in New England, and one who has been as successful as any other in the treating of

DISEASES OF CHILDREN,

and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically

A CHILD'S MEDICINE,

and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy sure to be followed by a "Dose of Physic."

The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty, and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues.

The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhœa, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness,

and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; sure to regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour Stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS,

and parents who value rest not full to buy a bottle, as they may depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir;—Having made trial of your Carminative, in several severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Fever, with the entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine within which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.

NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 23, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the sallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.

Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1856.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infancy,—a class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention the coming season to the location of Warrants, Land buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than it sold here. Or Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense.

Also, for sale 440 acres of fine Timber Land.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN LAWRENCE.—Yesterday morning three men, named Sullivan, Hickey, and St. Annie, while clearing the ice from the railway leading to the turbine wheel of the Atlantic Mill, were precipitated into the canal by the breaking of the plank upon which they were standing.—Hickey was carried by the water into the wheel, from which he was taken dead.—The other two are not expected to live.—Ledger, 28th.

Pat was hungry, and got out of the cars for refreshments. The cars very thoughtlessly went on without him. Pat's ire was up. "Ye spalpeen!" he cried, starting on the run, and shaking his fist as he flew after the train. "Stop there, ye ole steam wagin; ye murtherin stame engine—ye've got a passenger aboard that's left behind!"

ACCIDENT. — Patrick Hannigan, while intoxicated, Friday afternoon, fell near the corner of Tremont and Bromfield streets, Boston, fracturing one of his thumbs, so that the bone projected through the flesh.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURGH, PA., May 1, 1856.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills, which seems to be my remedy for all ills they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice since you first made them known to the public, and say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequent by they are a wholesome purgative for derangements of the organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disorder so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., NOV. 14, 1855

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She has been sick and unable to do her work, but shook off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had ill health and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others who had tried to pay him from two to twenty dollars bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Imparity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in the city. I regulate the system and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

J. V. HIMES.

WARNAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fluids of the body.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her face and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawks, of the Rockdale Epis. Church.

PHILADELPHIA, Germantown Road, Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which could not be mitigated. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

BENJAMIN CHAMBER, Bayou Rouge, La., 9 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been subject to the severest attacks of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years. VINCENT SIDDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Pits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that follow quickly after its improper use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN CIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country, but have experienced within some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtile and dangerous disease of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that stealthily upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by its companionship it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds at first, if you can. Let it not be said, that until no human skill can master the invasion, it wakes that, fastened on the vitals, and past its sway. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need but explore them to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and this we can do from the fact that the agent which our skill can furnish for their use is the best.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known and long established Lottery, of which R. FRANCK & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as safely in their hands as if they were personally present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland Lotteries, and receive any special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled for the first drawing after the time when the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received in advance. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and ternary combination. Prices vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Examinations made to Ascertain or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent issued, by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not equal to any agency in the Union, which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind can by the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, he has his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and the facilities of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, Many persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Office, and there were none who have conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in such a form as to secure them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the Present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1856—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Prince & Co.'s Improved Melodeons.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.
Employing Two Hundred Men, and finishing

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000 of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent, 22d May, 1855—by means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the instrument while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Heretofore all Melodeons made by us, have been published with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55

"Messrs Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Melodeon, an instrument during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our instruments from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855.

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen.—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a more perfect instrument it is! It has been played on by Wallace, Dodd, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others; and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very really, JAMES E. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equal to any that we have heretofore made. Our instruments are finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

AN EXPENSIVE POLICY.—In some of our cities (says the Puritan Recorder, published in Boston) the Magistracy think it inexpedient to execute the laws enacted to protect the people from the manifold evils of the rum traffic. But their policy, to say nothing more of it, is very expensive. It appears from the returns published by the Secretary of State, that the whole number of paupers supported in Lynn, the last year, was 627. Out of these 550 were made paupers by intemperance, in themselves or others. The whole expense of supporting the paupers through the year was 7500 dollars; of course it cost Lynn 7631 dollars to pay the pauper expenses attending the rum trade in that city, to say nothing of many other and worse expenses attending it. It appears also, by the same returns of the Secretary, that while the average per cent. of the whole pauper tax, paid for intemperance, throughout the State, is 34 per cent. of the whole pauper tax; those counties, which contain the cities that do not execute the liquor law, pay double that per cent. Suffolk county, that is Boston and Chelsea, stands at the head, in respect to the proportion of taxation for intemperance; paying 75 per cent. of all which it pays for the support of paupers, as a tax for the free liquor which it maintains, in spite of the law. Essex stands next, paying 63 per cent. Middlesex stands at the same. No other county goes higher than 47 per cent. That is reached by Hampden. Dukes and Nantucket pay 10 per cent.; Plymouth, 20; Hampshire, 27; Norfolk, 24. The inference is that the city governments, virtually protecting the same traffic, are very expensive governments.

We may add, that the proportion of criminals is about the same as that of paupers, making a pretty fair retribution for the luxury of drunkenness, and for the privilege of selling the enemy which men put in the mouth to steal away the brain.

☞ It is currently reported that J. Glancy Jones, who is very seriously ill at his home in Pennsylvania, owes his sickness to the recent rat poisoning epidemic at Washington, accounts of which have so carefully been kept out of the newspapers. It is said too that his appointment to a place in the Cabinet depends on his health. Should he not recover in season, he would be literally rattled out of the place.

SOUTHERN HOPE FOR KANSAS.—We do not yet despair of Kansas. We are of that hopeful class who never concede the miscarriage of their cause until they are beaten, and no mistake. It is not our policy to dishearten our friends and embolden our enemies, by a too precipitate foreboding of defeat. When we have strong faith in a principle, we are apt to be confident of its ultimate triumph. And so, we are not yet willing to surrender Kansas to the Abolitionists. We are for making another effort, and a vigorous effort too, to repair the losses we have suffered by our insane negligence. It is not too late to redeem Kansas, if the people of the South will only be equal to the urgency of the occasion. We have friends in the field and all that is necessary is to give them adequate support.

But if we are going to rescue Kansas, no time is to be lost. If we hesitate many moments we will be beaten beyond the hope of recovering our position. Shall not something be done for Kansas, and done without delay? What that "something" should be, and how that "something" must be accomplished, we leave to others to determine. We discharge our duty in announcing the necessity for instant effort, and appealing to the friends of the South to redeem Kansas from the grasp of Abolitionism.—Richmond Enquir.

☞ Mrs. Winters, wife of an Englishman now living in New York, mysteriously disappeared on Sunday last. Her husband was arrested and committed to await an examination. On Saturday morning much to the joy of the husband, the lost wife was found in the Tombs, where she was sent on Monday for getting intoxicated. For once Winters felt truly grateful.

LOWELL POLICE.—John Ewing and Thos. Ryan are ordered in $200 to the Court of Common Pleas, to answer to charges of being common sellers of liquors. The case of Eldad Fox, charged with being a common seller, was continued.—News.

TOO MUCH STUDY.

Much study is a weariness of the flesh, quoth Solomon; and doubtless Solomon was about right. The Newburyport Herald maintains the ground that the good scholars among our school children are likely to kill themselves with study. Our remedy for the evil would be, good long vacations, for all our schools, as long as college vacations if it could be so arranged. The Herald says 'the over-working of school children is an evil that has long been seen by a portion of the community, but till recently it has not awakened general attention. It has often been noticed that the brightest children, at four or five years of age, are the dullest men and women, at thirty or forty, and the reverse. Oftentimes this arises from the indiscreet action of parents and teachers. The stupid, children as they are termed, are neglected, as we call it. "It is no matter whether John attends school or not, he will never make a scholar; it is no matter whether Lizzie stays at home or not: she does not study; and does not learn."—Lucky John and Lizzie; and unfortunate is it for the brighter brothers and sisters, whom the father is proud of, and the mother pets, because greedily they devour books, and the teachers kill them by exciting their vanity, and using them to show off in the schools.

It is very doubtful, if upon the whole, children who are not put early to work, derive any advantages by attending school before they are ten years old; and it appears to us that they suffer serious evils in being put to studies which require much thought and labor, before they are six or seven. Neither the mind or the body is prepared for the exertion. The only evil in their not attending, is in towns and cities, where if they are not destroyed in the schools, they are in some worse places. And after they commence school, but for the reason, we have named above, they would be better off with six or eight months' attendance annually, than with twelve. This is obvious from the fact that children from the country, are in advance of those from the cities; and more than three-fourths of the strong-minded men of the cities, are born and educated in the country."

Recently this subject has been discussed in Charlestown, and E. E. Bradshaw, one of the School Committee there, delivered a public lecture, which was followed by remarks from various other gentlemen; and as it is important to all to have correct ideas of the matter, we give a portion of his address as it was reported.

Soon after entering on his duties, he called on the teachers of three schools, and made enquiries concerning the ability of their pupils. One said she had had six bright children under her charge, but three of them had recently died—one of consumption—one of scarlatina, and one of brain fever. The season was so cold that the speaker had soon to leave the school In question: but not until he had seen children shivering with cold, and in a condition very inconsistent with the preservation of their proper health. There were among the children some whose appearance denoted great intellectual capacity, but whose minds were manifestly overwrought. This overworking was a common thing in schools, especially among smart children, who become so over-taxed by the tasks imposed that febrile diseases ensued, and others of a less fatal but yet more lamentable character—merging in semi-idiocy. Various instances were related, in which the health and lives of children were sacrificed to the ambition of teachers to make a fine show at examinations. Consumption was a common result of this overworking of the mind, along with the concurrent neglect of physical exercise. These instances were numerous and startling: and the effects they exemplified were described to be so insidious, parents did not know what the cause, was and were, generally, in ignorance of the abuses of the school system having anything to do with their debility. Of sixteen who entered a certain high school, only nine graduated; the others had to leave to save themselves from being educated to death. "Early ripe, early rotten," was a fact too little known to parents.

Quotations were read from a work by Dr. Brigham of New York, showing the peculiar construction and consistency of the brain in children, and the tendency which the most trifling stretch of its functions had, to generate diseases of the nervous description; that a premature mental capacity in children, was very commonly, a symptom of physical disorder; and that the intellectual faculties which were overstrained were short lived in activity, and rarely resulted in the constitution of a solid thinking man. A child that understands too many things, as a man generally had no more than a very superficial description of intelligence. Biographical instances were pointed out in proof of this fact.

A little girl at a school in that neighborhood, ten years of age, was studying French, Latin, Greek, and had three hours' exercise on the piano per diem. She was made sick and when recovered, was so querulous and unhappy, and so un-childlike that it was pitiful to see her.

A boy similarly over-worked had grown none since he was ten years of age, and now was over twelve: and this solely on account of the neglect of Dr. Jackson's rule that one third of a child's time should be spent in the play ground. Sheridan, Sir Isaac Newton, Goldsmith, Gibbon, David, Dryden, Milton, Swift, and Sir Walter Scott, besides many other eminent men, all were dull scholars; and the lecturer professed that he was partial to a boy who was somewhat to blame in this particular.

In the case of pupils of high schools, the demands made on their memory, in the shape of study, were such as to entirely preclude exercise. Along with this demanded study, other accomplishments had to be studied by young girls, and to these she had to devote herself in the moments which accident might present for a little exercise. The doctor is called in, and recommends fresh air, and a removal to the sea beach takes place, where the maiden of seventeen partially recovers her health to enter upon her matrimonial destiny—a thing all brain and no physique. Prematurely old, she never enjoys a feeling of youth. Nervous herself, and giving birth to weakly constituted progeny, her strained education has made itself the grave of her health, pleasures and affections.

After the address, Dr. Alcott was called upon, and said that one in four of all the deaths in that city, were from consumption arising from scrofula, which was induced by the school treatment of children in a very large proportion. This was the special reason why the reform spoken of should be carried out. One half of those who died of consumption—or one eighth of the whole population—died when young—mere children, and there could be no doubt as to the prevailing cause as he had stated it. He indorsed all that had been said by Mr. Bradshaw. People were alarmed because of cholera and virulent fevers; but this promoter of consumption was immeasurably more to be feared.

EDITORIAL CONVENTION.—The editors and printers of newspapers, &c., in New Jersey held a Convention in Trenton, on the 26th of February; to consider and adopt measures to further the interests of the craft.—The press of the State was well represented, and good must come of their movements. Various mean gouging games, by court officers and others, in the manner of advertising, were exposed; and remedies proposed.

There has been considerable talk, at various times, of holding such a Convention in this State. Why can't we New Hampshire editors have a gathering of the sort, during the coming summer? say at Manchester or Concord? perhaps the latter—and during the June session of General Court. Who says aye?

PORTSMOUTH BOYS ABROAD.—My Dear Chronicle:—Our good old town has always had the reputation of sending forth some of the smartest men in all professions; and it is my wish to call your attention to some splendid specimens of Engraving executed by Mr. James F. Hartshorn of Boston, son of Mr. James F. Hutchorn of this city.

When in Boston a few days ago, I had my attention called to the elegant service of silver, consisting of ten pieces, manufactured by Messrs. Bailey, Kettell & Chapman, 205 Washington street, and presented to E. C. Bailey, Esq., Postmaster of Boston, by the clerks in the Office. This service is engraved in a most beautiful manner, by Mr. Hartshorn, who executed the whole work. Messrs. B. K. & Co. have also on exhibition the Service of Plate presented to the President of the Mercantile Library Association, the engraving of which was executed by Mr. Hartshorn, and is a fine specimen of his art. The work on either of the above will well repay any of your readers for a visit, when in Boston; and they will admire all the more the talent displayed, on learning that Mr. Hartshorn received no instruction from any one, but by his own energy is earning for himself a prominent position as one of the best Engravers in Boston. S.

☞ A Mr. J. W. Fabens, of Salem, implicated in a filibuster trial at New York, offered to state what he knew of the connexion of Mr. Sidney Webster and President Pierce with himself and others concerned in filibustering on the Isthmus.—The Court declined to hear it, whereupon Fabens publishes the matter in the New York Herald. It comes about as near proving the guilt of Mr. W. and the President, as the corruption committee's report comes to proving the guilt of Welch, Gilbert and other Representatives. That is to say, it is no proof at all, but only ground for the most violent suspicion.

☞ The Morning Star, the vessel so well known throughout the land, was spoken on the 13th of January in lat. 8 South, 34 west, then 34 days out from Boston, bound to the Sandwich Islands.

☞ A Canadian horse at Nashua, having slipped, during the day, at his work, as soon as he was unharnessed, went of his own accord to the blacksmith's shop.

From the Wampanoag Gazette.

TO JULIA.

Deal gently with the world, dear friend,
If thus thou'dst have it deal with thee;
Speak nobly of its honest worth,
But of its faults in charity;
Look on its bright side, now, to-day,
There's time enough to grieve to-morrow;
Pass discontent and murmurings by,
And smile at Grief and laugh at Sorrow.

When gloomy Cynics growl and fret,
And say the world is full of woe,
Why, don't believe them, THEY are false,
And not the world—so let them go!—
The earth is full of love and truth,
Bright Friendship sparkles everywhere,
There's not a day but brings some good
To hearts deserving of a share!

The man 'a a fool who mocks at life,
And calls it but a fleeting breath,
Ye' looks to find a happiness
Beyond the gloomy shade of death!
The soul that finds no pleasure here,
No joy in aught that God has given
To bless the life He gave to man,
Would grumble in the Courts of Heaven!

I doubt the "wisdom" of the man,
Who, "proving all things" in the past,
"Held fast" to nothing, good or bad,
And said "all 's vanity" at last!
A thousand better thoughts than that,
Are whispered every day and hour,
By Nature's Universal Voice,
That speaks through forest, field and flower.

The passing and the changing ills
That flit across our sunlit skies,
An'nerve our hearts to noble deeds,
Are naught but blessings in disguise;
Were earth all fair—mankind all true,
And all hearts free from care and woe,
Were ALL souls sinless, here, my friend,
'Twere not a virtue to be so!

So, then, hurrah! for Life and Love!
Hurrah! for earth—just as it is!
Its joys and griefs—its hopes and fears—
Its yearly, daily, hourly bliss!
Let every friendly heart rejoice,
Let no one list a murmuring breath—
Hurrah for Life! while yet we live,
And then—why then hurrah for Death!

MANCHESTER RAILROAD MOVEMENT.—The Manchester American of Saturday evening says:

By a provision of the charter of the Concord Railroad, any individual or company can run trains over that road by complying with the regulations of the road. Availing themselves of this privilege, next Tuesday, the Boston, Lowell and Nashua road will run regular trains over the Concord road, carrying passengers to Boston at a reduced price. The ticket and business Agent for Manchester, is Gen. Abbott Iato of the American. If the General does not sell tickets, it will be no fault of the Agent.

The horse and wagon, stolen last week from Mr. Richard Smith's stable of Brentwood, have been found. The thieves drove the horse to Brighton, via Newburyport, sold the wagon and the harness, and being about to sell the horse at auction, suspicion was excited, and the sale was prevented.—Mr. S. has recovered his property. One of the thieves is said to be recently from the state prison in Massachusetts.—Exeter N. Letter.

TOO BAD.—Rev. Mr. Van Meter, who has been engaged in finding homes for the poor children of New York city in the West, was, on his last trip, arrested in Washington, Tazewell Co., Ill., on a charge of bringing paupers into the State, and fined $100 and costs.

☞ Jedediah M. Grant, one of the pillars of the Mormon church, died on the 1st of December, and was buried with all the ecclesiastical honors. He left seven widows to mourn his loss.

THE LOGGER—On Saturday of last week a pine log weighing 14 tons was drawn out from Bethlehem to Littleton depot, from whence it was forwarded to Gilford. The event was celebrated by a procession of the lumbermen followed by a long team of horses and oxen. Hundreds gathered to see the show, and the novel affair was closed by a grand oyster supper.—Manchester Amer.

☞ Lawrence's Carminative, we learn, has a good reputation, is prescribed by some of the best physicians in New Hampshire, and we hear it well spoken of. See advertisement in to-day's paper.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

TO THE BILLIOUS.—Prof. Wood, of St. Louis, has, after years of deep study and untiring research, succeeded in presenting to the public an article superior to any now in use, and indeed it is truly a wonderful discovery—we advert to his Hair Restorative; the only article that has been completely successful in cheating age of his gray locks, removing dandruff, itching, scrofula, &c. It restores the gray hair to more than the original beauty; adds new lustre to locks already luxurious; having the effect on coarse, harsh hair to render it glossy and wavy; fastens permanently hair that is loose or falling, and many other qualities which will become known as soon as used.

The pride of mankind is singularly developed in the keeping and arrangement of the hair; perhaps from the fact that it is the only portion of the human body that we can train in any way we choose; how important then having this portion left to our care, that we should use all the means science has placed in our hands to render it beautiful and permanent. If you would have beautiful hair, glossy hair, permanent hair, hair with its natural color elegantly preserved, to extreme old age, don't fail to purchase Wood's Hair Restorative.—[Daily Iowa State Gazette.

LOCAL.

☞ Monday was one of the most disagreeable days of the season; or of any season; the wind blew a stiff north-easter,—scattering the snow which fell the night previous, mixed with frozen dust and gravel stones of most uncomfortable size, for pedestrians' eyes. (No poetry intended—not a bit in the weather, certainly.) March has commenced "with a vengeance;" Spring weather, "in a horn"—Cape Horn, we should judge. If the incoming administration had the appointing of the "clerk of the weather," we don't believe the present incumbent would easily get a petition filled for re appointment. First, it was colder than ever before; and then as unseasonably warm; and now, a little of all sorts, except pleasant. Well, we shall all probably have to take it as it comes—and there is some consolation in knowing the heart of winter is broken, and that the March of rampant winds will have to beat a retreat before the hydropathic applications of April, and the genial influence of "smiling May."

☞ A young man in this city, usually of very quiet demeanor, has of late become much interested in the "Spiritual developments," so called and claimed to be. Last Saturday evening he was very much excited, at home; and on Sunday, at the Spiritual meeting, still more so—exhorting and shouting at the top of his voice, whereas he could never before have been induced to speak in public at all. He continued in this state of unnatural, or at least unusual and perhaps unhealthy excitement, through Monday; and sent for several friends to visit him on the afternoon of that day—that he might give them proofs of the new light he had received.

Now without undertaking to advocate or condemn the new doctrine, or any other; we must say that we can't see any more or stronger evidence that this man was crazy, than many other equally excited devotees to other faiths, theories, doctrines, or opinions. We have never investigated—never even inquired much concerning the Spiritual phenomena; but we don't believe it will drive us beside ourself, whether it be true or not, to our understanding. We shall know all about these things, one of these days, probably; meantime, we are content to wait. F.

THE INAUGURATION BALL.—Congress Hall has been tastefully decorated for the Inauguration Ball this evening, and will present a brilliant appearance. The managers have spared neither pains or expense to make the affair a pleasant and successful one. Enlivened as it will be with the best of music and graced by the fairest ladies, there can be no doubt that the Democracy and their friends will hold high festival, in Congress Hall, to-night. The supper will be furnished at the City Hotel, in the best style of the Messrs. Fernald.

THE APPROPRIATION BILLS.—In the appropriation bill which passed the House of Representatives on Thursday, was included the sum of $16,000 for fencing, &c., for the marine hospital at Portland, Me. In the army bill passed at the same time, was an appropriation of $68,685 for repairs at the Springfield armory. In the navy bill, $124,422 for the navy yard at Portsmouth N. H.; $386,310 for the Charlestown navy yard; $2500 for the naval hospital at Chelsea; $4223 for the naval magazine at Portsmouth, N. H.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

EXETER, Tuesday, March 3.

On Monday forenoon, Bennett, the rascal who committed an outrage on Capt. Eldredge of Portsmouth, a short time since, retracted his plea of not guilty and pleaded nol. con.

In the afternoon, case State v. Samuel Drew was commenced. Drew is charged with breaking into the Boston & Maine R. R. depot at Newmarket and stealing therefrom several cases of shoe stock. The Jury went out this afternoon.

Sullivan, State att., for Government:—Wood for prisoner.

Ezekiel Twombly of New Castle pleaded nol con. to three indictments for selling liquor. Fined $50 on each, and ordered to pay costs of prosecution.

Six indictments against Alfred Page and Moody Foster were disposed of in the same way. Page and Foster were arraigned on one indictment each for keeping liquor for sale. Plea, not guilty.

YOUNG AMERICANS' LYCEUM.—The lecture for this evening is postponed to Wednesday evening, Feb. 11.

LAST CHANCE.—The Glass Workers are to continue their exhibition at the Temple in this city, only until Thursday evening.

For the Chronicle.

BIDWELL & MARSTON'S DRAMATIC COMPANY.—Mr. Edward Marston, of the above well known troupe, was in town on Monday, endeavoring to secure the Temple, for two weeks, with a view of presenting our citizens with a series of excellent dramatic performances. The proprietors of the Temple, however, decided not to admit them. Had the manager seen fit to announce his exhibition as an "Ethiopian" entertainment, probably no objection would have been offered. A correspondent thinks it is time we had a public Hall, where unobjectionable entertainments of any nature can be given, and to which white men can have access as well as real or imitation "callud pussons."

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, March 2.

SENATE.—Mr. Cass presented the resolutions of the Michigan Legislature against the admission of more slave States, and made a few remarks expressing his dissent from the resolutions.

HOUSE.—Mr. Campbell of Ohio reported from the Committee of Ways and Means, a bill to deposit the surplus revenue (reserving $2,000,000) with the States, to be refunded when the exigencies require it. The bill passed by a vote of 119 against 79.

The Report of the Com. of Conference on the Tariff Bill, was agreed to in the House by 124 to 71; in the Senate by 33 to 9.

FROM KANSAS.—Lecompton, K. T., Feb. 21.—Since the last dispatch all has been quiet here. Gov. Geary vetoed the bill passed by the bogus Legislature for taking the census, and for calling a Convention to frame a State Constitution, when it was passed over his veto, by a unanimous vote.

The Governor approved the act declaring resistance to the bogus laws rebellion, and punishable with death. He has altogether vetoed only two bills, and has signed and approved all the others.

The Legislature adjourned just after daylight this morning, after a long night session, during which they passed a concurrent resolution of good will toward Gov. Geary, and gave him a friendly call after adjournment.

Gov. G. was probably intimidated—or possibly—he has received new hints from Washington.

NEW BEDFORD, March 2.—Municipal Election—George H. Dunbar, the Republican candidate, was elected Mayor, to-day, by 280 majority. The Republican candidates for Aldermen are all elected. Every ward in the city has been carried by the Republicans.

TRAINING FOR FILLIBUSTERS.—Forty students have left the Mississippi University since the Holidays—the majority having been expelled for robbing hen roosts. Is this chivalry?

Ephraim Wohelgemeth, priest of the Jewish synagogue at Kingston, N. Y., being charged with bigamy, has abandoned his second wife and her children and fled. If the uncleanness of the Mormon dispensation is to be tolerated, why not that of the Jewish?

DISEASES OF CHILDREN,
and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically
A CHILD'S MEDICINE,
and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy sure to be followed by a "Dose of Physic."

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhea, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness,

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.
RECOMMENDATIONS.
MR. W. F. LAWRENCE.—Dear Sir:—Having made trial of your Carminative, in several severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known. NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.
Epping, July 28, 1853.
MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.
Yours truly, JOSEPH DAVOX, M. D.
Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1850.
MR. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infancy,—a class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

For the West.
BENJAMIN NORTON
HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than it sold here. Or Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense.
Also, for sale 440 acres of fine Timber Land.
80 acres in section 19, Township 102, 80 do. 18, do. 102,

Possessing one of the LARGEST SKY CARAMS, and larger than any in use in this vicinity, expressly adapted to the purpose, together with other facilities, I can offer to work at such prices as cannot fail to be satisfactory.
A highly important feature in this connection, is the invaluable process of Enlarging a small-sized picture up to Cabinet or even the size of life. This process also I have obtained, so that any one possessing a small picture of a lost friend, for instance, can have a beautiful large Photograph executed from it. A. GREGORY.

MONEY MAKING OUT WEST.—The Manchester Mirror publishes a highly flattering account of western prospects for adventurers from the East, from a private letter to a gentleman in Manchester, dated "Dubuque, Iowa, Feb. 20th." The writer is a man well posted in the finances and affairs of the "young West," and though his account may seem rather high-colored, the Mirror can vouch for its truthfulness as far as facts are concerned; but says "his account reminds one of the early California stories. It is true, in part, but the skin and bones, fever and ague, destitution, broken constitution, and blue-devils side of the story, remains untold."

Just so, and in this case, as well as all others, it is well to "look on t'other side."

We have at last, a parallel to the announcement, which in ancient times, "Jack" made, that he would not eat his supper. The New York Day-Book notifies the public that it will not advertise for those "who use the profits of their trade to war upon the South."

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by one or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the world is with knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my family and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, and scarcely they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ROBERT ROBERTS, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., NOV. 16, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine They have done my wife more good than all else. I tell you she had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with some doses of your Pills, which others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I visit among the poor in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Formerly Hopeless Sufferer.

BOSTON, FEB. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable by other means. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ABA MORGRIDGE

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hanson, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. About three years ago, I was laid up for months with neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SOLOMON CROWDER, Barber's Hotel.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in the hands of the ignorant and inexperienced, and too frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it steadily known. But, for the benefit of the families in any civilized country on the continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities where there is not some lurking there same living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the fatal, fickle and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the compliance it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable tenter that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and yet they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not dwelt than to assure them it is still made the best it can pile. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best aid which our skill can furnish for their cure.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the managers of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month, and the particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and formary commission. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing sent to all purchasers immediately after the drawing.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 70 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, specifications Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to ascertain the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the Claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IN THE PATENT OFFICE DEPENDS LARGELY ON THE REALTIVE ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the facilities for obtaining patents so complete, or the immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions, which he alone, of all the Boston bar, has extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States, Great Britain, France, rendering him, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure patents, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were at that time many persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business on hand, the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1856.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

TREMONT MILLS.

Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Cocoas, Spices, &c.

WHOLESALE,—AND ALSO IN SMALL PACKAGES.

E. E. DYER & CO.

(Sign of the Chinaman grinding coffee,)

141 Washington St., Boston,

SUPPLY the best, finest and purest articles, at lowest cash prices. Their Stock consists of Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Allspice, Pepper, Mustard, Ginger, Cayenne Pepper, Cloves, Cinnamon, Cloves, Cream Tartar, Taraxacum, or Prepared Dandelion Root, &c. &c.

Having every facility for manufacturing and preparing the several articles named, they can offer them at prices having them pure and genuine, as they are put up carefully, and bear our name and label, "TREMONT MILLS, E. E. DYER & CO."

To give consumers some idea of our sales, we annex the following scale of prices, viz:

Mocha Coffee, 1 lb 50 cts
Mocha Coffee, 1 lb 50 cts
Oolong " 1 75 | 5 lb Java " 1 87
6 lb Y. Hyson " 2 25 | 8 lb good " 1 25

☞ The Spices are kept up in 1 and 2 lb. tin cases, expressly for family use, and we warrant them to be strictly a pure article, and only need a trial to establish them in public favor.

SPANISH COFFEE.—We would call the attention of customers and dealers to our Spanish Coffee, as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by peculiar process in roasting, one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 2 lb. of any other.

DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our Mills, and put up in packages having our trade mark, and may be relied upon as the best and most approved mixture of dandelion and coffee.

TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root.—this article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, is retailed by Family Grocers throughout the country, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee," may be relied upon as the choicest article. The proportion used is about one half the quantity of coffee, costing 12½ cents per pound, and it is warranted to be the same as that which has been sold for fifty cents a pound by Druggists.

The medical properties of Dandelion are well known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root, with its medicinal virtues retained, it may be mixed with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found cheap and economical as a family beverage, one half which being nearly equals two pounds of coffee. It is prescribed by many eminent physicians to invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint.

☞ Be careful to observe that all our Coffees have our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee."

☞ Grocers and Druggists a liberal discount is made, enabling them to supply their customers at the same low rate.

☞ TO CASH PURCHASERS.—Our object be big to secure large sales at small profits, we offer inducements which cannot be afforded by those who do business on the credit system; and we confidently invite an examination of the quality of our stock and our prices as compared with those of any other house.

Prince & Co.'s Improved Melodeons.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.

Employing Two Hundred Men, and finishing

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000 of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DETACHED WORLDS, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the accompaniment is not and subdued.—Hereafter all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, 1855

"Messrs Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by selling out their other manufactures to one their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly MINERVA PITHIS AND. Yesterday testimonials fo the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. That we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

New Yorx, 15th Oct. 1855

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played on by Wallace, Dodt, Hodges, Wm Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever heard. Yours very truly, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the Double Reed Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1857.

STRAWS.—The Boston Courier says:

"The Inauguration at Washington is merely the legal sealing, as it were, of a foregone conclusion. After an excited and passionate campaign, the victory was gained by one of the contending parties, and the calm of exhaustion, and quiet speculation as to the probable consequences of the result, have for months succeeded to the tempestuous conflict. Moreover, there is less of curiosity agitating the public mind than usual; for the coming change is comparatively rather a change of men than of policy.

Is it true, that Mr. Buchanan is to follow in the footsteps of his "illustrious predecessor?"

The Newburyport Herald says:

Gen. Pierce's administration has been furiously assailed. No President, except Jefferson, Madison, and Jackson, had met a more relentless opposition; but like them he has so far triumphed as to see the endorsement of his policy in the popular vote.

The popular vote of New Hampshire has endorsed him and his policy, over the left.

Some of the Virginia people propose a House for President Pierce in their State. ☞ A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer proposes that the State of Virginia raise by individual subscription a sum sufficient to purchase a southern home and present it to President Pierce as a substantial approval—not in word, but in deed—of his administration of the government. To put the ball in motion, the correspondent promises to pay $100 as soon as the necessary amount is subscribed.

The Newburyport Herald says, again:

Mr. Buchanan starts as favorably as Gen. Pierce did, and is a guarrantee of a cautious, conservative administration. Apparently, however, he has not near strength that the present one combines, and we doubt whether they can remain a unit to 1861.

POLITICAL PREACHING.—An American clergyman in Asia Minor writes as follows:

If any one wishes to see what comes from a secular ministry or priesthood, let him come here, where there are thousands of priests and church members. There is no curse on earth like a secularized political priesthood. No wonder that in Europe and the East there are so many infidels. I cannot but fear, from what I read, that the American ministry has seen its best days. Pure christianity has existed only about three centuries in any country. Then comes corruption.

We can think of no clergyman in Asia Minor, likely to write such delectable things to the above, except the Reverend Henry Wood, Consul to Beyroot, Chaplain in the U. S. Navy, &c., &c., by the grace of President Franklin Peirce, to whose temperance and religion he certified four or five years ago. His concern for the purity of christianity, and his yearning for the goodness of the American ministry, are wonderfully refreshing in these days of corruption, and of a secularized ministry or priesthood.

THE DRED SCOTT CASE.—The New York Tribune says:

We learn from trustworthy sources that Supreme Court of the United States in the Dred Scott case, will, by a large majority, sustain the extreme Southern ground, denying the constitutionality of the Missouri Compromise. Probably Judges Curtis and McLean will alone dissent—Judge Nelson, who has been heretofore relied upon by many as likely to favor the side of freedom, going with the South. The decree of the Court will, it is supposed be given in a few days—perhaps the day before or the following the inauguration. The majority of this august Court are possibly weak enough to suppose that this decree will tranquilize the country.

NEW CAPITOL FOR THE STATE OF VERMONT. The Legislature of the State of Vermont, which was convened by a proclamation of the Governor to consider the subject of rebuilding the State Capitol, which was burned on the night of the 6th of January last, adjourned sine die, on Friday night, after a session of ten days. An act was passed, by a majority of 59 votes in the House and 7 in the Senate, to entirely rebuild the edifice on an improved and enlarged plan, on the site of the late building at Montpelier. Thomas W. Silloway, Esq., of Boston, has received the appointment of architect. The work is to be commenced immediately.

NEW YORK TOWN ELECTIONS.—Additional returns of the town elections in New York State show that, in thirteen counties heard from, the supervisor, who stood last year 52 Republican, 53 Democratic, and 40 American, stands now 94 Republican, 49 Democratic, and 16 American, thus showing a gain of 42 for the Republicans, and a loss of 4 for the Democrats and 24 for the Americans. It is observable that the Republican force is greater than that of both the Democrats and Americans, which it never was before.

ILLNESS OF MRS. PIERCE.—We learn that Mrs. Pierce is suffering from severe illness at Washington.

BEAR ADVENTURE IN CHESTERFIELD, N. Y. The Machias Union relates that Mr. Andrew Harvey, with his boys, killed a large bear, and sent the carcass off on a team in charge of one of his boys, while Harvey with the other boy, went on the trail of some deer. They however espied another bear's tracks, and cornered the animal in a hole among some rocks, and fired upon him. The first shot dislocated his shoulder, and he beat a retreat into his hole.—They could neither coax nor frighten him out of his den, and Mr. H., a la Putnam, on his hands and knees crawled in. Turning a short corner, in the darkness, he saw the glaring eyes of his adversary. He levelled his piece, fired, retreated. No sound from Bruin was heard. Waiting till he was supposed to be dead, Mr. H. returned, but the bear roused himself, snarled, and shook his flippers in defiance. Another bullet, however, settled the question.—Both bears were very fat, the largest when dressed weighing 600 pounds.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION.—The Norfolk Argus communicates a fact in one of its recent issues, which is highly important—particularly to such as are threatened with that fatal and insidious disease, known as consumption. It seems a gentleman in Louisiana bought some consumptive negroes from a dealer in Norfolk, and placed them on his sugar plantation. They ate plentifully of the cane, but more especially of the young shoots. The slaves, who had been thin, weak, and sickly, soon became strong, robust, and hearty, and in a short time all traces of the disease with which they had been affected entirely disappeared. The Argus learns that this planter has a standing order at Norfolk for negroes who have the symptoms of the disease, and of course expects to get them at a reduced price.

CRIME IN MASSACHUSETTS.—The abstract of the returns of the keepers of Jails and overseers of Houses of Correction in Massachusetts, for the year ending Nov. 1, 1856, has been printed.

The whole number of prisoners in all the Jails and Houses of Correction of the State, Nov. 1, 1856, was 14,355, of whom 4,936 were in the Houses of Correction; whole number of debtors 138; whole number of males 12,615; females 1,716; minors 1,524; colored 523.

The principal crimes charged were, murder 41 (32 from Suffolk County,) arson 24, rape 16, attempt at rape 2, highway robbery 107 (94 in Suffolk County,) adultery or lewd conduct 450, assault 1682, burglary 178, forgery 32, intemperance 6,568, keeping brothels 121, larceny 2,130, perjury 9, counterfeit money 154, vagrancy 242, all other crimes 2,406.

HINGHAM POST OFFICE.—It has been stated that Charles Siders had been appointed Postmaster at Hingham. The facts in the case are very creditable to Mr. Siders. He applied for the office for Miss Gardner, who has conducted its affairs since the homicide of her father, but received a reply from the Post Office Department that she she was not 21, and could not be appointed. He then applied for the place himself, received the appointment, gave the required bonds, and turned over the business and emoluments of the office to Miss Gardner, which act is universally approved.

INNOCENCE APPARENT AFTER CONVICTION. In the Municipal Court of Boston, County Attorney Cooley stated to Judge Nelson that he was satisfied, after a more thorough examination of the case of Benjamin F. Hale, convicted of larceny of piano fortes, that good and reliable evidence existed, but was not produced, which would have caused the jury to return a different verdict.—He therefore moved for Hale's discharge on his own recognizance, which the Court ordered.

FOUL MEAT IN ALBANY.—Quite an excitement recently existed in Albany, in consequence of the proprietors of one of the slaughter houses having prepared for food the carcases of the cattle drowned in the late flood. The Board of Health of Albany, visited the slaughter house, and describe the scene, as disgusting in the extreme. They afterwards held a meeting, declared the meat a nuisance and dangerous to the public health, and ordered that the police should destroy it forthwith.

STOPPING PAPERS.—An exchange says: When a man gets mad and stops his paper, he always borrows the next number of his neighbor, to see if the withdrawal of his patronage hasn't killed the editor and dressed the columns in mourning. This grows out of the fact that none try to show their spite in this way, but the kind of people who imagine that the world rests on their shoulders.

CALIFORNIA ITEMS.—The San Francisco Young America is the title of a new weekly paper published in California—less in size than the Daily Chronicle, and 12 1-2 cts. per copy! It is a wide-awake sheet, and worthy of its name. From it, we gather a few items.

The first wilful murder since the disbandment of the Vigilance Committee, took place on Tuesday last. For a period of four months, (a thing before unknown), not a murder had occurred. In the five years previous, five thousand murders were committed in the State.

The Legislature should pass a law to prevent those tubs, running between San Francisco and the Southern ports of California, from changing their names as they do. Persons very often think that they travel on new boats, when in reality, they are risking their lives on old hulks.

In passing up Montgomery Street, we noticed two or three small frame buildings standing on very dangerous foundations. The authorities should not allow persons to take away the earth upon which buildings stand, without making them secure. In the shameful manner which these now stand, they are liable to fall at any moment, thereby endangering the lives of pedestrians who may be passing.

There are now in San Francisco, two candle, starch, and vermicelli manufactories. This speaks well for California.

We hope that a paper mill will soon be in operation, for paper is used here in great quantities. Just imagine what a rejoicing would come over the editors of the one hundred California newspapers, on being able to obtain paper at a cost probably one half less than at present.

We hope so, too, for California printers pay any price asked for paper, and we in New England have consequently to pay about as much—with no sort of proportion between the prices of papers there and here.

From the tone of the Costa Rican Boletin, the Young American judges that the war will be brought to a termination, and that Walker will sit in the robes of president undisturbed.

The Young American goes in strong for "the State of Sonora," for fighting or rather drubbing China, and for "manifest destiny" of all sorts.

A MAN ATTACKED BY A WOLF IN THE CAPITAL OF WISCONSIN.—A man named P. Bowman was recently attacked by a wolf on Washington Avenue, in Madison. The animal sprang at his throat, and but for his presence of mind, in quickly drawing a small knife, and stabbing it, he would doubtless have been killed. Even after being wounded the wolf followed him, and attempted to seize him.

☞ Wilmer & Smith's European Times states that "the Emperor of France has bestowed a gift of five hundred thousand francs on the widow of the unfortunate American who was shot by the sentinel at the Clichy in Paris." This is a generous act, for which Louis Napoleon deserves great credit.

FOR LIFE.—At the criminal term of the Supreme Judical Court held at Bangor, Judge Cutting sentenced one Curran to State Prison for life, for the crime of arson—setting fire to the barn of Mr. Ammon Lewis of Orono, Me., in the night time, the barn being connected with a dwelling house in which were a family.

FIRE.—At North Danvers, on Monday night, as a party of Irishmen were having a "wake" over a comrade, the house in which they were congregated, caught fire, and was consumed, together with the dead body.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

TO THE MILLION.—Prof. Wood, of St. Louis, has, after years of deep study and untiring research, succeeded in presenting to the public an article superior to any now in use, and indeed it is truly a wonderful discovery—we advert to his Hair Restorative; the only article that has been completely successful in cheating age of his gray locks, removing dandruff, itching, scrofula, &c. It restores the gray head to more than the original beauty; adds new lustre to locks already luxuriant; having the effect on coarse, harsh hair to render it glossy and watery; fastens permanently hair that is loose or falling, and many other qualities which will become known as soon as used.

The pride of mankind is singularly developed in the keeping and arrangement of the hair; perhaps from the fact that it is the only portion of the human body that we can train in any way we choose; how important then, having this portion left to our care, that we should use all the means science has placed in our hands to render it beautiful and permanent. If you would have beautiful hair, glossy hair, permanent hair, hair with its natural color elegantly preserved to extreme old age, don't fail to purchase Wood's Hair Restorative.—[Daily Iowa State Gazette.

NEWBURYPORT POLICE.—On Sunday evening, Mr. Edward W. Rand, Clerk of the Police Court, was assaulted and knocked down, in the street, by two drunken rowdies from Amesbury, one of whom was on Monday, brought before the Police Court and fined for drunkenness and the assault, in all, with the costs, amounting to some $30, which, if not paid, will give him a term in the House of Correction. This is the fourth assault case we have had in the streets, within three weeks, in two of which knives were used, and in one a slung shot, or something of that kind. In consequence of this, and the alarming state of affairs in other cities, some of these villains may get justice one of these nights, without the help of the Police Court, for not a few persons have been induced to carry the means of their own defence, whenever they are out after dark.—Herald.

Shut up your grog-shops,—and you will have no drunken rowdies from Amesbury. Where the carcass is, there are the eagles gathered together.

☞ The Tribune says of the Inaugural coat: "What interests us most is whether or not Mr. Thimblewell of Lancaster has made the coat of cloth which it will do to turn. Other coats of Mr. Buchanan have served that useful purpose, and at this time of life, he ought not to change his style."

HARD WINTER.—The Vineyard Gazette says that seventy years ago, the winter was a hard one. At that time two teams passed from the main land to Nantucket, each with half a cord of wood, which was sold to the inhabitants of the Island at the rate of $50 per cord.

ROYAL RELIGION.—The Queen of England has appointed twenty two preachers for Lent, each of whom is to deliver one sermon before her. Her Majesty evidently believes "that in the multitude of Counsellors there is safety."

☞ The famous Reeside Claim, which has been so long before Congress and the Court of Claims, was on Thursday, paid at the Treasury Department in full, principal and interest.

☞ A Nicaragua correspondent of the New York Times says, that since Gen. Walker has been in that country he has received not far from 5,000 men. Of these about fourteen hundred are now living, which makes his whole loss 3600. All concur in saying that the graveyards and pits of Grenada contain 1500 of the filibusters; and many placed it as high as 2000.

☞ St. Patrick's Day, 17th March, will be commemorated in New York, by a grand parade of the Irish citizens. About twenty societies will turn out on the occasion.

A Gas Company has just been organized in Charlottsville, Va., and by the 1st of October next, the town and University will be lighted by gas.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

EXETER, Wednesday, March 4.

The Case State v. Winthrop Hilton was presented to the jury. The respondent was indicted for burning a barn belonging to Mary A. Hilton, his sister, at So. Newmarket, on the evening of the 10th Sept. last. It appeared in the testimony for the State that the respondent said to one of the witnesses on the night of the fire, just before it occurred, "The barn must be burned, and it might as well be burned to-night as at any time; the hog belongs to mother—that must be saved. You will see a fire either before you go to bed, or before morning." Other evidence showed that the hog had been let out of the barn, and was in the pasture at the time of the fire, and that the respondent afterwards said he was "glad the barn was burned."

The defence set up was insanity, as might have been expected. It was proved that the respondent had been for ten years or more, an habitual drunkard; that sometimes he would get up at night, go into his brother's room and say, "Some one was after him;" at other times he would say he meant to have an "injunction put upon his brother's horse;" also when in jail he frequently imagined that "a large concourse of people were outside;" that "this mother was dead," and other things, evidently the result of a diseased brain. The case was given to the jury this afternoon, after being ably argued by the Attorney General Sullivan for State, and Marston for respondent.

In the case State v. Samuel Drew, the jury brought in a verdict against the respondent.

The next case for trial will probably be the State v. James Happenny, for highway robbery; this will occupy most of the day to morrow.

LIQUOR CASES IN TAUNTON, MASS.—The following liquor cases were tried before a magistrate in Taunton last week:

Horatio W. Field, for violation of liquor law, adjudged guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs, House of Correction 3 months, and recognize in $1000 not to violate the liquor law for one year—appealed. William Barrett, violation of liquor law, common seller, was ordered to recognize in $200, with sureties to March term. Timothy Gallagher, violation of liquor law, common seller, was ordered to recognize in the sum of $200, with sureties to March term.

THE CASE OF MILLER AND HIS DYING WIFE.—Coroner Smith with a jury has been investigating for a few days past the circumstances attending the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Miller of Gold street, South Boston. The evidence goes to show that her husband, Joseph Miller, was almost constantly in a state of intoxication, and, failing in other means, resorted to violence to obtain the little pittance in her possession, with which to purchase his daily drams. A neighbor testifies that on one occasion she found Mrs. Miller in a damp cellar, whither she had been driven by the violence of her husband. A daughter of deceased, eight years of age, testified that she had seen her father shake and slap her mother very often when she was sick in bed. Dr. Alexander, who was called in but a few days before the death of Mrs. Miller, was of opinion that the violence testified to would tend to hasten her death. Miller is now in jail on the charge of being a common drunkard.—Boston Telegraph.

☞ James Quimby, jr. was again severely assaulted on Friday evening last, in Market Square, Salisbury, by some one striking him on the head and face, and badly injuring him. Luther Tebets has been charged with the offence, and is to be tried before Justice Turner, on Monday next at 10 o'clock.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Mr. Breckenridge arrived here this morning. He visited the House, and was surrounded by crowds of his friends.

The New England and Pennsylvania appointments to the Cabinet have not yet been definitely settled.

The Senate has agreed to the House amendments to the Minnesota land bill, giving 20,000 acres of land to Alabama for railroad purposes. The bill avoids nearly altogether the range of lands proposed in the bill heretofore repealed by Congress. Minnesota is to have the entire disposal of them. This is the Minnesota bill perfected in the House Committee on Public Lands, and in connection with which subject corruption was also alleged.

The Judges of the Supreme Court welled upon Mr. Buchanan, to-day, at his rooms at the National Hotel.

President Pierce gave a reception at noon, to a committee of city authorities, and many citizens. A complimentary address was made by Mayor Magruder, to which the President replied in suitable terms.

11, P. M. The President is at the capitol signing bills. Nearly all the members of the Cabinet are present, assisting and examining.

The galleries, rotunda and passages are crowded.

Mr. Buchanan is in council with his friends, including Gen. Cass.

There is an immense influx of strangers, and the hotels and boarding houses are overflowing.

March 4, 1 45 A. M. Wednesday. The House passed the Senate bill the more effectually to punish crimes on the high seas.

2 A. M., Wednesday. There are at present no signs of adjournment of Congress.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, March 3.

SENATE.—Evening Session.—The Ocean Mail Steamer Appropriation bill was taken up, and after debate, passed without amendment.

HOUSE.—The House passed the Senate bill requiring the disbursing officers of the government to deposit their funds, for better protection, with the Treasurer, or some Assistant Treasurer of the United States.

WEDNESDAY, March 4, 4 A. M.

SENATE.—The Senate passed forty private bills, and then went into executive session.

HOUSE.—The House receded by one majority from its disagreement to the Senate's amendment to the Legislative, Judicial and Executive bill, appropriating the pay for the next Kansas Legislature.

This ended all the dispute about the matter.

IMPORTANT LIQUOR CASE IN EAST CAMBRIDGE.—In the Common Pleas Court at East Cambridge on Saturday morning, the case of Abel Hunt, of Watertown, charged with violating the liquor law of 1855, came up. Defendant was brought in on a capias at the request of Attorney Morse, he having reason to believe that Hunt was still violating the law. Mr. Train of Framingham appeared for Hunt, who stated that the indictment against his client was placed on file a year ago by order of Judge Bishop, and he did not think the court should revive the action. Mr. Morse replied that Hunt had heretofore sold liquor in open violation of the law, and that he believed that he was still engaged in the same traffic, and that he knew of no reason why Hunt's barkeeper, old women, and boys of eight or ten years of age, should go to the House of Correction, while a prince of rumsellers like Hunt, who have obtained wealth in the same business, should go free; and he desired to enforce that law, fairly and impartially as he would any other law. Hunt being absent at this time, the Court waited until 12 o'clock, when he (Hunt) and his sureties were defaulted and another capias issued.—Boston Telegraph.

ALBANY, March 3.—Heavy failures are reported to have occurred in Buffalo. It is said that the Buffalo Car Company, Joseph G. Hill, Nathan T. Harsey, Hiram Johnson, Bay Dale, and Philo Allen, have all suspended payment.

NIAGARA FALLS, March 3.—The Americans carried their entire ticket to day in the village election, against the united strength of the Republicans and Democrats.

☞ The March number of that pleasant monthly, the Ladies' Repository, is just received from the publisher, Abel Tompkins, Boston. The contents are:—The Bachelor Son, The Lame Boy's Letter, The Mission of the Teacher, Mother Dear and I, Notes by Daylight, My Maker who giveth Songs in the Night, Ashes of Roses, Lines on the Death of little C, Letters from Abroad, The Last Lay of the Oldest Inhabitant, The early Called, Prayer, Scraps from Brom's Portfolio, and Editor's Table.

SUICIDE OF A CLERGYMAN.—Stephen Brown, a Baptist clergyman of Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, recently cut his throat with a razor. It is supposed that he was temporarily insane.

☞ Rev. Mr. Fisk of Kittery, Me., has been unanimously invited to become pastor of the Congregational Church and Society in Fisherville, N. H. Fisherville is a parish of Concord.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir;—Having made trial of your Carminative, in several severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.

NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 23, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.

Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1853.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicin for the diseases incident to infancy,—a class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

BENJAMIN NORTON

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than it sold here. Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense

Also, for sale 440 acres of fine Timber Land.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FROM THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. Another complaint of my stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do as others do, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,

Clerk of Shamer Clerks.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1855.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice, and find them to be a most valuable medicine in any thing are the best cathartic we employ. Their tendency to alter the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are a valuable remedy in all diseases of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious the case so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Externally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.

Physician of Columbia Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HAVERHILL, LYN. CO., MASS., NOV. 16, 1855

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. For half a year she was afflicted with dysentery, and was off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. My daughter was cured by them and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife gave him a few doses of your Pills, while others advised him to have a doctor. He took your Pills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit to distress. They regulate the digestive organs, purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARREN, WYOMING CO., N. Y., OCT. 24, 1854.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the foundation of the blood.

Yours, R. A. BENHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her neck, which had long been incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair, which she has cured by the use of your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA HORNSBY.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Bascom, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA, SATURDAY, Jan. 6, 1855.

HONORED SIR: Yesterday I was surprised in the relief your skill has brought me. I had not expected any more from a cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Nothing seemed to reach the case. I took your Pills, and grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Markwardt, I tried your Pills. Yesterday I could not walk across the room. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease, and long my terror. Gratitude for you, VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an unexcelled remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its injudicious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN CIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, in which exists a case of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country in this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and few are the communities in any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for children and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL solves more fives by the consumption it prevents than by the cures it effects. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, not expect them until no human skill can master the inexorable consumption that, fastened on the vitals, sows its victims. All know the dreadful fatality of long disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not dwelling upon it. Suffice it to say, make the best it can be, and we will spare no pains to place it within reach of the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

LOTTERIES.

The well known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which B. Fenner & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with the drawing is done in honor and fairness, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another important feature which should be known is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special laws in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. Two numbers are drawn, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $10. No tickets are sent out unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Saxonian plan), and forty-seven combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing multiplied of persons interested in the result.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1836.)

No. 70 State st., opp. Kilby st., Boston.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Models made, and Patents obtained in Foreign works, to detail reports on the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but it is known to possess advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The best testimonials be our given proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber! and as regards the ADVANTAGES AND ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for services so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents, which he has extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, rendering the subscriber the question to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, for the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had as much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most faithful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 11, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the duties of an examiner in the Patent Office, and regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

E. E. DYER & CO.

(Sign of the Chinaman grinding coffee,)

141 Washington St., Boston.

SUPPLY the best, finest and purest articles, at lowest Cash prices. Their Stock consists of Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Allspice, Pepper, Mustard, Ginger, Cayenne Pepper, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Cream Tartar, Taraxacum, or Prepared Dandelion Root, Sal Soda, &c.

Having every facility for manufacturing and preparing the several articles named, the public may rely upon having them pure and genuine.

To give consumers some idea of our sales, we annex the following varied prices, viz:

5 lb Souchong Tea, 150 | 5 lb. Mocha Coffee, 140

10 lb Pekoe Tea, 75 | 5 lb Java Coffee, 70

5 lb Tyson " 225 | 5 lb good " 120

☞ The Spices are put up in 1 lb. tin canisters, expressly for family use, and are warranted to be strictly as represented. We only need a trial to establish them in public favor.

SPANISH CONFECTIONERY.—We would call the attention of merchants and dealers to our Spanish Licorice, as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by a peculiar process in roasting, it is made very tender, and is believed, is equal to 1 lb. of any other.

DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our Mills, and is quite superior to any having our trade marks, and the public are cautioned against the spurious imitations of dandelion and coffee.

☞ Dyer & Co's Celebrated Prepared Dandelion Root.—This article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, is retailed by Family Grocers generally in city and country, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee," may be relied upon as the genuine article. The proportion used is about one-half the quantity of coffee. The price is 20 cents per pound, and it is warranted to be the same as that which has been sold for fifty cents a pound by druggists.

The medical properties of Dandelion are well known. It is high medicinal value in all its uses. The being a preparation of the root, with all its medicinal virtues retained, can be mixed with coffee, and used as a beverage, and will be found clean and economical as a family beverage, one pound of which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee. It is prescribed by many eminent physicians in Boston, and is used by persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Billious affections &c.

☞ Be careful to observe that all our Coffees are put up in our trade marks, bearing fac simile of our signature.

☞ To Grocers and Dealers a liberal discount is made, enabling them to supply their customers at the same low prices.

☞ TO CASH PURCHASERS.—Our object by selling to secure large sales at small profits, we offer inducements which cannot be afforded by those who do business on credit, and we therefore confidently invite an examination of the quality of our stock and our prices as compared with those of any other house.

Prince & Co's Improved Melodeons.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.

Employing Two Hundred Men, and running

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000

of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent, 23d May, 1855—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued—Heretofore all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55

"Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement, but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this so celebrated Melodeon. In testimonial from Boston alone we have Dollars and nearly NINE HUNDRED THOUSAND Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States have from time to time been received. These far we have said but little, and our advertisements were solicited from the reason that we could not supply demand. We have since enlarged our factory, the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. I have received visits from Jenny Lind, Lucca, Duct, Hodges, Wm Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very truly, A MEE, Jr."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The style and prices are—

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF PRESIDENT BUCHANAN.

Fellow Citizens:—I appear before you this day, to take the solemn oath that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States; and will to the best of my ability preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States.

In entering upon this great office I most humbly invoke the God of our Fathers for wisdom and firmness to execute its high and responsible duties in such a manner as to restore harmony and the ancient friendship among the people of the several States, and to preserve our free institutions throughout many generations. Convinced that I owe my election to the inherent love for the Constitution and the Union which still animates the hearts of the American people, let me earnestly ask their powerful support in sustaining all just measures calculated to perpetuate them, and the richest political blessings which Heaven has ever bestowed upon any nation. Having determined not to become a candidate for re-election, I shall have no motive to influence my conduct in administering the government, except the desire ably and faithfully to serve my country, and to live in the grateful memory of my countrymen.

We have recently passed through a Presidential contest, in which the passions of our fellow-citizens were excited to the highest degree, by questions of deep and vital importance; but when the people proclaimed their will, the tempest at once subsided, and all was calm. The voice of the majority, speaking in the manner prescribed by the Constitution, was heard, and instant submission followed. Our own country could alone have exhibited so grand and striking a spectacle of the capacity of man for self-government. What a happy condition, then, was it for Congress to apply this simple rule, that the will of the majority governs, to the settlement of the question of domestic slavery in the territories. Congress is neither to legislate slavery into territories or States, nor to exclude it therefrom, but to leave the people perfectly free to form and regulate their domestic institutions in their own way, subject only to the Constitution of the United States, as a natural consequence.

Congress also prescribed that when the territory of Kansas shall be admitted as a State, it shall be received into the Union with or without slavery, as their Constitution may prescribe at the time of their admission. A different opinion has arisen in regard to the time when the people of a territory shall decide this question for themselves. This is, happily, a matter of but little practical importance; and besides it is a judicial question, which legitimately belongs to the Supreme Court of the United States, before whom it is now pending, and will, it is understood, be speedily and finally settled. To their decision, in common with all good citizens, I shall cheerfully submit, whatever this may be—though it has been my individual opinion that, under the Nebraska-Kansas act, the appropriate period will be when the number of actual residents in the territory shall justify the formation of a Constitution, with a view to its admission as a State into the Union. But, be this as it may, it is the imperative and indispensable duty of the government of the United States to secure to every resident inhabitant the free and independent expression of his opinion by his vote.

This sacred right of each individual must be preserved. This being accomplished, nothing can be fairer than to leave the people of a territory free from all foreign interference to decide their Constitution. The whole territorial question being thus settled upon the principle of squatter sovereignty, a principle as ancient as free government itself, everything of a political nature has been decided, and no other question remains for adjustment, because all agree that, under the Constitution, slavery in the States is beyond the reach of any human power, except that of the respective states themselves wherein it exists. May we not, then, hope that the long agitation of this subject is approaching its end, and that the geographical parties to which it has given birth, so much dreaded by the Father of his Country, will speedily become extinct? Most happy will it be for the country when the public mind shall be diverted from this question to others of more pressing and practical importance. Throughout the whole progress of this agitation, which has scarcely known any intermission for more than twenty years, whilst it has been productive of no positive good to any human being, it has been the prolific source of great evils—to the master—to the slave—and to the whole country.

It has alienated and estranged the people of the sister States from each other, and has even seriously endangered the very existence of the Union.—Nor has the danger yet entirely ceased. Under our system there is a remedy for all mere political evils in the sound sense and sober judgment of the people. Time is a great corrective. The political subjects which but a few years ago excited and exasperated the public mind, have passed away and are nearly forgotten; but this question of domestic slavery is of far greater importance than any mere political question, because, should the agitation continue, it may eventually endanger the personal safety of a large portion of our countrymen, where the institution exists. In that event, no form of government, however advisable in itself, can compensate for the loss of peace and domestic security around the family altar. Let every Union loving man therefore exert his best influence to suppress this agitation which since the recent legislation of Congress is without any legitimate object.

It is an evil of the times, that men have undertaken to estimate the mere material value of the Union. Estimates have been presented of the pecuniary profits and local advantages which would result to different States and sections from its dissolution. Of the comparative injuries which such an event would inflict on other States and sections—even descending to this low and narrow view of the weighty question—all such calculations are at fault. The bare reference to a single consideration will be conclusive on this point. We at present enjoy a free trade throughout our extensive and expansive country such as the world never witnessed. This trade is conducted on railroads and canals, on noble rivers and arms of the sea, which bind together the North and the South, the East and the West of our confederation. Annihilate this trade—arrest its progress by the geographical line of jealous and hostile States, and you destroy the prosperity and onward progress of the whole and every part, and involve all in the common ruin. But such considerations, important as they are in themselves, sink into insignificance to cultivate peace, commerce and friendship with all nations; and this not merely as the best means of promoting our own material interests, but in a spirit of Christian benevolence towards fellow men, wherever their lot may be cast. Our diplomacy should be direct, and frank, neither seeking to obtain more, nor accepting less, than is our due.

We ought to cherish a sacred regard for the Independence of all nations, and never attempt to interfere in the concerns of any, unless this shall be imperatively required by the great law of self preservation. To avoid entangling alliances has been a maxim of our policy ever since the days of Washington; and its wisdom no one will attempt to dispute. In short, we ought to do justice in a kindly spirit to all nations, and require justice from them in return.

It is our glory that while other nations have extended their dominions by the sword, we have never acquired any territory except by fair purchase, or, as in the case of Texas, by the voluntary determination of a brave, kindred and independent people to blend their destinies with our own. Even our acquisitions from Mexico form no exception. Unwilling to take advantage of the fortune of war against a sister republic, we purchased those possessions under the treaty of peace for a sum which was consider at the time a fair equivalent.

Our past history forbids that we shall in the future acquire territory, unless this be sanctioned by the laws of justice and honor. Acting on this principle, no nation will have a right to interfere or to complain if, in the progress of events, we shall still further extend our possessions. Hitherto in all our acquisitions, the people under the protection of the American flag have enjoyed civil and religious liberty, as well as equal and just laws, and have been contented, prosperous and happy. Their trade with the rest of the world has rapidly increased, and every commercial nation has shared largely in their successful progress.

I shall now proceed to take the oath prescribed by the Constitution; whilst humbly invoking the blessings of Divine Providence on this great people.

JAMES BUCHANAN.

ABEL HUNT, THE LIQUOR SELLER, IN THE HOUSE OF CORRECTION.—In the Court of Common Pleas, at Cambridge, Massachusetts, on Tuesday, Abel Hunt of Watertown was fined $50 and costs, and sentenced to the House of Correction for three months. He was committed by the officer, and obliged to don the prison uniform.—The Boston Telegraph is informed he was assigned a position in the cooking department of the prison. Hunt is a man of large property, but he was very notorious as a liquor dealer, and has defied the law. Several of his bar tenders are or have been in the House of Correction.

SHIPWRECK AND LOSS OF TEN LIVES.—In the Northeast gale and snow storm of Monday, the brig Ellen Maria, of Frankfort, Me., from Cardenas for Boston, went ashore about 3 P. M., on the beach at Orleans, Cape Cod, and her master, Capt. Curtis, his cook, and a boy, were drowned. The Ellen Maria also had on board Capt. Treat and crew, late of barque Harriet E. Churchill, of Frankfort, which was lost near Cardenas. Of these Capt. Treat, his cook and four men unfortunately perished. The Cape Cod, or Vineyard pilot, Mr. Wm Clark, also perished. The Ellen Maria and the Harriet E. Churchill were both owned by the same parties.

A REPENTANT SUICIDE.—A man climbed over the railing of the Warren Bridge, Boston, about six o'clock Tuesday evening, but stil held fast to the rail. He was taken from his perilous situation by some men who were passing. On being asked what he was about, he replied that he intended to drown himself, but changed his mind, and wished himself on land again. He was probably insane through the effects of liquor.

☞ A lady writes to the Evening Post that since the great object of balls and parties in New York is matrimony, it would be a good plan to save expense and trouble—for mothers to invite the young men they approve of as sons-in-law to frequent their houses—and for the daughters to show candidly their preferences; so the matter would be simplified, maidens be released from anxiety, and modest youths encouraged to come to the point.

☞ The discussion of the liquor traffic is agitating the people of Lynn. Public meetings for lectures, &c. are being held, and the newspapers contain little else than what pertains to that topic. The Newburyport Herald says such agitation is as much needed in Lynn, as anywhere, for there is no place where more young men drink to excess.

CORONER'S VERDICT.—Coroner Smith has returned a verdict, in the case of sudden death at South Boston which was mentioned a few days since. The verdict was:—"That Elizabeth Miller came to her death at House No. 60 Gold street, South Boston, Feb. 27th, from consumption; that her death was accelerated by an exposure to cold, want of needful care, and long-continued acts of violence from her husband, Hugh Miller."

SLIDING SCALE OF CRIME.—De Quincey says, "If once a man indulges himself in murder, very soon he comes to think little of robbing; and from robbing he comes next to drinking, and from that to incivility and procrastination."

LIQUOR TRAFFIC RECOLLECTIONS.

Ours is a small country town; but the liquor business here has had a smart run, spreading destruction on every hand.—Those who have engaged in the traffic, have been among the principal sufferers.

The first commenced the business some less than 60 years ago. Then the traffic was regarded as honorable, there being little light to the contrary. He was a man of mind, and enterprising in all his undertakings. Neither he nor his family suffered directly by the draught that was dealt out to others.

The next commenced about 40 years ago. He acquired the habit of drinking, and so did his son, who lived with him on the homestead; and it was long understood that their wives, one if not both, used liquor rather freely. Another son died suddenly, after being at a funeral where there was drunkenness. The third generation are now on the stage, some of them are rowdyish, and anything but promising.

The next commenced after the temperance reformation did. In spite of enlightened public opinion and the entreaties of friends, he would sell. Drunkenness increased in his vicinity; one died near his premises with a bottle near him, which had been filled at his shop. But this retailer became a tipler, lost his good name, and a few thousand dollars' worth of property, by not taking care of his business, and was evidently hurried out of the world by his intemperate habits.

The next was a youngman. He had his father for a customer, whose own countenance carried the sign of the fire that was burning in his body; and a brother exhibited that he was on the road to the drunkard's doom. The traffic of this man was cut short by the strong arm of the law, and he, with an indictment of the grand jury against him, is now in parts distant.

The next made drunkards, of which he was one of the chief. He quarrelled with his family so that neighbors had to interfere. A curse hung over his affairs. He gained no property, but grew poorer. The remainder cannot be told yet.

The next sold, but he became the most frequent customer in his drinking saloon, and he died of intemperance before others that he furnished with poison; and his traffic ceased.

The last of whom we will speak, sold and sent misery and quarrelling out to the dwellings around. But the curse he sent upon others, came upon himself. He drank, and he and his wife quarrelled, so that it was apprehended that one or the other might be killed. Their home was a hell upon earth.

Here we end the chapter, by saying, in the language of the highest authority, "Woe to him that putteth the bottle to his neighbor's mouth." A WITNESS.

Crystal Stream Village.

☞ The latest murder in New York occurred on Tuesday. A woman named Sarah Miller, who resided at No. 326 Madison street, was found lying upon a bed, shockingly bruised and mangled on almost every part. Her husband, who was charged with the murder, was taken into custody, and after a thorough examination the coroner's jury returned a verdict "that the deceased came to her death from injuries received at the hands of her husband, Joseph Miller." So, the conservative influence of the gallows, which is a thrifty tree in New York, is great.

☞ The opposition railroad train, at a reduced fare, from Boston to Manchester, —has come to nothing,—and the cheap fare is withdrawn. An arrangement about freight has been made, satisfactory to the contending railroads,—but somehow the Manchester Mirror, (whence we get the news,) seems to be dissatisfied.

In Newburyport Thursday, Mr. David Mansfield, a carpenter about 23 years old, in Mr. John Currier's yard, was hewing a plank, working with his father, when his foot slipped under the old gentleman's axe, and a part of it, including the great toe and one or two others, was entirely separated from the foot.

EAST CAMBRIDGE TRIALS.—In the Common Pleas Court, Wednesday, George Hemenway and John McGrath were each found guilty under charges of selling liquor; sentence hereafter. Ann Hay of Natick (the mother of the little boy of nine years, who was last week convicted of selling liquor,) was sentenced for the same offense to twenty days in the House of Correction, and to pay a fine of $10.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

EXETER, Wednesday, March 4, 1857.

Dear Chronicle:—

A term of the Supreme Judicial Court, commenced a session here, on Tuesday of last week. Exeter is a decidedly different place, during Court term, from what it is at any other season. Jurymen, leaving their business at home, and most assured—by realizing the truth of the statement, that the Court House is the last place to come to, for making money; anxious clients, ruminating on the law's delays, and expecting the decision of their case to arrive, literally, about the day of judgment; witnesses, coming up to swear—(which they most emphatically do, sometimes, when reflecting on how much they have made by the speculation); fair ladies, to help along the courting, attending because they wish to; and naughty rascals from durance vile, because they have to,—all contribute towards making a little excitement in our otherwise quiet town. The civil suits have been postponed for the purpose of trying the criminal cases; which will probably consume the remainder of the week, if not some of the next. Among the spectators, in and about the Court House, a young man, meek and foppish-looking, is quite conspicuous, from the concern which he expresses in regard to the proceedings of the Court. This is Dr. Drew, the fellow who was arrested, with others, for a general system of stealing goods, which they carried to their residence at Stratham. Of course, he has a considerable interest in the affairs at the bar, as he stood a particularly good chance of being indicted himself, and two of his comrades, one of whom is his brother, are sent to the State's boarding-house at Concord.

Such was the general satisfaction, expressed at the Concert of Mr. Joseph S. Robinson, a few weeks ago, that it was repeated on Friday evening last, at the New Town Hall. The performance was, we understand, in no wise inferior to its predecessor, and confirms the idea, that Exeter has her share of musical talent. A repetition of Mr. B. B. Thompson's unique and and pleasing exhibition of declamation and recitations by the pupils in his school, was also given on Tuesday evening. About two hundred were in attendance, and the affair passed off well.

A paragraph appeared in the News-Letter, a week or two ago, stating that it was quite probable that Dr. Hayes—the companion of the late Dr. Kane—would lecture before the people of this town within a few weeks. A rich treat is no doubt in store for us, if he consents to appear here.

If any one here, has had any inclination to learn how to—

"Come and trip it as you go,
On the light fantastic toe—" ample opportunity has been given for the last month or two. Besides a dancing-school, which has been in full operation for some time past, an unusual large number of balls have been given at the New Town Hall. This evening, the Democracy of Exeter have a Buck and Breck ball, music by Brigham's Quadrille Band.

Yours, P. O.

☞ The winter at Newfoundland has been remarkably mild and open, the bay of St. Johns freezing over only twice, and neither time so strongly as to interfere even with the rowing of boats. Fish left on the decks of vessels did not freeze, and had to be salted in order to be preserved.

☞ The Lowell police are now notifying the owners of buildings where intoxicating liquors are sold in the city, to stop the same. There is a penalty of $1000 for letting buildings for this business.

☞ See the advertisement of a man missing, last seen in South Newmarket.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

TO THE MILLION.—Prof. Wood, of St. Louis, has, after years of deep study and untiring research, succeeded in presenting to the public an article superior to any now in use, and indeed it is truly a wonderful discovery—we advert to his Hair Restorative; the only article that has been completely successful in cheating age of his gray locks, removing dandruff, itching, scrofula, &c. It restores the gray head to more than the original beauty; adds new lustre to locks already luxuriant; having the effect on coarse, harsh hair to render it glossy and watery; fastens permanently hair that is loose or falling; and many other qualities which will become known as soon as used.

The pride of mankind is singularly developed in the keeping and arrangement of the hair; perhaps from the fact that it is the only portion of the human body that we can train in any way we choose; how important then, having this portion left to our care, that we should use all the means science has placed in our hands to render it beautiful and permanent. If you would have beautiful hair, glossy hair, permanent hair, hair with its natural color elegantly preserved to extreme old age, don't fail to purchase Wood's Hair Restorative.—[Daily Iowa State Gazette.

John P. Slough of Cincinnati, who was expelled from the Ohio Legislature by the black republicans, for striking one of them who insulted him, has been re-elected by a majority of 3.—N. H. Patriot.

LOCAL.

☞ The Inauguration Ball, at Congress Hall in this city on Wednesday evening, passed off most pleasantly. The hall, which is certainly one of the finest of its size which we were ever in, was handsomely decorated with flags, pictures, &c. On either side were the names of Buchanan & Breckinridge; and at one end, "The Constitution and the Union" — "Keystone Club;" and at the other end, "In Union is Strength"—with "Jefferson" on a shield.

The attendance was large, eighty couple being present—we are told, for we did not count. At any rate, the company was large enough, and a good sociable time was had— all "in decency and order."

An excellent supper was served at the City Hotel, about midnight, and the list of dances was not run through till nearly breakfast time. Bond's Band of course furnished good music; but we had rather dance to that of Messrs. Lamprey and Haines' Band. Altogether, the Ball was just such an one as we like, and the committee of arrangements acquitted themselves with credit—prominent among whom were Messrs. Fuller and Lamprey.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

EXETER, Tuesday, March 5.

The Jury brought in a verdict of guilty in the case State v. Winthrop Hilton.

To-day the case State v. Nickett and Weeks is on trial. Prisoners were indicted for stealing from the store of Mr. Gilman in Exeter., Sullivan for State; Marston for deft.

☞ The communication of Messrs. Bidwell & Marston, is too long for our crowded columns, and their complaints, if uttered in the ear of every citizen, would not change the result. The continued success of their excellent company, is a sufficient approval of the course of their management.

GOOD FISHING—Four men from Manchester, N. H., went a pickereling in Suncook Pond in Epsom, N. H., one day last week, and caught 65 pounds, twelve of them varying in weight from two and a half to four pounds, neither less than two and a half.

THE INAUGURAL of Mr. Buchanan is given in full. Mr. Buchanan announces that he shall not be a candidate for re-election, and that therefore his conduct will not be influenced by those selfish motives which inspire the ambitious. The document signifies as much as an English King's speech, and is about as interesting.

SINGULAR SUICIDE.—On Sunday afternoon, Mr. John Garland, a farmer of Meredith, living two miles from Centre Harbor, committed suicide by lying down and thrusting his face into a small pond of water. His legs and body were dry, and his head not more than two-thirds covered. He was about fifty-five years of age.—Some trifling neighborhood difficulties are supposed to have been the cause — Manchester (N. H.) American.

We invite our readers to the perusal of Dr. Ayer,s advertisements which appear in the columns of our paper. The Doctor is well known as one of the leading chemists of this country, who devotes his great acquirements to the discovery and manufacture of remedies for popular use. The unparalelled success which has followed his labors is too well known in this community to need any elucidation from our pen.— Washington Co. Observer.

WASHINGTON, 5th.—The report that the Deficiency Appropriation bill failed to receive the signature of the President, lacks confirmation.

The bill is believed to have been duly signed.

UNPOETICAL WIFE. — Sienbenbas could never inspire Lenette with a lyrical enthusiasm of love, in which she could forget heaven and earth and every thing else. She could count the strokes of the clock between his kisses, and could listen and run off to the saucepan that was boiling over, with all the big tears in her eyes which he had pressed out of her melting heart by a touching story or a sermon. She accompanied in her devotion the Sunday hymns, which echoed loudly from the neighboring apartments, and in the midst of a verse she would interwoave the prosaic question,—"What shall I warm up for supper?"—and he could never banish from his remembrance that once, when she was quite touched, and listening to his cabinet discourse upon death and eternity, she looked at him thoughtfully, but toward his feet, and at length said, "don't put on the left stocking to-morrow; I must darn it."

☞ The Louisville Journal says, and supports its assertion with figures, that:

"The charge of abolition proclivities, continually howled forth by Democratic demagogues against the American party, is the most ridiculously absurd of all the calumnies to which the Democratic party has resorted. It is a fact, that in Kentucky by far the largest portion of the largest slave holders belonging to the American party; and that the greatest portion of these Democratic Kansas-Nebraska shriekers, and those among them who shriek most loudly, are non slaveholders."

☞ The Albany Times of Thursday relates the following:—

Yesterday afternoon Chauncey Burr of New York—formerly the "Rev"—of considerable notoriety, was assaulted in Stanwix Hall, by one of a party of three men from New York, who also accused him of all sorts of political and moral delinquencies. Finally the 'one' pulled off his coat and assaulted Mr. B., but was incontinently knocked by him over a table and sent sprawling on the floor some feet distant from his original position. Bystanders then stepped in and closed the conflict.

The young man was very 'tight', and probably after a night's reflection will conclude that he unnecessarily made a 'judy' of himself.

☞ John H. Cooper of Fayette county, Ky., lately sold eighty-four yearling mules at $125 a head.

Lawrence's Carminative,

OR

CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.

THIS Invaluable Preparation is a favorite scientific prescription of one of the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in New England, and one who has been as successful as any other in the treating of

DISEASES OF CHILDREN,

and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically

A CHILD'S MEDICINE,

and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy sure to be followed by a "Dose of Physic."

The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty, and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues

The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhœa, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness, and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; it will regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour Stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS,

and parents who value rest not fail to buy a bottle, as they may depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir;—Having made trial of your Carminative, in several severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.

NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 23, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.

Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1853.

Mr. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infancy,—a class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

BENJAMIN NORTON

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than it sold here. Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense.

Also, for sale 440 acres of fine Timber Land.

Concluded from 1st page.

when we reflect on the terrific evils which would result from disunion to every portion of the confederacy—to the North not more than to the South, to the East not more than to the West. These I shall not attempt to portray, because I feel an humble confidence that the kind Providence which inspired our fathers with wisdom to frame the most perfect form of government and union ever devised by man, will not suffer it to perish until it shall have been peacefully instrumental, by its example, in the extension of civil and religious liberty.

Next in importance to the maintenance of the Constitution and the Union is the duty of preserving the government free from taint, or even the suspicion of corruption. Public virtue is the vital spirit of republics, and history proves that when this has decayed, and the love of money has usurped its place, although the forms of free government may remain for a season, the substance has departed forever.

Our financial condition is without a parallel in history. No nation has ever before been embarrassed from so large a surplus in its treasury. This, almost necessarily, gives birth to extravagant legislation. It produces wild schemes of expenditures, and begets a race of speculators and jobbers, whose ingenuity is exerted in contriving and promoting expedients to obtain the public money. The party, through its official agents, whether rightfully, or wrongfully, is suspected, and the character of the government suffers in the estimation of the people. This is in itself a very great evil. The national mode of relief from this embarrassment is to appropriate the surplus in the treasury to great national objects for which a clear warrant can be found in the Constitution. Among these, I might mention the extinguishment of the public debt; a reasonable increase of the Navy, which is at present inadequate to the protection of our vast tonnage afloat, now greater than that of any other nation, as well as the defence of our extended sea coast.

It is beyond all question the true principle, that no more revenue ought to be collected from the people, than the amount necessary to defray the expenses of a wise and economical and efficient administration of the government.

To reach this point it was necessary to resort to a modification of the tariff, and this has been accomplished in such a manner as to do as little injury as may have been practicable to our domestic manufactures, especially those necessary for the defence of the country. Any discrimination against a particular branch for the purpose of benefiting favored corporations, individuals, or interests, would have been unjust to the rest of the country, and inconsistent with that spirit of firmness and equality which ought to govern in the adjustment of the revenue tariff.

But the squandering of the public money sinks into comparative insignificance as a temptation to corruption, when compared with the squandering of the public lands. No nation in the tide of time has ever been blessed with so rich and noble an inheritance, as we enjoy in the public lands. In administering this important trust, whilst it may be wise to grant a portion of them for the improvement of the remainder, yet we should never forget that it is our cardinal policy to preserve these lands as much as may be for actual settlers, and that in moderate prices.

We shall thus not only best promote the prosperity of the new states, by furnishing them a hardy and independent race of honest and industrious citizens, but shall secure homes for our children and our children's children, as well as for those exiles from foreign shores who may seek, in this country, to improve their condition, and to enjoy the blessings of civil and religious liberty. Such emigrants have done much to promote the growth and prosperity of the country. They have proved faithful, both in peace and war. After becoming citizens, they are entitled, under the Constitution and laws, to be placed on perfect equality with native born citizens, and in this character they should ever be kindly recognized.

The federal Constitution is a great bond of union between the States to Congress, of certain specific powers, and the question, whether this grant shall be liberally or strictly construed, has, more or less, divided political parties from the beginning. Without entering into the argument, I desire to state, at the commencement of my administration, that long experience and observation have convinced me that a strict construction of the powers of the government is the only true, as well as the only safe theory of the Constitution.

Whenever in our past history, doubtful powers have been exercised by Congress, they have never failed to exercise injurious and unhappy consequences. Many such instances might be adduced, if this were the proper occasion. Neither is it necessary for the public service to strain the language of the Constitution, because all the great and useful powers required for a successful administration of the government, both in peace and war, have been granted, either in express terms or by the plainest implication. Whilst deeply convinced of these truths, I yet consider it clear that under the war making power Congress may appropriate money towards the construction of a military road, when this is absolutely necessary for the defence of any state or territory of the Union against foreign invasion. Under the Constitution Congress has power to declare war—to raise and support armies—to provide and maintain a navy—and to call forth the militia to repel invasion. Thus endowed in an ample manner with the war making power, the corresponding duty is required, that the United States shall protect each of them (the states) against invasion. How is it possible to afford this protection to California and our Pacific possessions, except by means of a military road through the territory of the United States, over which men and munitions of war may be speedily transported from the Atlantic states, to meet and expel the invaders? In case of a war with a naval power much stronger than our own, we should have no other available access to the Pacific coast, because such a power would instantly close the route across the Isthmus of Central America. It is impossible to conceive that, whilst the Constitution has expressly required Congress to defend all the states, it should yet deny to them, by any fair construction, the only possible means by which one of these states can be defended. Besides, the government, ever since its origin, has been in the constant practice of constructing military roads. It might also be wise to consider whether the love for the Union, which now animates our fellow citizens on the Pacific coast, may not be impaired by our neglect or refusal to provide for them in their remote and isolated condition, the only means by which the power of the states on this side of the Rocky Mountains can reach them in sufficient time to protect them against invasion. I forbear for the present from expressing an opinion as to the wisest and most economical mode in which the government can lend its aid in accomplishing this great and necessary work. I believe that many difficulties in the way, which now appear formidable, would, in a great degree, vanish as soon as the nearest and best route shall have been satisfactorily ascertained.

It may be right that, on this occasion, I should make some brief remarks as to our rights and duties as a member of the great family of nations.—In our intercourse with them, there are some plain principles, approved by our own experience, from which we should never depart. We ought

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Fassett & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they (themselves were present at the drawing. Address or call which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of Tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing noticed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twelve years, continues to procure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, at as reasonable terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of invention, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that at no agency in the world are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast fund of specifications and other useful decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States, renders his facilities for any required question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents, more than any other person, and I feel that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, ability, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot secure a more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 7TH, 1856.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

5 lb. Y. Hyson "	2.25	5 lb. good "	1.00

☞ PARTICULAR ATTENTION is called the attention of customers and dealers to our Spanish Coffee, as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by a process peculiar to roasting, one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 1½ lb. of any other.

The medicinal properties of Dandelion are well known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root, with all its medicinal virtues retained, is thought with good reason to be best suited to the taste, and will be found cheap and economical as a family beverage, one pound of which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee. It is prescribed by many eminent physicians to invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Bilious affections &c.

We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855

Hutchins' Hair Dye.
The very best now in use, as the many thousands that have tried it will testify.
THE great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, being put up in one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and, instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any other Dye sold to the public.

A Perfect Substitute
For the Lancet, Leeches and Blisters!
OF ITS INTRINSIC VALUE, THE ENLIGHTENED COMMUNITY, AND NOT THE DISCOVERER, MUST BE THE JUDGE.
MANY medicines offered for sale are accompanied by doubtful certificates, (their chief virtue) and claim to be universal remedies, curing all maladies—a burlesque on common sense. As the discoverer of this Salt solemnly protests against having it placed in the category of frauds and impositions, he has resolved that it shall go forth to the world like the pure gold dollar, with no other passport than its own true value. If the public find it genuine they will receive it—if spurious, they will reject and condemn it. Instead of being a panacea for all ills, it has control over but one ill—but one elm and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin.
When the discoverer, after a long series of laborious and costly experiments, became fully confirmed in his conviction that the Antiphlogistic Salt which he now has the happiness to present to the American public, was a
for Blood-letting, Leeches and Blisters, his mind was so agitated that he could not sleep for many nights. The cause of his agitation was the striking fact that the manner of his opera tion, like that in the Western Hemisphere, could not be satisfactorily explained to any known principle How, in what way, it so effectually subdues inflammatory diseases and no others, was it first wholly inexplicable—but on further experiment, it was proved that by its power over the veins, arteries and glands, it equalizes the fluids of the body, the want of an equilibrium in which, is the sole cause of inflammation. It excites, like the vaccine matter, an extraordinary influence over the circulation—resulting in a gradual decline of inflammation as indicated by the pulse, which soon resumes its natural state, as the time of no pain disappears.—Such is its potency, that like the virus just mentioned, it requires what merely adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system—but more than is usually used to prevent decomposition and secure its full virtue. Three quills in acute, and two in chronic cases, every twenty or thirty hours, till the heat and fever have subsided and the cure effected.—When it takes the place of leeches, stimulating ointments and blisters in local inflammation, as Erysipelas, Quinsy, Tooth ache, Pleurisy, &c., its mode of administration is two-fold. (See directions for dissolving, &c.)
☞ The peculiar excellence of this Salt is that without the usual loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures inflammatory diseases (no matter where) by producing an equilibrium of the fluids in the body and a consequent uninterrupted circulation. The following diffusible and soluble Antiphlogistic fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever or pain, are as perfectly subdued by the Antiphlogistic Salt, as fire is extinguished by water.
1—Cases where the unbalanced fluid affects the HEAD and THROAT—to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, Fits, Inflammation of the Ears and Nose, Canker, Neuralgia, Catarrh, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, &c.
2—Cases where the unbalanced fluids affect the CHEST and LUNGS—to wit: Pleurisy, Asthma, Inflamed Lungs, Pain in the side, Coughs, Heartburn, Dyspepsia, Gravel, Gonorrhea, Venereal &c.
3—Cases where the unbalanced fluids affect the EXTREMITIES and SKIN—to wit: Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, Ulcers, Chilblains and Small Pox, Salt Rheum, and all itching and other Cutaneous Eruptions.
This salt greatly alleviates the inflammatory pains peculiar to married ladies, (before and at the time of confinement,) and many Female Complaints; and is very efficacious in Fevers, Agur, Wounds, Burns and Bruises, Bilious Affections, and any other forms of (mark this) inflammatory disease, attended with heat or febrile symptoms.
☞ Persons who have a tendency of blood to the head and heart, or lead inactive lives, or breathe the impure air of manufactories, or of the poisonous fumes of metals and minerals, or live in unhealthy climates, are exposed to a peculiar violation of the fluids of the body, which one dose, without interfering with diet or business, may in three months, would invariably PREVENT. It is believed to afford protection from infectious diseases; and therefore it is recommended to travellers, sailors and soldiers.
☞ To protect the community from imposition by counterfeits, the proprietor will employ no AGENT, and has made such arrangements that he can send the medicine, promptly, by MAIL or EXPRESS, to any part of the United States or foreign countries. Its prime cost to the discoverer is $1 50 per drachm—price $2 per drachm—and is put up in drachm packages for acute diseases, (with directions, &c) at $2; three drachms do. for chronic cases, $5; and five drachms do. for families, $8—a net profit of fifty cents on each package.
☞ While many nostrum makers victimize the good natured and pill ridden public by ordering from six to a dozen bottles of their trash to cure any malady, no matter what, the unprejudiced is happy in being able to state, that the severest forms of chronic inflammatory disease are overcome by one Acute package, and the most obstinate and long standing cases by one Chronic package. Although thirty days have not elapsed since this new medicine and agent became partially known to the citizens of Boston and a few neighboring towns, yet such have been the results of its trial, that during the past week, nearly 60 packages were sold by one agent, and orders received by mail and express for 153 Family, 347 Chronic, and 385 Acute packages. In one instance six persons clubbed together and wrote for six packages, (of the "Little Giant," Acute,) to be forwarded to one address—thereby saving expense to themselves and the proprietor.
☞ Letters from clubs or individuals with money (if over $5) should be registered at the post office where mailed, as it costs but five cents, and will insure their safe arrival.
☞ The discoverer now humbly submits his Perfect Substitute for the lancet, leeches and blisters, to the intelligent and candid public, reiterating that it does just what it aims to do—no more, no less; SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE, (no others,) whatever be its form or locality, by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids.
Family packages $8, Chronic $5, Acute $2; to be had (free of expense) only by addressing him through Box 232, Boston, Mass., or at HIS OFFICE, No. 3 WINTER STREET.
Cut out this advertisement and his communication in another column, for the perusal of your neighbors and your own future use.

HOUSE OF REFORMATION.

The Concord Patriot says that this institution will cost the State $150,000 or $200,000, "if the expressed design of the party in power is carried out."

But how does the Patriot know what the expressed design of the ruling party is? It can only judge of it by its acts. What the party may do in relation to the Reform School, or the Insane Asylum, or the St te House, no one can predict, but what it has done in relation to the Reform School is a matter of record, and this record only is evidence for what the party is responsible. Let us examine it. In '55 both parties voted to authorize the Commissioners to erect Buildings, and did not limit expense. The Commissioners not desiring to commit the State, before proceeding to much expense, reported plans to be presented to the Legislature which might be enlarged or curtailed as the Legislature might decide. The Legislature adopted the curtailed plan, upon which plan the Commissioners have erected the Building—the expense of which the Commissioners have given in another place, being only $33,000. This curtailed plan, it will be remembered, the Democrats all voted against last year, which was manifestly done for political capital, wishing to commit the ruling party to as great expense as possible. For the same reas n they voted for an extra session.

Thus it will be seen that the ruling party have limited the expenses which had been previously authorized by the Hunkers.

It will be recollected, that among, other estimates made of the cost, ("based upon the original plans," it was said "which was submitted to the Legislature last June by the Commissioners") were the following: One of these, was "Stone work, above foundation including portico &c. estimated at 12,000." Now we find upon examination that this work has been contracted for, been completed by Mr. E. L. Childs, of Concord, and his receipts have been given in full for $2,090, the entire cost. Again, "Excavating and Foundation," estimated at "$11,500." This work has been contracted for and completed by Brown and Campbell, for $3,950, and their receipts given in full. Again, "Brick work," estimated at "$30,000." The Brick has been furnished by Nathaniel Head, and laid by Morrison & Co. costing in all $10,958. Again, Architect's Commission and expenses," estimated at "$3,100." Mr. Bryant of Boston, has already contracted to do the whole work for $1,100. Again, Carpenters' work and Materials, Labor, Windows, Doors, Painting, Glazing, and Plastering," estimated at $47,300. Alpheus Gray and Albion Barker have agreed, including already what they have done, to complete the same for $11,125. From these facts above given, showing conclusively the base misrepresentations the Hunkers are scattering before the people in the way of "circulars," we feel confident that no one would be received by them.—Manchester American.

SIXTY PERSONS POISONED.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal, under date of March 3, says:

"The writer of this, with a party, arrived in Washington on the evening of the 5th of February, all in good health. We stopped at the National Hotel; and on the morning of the 8th we were all taken violently ill. A physician was called, who pronounced our case poison, and said he understood that there were about sixty others in the house suffering in like manner. Our party left the hotel as soon as we were able to do so, and have suffered much sickness up to this time. Our friends at Washington have since written to us that on examining the copper kettles in the house, they were found to have been so long in use as to have the tinning worn off from the inside and were covered with verdigris. And in the tanks that supplied the house with water, were found a large number of dead rats, which had been poisoned by arsenic. This I think is sufficient to account for the sickness of so large a number of persons. I am at present confined to my house from the effects of the poison.

One of the boarders procured extra large doses f arsenic, which he disposed of in the most tempting manner about the house. The rats ate the poison. It is well known that when rats partake of arsenic they pat directly for water. There is a large tank of water in the upper part of the hotel referred to, and into this the host of rats plunged, drank, burstsd and died. From this tank the house is supplied with water for drinking and cooking purposes.

Twenty or thirty of the guests were suddenly, and some of them severely, affected from the use of the water thus impregnated with the poison.

Among those who were found at the Hotel was Mr. Buchanan. He left suddenly for Wheatland, where he arrived suffering severely from diarrhœa. He was, however, less severely affected than the others, and in short time recovered sufficently to receive visitors.

Dr. Jones, of Berks, was more severely affected, and has been lying in a critical condition ever since and a doubt about his recovery has left his appointment to a place in the Cabinet an open question up to the present time.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—At the meeting of this Association held on Thursday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

Wm. Seavey, President.
T. L. Bradshaw. C. E. Dixon, Vice Presidents.
John C. Works, Recording Secretary.
Amos S. Foster, Corresponding Secretary.
Henry Works, Treasurer.
L. Edwin Martin, Librarian.
John H. Stickney, Assistant Librarian.
Directors—John H. Lowd, F. W. Ham, John S. Reid, J. E. Rider, Augustus Todd, Elisha Tripp, Thos. J. Spinney, Chas. E. Dixon.

John B. Gough, at the close of his lecture in Chicago, on Tuesday evening, was presented with a beautiful casket filled with gold coin, and a rich elaborate vase, the whole cost of the testimonial being $500. The presentation was made by Rev. Mr. Curtis, in behalf of "two hundred ladies" of that city.

HOUSE OF REFORMATION.

The N. H. Patriot says:

If the voters of New Hampshire wish to get a correct view of the Palace for Prostitutes and Criminals, as the Hindoos propose to make it, let them look at the engravings given in the Commissioner's Report to the Legislature.

Every vote for Hails, is a vot to squander at least $125,000 to build and adorn a palace for juvenile and female criminals, which the people will be taxed to pay.

Every vote for Wells is a vote for economy.

We suppose that the "House of Reformation for Juvenile and Female Offenders against the Laws," at Manchester, N. H., according to the plans reported to the Legislature, June, 1856, by the Commissioners, will be built, whatever party may prevail; and we suppose also, it is best to build it well and thoroughly. We have seen no evidence that Mr. Wells is opposed to the building, or wishes to build it cheap and mean and shabby.

Yet we suppose by the above extracts from the Patriot, that this House of Reformation business is to be the principal State plank in the platform, for the next election. We shall see how much of a shanty can be made on such a foundation.

WASHINGTON NEWS. — The telegraphic dispatches of Thursday evening say:—

Hon. J. Glancy Jones is very ill.

The decision in the Dred Scott case is that the Missouri Compromise is unconstitutional, and that Congress has no power over the question of slavery in the Territories, and also the right of a slaveholder to carry his slave into a free State temporarily, or in other words the right of transitu.

That is, in plain English, slavery is national, and may go everywhere, under the protection of this court, with the army and navy of the U. S. to support it.—But freedom may go—where it can find a refuge—to Canada, or elsewhere.

And the people of New Hampshire are invited to respond to this decision with the most humble and cheerful submission," next Tuesday!

Will they do it?

The bill giving extra compensation to the clerks in Congress was passed, but the President refused to sign it.

The almshouse of Washington city was destroyed by fire on Monday last, and an insane colored woman named Eliza Baltimore, perished in the flames.

THE NEW TARIFF.—The Tariff bill which was finally passed at almost the last hour of the session, is a compromise between conflicting interests. It is mainly based on free trade in raw materials and a general reduction of the other schedules.

The following synopsis of it, is from the Boston Chronicle.

Schedule A, containing brandies and all distilled spirits and cordials, is reduced from 100 per cent. to 30 per cent. Schedule B, containing fruits, spices, segars, snuff, and all kinds of wines, which paid 40 per cent., is divided; the first two transferred to the free list, while segars, snuff, and wines are reduced to 30 per cent. Schedule C, including most manufactures of woolens, sugars, clothing, and wearing apparel, carpets, iron, and iron manufactures, is reduced from 30 per cent. to 24 per cent., but some articles in the old schedule are reduced still lower. Most of the articles in schedule D, which paid 25 p r cent., are reduced to 19 per cent., but with some exceptions; silks, and cottons, bleached, dyed, colored, or printed, and printed delaines, are retained at 24 per cent, but plain brown cottons are reduced to 19 per cent. The friends of the woolen interests struggled hard to retain all cottons at 24 per cent., and only gave way when it was necessary to prevent a general reduction on all cottons to the lower rate.

Schedule E, with the exception of transferred items, is reduced from 20 to 15 per per cent; this includes blankets as a compensation for free wool, in addition to the general reduction on other woolen manufactures. Schedule E, now paying 15, is mostly made free, and the remaining articles, including some items transferred to this list from higher schedules, are reduced to 12 per cent. Schedule G, now paying 10 per cent., is changed in many respects in the same way as schedule F, and the remaining articles are reduced to 8 per cent. Schedule H is also changed to some extent, and reduced to 4 per cent. Schedule I is free list, and includes, in addition to the old list, spices, most drugs, chemicals and dye stuffs.

Among the merchants of Boston there is a diversity of opinion on the merits of the bill. The great reduction of duties on plain brown cotton will doubtless create serious dissatisfaction among some New England manufacturers. In other respects it will be received with general satisfaction.

PAPERS—POLITICS—MORALS.

—, Vt., March, 1857.

Dear Uncle Toby:

I am surprised and sorry to find that you have followed me across the Green Mountains. I am sorry, for I have no time to spare for your chat; and yet whenever your paper comes in my reach, I always read it more thoroughly than any other paper I take. That I suppose you call a compliment; well, you deserve it. But again, I am sorry, for I hate politics, and particularly the politics of New Hampshire — which, with its annual election of Governor and entire State Senate, are an especial abomination to me.—Unless, therefore, my paper is a present to me from a personal friend of mine, (which I suspect is a fact, and in which case I will gratefully receive it,) please stop it forthwith.

As you generally make me talk aloud when I speak to you, I will just whisper now in confidence, that we are not as moral on this side of the Green Mountains as I wish we were. Take for example the village of Middlebury, with less than three thousand inhabitants, two hotels, two bar ers, a College, an Academy, a Female Seminary, and a good solid jail. Well, this winter the hotel keepers have paid fines for gratifying the thirst of customers, contrary to law, to the amount of $150 and $100 each. One of the barbers paid also his quota of $75. This sum of $225 must considerably exceed the cost of maintaining the poor for an entire year. But it cannot be relied upon for annual income, for if the same men are called on to contribute again, they must also take up their quarters in jail, and the risk of that no business man is now willing to run. The other barber, a quiet, gentlemanly mulatto, has not patriotism enough to put his foot in; and unless some new mine is discovered, the citizens will have to tax themselves in future, as other communities do.

Such college students as cannot be happy without a spree now and then, will be apt to give Middlebury College a wide birth, but it is earnestly hoped that their absence will not injure the College.

YOURS, OTTERBANK.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS.—A Louisville paper says: "A young lady appeared in our streets, the sole occupant of a conspicuous seat upon a load of wood, having driven the team a distance of several miles into the city without assistance. She sold her wood very readily, and purchasing some family necessaries, she threw them and herself into the wood wagon, and pursued her way home to the rapid measure of 'Pop goes the weasel,' which she whistled with masculine taste and spirit. The young lady appears to be about 18 years of age, and does not adopt the novel calling from necessity, (for her father has taxable to the amount of $10,000,) but merely as a right."

☞ The ladies of Batavia, Michigan, offered to board, wash and clothe a young man, and supply him with pocket money, if he would give up the sale of liquor; but he was deaf to their entreaties, and they attacked his rum casks with augers and axes, and his stock in trade quickly vanished. He replenished his stores, when the operation was repeated, with the intimation that a third offence would entitle him to a ride on a rail.

☞ The Manchester American of March 4, says, "quite a motley collection from that city availed themselves on Tuesday evening of the offer of a free ride over the Nashua route to Boston. This seems to have been the only benefit arising from the railroad war!"

☞ Lawrence's Carminative, we learn, has a good reputation, is prescribed by some of the best physicians in New Hampshire, and we hear it well spoken of. See advertisement in to-day's paper.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise each of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, pronouncing it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for gray beards." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose locks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—[St. Louis Herald.

CONGRESS.—Among the proceedings in the House, on Tuesday, were the following upon the Naval Appropriation bill;—

Mr. Bocock of Virginia, from the Committee of Conference on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on the Naval Appropriation bill, submitted a report there on, which, among other things, increased the number of seamen from 7500 to 8500, and appropriated one million of dollars for the construction of five sloops-of-war, to be fitted with screw propellers. The report was agreed to—yeas 90, nays 73. So the bill was passed.

As far as the record shows, it is not yet known that the House bill for depositing the surplus revenue among the states ever reached the Senate or was acted upon there.—Boston Courier.

☞ William W. Leland, formerly of the Metropolitan Hotel, Boston, and since Secretary and Treasurer of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company, has a large interest in the contract with the Russian Government to raise the fleet at Sebastopol, and is to leave this country with his party during April, to enter upon his work.

ELECTION NEWS — HEAVY ROBBERY.—Chicago, March 4.—John Wentworth was yesterday elected Mayor of this city, by 1100 m jority. The whole of the Republican ticket was elected by a large majority.

There was considerable fighting in the 10th ward, and two men were killed.

George Armour, of the firm of Munger & Armour, who was injured in the fight in the 7th ward yesterday, died this morning.

The Messenger of the Marine Bank, of this city, while settling a balance at the Exchange Bank, yesterday, was robbed of a bag containing $6000. No clue to the robber has been discovered.

☞ The Court House of Macon County, Georgia, together with many valuable records and documents, was destr yed by fire on Thursday last. It was the work of an incendiary, as there had been no fire in the building for several days.

LOCAL.

"PERLEY," the Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal, in a letter dated March 2, says—"The bids for building the Portsmouth Custom House were open this morning, and showed as great a variety of figuring as was witnessed during the last election, varying from $119,361, put in by Poland and Cohern of Boston, down to $82,728, put in by C. H. Merrill. Among the bidders were Albert Currier of Newburyport, Crosby and others of Lowell, Messrs. Roby, Myers and Blaisdell of Boston, and Adams & Jacobs, whose bid of $100,987 may be the one accepted."

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

EXETER, March 6.

In the case, State v. Alfred Page, of Salem—indicted for "keeping intoxicating liquor for sale," against the statute—the Jury brought in a verdict of guilty. The Court therefore sentenced the respondent to pay a fine of $50 and costs of prosecution, and to stand committed until the sentence is complied with.

In the case, State v. Henry A. Weeks and Joseph Nicket—indicted for larceny of money from John Gilman—the Jury brought in a verdict of guilty. The Court sentenced each to imprisonment in the County Jail for a term of six months, and to pay costs of prosecution.

The case, State v. James Halpenny—for highway robbery at Portsmouth—is postponed to the adjournal term, to be holden at Exeter on the 17th inst.

The offence being punishable by imprisonment for life, much interest has been felt by this community to hear the trial.—The chief State witness is the most unquestionable specimen of foreign importation, in the shape of "an original package."

The Court adjourned this afternoon, to Tuesday, March 17.

☞ A lecture on slavery, by a man who has been himself a slave, is advertised to take place at the Temple, on Sunday evening. Admission 5 cts. Mr. Gilbert, the lecturer, first ran away from slavery to Canada, and then bought himself, by the payment of $400. He comes well recommended.

"THE NATIVES' CONCERT," EXETER.—The repetition of this Concert came off Friday evening at the Town Hall. It was well attended, well conducted, and the singing was excellent, reflecting great credit on Mr. J. S. Robinson the conducter, and on those who so kindly and so efficiently assisted him in furnishing an agreeable entertainment to those who enjoy the rich old strains of their melodies. The accompaniment by the Cornet Band was very good, and we congratulate our fellow-citizens that we have among us the elements of such fine vocal and instrumental music, as to make us, with proper encouragement to those who are training themselves, independent of foreign importations, in this most delightful species of entertainment.

THE FOUNDLING.—The infant left at the Manchester Depot ten days ago has been adopted into the family of Mr. Spofford on Manchester street. We received a letter from one of the best citizens of Belknap County yesterday, offering to adopt the child as his own, and we regretted to learn that the offer came two or three days too late. The mother of the infant has not been heard of since she left Lowell, the morning after she left this city.—Manchester American.

☞ The Albany Journal, of Tuesday evening, says the friends of Horace Greeley will learn with sorrow that death has taken from him his only surviving son. He was a lad full of interest and of promise.

☞ Mr. Forney, Chairman of the State Committee, made a speech in the Pennsylvania Convention, alluding to his defeat for the Senatorship, saying the usages of party had been violated, and the fruits of a great Presidential victory permitted to rot under their feet.

PERSONAL.—We learn that Hon. Samuel Wells, late Governor of Maine, is about to remove his law business from Portland, and associate himself with H. W. Paine, Esq., in the legal profession in Boston.—Boston Journal.

We believe that a large number of the Maine politicians intend to remove to Boston so as to be in readiness for any office in this locality which Mr. Buchanan may desire to bestow upon them.—Boston Herald.

ANTIPHLOGISTIC SALT.—Every discovery in medical science that is calculated to lessen the ills that humanity is heir to, is a common benefaction. Such a discovery is claimed to have been made by Dr. Coggswell, of Boston, as will be seen by a communication in a preceding paper, and an advertisement on the first page of to-day's paper. If inflammations can be subdued as claimed, without blood-letting or blistering, the Antiphlogistic Salt will be recognised as one of the great st discoveries of the age. And that it is capable of this, may be tested, at a very small expense, compared with the result which it professes to accomplish.—Palmyra (N. Y.) Sentinel.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, March 5.

The Collins steamship Atlantic, from Liverpool, afternoon 18th ult., reached this port, this evening.

Steamship Great Britain left Liverpool on the 16th, with 520 passengers for Melbourne.

GREAT BRITAIN.—The total reduction of taxation proposed in the Chancellor of the Exchequer's budget is £12,000,000.

The debate on the financial project had been postponed to March 10.

A motion had passed, expelling James Sadlier from the House of Commons.

The London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says Odo Russel, nephew of Lord John Russel, will accompany Lord Napier as Attache to Washington.

FRANCE.—On the 16th, the Emperor opened the Legislature with a speech from the throne, midst great pomp and enthusiasm. The Emperor referred to the peaceable solution of the recent difficulties amongst the various European powers, and, considering that the best understanding now prevails between all the great powers, thinks the time auspicious to endeavor to regulate and develope the strength and riches of the nation at home. He rejoices over the prosperous condition of the country, as evinced by the largely increasing revenue; regrets the suffering caused by deficient crops and recent inundations; says expenditures are to be reduced, and the war tax abolished from January next; the annual army contingent is fixed at 100,000 men; says application is made for a Trans-Atlantic line of steamers; and after referring to sundry local topics, winds up with a panegyric upon the state of the empire.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The steamer Persia is below.

She brings dates of the 21st ult.

The Persian difficulty, which a few days since appeared in a fair way of settlement, has taken an unexpected and unfavorable turn. Teruk Khan, the Persian Envoy, having suddenly ceased negotiations with the British Minister at Paris, and will not come to London.

The Russians have resumed the war on the Caucassus and are reported to have received a large cession of territory from Persia.

The London Morning Advertiser asserts that the government is in possession of a despatch, announcing the total destruction of the city of Canton by the British.

HOGS.—The Louisville Journal states that it is estimated that upwards of 1000 young hogs have perished from cold in the northern part of Kentucky, during the present winter—a loss that will seriously affect the hog crop of 1857, particularly if the same unfortunate result has occurred in other sections. That paper says:

The scarcity of corn in northern Kentucky is such that some farmers killed off man of their shoats to avoid the expense of wintering them, while hundreds of others sent their droves to the mountains.

The recent heavy snow storm, which covered the tops and sides of the mountains to the depth of ten or twelve inches, drifted to a much greater extent in the hollows, where the hogs naturally congregated in search of the mast that had rolled down. The snow having concealed their food from them, their whole aim was to keep warm, and that by huddling together in heaps or piles, the largest and fattest beneath and and the smaller pigs on top. By this means immense numbers were overlaid or smothered to death, and those always the fattest and most valuable.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Mr. Bigler will this week, present the protest of the Democrats of the Pennsylvania Legislature, against Mr. Cameron.

The President will to-morrow communicate his cabinet appointments.

It is probable that the Senate will be employed next week with the contested election cases from Indiana and Pennsylvania.

SPRINGFIELD, March 5.—The main building of the Williston Seminary at East Hampton was burnt yesterday afternoon. Insured for $10,000 at the Ætna Office, Hartford. It will be immediatly rebuilt, and the school will not be interrupted.

DETROIT, March 5.—Five more convicts escaped from the State Prison at Jackson last night, by cutting through the top cells and the roof of the prison. Four of them were retaken.

PENALTY OF DEATH.—Providence, March 5th.—The Senate to-day refused, by two majority, to restore capital punishment, except in case of murder committed in the State Prison.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir:—Having made trial of your Carminative, in diverse severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as it is known.

NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 23, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the wallow. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.

Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

BENJAMIN NORTON

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than if sold here. Or Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED.)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Feb. 8, 1856.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse so effectually that they will do others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE.

(See Ly Mail.)

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

PROCEEDING OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say that they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so stubborn that it did not speedily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,

Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 18, 1855

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the best family medicine they have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored, all great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody flux. One of our neighbors was sick and pining away, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctor bills, and lost much time, without benefit. We think we know a good medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFITH, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. F. Hume, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of whatever ailed her, both as to health and feel that had proved troublesome for her for years. My own health has been greatly afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have entirely cured her of all her ailments.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your pills have brought me if I did not report my case to you. A most excruciating pain in my hip, which I took to be neuralgic pain, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until I was crippled. I was at least again in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SEVERE CHANCRES, HAVING RESISTED ALL, 5 Dec., 1854.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a pill sold, from the nature of the disease, to be frequently follow the incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the croup and hooping cough, when it does prove dangerous. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and carry your colds while they are curable, and neglect them until no human skill can master the inveterate canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of being deceived, and so they fatally are of the virtues of this remedy, we need not dare to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no pains to make it the most perfect medicine, and offer it with these who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Farnie & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the Managers desire to make known is, that all prizes have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized in every city of this state. The lottery draws by special law in that state. Prizes particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets are from 50 to $20. The tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing notified to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard him as one of the best informed, honest and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

Eighty Instruments per Week.

of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Heretofore, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Boston Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '56.

"Messrs. Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Melodeon. In trumpet tone and other respects we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen in the newspapers, because we could supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon you have sent, and is a beautiful instrument it is. It has been played on by Wallace, Dodt, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very resellly. JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who have not purchased, that they will be pleased, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

HIGH PRICES FOR MEN AND WOMEN.—The Marlboro' (Md.) Advocate records the following sale which took place last week in Prince George County:

"Dani l C. Digges, Esq., as attorney for Henr S. Mitchell, esq., disposed of several slaves on Monday. One was sold at public sale, a man, who was bought by William C. Beall, Esq., for $900. A family consisting of a woman and four children, two boys and two girls, were bought by George W. Graham, Esq., at private sale, at 3,125. A slave man belonging to Thomas Marshall, Esq., was sold at the same time. He was purchased by George W. Willson, Esq., for $950.

"I NEVER DRINK ENOUGH TO HURT ME!" You never do? Then why that peculiar tinge on your cheek? Why that reckleness of character? Don't deceive yourself, dear friend. You are in danger; and it is a kindness to tell you so. Thirty thousand people die every year in our country, simply because they do not drink enough to hurt them. Half a million are pressing hard after, upon the crumbling verge of a drunkard's grave. Several millions more are bending their steps more or less rapidly to the same direction. You are a candidate for a place among the half million of actual drunkards.

Think you that any one of the modern drinkers with whom you train, will admit that he drinks enough to hurt him? And yet from all this class do death and the devil take their pick. They are after you. Depend upon it they are after you. And you are welcoming their insidious approach. Beware! young men, beware!

DEATH FROM A FALL.—Chancellor G., aged 21 years, son of Jonas Livingston, Esq., Agent of the Monadnock Mills Co., died at Claremont (N. H.) on Thursday morning last, from the rupture, as is supposed, of the left lobe of the lungs, produced by a fall. On the Sunday morning previous, says the Eagle, as he was going out of his boarding house, he slipped, and only saved himself from falling by a severe effort. He was sensible at the time that he had injured himself internally, and went to his room, where after vomiting for a while he found himself so weak as to be unable to make himself heard by the inmates of the house, and remained alone some four or five hours. It is generally believed that he took cold while alone, occasioning inflammation, followed by congestion, from which he died on Thursday morning.

☞ Elijah R. Beckers, a married man, has absconded from Lawrence, after committing a horrid outrage on a girl named Harkins, 13 years old

☞ The Central Advocate, the organ of the Methodists of Missouri, comes out quietly in favor of emancipation.

THE DUEL OF THE STUDENTS.—We find in the Providence Journal a card signed by students of Brown University, in which they say that the reported duel between the two first named young gentlemen was a mock affair—a complete hoax, got up for the purpose of hoaxing their fellow students.

As the Journal remarks, "nothing could have been more foolish, and the youth of the parties is the only excuse for the act." One of them has been expelled, and the others have been suspended.

☞ Somebody thinks that if nature had designed man to be a drunkard, she would have constructed him like a churn, so the more he drank, the more firmly he would stand.

☞ Two dens, called the "half way house" and the "happy hollow house," between Lawrence and Lowell, have been broken up, and the keepers of them sent to prison.

LETTER WRITING.—An idea of the amount of letter writing in the United States may be inferred by the number of postage stamps sold, which, during the last year, was about one hundred and fifty millions.

☞ Mr. CASS—who had lately received some anti-slavery instructions from Michigan,—said in the Senate on Monday, that he had but twice alluded to the subject since he had been in the Senate: "the first time to avow his belief in the right of instructions with certain limitations, and the second time to say that in the case then under consideration, when he had received certain instructions, from the legislature of Michigan, he would not obey them."

The Salem Gazette appends this note:

Mr. Cass might state his own position more concisely by simply saying; "Gentlemen of the Michigan legislature, I am a thorough believer in the doctrine of instructions, provided they dont conflict with the views and purposes of your humble servant." Isn't that it?

GREAT ROBBERIES ON A RAILOAD.—The Pittsburgh Gazette states that ninoteen persons have been arrested at places along the line of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, who have stolen goods at various times from the freight cars, to the amount of $50,000. A large amount of goods has been recovered.

☞ The Farm of Henry Ward Beecher, at Lenox, Mass., has been sold to J. F. Rathbone and brother, of Albany, who intend immediately building two beautiful summer residences upon it.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, MARCH 9, 1857.

THE LATE HOMICIDE IN WASHINGTON.—In a Washington letter to the Hartford Times, we find the particulars of the late homicide in the Pension Office, which was briefly noticed in a telegraphic despatch last week:

The circumstances connected with the sad affair are as follows: Mr. D. C. Lee, a clerk in the Pension Office, shot Mr. David Hume, a highly respected merchant of Alexandria, Va. Mr. Lee attended the President's levee last evening, with two of his daughters, and in the crowd, which was very great, Mr. Lee had his pocket-book taken. He immediately charged it upon Mr. Hume, who appeared much surprised, and replied—"Sir, I should feel myself much dishonored in picking the pockets of such a man as you are," and added, "I would slap your face for you if I had no ladies with me." Some gentlemen then interfered; cards were exchanged between them; and they parted. Mr. Lee came to the Pension Office about nine o'clock this morning, and in about half an hour after Mr. Hume came and inquired for Lee—Hume being accompanied by Mr. Walker, the Reading Clerk of the House. He was shown into Mr. Lee's room, when he accosted him thus: "Do you recognize me as the man you charged with taking your pocket-book last evening, at the President's levee?"

Lee replied that he did recognize him, and he believed he was the man who took it. Hume remarked that "he had lived 45 years an upright man, and had probably given away more money than Lee was worth;" and asked what motive he could have in picking his pocket? Col. Lee reiterated the charge, when Hume struck him over the head with a cane which he held in his hand. Lee retreated, and Hume followed him up, striking him three times. While Lee was partially bent over to avoid the blows, he drew a pistol from his pocket and shot him, the charge taking effect in the centre of the abdomen.

A curious inquest was held on the body of Mr. Hume, Monday, and the above facts were corroborated by several witnesses. The jury, after retiring a short time, brought in a verdict that the deceased came to his death "from the effect of a pistol ball from a pistol in the hands of Doddridge C. Lee."

The Washington Star says of Mr. Hume: "He was a gentleman of means, noted for his being governed by a scrupulous sense of propriety in all his conduct through life, for his active benevolence, and, indeed, for the possession of just such traits of character as secure for one the confidence and regard of his fellow citizens. He was a widower with four children, two of them being grown-up daughters, who are now in Washington at the residence of a relative. His age was about 45 years. D. C. Lee is also an aged man of family."

The Intelligencer says:—"The pocket-book, about which as a nucleus, this fatal transaction has gathered, was brought on Saturday to the examining magistrate. It appears that Mr. W. F. Darby, a merchant of Georgetown, discovered such an article in his coat pocket on his return from the levee, and which was not his own; but hearing of the homicide next day, thought that perhaps it might be the pocket-book in question. Taking with him two of the leading and best known merchants in Georgetown to vouch for his respectability, Mr. Darby repaired to the Justice's office, when the article was identified by Mr. Lee."

What a lesson against rashness, both in making and resisting charges of wrong-doing! What a commentary on the lack of a little patience to await the clearing up of temporarily obscure circumstances!"

A great commentary, also, on the point of honor, which is commonly a point of folly.

P. S.—Just as we had closed the above article, our eye lighted on this item:

Mr. Hume of Virginia, who was shot by Col. Lee at Washington last week, was the man who went to Boston to reclaim Anthony Burns. Lee was formerly a manager of the Alexandria race course and a noted cock fighter, and when he grew seedy, like other Virginians, sought refuge in a federal office at Washington.

Well: a negro hunter shot by a gambler, and all point of honor! Verily there is a God that judgeth in the earth.

☞ In Washington, on Friday, Chief Justice Taney of the U. S. Supreme Court, delivered the opinion of the Court in the Dred Scott case. The points decided are that Scott is not a citizen—that he was not manumitted by being taken by his master, when a slave, into the then Territory of Illinois, and that the Missouri Compromise was an act unconstitutionally passed by Congress. Justice Capron concurred. Some of the other Judges will give their opinons.

The London Era styles Fanny Fern "the coarsest woman who ever made money by describing bedroom life."

For the Chronicle.

BIRDS.

They come to us in the sunny spring time, with the first ripple of the unchained rills, the first smile of the awaking flowers—to blend their delightful songs with the glorious chorus of Nature's "thousand voices." Ere the last snow-wreath has melted from the hills, the familiar robin appears at our threshold; and when the withered leaves are rustling on the ground, when skies are no longer smiling, the little guest still lingers like a true friend in adversity.

Every one, who has ever risen early enough to fully enjoy a summer morning, knows how potent a charm would be wanting, were the feathered choirs banished from their canopied orchestra. When the first gleam of light tints the east, they begin to twitter, one by one; and as the day advances, the anthem swells fuller and richer, till the woods and glens are filled with a shower of vocal silver—till the very dewdrops on the flowers, thrill at the exquisite melody.

Their gushing music seems to express what we can only feel, at the glorious birth of another day—an event so fraught with the love of its infinite Author. Through all the radiant hours, they flit among "the green and quiet places, where the golden sunlight falls," looking like "blossoms atilt among the leaves." But they visit the dusty city, too; wherever a tree or shrub is visible, they come to "murmur their low, sweet music out"—to sway upon a bough by the invalid's open window, and send forth gushes of liquid melody to cheer his weary hours.

In the storm's wild sublimity, when the invisible fingers of the winds play their grandest music on the ocean, "the white-keyed organ of the universe"—they skim lightly over the angry foam, and blend their wild cries of delight with the deep sub-bass of the waves, and the shrill trumpet-tones of the tempest. Or they break the solemn stillness of the "silent city," with a gentle requiem for the "loved and lost;" and as the day, with its record of life, glides slowly away into the "eternity of the past," the same sweet songsters that hailed its opening hour, chant a soft farewell to its fading glory.

When we see them up-springing so lightly, warbling so joyously on their airy way, spurning that power of gravity which chains us poor mortals so securely to earth, how we long to follow them through the blue ether,—wearily sighing—"Oh! for wings like a dove! to flee away and be at rest!" But the soul has wings, which, if we will but use and educate them, can bear us far beyond the limits of time and space,—to the presence-chambers of the Eternal.—The bird cannot be "treading the earth and cleaving the clouds" at once—but the spirit, in its sojourn here, may fold its wings of faith in heaven. The soul is fetterless, except by sin; and when we feel it striving to out-spread its mighty pinions, let us pray that its chains may be broken—that its many attempts to soar, may be at last triumphant;—that it may finally reach its only "ark of refuge," the bosom of the Father."

METHODISM IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—From the minutes of the last annual conference of the M. E. Church, we gather the following statistics:—

There are in the State 84 stations in which are included 112 towns. The number of stations under the charge of one minister each is 52, and 25 preachers labor in fields embracing from two to five towns each. The State is divided into four districts, viz: Dover, Concord, Claremont and Haverhill. The Dover District includes seven stations or churches in Massachusetts, numbering 651 members, and 153 probationers. The whole number of church members in this State is 8576, and the whole number of probationers is 1238. In the bounds of the conference the number deceased during the year is 338.—The number of local preachers residing in the State is 87. Local preachers are such as theological students and others not stationed in any particular field by the conference. The contributions in N. H. to benevolent objects are reported as follows: for Missions, $1,675 34; for S. S. Union, $266 58; for the tract cause, $265 89; for Preachers' Aid, $470 99, and for the Bible cause, $294 54. Total, $2,976 34. The highest salary allowed to the preachers is $750, and the lowest $200. The average salary is about $397.

☞ An aged maiden, named Jane F. Young, 84 years old, living at Peterborough, N. H., in a house by herself, was found dead in her room, on Monday morning.

☞ An Albany wagon has caused a sensation in Germany and Paris, from its astonishing lightness and beauty, and several of the same sort have been ordered.

☞ Dr. Kane's remains were honored by a great procession as they passed through Louisville, March 6, for Cincinnati.

UNIVERSALISTS AS WITNESSES IN NORTH CAROLINA. The Supreme Court of North Carolina has decided that persons possessing the faith of the denomination called Universalists are competent witnesses in a judicial trial. In giving the opinion of the Court, Judge Pearson thus stated one view of the case:

It war said in the argument, "to be sworn as a witness is no privilege—the person loses nothing by being held incompetent." This is a narrow view of the question. If he be held incompetent as a witness on the ground that he cannot take an oath, it follows that he cannot swear to a book account. If an injunction is obtained, it must be made perpetual, because he cannot swear to his answer; nay, more, he cannot take the oath of office as a constable, sheriff, justice of the peace, judge, legislator, or governor: in short, it would be the institution of a "test oath," toward which our Revolutionary fathers had so just an abhorrence, and which is wholly repugnant to the tolerant and enlightened spirit of our institutions and the age in which we live.

CHARLES SUMNER.—Mr. Sumner's course has been singularly generous towards his foes. I speak not only of those at home whose birth and breeding might have taught them, at least, truth and good manners, but of the more open and public enemies who assailed him with different weapons. Since Mr. Brooks struck his coward blow, your Senator has been continually in a condition more painful and dangerous than the newspapers represent, or the public know. It is now eight months since the assault; not only has he been kept from the public business of his Senatorship, but there has never been an evening when he could sit erect in a chair—he can only lie on a couch. But no man, I think, has ever heard him say a word against Mr. Brooks. He has left that for the nation and the world. The assassin has gone home to his God—slain, I take it, by the unskilful hands of his physician—the same who so malignantly attended upon Mr. Sumner. Congress now buries whom else morally expelled. Of old time, when a warrior went to his grave, men bore his sword on his coffin. A wise and kind woman suggests that a Bludgeon should be carried on the coffin of Bully Brooks; let me add, with a revolver laid right angles—the Southern Cross.—Theodore Parker.

Mr. Sumner is not so well since his arrival as was expected. He is obliged most of the time, to keep a reclining or half-reclining position, in consequence of the almost incessant pain in his spinal column, which is the reflex action of the wound on his head, indicating that the brain has not entirely recovered. This pain begins at the small of the back and extends to the neck, producing, also, a nervous sensitiveness in the region of the shoulders and breast. If it were not for its persistency during the last ten months, this malady might, perhaps, be likened to lumbago. It is on this account that he cannot remain long in a sitting posture, and when in his easy chair has his back propped with pillows. He is in fact, only relieved of his pain when walking, standing or lying down. His case seems to be like that of Farrell, the witness in the Burdell trial. It was facetiously remarked by Mr. Sumner in conversation, that it was rather strange that so strenuous a stickler for "backbone" in politicians, should himself suffer so much in that respect.—Washington Correspondent Evening Post.

NEW HAMPSHIRE AND THE WEST.—It is estimated that at least 4000 men will leave New Hampshire the present season for the west—among them an unusually large proportion of mechanics. This fact indicates future embarrassments where they have hitherto scarcely been felt. We have manufactured largely for the west; but the time is not far distant when the west will manufacture for herself—not everything, perhaps, but enough to make herself felt in the business of New England.—Manchester Union Democrat.

LET PEOPLE TALK.—The man that has no enemies may at once conclude that he has parts, for it is a natural for little minds to envy and detract from that which is great as it is for water to seek a level.

☞ John Cunningham, an Irishman, belonging to Danvers Plains, fell from the brick yard bridge, near Salem, on Sunday evening, and was killed.

☞ LAWRENCE'S Carminative, we learn, has a good reputation, is prescribed by some of the best physicians in New Hampshire, and we hear it well spoken of. See advertisement in to-day's paper.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, pronouncing it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for gray heads." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose locks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—[St. Louis Herald.

LOCAL.

In Luck.—The Annual Printers' Lottery,—politely termed "Drawing for the Printing of the City Accounts, &c."—came off at the City Clerk's Office, on Saturday afternoon. Neighbor Brewster, of the Journal, drew the prize, as usual—or as is more often the case than wish anybody (we don't know but with everybody) else.

We certainly don't begrudge him a good job,—but we can't see the great difference, morally or legally, between this matter and some others which the editor of the Journal has in times past gone out of his way to denounce. Perhaps now, if his "press of business" has subsided since New Year's, he will favor his neighbors whom he charged with favoring or defending gambling, with his reasons.

By the way, in the Journal of Saturday, we notice a commendatory notice of the Glass Blowers' exhibition, as seen last week in this city. We should like to know wherein their "gift prize exhibition" differed so widely from a gift concert, as to be treated so very unlike. F.

☞ An old instrument, as good as new, yea, as good as best, stands before us as we write, viz. a very fine old Theodolite, which stated to have been brought to this country by Capt. John Mason, to have been used in surveying the Masonian patent or grant, and to have been given by him to an ancestor of the family,—(that of Esquire Clifford of Exeter,)—from whom the present owner obtained it. It has commonly been in the hands of good practical surveyors: it is now in prime order; and remains in the hands of a teacher of one of our Schools, Mr. John P. Payson, who is able to use it well, in surveying lands, and to teach its use to others, as occasion may require.

Naval.—The N. Y. Spirit of the Times, gives the following items of Naval Information.

Captain Josiah Watson, U. S. M. C., has been detached from the command of the guard of the U. S. S. S. North Carolina, and orderd to the command of the Portsmouth Station, in place of Brevet Major Waldron, deceased. It is not known at present who will take the place of Capt. Watson, on board the North Carolina.

The death of Brevet Major Waldron promotes 1st Lieutenant Slack to Captain, and 2d Lieutenant Tatnall to 1st Lieutenant, vice Slack, promoted.

According to an act of Congress, Blithe Island, Brunswick, Georgia, has been selected for a new naval station. A board of officers has been appointed to make the necessary surveys in order to have the yard located in the proper place. The following officers composed this board:—Capt. James M. McIntosh; Commander H. J. Hartstein; Lieut. J. A. Brooke, and Civil Engineer Calvin Brown.

☞ A man in this city now wears as his only overcoat, a surtout made for him twenty-four years ago. It was "dyed in the wool," or more likely was never dyed at all, being the natural drab color.

Cuba.—A letter from Havana states that a cargo of four hundred slaves had been landed near Havana. A Dutch ship had arrived at Havana, loaded with Coolies.

☞ The Herald says the business prospects of Newburyport are more gloomy now than they have ever seen them at this season of the year.

The Salisbury Manufacturing Company held a meeting in Boston, Thursday. After a full statement of the condition of the corporation, and a view of the stringency of the money market, the stockholders voted to empower the directors to sell the entire property.—Newburyport Herald.

LATE FROM KANSAS.

St. Louis, March 5.—End to all Kansas Difficulties of Intercourse and Transportation.—A letter to the Republican, dated Westport, Feb. 26, says that at a meeting of citizens at that place, resolutions were passed to resist every effort and every movement intended or calculated to produce troubles similar to those of last year; extending hospitality and welcome to emigrants from all sections of the country, and pledging themselves to let the laws of Kansas and Missouri punish all violations of the law.

By another dispatch from St. Louis, March 6, we get the following.

The Republican contains a long communication signed by A. W. Jones, a resident of Lecompton, relative to the recent affairs in Kansas. Also Gov Geary's letter and Sherrard's reply, together with the action of the Committee on the Judiciary in the Legislature on the matter, and the testimony taken before Judge Cato on the examination of Jones for shooting Sherrard. The version now presented differs somewhat from previous reports. The communication casts much blame on Gov. Geary, and the Committee on Judiciary likewise censures his action. Jones, who was held to bail in $5000, has absconded.

The reader will please bear in mind, that the St. Louis Republican is, and has been throughout, in the interest of the Border Ruffians. It must therefore be understood accordingly. Taking its statements to be true, the day of peace in Kansas is not yet. The adventurers who would crush out freedom there, are yet busy and unscrupulous.

The New Cabinet.—President Buchanan's Cabinet has been confirmed by the Senate, as follows;—

Secretary of State—Lewis Cass of Mich.
Treasury—Howell Cobb of Georgia.
War—John B. Floyd of Virginia.
Navy—Isaac Toucey of Connecticut.
Interior—Jacob Thompson of Miss.
Postmaster General—A. V. Brown of Tennessee.
Attorney General—Judge Black of Penn.

Congress.—A petition was presented in the Senate, Friday, begging Congress to refuse their sanction to any convention with Great Britain, founded on the "treasonable" declaration of the Congress of Paris. A protest against the election of Mr. Cameron as Senator from Pennsylvania, was presented, signed by 44 Representatives and 15 Senators in the Legislature of that State.

Washington, Friday night.—Mr. Buchanan has expressed the wish that the Senate would act this session on the British treaty. This will probably extend the session several weeks.

A democratic caucus was held this afternoon, at which it was resolved to constitute the standing committees composed of two-thirds Democrats and one-third Republicans.

The Inauguration Ball resulted in a loss to the managers of $3000.

Washington, 7th.—Ex-President Pierce has signified to a deputation of Tennesseans his intention to make a Southern tour.

Lawrence's Carminative,
OR
CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.
THIS Invaluable Preparation is a favorite scientific prescription of one of the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in New England, and one who has been as successful as any other in the treating of
DISEASES OF CHILDREN,
and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically
A CHILD'S MEDICINE,
and is the only child's medicine in this country intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy more to be followed by a "Dose of Physic."
The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty, and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues.
The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhea, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness, and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; sure to regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour Stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.
Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all.
PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS,
and parents who value rest not fail to buy a bottle, as they may depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."
Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.
RECOMMENDATIONS.
Mr. W. F. Lawrence,—Dear Sir;—Having made trial of your Carminative, in several severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.
Nath'l Batchelder, M. D.
Epping, July 23, 1852.
Mr. Lawrence:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.
Yours truly, Joseph Dalton, M. D.
Brentwood, Aug. 10. 1858.
Mr. W. F. Lawrence—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infancy—the class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

BENJAMIN NORTON
HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than if sold here. Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense
Also, for sale 440 acres of fine Timber Land.

80 do. 18, do. 102,

Also 89 Lots in the town of Stockton, 8 miles from Winona; title indisputable,—having a warrantee deed from the Judge of Probate for Winona County. A Plan of the Town can be seen on application to the subscriber.
I intend leaving for Winona, Minnesota, by the 1st of April; and all business entrusted to my care will be promptly attended to. Money will be taken, and invested in Land, or put to interest—as may be desired, as money lets in Winona for from 3 to 5 per cent per month, on the best of security. Residence 12 AUSTIN STREET,

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

FOR THE CURE OF

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, read their Effects, and Judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER, Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache and body-ache by your Pills, and by a few use of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do to others as they do me, the world is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, RO. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their purgating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangement of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, R. ROGERS, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine They have cured my wife and little child of the dysentery. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her expelling large quantities of worms (literally) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such is my testimony to you, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Insparity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I have rendered my best offices in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of life.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Stevedoring Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with a humor in her face, which has caused her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PITTSBURG HOUSE, PITTSBURG, CO., Jan. 5, 1856.

SINCERE FRIEND: I should be ungrateful for the relief your pills has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating gouty-like pains which yielded to no remedy I could obtain. Notwithstanding I find the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent, Mr. Robinson, I tried your Cathartic Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENECA CHAMBERS, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been troubled with a severe form of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and efficient.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its improper exhibition. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN CIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Say, few are the families in your neighborhood, to whom you cannot without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared, and fastens its fangs ere they are aware. Experience proves and the world knows, and we believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumption it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, not say not them until no human skill can reach the insidious canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the doubtful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know not the victims of this remedy, we need not dare to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect medicine we can, and then confident only on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which E. FRANCK & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who invest in a ticket are properly secured and that they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland; as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled for the next lottery to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tertany combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1836)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Business made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other opinions rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent published by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but registered it invents have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered from elsewhere. The subscriber has given prove that some is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and if SUCCESS IS THE MEASURE OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official documents relating to patents. These, combined with an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States, and Foreign Countries, for ready reference, offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, with the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents, more numerous than any other living individual, who had so much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can confide a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of obtaining their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a solicitor of Patents. I have frequently conferred with the law, and the rules of practice of the office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHARLES MAGRUDER,
Commissioner of Patents.

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. We have lately enlarged one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have just received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855

Very truly yours, JAMES H. HALLE"

COLONIZATION OF VIRGINIA BY EMIGRANTS FROM NEW ENGLAND.—A scheme has been under consideration for some time past, looking to the colonization of Virginia, by emigrants from the Northern States. A great Northern Emigrant Aid Society has been projected, with a capital of from three to four millions of dollars, to be expended in the purchase of lands in Eastern Virginia; the design of the Association being to partition these lands among actual settlers from Europe and the North, on accommodating terms, who will turn their attention to a regeneration of the soil and to various other industrial pursuits adapted to the locality and the demands of an accessible market.

In the promotion of this scheme—at the head of which is Mr. Thayer, a gentleman at one time actively engaged in organizing the Kansas Aid Society—two objects are proposed to be attained; the one being the peopling of a considerable portion of the Old Dominion with white labor, and the other a lucrative investment through the judicious application of that labor to the worn out lands of the State. There is no doubt whatever that pecuniarily, the Commonwealth would be largely benefitted by the influx of sturdy laborers who would devote themselves to renovating the soil, to establishing manufactories, to founding towns and villages, and to developing the mineral wealth so profusely scattered over a large portion of the Old Dominion; but whether our neighbors would regard with as favorable an eye the introduction within her borders of a population profoundly impressed with Free Soil sentiments, and therefore devoted to the extinction of slavery, is a question we should like to see answered by their ablest political economist.

The prejudice against New Englanders of all classes and degrees, is very strong in Southern Virginia, and even now the Richmond Enquirer is bitterly denouncing peddlers and rogues the pedlars who have been accustomed to travel through the rural districts, dispensing of their wares and notions, to the great injury, as the Enquirer contends, of the local trade. Perhaps, also, their presence among a slave population may be regarded as promoting that spirit of subordination which has latterly displayed itself in certain quarters. Nor is this at all to be wondered at, when we consider the increasing efforts made at the North to incite the slaves to escape from their masters, and the numerous emissaries employed by the abolitionists to encourage the attempt and to assist in and cover up the traces of their flight.

Still, we cannot see how it is possible to prevent capitalists from making an investment in the cheap lands of Virginia, if the proprietors of those lands are willing to dispose of them, nor can any legislative action deprive the new settlers of the rights of citizenship, or the privilege of voting as they think proper. That a large influx of emigrants from New England would create a profound sensation among the owners of slave property throughout the State, we have not the least doubt, and it is very possible that some effort would be made to avert the consequences; but, as under the federal Constitution, every citizen of the United States has a perfect right to migrate wherever he thinks proper, and at the expiration of a fixed period of time is entitled to enjoy and exercise the same political privileges accorded to those who are natives of the commonwealth, we do not well see how it would be possible for Virginia to put a stop to this scheme if the association should determine to carry it into effect.—Baltimore Patriot, March 2.

"ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE."
BY H. S. LEAVITT.

One more unfortunate
Sliner of gold,
Rashly importunate,
Slipped from my hold.

Others before it
Have gone to their rest;
But this seemed the nearest—
Ah, this was the dearest,
For this was the last.

Look at my purse—
No longer a curse,
No longer a blessing,
Nor anything worse.

Take it up tenderly,
Lift it with care,
Looking so tenderly,
Feeling so bare!

Touch it not scornfully,
Think of it mournfully,
Gentle humanity!
Not of the theft of it—
All that is left of it
Now, is mere vanity.

O, for the holidays,
O, for the jolly days,
Once I enjoyed;
When from each tawny fold,
Glittered the shining gold—
Then the dear friends of old
Hailed me with pride.

Alas for the rarity
Of Christian charity,
Under the sun!
While I could tack with them,
Friends—I'd no lack of them;
Now turns the back of them,
Every one!

Sadly I gaze on thee,
Fearfully muse on thee,
Empty old purse!
Wondering amazingly,
Whether my cause will be,
In the sad days to be,
Better or worse.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, MARCH 10, 1857.

The Supreme Court of the United States having decided that negroes are not citizens of the United States, it follows that negroes are not legal voters in Rhode Island.—Providence Post.

Such a remark as the above shows that there is no debasement possible, to which a partizan of this administration will not descend.—Boston Trl.

We suppose we have not yet seen a full report of the case. When we do see it, we shall probably find it does not decide that there are no negro citizens in the United States. But if it does so decide, it simply tells a lie, and being false, it is a mere nullity. There were negro citizens of the State of New Hampshire before there was a Supreme Court of the U. S.—aye, and before there were any United States! There have been such citizens ever since. The Constitution says that citizens of each State shall also be citizens of the United States—and this new-fangled Dogberry Law cannot disfranchise them.

A few of them will vote in New Hampshire to-day!

WINES.—Extract of a letter received from Messrs. Sandeman, Son & Co. London, dated 17th Jan., 1857:—

Our Mr. Albert Sandeman, at Oporto, confirms the report of the failure of last year's vintage in Portugal, and gives us the startling fact that the Upper Douro, within the Factory Demarcation, did not yield 3000 pipes, although 15,248 pipes have been usually enrolled or yearly made.

Messrs. Pemartin & Co., at Xeres, acquaint us that only one fourth of the usual average quantity of Sherry was produced the last year, while the quality is turning out very inferior, and no wines of 1855 remain for shipment, nor any good wines to ship at low prices.

Yet there will be old wines, choice wines, delicious wines, advertised, sold at great prices, and drank by people who are also sold.

WASHINGTON, Sunday night.—The President and Cabinet have resolved to turn out office-holders generally on the expiration of their commission. Gen. Thomas has been re-appointed Assistant Secretary of State.

The above curious item is from the correspondence of the New York Courier.—The two sentences are almost contradictory. The first states the rule; the second makes a great exception.

ABEL HUNT'S LIQUOR CASE.—We understand that Mr. Hunt's counsel, Charles R Train, Esq., will bring a writ of error in the case, which will set forth the following In the indictment Hunt was charged with being a common seller of liquors from the 20th day of May, 1855, to the day of finding the indictment, in June of the same year. The law on which the indictment was based was approved by the Governor on the 20th of April of that year, and under the general law could not go into operation until thirty days thereafter, so that the law did not become the law of the land until the 21st of May, and therefore it is claimed that Hunt could not have violated the law on the 20th of that month. The indictment which Mr. Train now objects to as bad, was found under his administration as District Attorney, and bears his signature.

So says the Boston Chronicle; and if so, we think Mr. Train, as a prosecuting officer, was very properly superseded.

☞ Charles C. Furber, late first mate of the American ship James L. Bogart, who was injured in the mutiny on board that vessel on the 9th of January, died in the Liverpool Northern Hospital on the 14th instant. The coroner's Jury returned a verdict of "justifiable homicide, by Jeremiah Jones," the colored seaman who killed the deceased.

☞ A correspondent of the New York Express, under date of Havana, Feb. 1, says:

We have received by three vessels this week, cleared from Quarantine, 1105 Asiatics for Cuban labor. Of the embarkations at Amoa, &c., 311 died on the way, of which 290 were in one vessel,—the Peruvian bark Cora.

Henry Ledyard of Detroit, Gen. Cass's son-in-law, it is reported, will be Assistant Secretary of State. Mr. L. was Secretary of the Legation to Paris under Gen. Cass. He speaks French and Italian thoroughly. He has spent eight years in Europe. He has been Mayor, &c., of Detroit.

☞ Ex-Queen Christina, of Spain, proposes to make Rome her permanent residence, and is purchasing palaces in that city for her sons.

☞ A new factory, 107 feet long, 5[illegible] feet wide and 3 stories high, has just been completed at Peterborough, N. H.

THE DRED SCOTT CASE.—Washington, March 7.—Judge McLean delivered his views in the Dred Scott case to-day, after arguing that slavery is limited to the range of the state where it is established by municipal law. If Congress deems slaves or free colored persons injurious to a territory, they have the power to prohibit them from becoming settlers. The power to acquire territory carries the power to govern it. The master does not carry with him to the territory the law of the state from which he removes. Hence the Missouri compromise was constitutional, and the presumption is in favor of freedom. Dred Scott and his family were free under the decisions of the last twenty-eight years.

Judge Curtis dissented from the opinion of the majority of the Court as delivered by Chief Justice Taney, and gave his reason for the dissent. He maintained that native born colored persons can be citizens of the state and the United States. That Dred Scott and his family were free when they returned to Missouri. That the power of Congress to make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory was not, as the majority of the Court expressed, limited to territory belonging to the United States at the adoption of the Constitution, but has been applied to five subsequent acquisitions of land. That Congress has power to exclude slavery from the territories, having established eight territorial governments without, and recognized slavery in six, from the time of Washington to John Quincy Adams.

These opinions occupied five hours in delivery. Judges Wayne, Grier, Campbell and Daniel, had papers expressing their views on certain opinions of the Court, but did not read them. Adjourned till the time fixed by law.

So it seems that two Judges of the Supreme Court, after all, dissent from the majority's decision, which is utterly pro-slavery,—and that those two, McLean and Curtis, really have dared to give a "sections" opinion, that is, an opinion that slavery is not to be the paramount law all over the nation. The people of the country have a small account to settle with the unjust judges,—and the Supreme Judge of all the Earth, "He who sitteth in the Heavens, shall laugh" at them, and "hold them in derision."

REPORTED RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—There are rumors that a very serious accident happened on Friday to the Cincinnati train on the western division of the Erie Railroad. The cars are said to have been thrown off the track, and some lives lost;—but as the telegraph line along this road is in the hands of the company, we can get no particulars.

STARTED FOR KANSAS.—A company of a dozen young men started from Nashua, on Wednesday for Kansas. Two of them go from Londonderry—two from Derry, two from Chester, and six from Andover N. H. They have purchased a township with a splendid water privilege, about seventy miles west of Lawrence, and will make a smart place of it.

☞ As an argument in favor of early marriages, we are told of a couple in Middleboro', Mass., who are supposed to be the longest married of any in the State. They have lived together seventy-five years, having been respectively, 20 and 17 years of age, when married. The gentleman's name is Moses Thompson, a merchant.

☞ The growing wheat in Maryland, looks remarkably fine, and prospects are very favorable for an abundant crop. The farmers are engaged in doing their spring plowing.

☞ In a church at Rivas, Nicaragua, there is a very well executed bust of the leader of the American revolution, of whom the natives speak as the good saint, George Washington.

☞ Of four students in the Brown University who got up a mock duel to hoax the "freshmen," one has been expelled and the others have been suspended.

☞ The best way to get rid of a troublesome friend is to lend him a ten dollar bill. You'll never see anything more of him.

☞ Catharine Fanelli, who has been passing herself as a saint, and capable of working miracles, has been condemned by the inquisition at Rome to twelve years' imprisonment.

☞ The statue of the Virgin of the Immaculate Conception has been successfully cast in bronze at Rome.

THE MOBILE FIRE.—The fire at Mobile on Sunday destroyed 2300 bales of cotton, valued at $224,000, on which there was an insurance in Mobile offices to the amount of $150,000.

☞ The director of the Austrian Court Theatres has issued an order that the danseuses of the opera shall wear "trousers-loons." The ladies rebel against this order.

COFFEE HOUSE CONCERTS.

A letter writer from Dresden, in Dwight's Journal of Music, describes the cheap German Concerts, held in Beer Halls, as follows:

The materials for fine concerted music in Dresden are probably not surpassed in Europe.

The charm of the place to music-lovers of moderate means, is the frequency of cheap concerts of a high order; and, as these constitute a marked feature of Dresden life, I will give you some account of them, at the risk of repeating what you may have heard from others. These concerts generally commence at 3, 4 or 5 P. M. The exploiteurs of them are the owners or lessees of large coffee houses; and music is thus very judiciously made the bait to attract a full coffee-room, and it always succeeds. So the price is put very low—2½ groschen, (6¼ cents,) and every person is expected to call for something to drink or eat, or both. We will take the "Link'sches Bad," it being the best, to display this feature of German life. This establishment is a little over a mile from the Elbe, in the section of the city called the Neustadt. The coffee-room is a very large and fine room. I estimated the size by the eye, and made it 110 by 60, and 30 high. In the middle of one side is a semi-circular depression, or renfoncement, in the wall, of about 12 feet arc, raised three feet above the level of the floor, and accommodating twenty-six to thirty musicians. Distributed all over the floor of this great room are plain cherry square tables of two sizes, accommodating six and twelve persons respectively. I generally arrive there about 5 o'clock on Thursday, the hour of commencement, pay my 2½ groschen, to a man who stands in the ante-room, with a china plate full of change, and a pile of programmes, printed in the simplest and cheapest style. I have a stranger with me to-day, and, taking our programmes, we pass on to enter a door on the left, which brings us into a room some twenty-five feet square, with glass partitions towards the hall, and wide-open doors into the same.

"Why, the room's on fire!" exclaimed my friend. "What a dense smoke!"—"Only tobacco smoke; three hundred cigars must be expected to make some smoke." "But the ladies—how can those young girls of eight, ten, and twelve to twenty, stand this? They surely cannot sit it out a whole evening." "You shall see. Come, let us get a seat." "Seat? there don't appear to be one vacant in the room." "Oh, yes; don't be too modest; let us go up half way, so as to be opposite the orchestra. Kellner, give us two seats." The waiter looks about and presently sees a table where perhaps two more might squeeze in, and says a word to one of the occupants, who moves aside, without any of the French manier in mode, but also without ungraciousness, and we take two chairs and draw up. The waiter lowers his head to take our orders. 'One hot punch, one cafe.' "But hark! sh! What is that?" "Die Felsenmuhle, Reissiger." "How admirably they play! The conductor is also leader, and has no notes." "No, he never uses a note, and has the whole repertoire of classical music in his head. Whether he knows it thoroughly, understands its spirit, you shall judge to-night and in future. The applause is very hearty; now let us look round. What a singular scene."

But, to drop the conversational, I will try to describe it. There are, at a rough estimate, 500 persons present; say 350 men and 150 ladies and girls. Three narrow aisles are left between the tables the whole length of the room. Every man is smoking; cigar in the mouth, American fashion; cigar in a pipe, or cigar in a mouth-piece, but no weed in pipes; at least I have seen none in places so respectable as this. You may perhaps fancy the denseness of the smoke. Every lady is either sewing, or knitting, or embroidering, and drinking either tea, (out of a tall tumbler,) or beer, or coffee; and every man has before him his great glass mug of beer, with glass handle and pewter top (to keep the smoke out?) or his glass of punch, or tea, or coffee, or "Bishop," or "Cardinal."

The programme is divided into three or four parts, and an interval of ten or fifteen minutes between each two is passed in chat and squeezing up and down these narrow aisles. The orchestra disappears, the leader generally mixing with the company, drinking his mug of beer and puffing his cigar.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise each of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, pronouncing it the only invention which has come up to their ideas of a "cure for gray heads." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose locks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer.—[St. Louis Herald.

SLEEP.—The unwisest of all economies is time saved from necessary sleep, for it begets a nervous irritability, which masters the body and destroys the mind.—When a man becomes sleepless, the intellect is in danger. A restored lunatic, of superior mental endowments, said: "The first symptom of insanity in my own case, was a want of sleep; and from the time I began to sleep soundly, my recovery was sure."

Let this be a warning to all who are acquiring an education. Every young person at school should have eight hours sleep out of twenty-four; for as the brain is highly stimulated all the time, in the prosecution of study, it will break down, just as any other part of the frame, unless it have time for full recuperation. Better, a thousand times, to give another year to the completion of studies, than by curtailing sleep, to endeavor to get through that much sooner at the risk of madness.—Hall's Journal of Health.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, March 5.

Before Justice Odell—Patrick Shea, for assault on Abby Buckley, was fined $5 and costs, $3.86, and ordered to give bonds of $30 to keep the peace—in default of which he was committed to jail.

MONDAY, March 10.

James Barri, who was arrested on the 23d Feb., for assault on James Donnivan; and whose case has been twice continued to await the result of complainant's injuries—was adjudged guilty; and sentenced to pay a fine of $10, and costs, $11.99, and recognize in $50 to keep the peace. Not paying, he was committed.

☞ The State Election takes place this day—and our city election also, making it a very busy day here. The surface of things appears very smooth: what there is beneath we shall soon see by the returns.

☞ We are requested by the chairman of the committee who were chosen to inform Capt. Chase of his nomination by the Republicans for Mayor—to contradict the statement in the N. H. Gazette, that Mr. Chase pledged himself to execute the law for the suppression of intemperance.—The Gazette's statement is entirely fabulous—no pledge of any sort was given or asked.

ROCKPORT TEMPERANCE LEAGUE.

Believing that all intoxicating liquors by whatever name they are known, are unnecessary and hurtful, when used as a beverage; that the sale of such liquors in this town is an immense evil, both socially and morally, and therefore ought to be wholly prevented; and also that what ought to be done in this respect can be done, we the undersigned form ourselves into an association to be called the Rockport League.

The object of this association is wholly to prevent the illegal sale of all kinds of intoxicating liquors within the limits of this town.

We solemnly pledge ourselves to each other that we will employ all suitable means within our reach to enforce the "Mass. Liquor Law."

And in order to do this we agree that we will use the utmost vigilance to find evidence against the liquor seller, and against those also who testif, falsely in reference to him when brought upon trial.

We further pledge ourselves that in case money be wanted in carrying out the designs of this association, we will cheerfully pay our just proportion.

The officers of this association shall be a committee of five, a Secretary and Treasurer.

The chairman of this committee shall preside at all meetings of the Association.

Meetings may be called at the discretion of the committee.

"Such" says the Gloucester Telegraph, "is the pledge or constitution under which the friends of temperance are uniting for the purpose of more easily and surely preventing the liquor traffic in this place.

"It appears strange when we look at the facts in the case, that the comparatively few persons who are engaged in the liquor traffic, openly defy the efforts of the temperance portion of the community to prevent their pursuing the nefarious business.

"The great trouble in this, as in other places, lies in the insuperable difficulty of obtaining legal evidence for their conviction.

"It will be seen that one part of the pledge relates to procuring evidence against those who testify falsely in reference to the liquor seller when brought upon trial. This we regard as one of its most valuable features."

THE CODFISH ARISTOCRACY.—This term, originally used as we believe by Mike Walsh, has often been applied to those who make ridiculous pretension to social distinction, and set themselves up, on insufficient grounds, as batterthan their neighbors. Mr. Clay, of Alabama, who is distinguished, even among the Southern Democrats, for his intense hatred of everything Northern, employs it to designate the hardy fishermen who pursue their adventurous calling off the foggy coast of Newfoundland and Labrador. The encouragement of the fisheries has always been an object of solicitude with enlightened governments, and France and England have offered great inducements for their seafaring men to enter upon a business which furnishes the best nursery for seamen, and one of the best securities for naval power. It has always been the policy of our government to encourage the fisheries; and it is not probable that they could be sustained without the bounty. But they belong to New England, and that is sufficient for the Senator from Alabama, a true inheritor of the of the narrow policy of the Virginian, who would "go a rod out of his way to kick a sheep." This is the policy that rules the dominant party.

The sentence in which Mike Walsh first used the term "codfish aristocracy" is a very fine one. We quote from memory:—

"The aristocracy of talent I revere; the aristocracy of power fairly won and honestly exercised I respect; the aristocracy of wealth I can tolerate; but the low, dirty, codfish aristocracy of democracy I loathe and detest."

So good a thing is not often spoken, and at the time and with the application, it produced an admirable effect.—Prov. Jour.

WASHINGTON, 9th.—The Cabinet is in session this morning, engaged, as is generally believed, in considering the policy to be pursued relative to the Executive appointments.

All the Departments have furnished lists of the officers who hold places under limited commissions.

The opinion prevails that such officers will be permitted to continue until the expiration of their commissions, then to be reappointed or not, as the administration may decide.

WASHINGTON, 9th.—Senator Toombs, of Georgia, this morning presented to Ex-President Pierce a service of silver plate, on behalf of the citizens of Savannah. The presentation took place at the residence of Mr. Marcy, where Mr. Pierce is staying.—Telegraph to Boston Journal.

ATTEMPT AT PRISON MURDER.—Albany, N. Y., March 7.—Two attempts were made yesterday by two convicts, to kill the agent at the Auburn State Prison, but they were frustrated by the prompt interference of the keepers. Fears of future difficulty were entertained, and several convicts who were at work in the shop where the difficulty occurred, are now confined to their cells.

CLEVELAND, March 7.—The first Presbyterian Church in this city was destroyed by fire at noon to-day. It cost $70,000, and was insured.

IKE AND LION.—"Well, what upon earth are you doing now?" said Mrs. Partington, with a tone of anxiety in her voice and a large iron spoon in her hand, as Lion rushed into the kitchen, followed by Ike. The dog was almost covered up with a thick coarse coffee bag, and, in perfect sympathy with Ike, who was laughing tremendously, he wagged his caudality as if he liked the fun. "What upon earth are you doing now?" was a question that called for an answer, and Lion looked up in the old lady's face, with his mouth open and his eyes glistening, as much as to say, "Look at me, Mistress Partington, for I am all dressed up, you see." But he didn't say anything. "That's a crinoline, aunt," said Ike, "don't you think it's very overcoming?" "Yes, I declare," said she, "I think it comes over him a good deal, but you had better take it off, for it makes him look ridiculous." "It's all the fashion," said Ike. "All the fiddlesticks," replied she, "and how should I look in the fashion, all hooped up like a mash tub? Shouldn't I look well? No, dear, no. I don't want to portend to be more than I really am, and if I haven't been made so unanimous as some, I don't want to cast no reflections on heaven for not making me no larger by rigging on artificial purportions. It used to be the remark of Elder Stick that every tub should stand on its own bottom, and though this mayn't have nothing to do with it, I want to see folks jest as they are. And now what are you at?" cried she, breaking off her subject shorter than pie crust; and well she might ask, for Lion was parading the floor in great glee, with one of the dame's nightcaps upon his head, tied snugly under the chin, while Ike stood looking on with great complacency. "Dear me," said she, dropping into a chair, "I am afraid your predestination will not be a good one if you goon so; and little boys that tease their aunts, don't go to heaven, by a great sight." Ike was much subdued by this, and taking advantage of her momentary abstraction and three doughnuts, he whistled for Lion, and wene out to play.—Sat. Eve. Gaz.

[From the Times.]

EXPLANATION.—By letter or in person, the following question is daily asked of the undersigned, by persons who have bought his new medical Salt. "How deep should the quill be dipped into the solution?"—Answer—Dip as you would a pen into ink, and a dose is what remains on the quill. The quantity required is small, but the vaccine dose is smaller—and the effects of both equally extraordinary. It should be remembered, that this salt is physic for the fluids, and not for the body. When Jenner announced to the world his great discovery of vaccination, the learned doctors of his day, said, it was a "HOAX,"—and declared him a "Quack," "Imposter" and "Humbug." The undersigned is expecting to be assailed with similar mild epithets—but still he humbly believes the discovery of the Antiphlogistic Salt, like all inventions and discoveries, is the mere development of what always had existence in the mind of the Great Infinite.

OR

CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.

THIS Invaluable Preparation is a favorite selfcentric prescription of one of the ablest eminent of the Medical Faculty in New England, and one who has been as successful as any other in the treating of

DISEASES OF CHILDREN,

and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically

A CHILD'S MEDICINE,

and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy sure to be followed by a "Dose of Physic."

The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty, and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues.

The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhœa, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness,

and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; sure to regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour Stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS,

and parents who value rest not fail to buy a bottle, as they may depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE.—Dear Sir—Having made trial of your Carminative, in rivenal severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.

NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 23, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carm native," ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.

Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1853.

Mr. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infants, and classes of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than if sold here. SUBMISSION. — The Boston Chronicle says:

Mr. Buchanan's remarks about the readiness with which his opponents submitted to the choice of himself, though it was the work of the minority only, suggests a peculiar train of thought. All through the contest that resulted in his election, some of the more violent and influential of his supporters, instead of avowing that they would submit to the election of Colonel Fremont, frequently took occasion to declare that they would resist a government of which he should be the head, even if they should allow it ever to be organized.

We remember that the fire-eaters said so.—Mr. Fillmore alluded to their threats and half endorsed them, proposing his own election as the panacea.

SNOW IN WISCONSIN.—The entire northern half of Wisconsin is said to be covered with snow forty feet deep. Lumbering operations have been seriously hindered, and nothing like the usual amount of logs will be got out.

BARON MUNCHAUSEN would get out some large logs there—or large stories.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE HERE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, and Lovers of Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1856.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body ever had, by the use of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do for others as they do me, they don't worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is most decided, and consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 10, 1858.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my family good beyond all price. One of my children was sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of her neighbors had it too, and say wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctor bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine deserves fame, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with astonishing success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. Torpidity of the organs of digestion and purity the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WAKAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an admirable purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Prominent Merchant of Cincinnati, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable by other medicines. Her mother was also greatly afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and found they cured her of her complaint.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your Pills have brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and bowels, and produced severe neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse until, for the last year, I could not walk without aid in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely free from pain.

SIMEON CHANDLER, BEAVER BROOK, IND., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and Pain in the Back, of a Parlytic character, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is so much poison in a pill, and its dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN CIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American continent, its wonderful cures of the most desperate plaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous disease of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Proofs of this have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant promise to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptives it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, for we feel them until to human skill can master the incipient fever that, fastened on the vitals, sets your life at hazard. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and so they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not dwell more than to assure them it is still worthy of its fame. It may be relied on, not, as too, to produce it the most perfect possible, and those afflicted those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their relief.

LOTTERIES.

The well known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which B. Hanson Cox, are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honest manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Each ticket in the Maryland Consolidated Lottery is a prize, and all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. Adventurers may draw every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication reaches the hand. The prices are generally from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tertiary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the novelty and utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent obtained by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but from the intimate relations it enjoys for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The unusually favorable opinion given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IN THE BUSINESS DEPENDS ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges more reasonable or the services more efficient. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast variety of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. He has besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States, and can, in most cases, answer any proposed question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure patents, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There never has been a better qualified in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and more worthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 21, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a solicitor. His intercourse with the office has been fair and honorable, and the rules of practice of the office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS MASON,

5 lb Oolong "	1,75	5 lb Java "	[illegible]
5 lb Y. Hyson "	1,75	5 lb Rio "	1,00

☞ The Spices are put up in ¼ and ½ lb. tin cases, expressly for family use, and are warranted to be strictly a pure article, and only need a trial to establish their superiority.

SPANISH COFFEE.—We would call the attention of customers and dealers to our Spanish Coffee, as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by a peculiar process in roasting, one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 1½ lb. of any other.

DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our Mills and put up in packages having our trade mark, and is recommended upon as the best and most approved mixture of dandelion and coffee.

TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root.—This article is prepared at our Tremont Mills, is retailed by Family Grocers generally in city and country, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee," may be relied upon as the GENUINE ARTICLE. The proportion used is about one half the quantity of coffee. The price is 20 cents per pound, and it is warranted to be the same as that which has been sold for fifty cents a pound by Druggists.

The medical properties of Dandelion are well known, and it is highly esteemed by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root, with all its medicinal virtues retained, can be mixed with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found decidedly more economical as a family beverage, one pound of it which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee. It is prescribed by many eminent physicians for invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Bilious affections &c.

☞ Be careful to observe that all our Coffees have our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding Coffee."

☞ To Grocers and Dealers a liberal discount is made, enabling them to supply their customers at the same low prices.

☞ TO ASH PURCHASERS.—Our object being to secure large sales at small profits, we offer inducements which cannot be afforded by those who do business on a credit system; and we confidently invite an examination of the quality of our stock and our prices as compared with those any and all others.

Employing Two Hundred Men, and finishing

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000

of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855—by means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the instrument, while the accompaniment is soft and subdued—Heretofore all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Mr. Prince of Buffalo, has exhibited to us a Melodeon by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have sold and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Volunteering testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States and have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and more worthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

STEAMER LYONNAIS.

Intelligence has been received, which renders it almost certain that most of those who were on board the Lyonnais, sleep in a watery grave.

Two sailors, who left the wreck on a raft, arrived in safety at Rio Janeiro, and from the account of one of them, which we condense, it seems most improbable that any of those remaining can have escaped, and be yet alive.

Longard, the one examined, states that about eleven o'clock, they lost sight of Capt. Devaux, who was in his yawl with seven others, following in the wake of the ship.—A large raft had been constructed and moved at a little distance, and smaller ones were made to ply between it and the ship; but during the night of the 4th, one of these broke away from the ship, with six or seven persons on it, while the sea was very rough.—The raft which was still attached to the ship, and carried many persons, was beaten to pieces during the night, so all that could be seen was the piece of wood attached to the hawser.

Most of those on board had glutted themselves with the food and wine, and were sleeping, half immersed in water. Those who had not slept, but had been at work, strove to awaken their drunken companions, but they refused to stir.—One of them opened his eyes, and seeing that it rained—"Mo," he exclaimed, "I don't work when it rains." Four men set to work with Longard, and by six o'clock in the morning of the 5th, a last raft was finished and launched upon the sea. The water then reached the level of the deck; there was not a moment to lose. They then embarked on the raft without provisions, with two empty kegs, some cabin doors and some cordage.—The surface of the raft was about twelve square yards. He had with him besides the one who survived, the steward, the second cook and a fireman, whose papers are in their possession.

As to those who remained on the ship, to the number of about fifteen, they saw them take refuge forward, as the vessel began to fill. They saw the Lyonnais plunge endways, stern first, the bow raising itself perpendicularly and entirely out of the water. Soon she capsized on the starboard side, and in a moment disappeared in the midst of a boiling of the water, and a whirl of the foam, with a noise like an explosion. It was then seven o'clock in the morning. There was a strong breeze and the sea was rough.

Their raft, very imperfectly constructed, had no motive power but the waves, and was moved at their mercy. Once it capsized, and the second cook was lost. Then a man threw himself into the sea in despair. Shortly the cook would have followed, but was held, only to be lost in the next capsize. They drifted near one ship, but were not discovered. Soon they were hailed by another, which proved to be the Essex, of Boston, and were saved! This was the 25th of December.—These men were so exhausted that they had to be raised on board by ropes.

PROTECTION TO MARRIED WOMEN.—The legislature of Missouri has just passed a bill which says:

"If any man shall desert his wife, or shall, from worthlessness, drunkenness or any other cause, fail to provide for her maintenance, so that she is compelled to labor for the support of herself and family, the earnings of any such wife and any property, real or personal, purchased by her with the proceeds of her labor, shall belong to her in her own right, separate and apart from her said husband, and shall not be liable for his debts nor in any manner subject to his control."

SHIPWRECKED PURGLARS.—Sunday night a gang of burglars entered a store-house on Cunard's wharf, in Jersey City, opposite New York, and succeeded in stealing about $3000 worth of silks, which they put in a boat, and then started for Philadelphia.—The snow storm of Sunday night overtook them, and they were driven ashore at Keyport, where they landed, nearly dead with cold. When driven ashore they left their boat at the dock, and immediately repaired to a grocery store in the neighborhood to warm themselves. While they were there, Mr. Rider, a citizen of Keyport, saw the yacht and went aboard of her. As there were no signs of life, he concluded that the hands had all perished in the storm, and seeing a quantity of silk goods, put them on a wheelbarrow, and took them home for safe keeping until an owner should appear.

Our seafaring youths soon learned what Mr. Rider had done, and his reasons for doing so. Three of them then went to his house and demanded the property. He would not give it up till convinced that it was claimed by the lawful owners, and hence went to the grocery with them to inquire into the circumstances.

Captain Walling, of the New York police, happened to be in Keyport at the time, and the circumstances coming to his knowledge, he called upon a constable to search the boat, when burglars' implements were discovered, and all doubts as to the character of the navigators vanished. They at once went to the grocery where they were, took them to Wight's hotel, where they were detained through the night, and in the morning they were taken to New York.

THE KALLOCH CASE.—The Abington Standard learns that the lady connected with the alleged crime of Rev. Mr. Kalloch, was previous to her marriage, a resident of East Abington; and none who were acquainted with her, entertain the least doubt of her innocence.

CHEERING SIGNS OF PROGRESS.—Country carpenters, charging higher rates than educated Boston architects. New Hampshire will soon give the parting kick to Boston. So says the Keene Sentinel.

DUTY TO BELIEVE.

The Boston Courier is defending the ground that Atheists ought not to testify in Courts, and says:—

It is alleged upon the other side, however, that it is not a man's fault that he is an atheist; he cannot help, they say, his speculative belief. We, of course, hold no such doctrine. It is a man's duty to be a christian believer, and every man is presumed to be such, speculatively or practically, in every christian community.

Uncle Toby most fully and heartily believes, as Paul says he did, and "trusts in the Living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe."

But while he rejoices in this belief, he has no idea that he does or can believe this or anything else, because it is his duty to do so:—but simply because he cannot believe the contrary. He is not conscious that he can believe anything because he wishes it to be true. And he supposes really that his will has no power whatever over his convictions.

Now, let us suppose a judge on the bench cherishes the most abundant Christian belief, and is ready to avow it any where.

Shall he therefore deny the right of testimony and all other civil benefits of an oath or affirmation, to the Atheist who believes in no God at all?—to the Deist who does not believe that he will save anybody? to the Romanist who believes he will save nobody except those who belong to the Roman Church?—to the Calvinist who believes he will save the elect only?—or to the Arminian who believes he will save those who adopt or accept a certain plan, and no others?

All these views are cherished, as every one knows.—And if any one of these may be the test any where in court, then every one may be in different courts.

Again, every man may be presumed in a christian community, to be a christian—but it is a great presumption. Who that has ever been in court, has not heard lies by dozens, sworn to without scruple, by scoundrels who are no atheists, not they, but presumptive christians—and presumptuous too—who neither fear God nor regard man, but who assent to any thing in the shape of an oath, and would as soon swear by one creed as another,—and just as soon by Joe Smith and the Book of Mormon, as by the Holy Evangely.

The whole swearing business, in this country, needs cutting down, as it has been done in England—only more so! Let us first throw away, as they have, the whole heap of Custom House oaths. Next, let us dispense with all the oaths for petty civil offices, and all for military and naval officers, high and low. Then, in courts of law and equity, let the Romanist testify on the Bible and Cross—those of other creeds who can and will, on the usual oaths—and let all others be made to testify on affirmation, or adjuration, "under the pains and penalties of perjury."

Men cannot believe what they please—it cannot be their duty to say they believe, what they disbelieve,—and we only tempt our witnesses to be liars, by requiring them to swallow a creed in an oath, or else be branded as not fit to testify in courts, where oaths are taken by the vilest of men, and no scruples raised against them.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Democratic members of the Senate, in caucus, have concluded to adjourn on Saturday next, provided the President has no occasion to detain them beyond that time.

The following confirmations were made to-day:

Samuel Treat, Judge of the United States Court for the Eastern District of Missouri; M. M. Parsons, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri; Thos. H. Duval, Judge of United States Court for the Western District of Texas; Wm. C. Young, United States Marshal, and Richard H. Hubbard, United States Attorney, for the same District, and Jas. L. Jones, United States Marshal for the Eastern District of Missouri.

Judge Treat, above mentioned, is a native of Portsmouth, a son of Mr. Samuel Treat of this city.

MR. BUCHANAN ON SLAVERY.—Extract number one:

This question of Domestic Slavery is of far greater importance than any mere political question.

Extract number two:

Most happy will it be for the country, when the public mind shall be diverted from this question to others of more pressing and practical importance.

STRIKE.—The journeyman painters of of Fall River are on a strike. They ask an advance from one dollar and seventy-five cents to $2 per day.

☞ The death of Gen. Richardson of Kansas was occasioned by eating too heartily of oysters.

New Hampshire Election.

We give below all the returns we were able to procure, up to 2 o'clock this morning. The political aspect does not appear to have changed materially from last year, judging from this vicinity—and we presume but few expected any other result.

Mr. Marcy is doubtless re-elected Senator from this District.

The Representatives to General Court, as far as heard from, we believe are about the same as last year.

Mr. Pike, in 1855, had 861 votes in this city, for Representative to Congress—to 578 for Kittredge, a majority of 281 for Pike. Now Kittredge has 771 to Pike's 731—giving Kittredge 37 majority. Net gain for Kittredge, in Portsmouth, of 318. But Portsmouth is not the whole State, nor the whole District.

THE RAT SICKNESS.—It was quite a serious business, that rat poisoning at the National Hotel in Washington.

The Eastern Argus, (Mr. Appleton's paper,) copies the following from the Boston Journal.

Mr. Appleton took possession of the Washington Union on the fourth of March, but has as yet written nothing except his "salutatory address." When at the National Hotel with Mr. Buchanan a few weeks since, he contracted the "grippe" with which so many visitors at that establishment have been afflicted, and was yesterday forced to put himself under medical treatment. I understand that his physician feels confident that he is suffering from the effects of arsenic, and this confirms the story that the rats at the National Hotel, having been poisoned, hastened to the water tank in the garret, where large numbers of them were found in a decomposed state. To drink, and to eat food cooked with, a solution of dead rats, arsenic and rain water, was enough to have created a pestilence.—Washington correspondent of Boston Journal, March 2.

A Washington letter of March 4, to the Boston Courier, says:—

Mr. Buchanan was suffering during the day from a severe return of the indisposition he contracted here in January; but he is recovering, thanks to the care of his friend and neighbor, Dr. Foltz, one of the most distinguished surgeons of the navy, who has accompanied him from Lancaster here.

THE FACTS IN THE DRED SCOTT CASE.—The owner of the slave Dred Scott, who brings the action, carried him to Rock Island, in Illinois, and Fort Snelling, north of the Missouri line, and resided there for years. He carried him back to Missouri, and then claimed that the status of slavery resumed.

The Court sustains the action—Judge Nelson, of New York, and Judge Grier, of Pennsylvania, concurring—on the ground of the lex loci of Missouri, where recent decisions reverse old decisions by reconverting Dred, free in Illinois, to his old state of Slavery when returned to Missouri.

The opinion of the Court does not teach directly, if at all, that a master may take a slave to a free State, even in transitu, and hold in slavery there, his slave,—only,—that a slave is not thus made free, when retaken to the State whence he departed.—N. Y. Express.

COURT MATTERS.—From a report of the S. J. Court, given in the Exeter News-Letter, and from other sources, we learn that Winthrop Hilton, (notwithstanding the defence of being crazy drunk,) was convicted, and sentenced to three days' solitary confinement, and three years' hard labor in the State Prison.

State v. Marsh—Exceptions allowed, and case transferred.—Towle for Respondent.

Joseph Nickett and Henry A. Weeks were found guilty of larceny, from the store of Mr. John Gilman, Jr., to the amount of $12,50, and sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the common Jail.

John H. Bennott, for assault—plea nolo contendere. Six months imprisonment in common Jail.

Jeremiah O'Bryan—Assault—plea nolo con. Six months' imprisonment in common Jail.

Alfred Page was found Guilty of keeping liquors for Sale—and fined $50—and costs of prosecution.

14 other indictments—all for violations of the liquor law—were disposed of, in the same way—the Respondents pleading nolo con.

These $750 of fines do not look as if the law was exactly a dead letter.

THE CRIMINAL TERM of the Court of Common Pleas is still in session at Cambridge, Mass. The jury disagreed in the case of Nathaniel Whitney of Wes'ford, a common seller of liquor; and convicted John Ward of Chelmsford. The liquor prosecutions against Allen Waldo and John Ewing of Lowell were abandoned on account of the insufficiency of the evidence, and Patrick Bradley was defaulted. Ann Hoy of Woburn and John McGrath of Hopkinton were convicted of violating the liquor law. Samuel Cloon, town liquor agent of Stoneham, was tried on charge of liquor selling, and was acquitted of illegal sales.

☞ The Protestants of the Sardinian dominions, and of the Swiss cantons, are making vigorous onslaughts on Catholicity. Conversions to Protestantism are daily taking place in Turin, Nice, Genoa, &c.

The Baptists of France, Sweden, and Germany, have been shamefully persecuted by the governments and the established churches of those countries.

The dissenters in England, outnumber the members of the established church.

☞ A church has recently been purchased for the use of the American Protestants in Paris, at a cost of $45,000.

ARREST OF THE MURDERER OF NORCROSS. From the Philadelphia Journal of Saturday, we gather the following particulars of the arrest, after a desperate struggle, of McKim, the murderer of young Norcross, while on his way home from the West:—Three citizens of Luzerne county heard that he was in the vicinity of Wilkesbarre, concealed among the gorges of the surrounding mountains. They armed themselves with rifles and started in pursuit.—They were soon upon the right scent, as a number of farmers of Wyoming Valley had seen the man they described; and the assassin discovered that he was pursued.—He fled, and those who were engaged in the chase, followed in his trail with much sagacity, until they had fairly run him down in a defile of Kingston mountain, which runs along the western side of Wyoming Valley. He was almost exhausted, and setting his back against a rock, he stood at bay, with a revolver in each hand. As the party of pursurers approached, one of them called out to him to surrender, at the same time menacing him with rifles. McKim replied with a defiance, and fired his pistol in rapid succession. It was the anxious desire of the party who attempted the arrest, to capture the murderer alive. But they were compelled to fire in self-defence, and McKim fell, disabled by a rifle ball. He was then secured, and conveyed to Wilkesbarre. His wound is serious but not fatal. None of the party who effected the capture were hurt. The assassin is receiving medical attendance, and, if possible, will speedily be conveyed to Altoona, where the bloody deed was committed.

☞ The Middlesex Argus, Middletown, Ct., says that Rev. Josiah Brewster, one of the editors of the Republican, in that village, by the death of a relative in Massachusetts, has come into the possession of a fortune valued at $150,000.

THE NEW CENT.—The coinage bill having become a law, the new cent pieces will soon be in circulation. They are said to be a beautiful coin, all but the eagle.

☞ Patrick Flaherty of Lynn, fell down a flight of steps on Monday night, while intoxicated, and was killed.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, pronouncing it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for gray heads." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose locks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—[St. Louis Herald.

Lawrence's Carminative,

is

CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.

THIS Invaluable Preparation is a favorite scientific prescription of one of the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in New England, and one who has been as successful as any other in the treating of

DISEASES OF CHILDREN,

and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically

A CHILD'S MEDICINE,

and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy sure to be followed by a "Dose of Physic."

The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty, and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues.

The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhea, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness,

and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; sure to regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour Stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS, and parents who value rest not fair to buy a bottle, as they may depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir;—Having made trial of your Carminative, in several severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.
NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 23, 1852.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.
Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

BENJAMIN NORTON

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than it sold here. (by Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense.

Also, for sale 440 acres of fine Timber Land.

LYMAN RICHARDS WILLISTON, son of Missionary Richards, and adopted son of Samuel Williston of Easthampton, has resigned the professorship of Latin and modern languages in Amherst College, which has been kept warm for him for several years, and to which he was elected last fall. He has been in Germany for some time, fitting himself by study for the post, and is still there; and his resignation and particularly the cause for it, are sources of great disappointment to his friends. It is because of a change in his theological views from the orthodox standard of the College to the liberal notions common among German students and thinkers, called by their friends neology and by their enemies pantheism, and of which Theodore Parker is perhaps the most prominent representative in this country. Mr. Williston expects to return home soon, and take up the profession of a teacher at the South.—Springfield Republican.

The "Upper Circles" of New York are again disturbed. Mary Ann Bokr, daughter of John G. Boker, a rich wine merchant, doing business in Front street, and having a country seat at Tarrytown,—has married her father's coachman, an outrageous Irishman, called John Dean. The father is very angry and has locked up his "own Mary Ann;" but Pat is determined to have his wife, and as a means of procuring the darling, has petitioned for a writ of habeas corpus.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, Friends and their Kindreds, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have, by the use of two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, EO. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1855.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my family and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quite remarkable, and especially they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate but that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., NOV. 16, 1854.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than all else she has taken. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two boxes of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have yet known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N.Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative, to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Prominent Merchant of Boston, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for two years. Her face was so much covered by afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA SORSHINDE

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Hon. Irv. Hunter, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 4, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your child has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and produced inflammatory neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse every winter, notwithstanding I spent great part of it in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SAMUEL CHAMBERS, Formerly of Newport, La., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SKIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, are the Pathological results of these causes, and have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a pill sold from the drawer, and taken without the frequently fatal in incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN PATIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Yet, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disease of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the fatal, dable and dangerous disease of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in the house against the insidious attack that stealthy upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the timely protection it provides than those it cures. Yet it does cure, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor protect them until no human skill can master the incurable malady that, fastened on the vitals, only yields to death. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and so they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not dwelling to assure them it is still inside the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no skill, to make it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Franck & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who subscribe at a distance are protected so that they themselves were present at the drawing. Neither fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to vote in person, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor protect them until no human skill can master the incurable malady that, fastened on the vitals, only yields to death. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and so they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not dwelling to assure them it is still inside the best it can be. American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1836.)

No. 76 State st, opps. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, specifications, Assignments, and all Papers connected with Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign patents to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England but most of the inventions have drawings for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services more moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and in Europe, enable him to answer, on question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in recommending inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the business of Patent Solicitor, and in the Office. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. A NEW PLAN.—At the annual town meetings of two towns in Essex County, Mass., last week, a new plan was hit upon of stopping the sale of spirituous liquors.—They authorized the selectmen in Hamilton and Andover to appoint what they term "Vigilance Committees," or in other words secret policemen, who were to ferret out transgressors and prosecute. In Andover they were not content to stop there, but placed $500, "secret service money," in the hands of the selectmen for the furtherance of operations. So says the Newburyport Herald, which also says:

The term of the Court of Common Pleas closed its sitting in Salem on Sunday, and we believe the last case of conviction was that of a noted liquor seller of Lawrence. For violations of the liquor law there have been more convictions than at the session of any court in the State before. The newspapers that way not reporting the court, we have not been able to obtain the most definite intelligence; but we hear that as many as a dozen sellers in Lawrence alone, have been adjudged guilty. Some of them have received sentence, and others have appealed upon frivolous pretences which only delays their punishment. From Lawrence the convictions were principally obtained upon the evidence of two young men, who for alleged injuries done their families by the traffic, set themselves to work to purchase and complain of the dealers, and by their means the keepers of the County Houses will have ten or a dozen additional boarders.

The operation of the law in this court has been different from what most people expected; and if such should continue to be the operation, it must close up the liquor traffic so far as it is in the hands of respectable men, who would rather give up the profits than incur the risk of prison.

The question at a tea party turning upon the impropriety of one's mixing up cakes with a pinch of snuff in her fingers, fearing some might be scattered in the dough, a lad remarked that he had seen his mother mix cakes with a pinch of snuff in her fingers and not scatter a bit. "Why, Billy," replied the offended lady, "how you do lie." "Well, mother, I don't know but I do," innocently replied the urchin; "I don't know but you did scatter it a very little.'"

BROKEN UP.—We are happy to hear that the notorious "Half-way House" and the "Happy Hollow House" between this city and Lawrence have been broken up. Roderick Bailey kept the Half-way House, and Mrs. Jesse Balcom the other. Roderick and a large part of his family are in prison for selling liquor, or have left for parts unknown, to avoid arrest. Mrs. Balcom is also in prison.—Lowell News.

FASTENED ON THE OLD CHARGE.—The Grand Jury of the Municipal Court, in Boston, having indicted Owen O'Neil for stealing $81 from a U. S. sailor, named John Decres, the District Attorney informed the Court that the same defendant was convicted of a similar larceny some months since, and that for reasons then given, O'Neil was suffered to go on probation, and the indictment on which he was then convicted was placed on file, with the understanding that it could be called up at any time. Under the circumstances, he now moved that O'Neil be required to recognize in a sufficient sum to hold him to appear for sentence on that indictment.

Mr. Brewster stated that O'Neil was a notorious scoundrel, and had obtained something like $2,100 from the confiding sailors discharged from the Macedonian, at Portsmouth, N. H. Navy Yard a short time ago.* The money obtained was the hard earnings of a four years' cruise, but owing to some technical difficulties, although the cases presented to the Grand Jury were of an aggravated nature, but one indictment had been returned against O'Neil at this term.—The Court entertained the motion of the District Attorney, and ordered O'Neil to recognize in $1500 for another hearing on the old indictment. This order increases O'Neil's bail to $3500, and in default he was committed to Jail. Hopes are now entertained that this notorious land pirate may yet meet with his just deserts.

——*Some mistake here.

LUCK IN LEISURE.—The ship Samuel Russel, with a valuable cargo of teas, silks and spices, sailed from China for New York some time since. By stress of weather she had a long passage of about 190 days, which of course nullified the sale of the cargo, the time fixed in the terms of the sale for the arrival of the goods having expired. After her departure from China, and before she reached New York, the war broke out, by which means her cargo, on arrival, was worth between $40,000 and $50,000 more to her owners than it would have been if she had made her trip in the ordinary time. In other words, had she made a quick voyage, she would have caused a loss to her owners of $50,000. The last place of detention was in the ice at Norfolk, where her situation, for a time, was very critical.

BAPTISM.—Eleven colored young ladies, of Rev. Mr. Henson's parish, were baptized, Sunday, at Cambridgeport. One of the young converts fainted soon after, from the effects of the sudden chill.

THURSDAY, MARCH 12, 1857.

THE JURY LAW.—The present State Senate of Massachusetts has been unwise enough to repeal the act giving jurors powers to judge of the law as well as evidence in criminal cases. We hope, says the Lowell News, the House will not concur. The institution of the jury is older than any written law or constitution. It was guaranteed by Magna Charta, and the Constitution of the U. S. had to lift its hat to it and solemnly affirm that it would never meddle with it. The juror has the right to judge of the law from the nature of the case. He had it originally; and we challenge any one to show where it was ever taken away. The Constitution of the United States guarantees the right in its fullest sense. No enactment can deprive a juror of it; and if there were ten thousand enactments against his judging the law, we would violate all of them if placed in the jury-box, and falling back on the original right, challenge authority for depriving us of it.

TEXT.—A correspondent of the Journal of Commerce writes from Washington with evident satisfaction, that "the decision of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case is now a part of the law of the land, and will be cheerfully acquiesced in."

COMMENTARY.—The subject of the decision has been referred to a Special Committee of the New York Legislature, for the purpose of devising some means to neutralize its effect on the status of the colored men of that State. Is this a symptom of cheerful acquiescence?

A GREAT WOOLGROWER.—The Manchester Mirror says, Mr. Abraham Melvin, the Pan of New Hampshire, whose Arcadia is is in Weare, in this state, sold, a few days ago, 25,000 pounds of Spanish Merino wool to parties in Boston for sixty cents a pound, amounting to $15,000—wool of his own raising, part of a four years' stock.—Mr. Melvin owns land in his own town, in Warner, Hopkinton, Springfield, Sutton, Grafton, Dorchester, and in this State, where the sheep are under his own immediate care. But his great yield comes from sheep let out on shares to persons in different parts of this State, Vermont and New York. He lets them out in a novel compound ratio way, thus: the lessee to keep them four years, to give Mr. Melvin half of the wool yearly, and half of the wool of the increase by the mother's side, at the end of the four years; to give Mr. Melvin half of the sheep taken proceeds of the carcase. By ordinary calculations, making due allowance for death by old age, lamb-kill, disease, youthful tenderness, and what not, he will, at the end of four years, get three times as many sheep for half the increase; in case of death, half of we can't tell how many pounds of wool.

☞ A brutal prize fight took place on Thursday of last week, when a party of seventy-five persons, mostly of that class known as fighting men, left Boston unknown to the police, and required to a lonely spot in the town of Danvers, near the line of Lynnfield, where a ring was formed, in which a prize fight took place between John Roberts a professional prize fighter, and a new aspirant for the honors of the ring named Henry Finnegrass.—Finnegrass was awfully punished, and the victor, Roberts, had his jaw broken. The match was for $200 a side. The news leaked out, and the Boston police on Saturday arrested Finnegrass and his seconds Ned Price, also Barney Ford second for Roberts, and James Hart who acted as umpire. Roberts could not be found, and it is said that he has left. The arrested parties are well known "bruisers." Hart keeps a saloon known as "Sportsman's Hall," in Elm street, Boston. Price keeps the "London House," in North street, and Finnegrass was formerly his bar-keeper.—Ford formerly kept a saloon in Stillman street, in company with James Monaghan. Four of the Boston drunkery keepers.

The accused were conveyed to Salem and examined before the Police Court of that city on Saturday afternoon. They were all held for trial at the next term of the Essex County Court of Common Pleas,—Finnegrass in $5000 as principal in the fight, and the three others in $1000 each as aiders and abettors.

TWO BRUTES HELD FOR TRIAL.—Michael Graham and Oliver Wilds were brought up in the Police Court, Boston, on Tuesday, on a charge of saturating a dog with turpentine, and setting him on fire, by which a barn was destroyed, a few weeks since, at the South End. They were bound over in the sum of $600 each for trial at the Municipal Court.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.

THE ELECTION.—The New Hampshire Statesman Extra, says:—

The returns before us at this time, (4 o'clock Wednesday morning,) are not near so full as we could wish, nor so much so as at either of the last State Elections; but we think there can be no doubt that our candidate for Governor is chosen by at least three thousand majority; that the Republicans will have as large a majority in the House of Representatives of 1857 as in 1856; that from seven to ten Republican Senators are chosen, and that Messrs. Pike, Tappan and Cragin are re-elected to Congress. The aggregate vote is larger than in March last, but falls short of that in November, as every intelligent person is of course prepared to hear.

The same paper says afterwards:—

Later returns from Cheshire, Strafford, and Carroll Counties indicate that the Republican majority in the House may be as high as forty or fifty. Cheshire and Carroll Counties have made great gains of Representatives to the Republicans.

Berlin, Strafford, Northumberland, Shelburne, Dummer, Lancaster, Jefferson, Dalton, and Whitefield in Coos County give 58 majority for Wells.

The COUNCIL will be Republican.

Returns from 113 towns give Haile 20,655; Wells 17,575; Scattering 108. Latest returns give 229 Republicans, and 52 Democrats elected to the Legislature, being a gain of 22 from last year.

A CHANGE.—The Salem Gazette of March 10, says:—It has not been until the present season that the Temperance Law in this State can be said to have fairly got to work. Every legal and constitutional point has been fairly contested, through all the Courts, until at last the cases have begun to come back from the Supreme Court for the terrible sentences which the law inflicts. The natural consequence, already perceptible, is, as we are informed, that the violators of the law are made much more cautious, and the cases of drunkenness at our Police Court have fallen away one half.

A TRIAL OF MARSHAL WESTCOTT'S SPEED. On Monday evening, Mr. John Currier, Jr., of Newburyport, coming out of a house, where he was visiting with his wife, was unable to find his horse and carriage. Information was immediately given to City Marshal Westcott, who was upon the track in the new fallen snow, and followed for eight miles into the Upper Parish of West Newbury, where he found the horse tied to a post. Foot tracks went from the carriage to a neighboring house, but there was no evidence to convict anybody of misdemeanor.

☞ The Lowell News states that Daniel Sullivan, an Irishman, who kept a junk store in his house, and sent out boys to steal, has got into jail, and his den is broken up.

Patrick Bradley, who kept a low Irish groggery on Graham street, Lowell, was sentenced in the Court of Common Pleas at Cambridge, to 50 days in the house of Correction, and a fine of $30 and costs. Bradley was forthwith escorted to his new quarters. He was in the habit of enticing a certain woman into his shop, getting her money for rum, and then kicking her out. His prosecution and sentence were the result of her revenge.

☞ T. B. Peterson, the enterprising publisher, has in press two new books, The Border Rover, by Emerson Bennett, to be issued on the 14th inst.; and Vivia; or the secret of Power, by Mrs. E. D. E. N. Southworth. Price, in 2 vols., paper cover, $1. Cloth, $1.25.

They will be forwarded to any part of the United States, free of postage, on receipt of the price of the edition wished.

IN A FIX.—An exceedingly good story is current in Worcester. It seems that a well known lawyer, who is an out and out Democrat, a regular Democrat, who doesn't believe in making a fuss about the niggers, recently went to North Carolina on business. He arrived at the town of W——, and after getting his dinner, strutted out into the street. A negro slave, who had been sold to go South, and was manacled, stood apart from others in the street, and as our Worcester Democrat came that way, he begged "massa" to buy him. The lawyer told him he could not—the slave entreated, and in the midst of the conversation, a man accosted our friend quite roughly and demanded to know what he, "an abolitionist from Worcester," (!) was talking with a nigger for, and told him he had better clear out. On returning to his hotel he found a mob gathered, and despite all his protestations and explanations he was hustled out of the back door of the house and into the baggage car on the train that was just about leaving, and hurried out of town in double quick time!

So the people of W—— got rid of their fears of the abolitionists running off their niggers, though at the cost of much inconvenience to our Democratic legal friend. He has a high opinion now of the degree of liberty enjoyed in the Slave States by a Massachusetts Democrat. We do not vouch for the correctness of this story, but give it as told to us. There is nothing improbable about it, and it is quite good enough to be true.—Boston Bee.

☞ An Albany editor says that he did not see why his place was not washed away during the recent flood there, unless it was because there was such a heavy mortgage on it.

☞ The appropriation of Congress for fortifications at the entrance of New Bedford Harbor, is stated to be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, instead of fifty thousand dollars, as previously given.

NEW YORK, Mch. 10.—Tracy's Block, at Havana, Schuyler County, was burned on Sunday. Loss $50,000. The fire was the work of an incendiary, the motive for which is supposed to have originated in a rivalry between the towns of Havana and Watkins, relative to the location of the county buildings.

CAPITAL CONVICTION.—Portland, March 10.—In the case of George Knight, indicted for the murder of his wife, which has been on trial for 20 days at Auburn, the jury returned a verdict of a murder in the first degree, after being out 25 hours. His counsel have filed exceptions.

☞ A series of temperance meetings are in progress at Lowell, on Sunday evenings. Four clergymen spoke on the evening of the 8th.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose locks are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, pronounce it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for gray heads." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose locks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—[St. Louis Herald.

LOCAL.

☞ It is astonishing how a little incident sometimes will start our whole system into action. On Wednesday noon, about two tons of snow slid from Congress Block upon a staid looking wagon, to which a horse was attached. The wagon immediately ran away, breaking the reins by which the horse was fastened, and forcing that unfortunate quadruped before it at a rate not allowable by the city statute. The vehicle was stopped in its headlong career through Fleet street by a young man who put his speed to a test in order to catch up with the runaway establishment.

☞ We would call the attention of ladies to the Stock of Dry Goods of H. A. Bigelow, about to leave this city, advertised in another column, to be sold at auction—every day and evening till closed.—Among the Stock is a good assortment of Bonnets, Flowers and Ribbons, affording a rare opportunity to get a Spring Bonnet very cheap.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. Foxwell C. Wilson started from his home in Kittery, on the morning of Tuesday, the 10th inst., and while engaged in cutting his load of logs in York woods, a limb fell about fifty feet and struck him on the head, which produced insensibility. He continued in that state until the next morning, when he died.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Charles E. Thurrell, a young man about 19 years of age, while skating on Swampscot River, on Monday afternoon last, broke through the ice and was drowned. No one was with him at the time. His body was recovered on Wednesday morning. Thurrell was a very promising young man and a member of Phillip's Exeter Academy. His parents reside in North Berwick, whither his body will probably be carried for interment.

☞ Port Gibson is a beautiful little town on the Mississippi River, writes a Western correspondent of the Drawer, where I attended a wedding a few days since. Wishing to say something becoming the occasion, I approached the fair young bride in the course of the evening, and after congratulating her on her departure from the state of single blessedness, I wished her a pleasant voyage down the river of life.—She said "she hoped so, but she heard there was a great deal of fever on the river now—she hoped they wouldn't ketch it on the way down." So says a traveller.

NOVEL VIEW OF THE SAINTS.—"Every thing became proper in our hands for some purpose,"—said an eminent old Jesuit in a conversation touching the consummate policy of his order. "We destined the most eloquent to the pulpit, the most crafty to politics, the most ambitious to the confessional of princes." "But" it was remarked, "there must have been fools among you as everywhere else: to what use did apply them?" "We made saints of them!" was the imperturbable reply. This refinement of adaption, this habit of putting "the right arm in the right place," is doubtless the secret of its marvellous success, albeit there be comparatively few in the latter category. That the Church has profitted largely by this infusion of worldly wisdom through the wissest of its 'children' is manifest in the matchless adaptations of its complicated machinery; and in nothing more, perhaps, than in its ever-lengthening calendar of saints.—Rome Correspondent of Newark Advertiser.

MR. KALLOCH.—We learn that one of the "delegation" who are said to be travelling the country in search of evidence against Rev. Mr. Kalloch, paid our city a visit one day last week. We also learn that he left with the conviction that the city where Mr. K. has always lived, and where he is best known, is a hard place.—Rockland, Me. Gazette.

MAN LOST.—On Monday the 2d inst. about half past nine in the morning, the family of Mr. Adams, at Owl's head, discovered a man in a boat with one mast, in the ice abreast of the Light House. The man was distinctly seen to step from the boat to the ice, and then back again. In a short time, as the ice drifted past, the boat went down, and the man was seen clinging to the mast, and finally all disappeared.—Rockland Gazette.

HEAVY LOSS BY FIRE.—Chicago, March 6.—At Canton, Sunday night a fire broke out in the mill and distillery of Messrs. Henry & Co., formerly known as Babcock's Mills. The whole building was destroyed, with a quantity of flour and whiskey, and a large number of hogs. Loss estimated at $25,000, on which there is only $3000 insurance.

SALT LAKE MAIL.—St. Louis March 10. A letter from Independence of 3d inst., says the Salt Lake mail had just arrived, having been three months on the road.—The trip was the coldest and most perilous ever made across the Plains. Many Indians on the route were either frozen or starved to death, and others had eaten their own children.

AMONG THOSE who called upon Senator Sumner, in New York, prior to his departure for Havre in the steamer, was Col. Fremont.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Washington, March 10*th.*—A majority of the Senate's Committee on the Judiciary have decided to report a resolution for taking testimony in Indiana, in reference to the contested elections in that State, and will, it is said, report in favor of Mr. Cameron's right to a seat from Pennsylvania.

The Senate, in Executive session, ratified to-day commercial treaties with Russia, Venezuela and Chili.

The Committee on Foreign Relations will have a meeting to-morrow morning, to consider the Clarendon-Dallas treaty.

All the South Carolina Congressional delegation, excepting Mr. Orr, are opposed to the principle of rotation in office. For the eleven Federal offices in that State, there are only two applicants. The present Postmaster of Charleston is the second one who has held that station since the organization of the General Government.

Ex-President Pierce has gone to Virginia, to visit some personal friends.

The Cabinet held a long session to-day.

The probabilities are that the Senate will adjourn sine die on Saturday.

The nominations sent to the Senate to-day embrace Marshals for some of the Southern States.

No removals have yet been made in the Departments here.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—[N. Y. Tribune Correspondence.]—The rule announced by heads of Departments to subordinates, is that removal will not be made without cause. Heads of Bureaus were notified to communicate this determination to relieve clerks from anxiety. Mr. Cobb has added to the present causes of dismissal that of dealing in lottery tickets and frequenting gaming houses. He has also required the Board of Examiners sitting on applications for Clerkships, to make their investigations rigid, and not nominal. Four years' service in important places is regarded by the President as furnishing a reason for change whether the commissions have expired or not. Secretary Brown has notified the Assistant Postmasters General that they will be retained; also the chief Clerk of the Department. The expired commissions of three postmasters in Tennessee were renewed yesterday.

PRESIDENT PIERCE'S LAST SABBATH IN WASHINGTON.—President Pierce has during his term of office been a regular attendant at the Four-and-a-half street Presbyterian church. Last Sabbath was a remarkably fine day. The crowd in the city attended church with our citizens. The Four-and-a-half street church was very much crowded; all the pews in the house were filled at an early hour except the one occupied by the President. He came in as the service began. Rev. Mr. Sunderland, the pastor, in the course of the sermon, took occasion to address the President. He alluded to the great dignity to which he had been called, as President of this great nation; of the success of his administration; of the cessation of popular clamor, and the prosperity of the nation of which he had been the head; and alluding, feelingly, with tears, to the sorrow of that church and the people at large at the departure of the president from among us. A solemn stillness and many tears bore witness to the truthful statement.—Washington Union.

This is the richest item we have seen for some time;—and therefore we mark a few words in italics, to draw attention to the richest slices. We presume the Rev. Mr. Sunderland is one of those model clergymen who never meddle with politics—except on the right side.

HONORS TO THE MEMORY OF DR. KANE.—Baltimore, March 10.—The funeral procession in this city to-day, in honor of Dr. Kane, was a most imposing affair. There was an immense turnout of citizens, and the escort was composed of seven military companies, including the U. S. Antillery from Fort McHenry.

The body is placed in the centre of the Hall of the Maryland Institute, which is guarded by soldiers,

Thousands of citizens are visiting it to night.

The remains will leave here to-morrow at 11 A. M., for Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, March 10.—The funeral of Dr. Kane, will take place on Thursday at noon.

His remains will reach here to-morrow. The Committee of the New York Common Council have arrived, and are the guests of the city.

Philadelphia appropriates one thousand dollars for the obsequies.

DEATH OF AN AMERICAN LADY ABROAD.—Late advices from Florence state that Miss Mary Minturn, aged 50 years, sister of Robert Minturn, Esq., of New York, a lady of fortune, of rare intelligence and amiability of character, died recently at Naples. Miss Minturn had traveled extensively in Europe. She went abroad for the purpose of accompanying a nephew of Robert Minturn on a European tour for the benfit of his health. It will be remembered that Dr. Kane named a river—the most beautiful in the Arctic regions, after Miss Minturn—and it is a singular coincidence that while Dr. Lane was dying at Cuba, Miss Minturn was breathing her last at Naples. She was taken down at Florence with influenza, and proceeded to Naples, where she died.

Mr. Cobb, the new Secretary of the Treasury, is in the 42d year of his age—or about half as old as Mr. Cass—the Secretary of State.

CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.

THIS Invaluable Preparation is a favorite scientific prescription of one of the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in New England, and one who has been as successful as any other in the treating of

DISEASES OF CHILDREN,

and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically

A CHILD'S MEDICINE,

and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy sure to be followed by a "Dose of Physic."

The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty, and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues.

The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhea, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness,

and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; sure to regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS, and parents who value rest not intl to buy a bottle, as they may depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir:—Having made trial of your Carminative, in sivveral severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.

NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 23, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every instance of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.

Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1853.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE—DEAR SIR: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infancy,—a class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense

Hutchins' Hair Dye.

The very best now in use, as the many thousands that have tried it will testify.

THE great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. Pels' Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

RAYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Mothers, Mechers, Physicians Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1856.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been troubled with the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, EZ. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

(SYMPATHY OF THE INTESTINES,) (ARISING FROM BILE.)

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver and digestive organs, especially by their are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dyspepsia, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1858

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody flux, in a few days. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as this deserves, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative. In disease the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Prominent Merchant of Memphis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. A. H. HANDY.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkins, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled upon my lungs and bowels, which produced neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew more and worse, notwithstanding I had the best of treatment at Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie. I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

REVERDY JOHNSON, of Baltimore, was U. S. Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, are often the results of Costiveness, by which these Pills are rendered easily the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a pill, from its tendency to salivate and make the frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN CIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American Union, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where, which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disease of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous disease of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it near, and be sure against the insidious enemy that stealts upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumption it prevents than it cures. Keep it in your home, and cure your colds while they are curable, we neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable malady that, fastened on the vitals, will rob you of life. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We cannot do more, and we feel it our duty to make the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which B. FRANKLIN & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the attention of the public is called to, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the week, and the prizes, after being named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are issued, unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tertary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in the British, French, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters relating thereto. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL. AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has every reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of mechanical and scientific works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity who had so extensive business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent-solicitors in the United States and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy to attend to their business, or bring their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the office, and regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000 of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the tone of the power of the instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Heretofore, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '56.

Messrs Prince & Co could never be a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have manufactured nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now flatter ourselves that by perseverance, Prince & Co. will there give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been proved by Mr. Hodges, Doct. Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful tuned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very really, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are doubtful of it, that if they will wait, they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

Four octave Melodeon, from C to C	$45
Four and a half octave, " C to F	60
Five octave Melodeon, " F to F	75

DELAVAN ON PACTS.

NO. I.

E. C. Delavan, of New York, in a late letter to Gov. King, of that State, says:

It was stated by the Executive Committee of this Society, in their Report to the Meeting, on the 18th of December, that "during the twenty-nine years since your Society was organized, such a reformation has been wrought in the habits of the civilized world, as has never before been witnessed in the same length of time." I think that facts will fully bear out this statement.

LIQUORS ON THE TABLE AND SIDE-BOARD.

1. When the Temperance Reform began, thirty years ago, every family who could afford it, had intoxicating liquors on the table and side board. These included not only wines, but brandy and rum. Every guest and every caller, was invited to drink; and it was about as uncivil not to drink as not to invite to drink. In this respect, the usages of society have undergone a striking change. The family tables which have liquors, are now the exception. In many of these cases they are furnished only when guests are present, and the liquors are almost universally limited to wines.

DRINKING USAGES AMONG FARMERS.

2. Hardly a farm in the land was worked without spirits; and such a case was a matter of remark, and was pointed to, as an evidence of niggardliness in the owner. It would now be a matter of unfavorable remark, if a farmer should furnish his workmen with intoxicating liquors. Not one in a thousand, if one in ten thousand does it.

3. Every farmer, having an orchard, had a cider mill, or used his neighbor's. Cider was as plenty in the farmer's cellar, as water in his well; and it was used in place of water, by men, women, and children. The falling off in the use of cider, is of itself, a striking and conclusive proof, of the revolution which the Temperance Reform has wrought in the drinking usages of society.

AMONG SAILORS AND TRAVELERS.

5. Time was when nearly every merchant vessel which sailed on the ocean, the rivers, or lakes, furnished spirit rations to the men. I doubt if any do so now. This change is very marked as to fishery and whaling ships, a class of facts, which a mutual friend informs me, your Excellency is well acquainted with.

6. When the ocean steamships began to cross the Atlantic, their tables were supplied with spirits, as free as water. This was the case with the Great Western, when I crossed in her, in one of her earliest voyages, in 1839. When off Great Britain, the passengers held a meeting (Lord Lenox in the chair) and to the number of 120 signed a petition to the owners at Bristol, requesting them to discontinue this custom. It happened to your servant to be appointed a committee of one to present it. I did so; and the liquors disappeared thereafter from the table. I believe every steam-ship now adopts the same rule.

7. At the period referred to, there was not a hotel table, or steam-boat table, at which ardent spirits was not furnished free. It would have been considered as unfurnished, as if it was without bread or salt. Now there is not a public table in the land, where intoxicating liquor is furnished gratuitously. And probably not one person out of twenty, at our public tables, calls for such liquors.

THE WASHINGTON SICKNESS.—Mr. Appleton, the new editor of the Union, has been suffering under the epidemic at Washington, and has not left his room since the day of the inauguration. One of the editors of the New York Day Book, who with his wife and child suffered severely from the rat poison at the National Hotel, says that "after weighing all the testimony and reviewing all the circumstances, he has come to the conviction that all were poisoned at the National Hotel by eating food cooked in water impregnated with poisoned rats; and what is more, he believes that the proprietors knew that the dead rats were in the water, and that after cleaning their tanks, they went on and used the same poisoned water until the increase of sickness alarmed them and compelled them to change the water."

A GIFT TO TUFTS COLLEGE.—This institution has just received a valuable donation to the Philosophical Department—under the superintendence of Professor Marshall—of a suberb chemical balance, richly embossed in a mahogany frame, the sides of which are glass, and the whole resting on a marble slab. On the outside is a silver plate, bearing this inscription: "Presented to Tufts College by the First Universalist Sabbath School, Boston, 1857." It was manufactured expressly for this institution, at a cost of $75.

THE DRED SCOTT CASE.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Courier expresses the opinion that the case was "made up by Washington politicians, in order to enlist the Supreme Court in the electioneering struggles of the day." The case was originally tried in the Missouri Supreme Court, wherein Dred Scott was himself the plaintiff, and Dr. Emerson, his then master, was defendant. The decision of that Court against the plaintiff was rendered in 1854, while the Nebraska bill was pending.

"And there, so far as it was a question of private property, the case was at an end. Scott and his family remained the slaves of their master, for even if he had been legally a free citizen of Missouri, he could not have appealed to the Supreme Court against a citizen of the same State. How, then, was he placed in the situation of a plaintiff? By the act of his master, the controverted title to these slaves was transferred to John F. A. Sanford, of New York, and then Dred took his appeal, or rather it was taken for him, for to do these things requires money, and certainly as a slave, Dred had none to spare nor to use. In Dec. 1855, just in the nick of time, for the purpose of the Democratic party, the case came to Washington, and in May, 1856, it came up for argument. Had the expected decision been given, it would have been issued by millions of copies to prove the constitutionalism of the Democratic party, and the Supreme Court would be permanently arrayed as a partisan machinery on the side of the Democratic party. That this is a specially fabricated case, and fabricated for a bad purpose, I need say nothing more to prove. I know that it was the opinion of at least one sound and conservative Democratic lawyer, ten months ago, that the case would be thrown out of Court on this very ground; and at that time it was but half developed.

The charge which the facts warrant, is, that the contrivers and supporters of the overthrow of the Missouri Compromise, discovered this opportunity to make up a case of agitating the slavery question in the Supreme Court. They have fully succeededed in their purpose, and they have secured to themselves the means of continued agitation after the determination of the Presidential election had deprived them of the usual material.

THE NEW FEDERAL CONSTITUTION.—The Boston Courier contains in full the masterly opinion of Justice Curtis in opposition to the new Federal Constitution just promulgated by a majority of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States. It occupies fourteen columns and a half of the Courier, and will receive the careful consideration of all persons in this section of the country, at least. In regard to the judicial decision to which this learned opinion relates, the Providence Journal makes the following felicitous allusion:

If the Supreme Court of the United States had decided that the American Revolution did not work a legal separation between the mother country and the colonies, and that the United States was still subject to the British crown and amenable to the laws of the British Parliament, it would hardly be more completely contrary to all received opinions; to all the practice, executive, legislative and judicial; to all the common sense of the people; than the decision that was rendered in the Dred Scott case.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

By the recent decision of the Supreme Court, persons of African descent have no right to vote at our State elections, although they may have been born, and always resided in the State.—Dover Gaz.

We believe no such decision has been made—and it would be invalid, if it had been, simply because it contradicts the fact. They are citizens of New Hampshire, and therefore of the U. S.—and the Court has no power to dis-franchise them. If any body would like a quarrel on that point, let them come to New Hampshire just now.

In consequence of the recent Dred Scott decision, an amendment of the Rhode Island constitution is necessary to secure to the colored people the right of suffrage, as at present the right is limited to citizens of the United States.—Lowell Citizen.

Quite unnecessary—yet let them make it.

A resolution to amend the constitution so as to allow colored men to vote without a property qualification, (the same as other men,) has passed the New York Senate, by a vote of 21 to 5. Ten years ago this proposition could not have received five votes.—Exchange.

The late decision of the Supreme Court, if we read it aright, does not touch the question of voting at all. But it has stirred the North anew,—and will certainly revive the discussion of slavery with renewed vigor.

☞ Mr. Samuel J. Austin was ordained and installed pastor of the Congregational church in Mason Village on the 25th ult. Sermon by Rev. E. E. Adams of Nashua.

PATRIOTISM.

The N. H. Patriot of Wednesday, gives the following amiable and beautiful account of the election:

Owing to the most contemptible conduct of the superintendent of the telegraph, we are unable to give this evening so full returns of the election as we usually give on the morning after election. But these are of such a complexion that our political friends may be pleased that there are no more of them—preferring to receive such news by instalments rather than to take the whole dose at once! Yet the portion we give affords an unmistakable indication of what is to come, and will prompt our Democratic readers to exclaim—"Bring us no more reports!"

The result of the election can easily be gathered from the returns given in this paper; and that is, in a word, a complete, sweeping, black republican triumph. They have carried their governor by over 3000 majority; they have elected their three members of Congress; they have carried the Council, the Senate and the House.

In view of these prominent, decisive facts, and with the imperfect returns before us, it is hardly worth the while to speculate about details. Our opponents will have sufficient majorities in the several branches, and it matters little to the public whether it is one or two more or less in either branch—whether they have all five Councillors, or only three; whether they have nine Senators, or only seven; or whether they have fifty majority in the House, or only thirty-five. These things cannot be determined without further returns, and they are so comparatively unimportant that there will be but little anxiety in regard to them.

That this result is more disastrous to the Democracy than we expected, we freely admit. It is true we did not anticipate a Democratic victory; but we hoped for at least a partial one—that we should divide the field with the enemy—that a drawn battle would be the result of the contest.—But the aggregate vote is much larger than we anticipated.

☞ A young clerk, named Geo. E. Vose, has just absconded from Boston. He is quite a young man, and has been for six or seven years in the employ of Charles Lane & Co., 3 Commerce street, who had implicit confidence in his integrity until Monday last, when he was missing from his post. The amount of his defalcation has not been definitely ascertained, but it is not less than $10,000. Such was the trust imposed in him by his employers, who are frequently absent in distant parts of the country, that they gave him full power to transact business for them in their name.

It has now been ascertained that young Vose drew the sum of $6000 in the name of the firm from different Banks on Saturday last, and also, that he was quite an adept at gambling—at one sitting being the winner of $1200 or $1500. His whereabouts is unknown, but it is supposed by some that he has fled the country.

FATAL FALL.—The Manchester Mirror of Wednesday says, that on that morning, about nine o'clock, Mr. Lysander R. Loveland, second hand in dress room, Amoskeag Factory, was almost instantly killed, by falling through the elevator, down six stories, a distance of seventy-two feet! He had just shipped the elevator, on which he was to descend, when a link of the chain, having a flaw, on passing over the pulley, broke, and precipitated him the whole distance. Some ten feet of the heavy chain fell upon him. One leg was broken and other more severe injuries made him unconscious. He was carried into the watch-house, and died in about thirty minutes.—He has been employed some years on the Amoskeag, and is described as a most worthy young man. He was 27 years of age, and has a wife living at Dunbarton.

THE KALLOCH CASE.—There is a story pretty current in Lowell—and it is said it will be put in as part of the evidence in the defence of the case of Mr. Kalloch—that a young man with his sister from Lowell went to East Cambridge, last year, and stopped at the Lechmere House. They were put into the same room that Mr. Kalloch was, and in a very short space of time, a head was seen looking about the same aperture that was used against Mr. K. If this be true, it will show that a systematic game of black mail has been in practice at that house.

☞ In the Massachusetts House of Representatives, on Wednesday, the amendment to the Constitution, establishing the district system for the House of representatives, and fixing the number of members at 240, was finally passed, 266 to 52; and, after debate, the Resolve furnishing public information to daily papers, was passed, notwithstanding the governor's veto, 152 to 88.

☞ Mr. D. F. Hollingsworth, one of the South Carolina committee that conveyed home the remains of the late Preston S. Brooks, died at his residence in Edgefield district a few days since, from disease contracted while on his visit to Washington city.

☞ A farmer about 150 miles south of Chicago got out of coal, and as the roads were in a bad condition, he thought he would try the virtue of corn in the car to supply the place of coal. It worked so well that subsequently he purchased a load of coal, and tried it by measure in contrast with the corn; and the experiment developed the fact that the corn fuel was the cheapest and the best. The corn and the coal were worth the same price per bushel, 30 cents each, and the corn went the furthest and made the best fire.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—We learn from the Nashua Oasis that as the Rev. J. W. Shepard, of that city, was returning from Hudson with a load of hay, on Saturday evening last, he came in contact with the Lowell freight train, at the Pearl street crossing, and had his thigh bone broken, and was otherwise considerably injured.

NEW EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN PHILADEPHIA. The congregation of Dudley A. Tyng, of Philadelphia, have determined to build a church for him, under the title of "the Church of the Covenanant." A vestry was selected this week, and the new edifice is calculated to accommodate 3000 persons.

☞ Samuel W. Gray, and Mrs. Philenia Upham, both of Boston, are in the Boston jail on the charge of murdering Josephine Augusta Gray, aged 12 years, by tying her hands and feet to a board, giving her shower baths, &c., &c., to keep her from a vile habit in which she had indulged.

☞ There is now living in Murray county, Georgia, on the waters of Holly Creek, a Revolutionary veteran, who has attained the age of one hundred and thirty years.—His name is John Hames.

☞ The scoundrel who attempted to garrote Mrs. Bates, of Boston, at the New York Hotel, when detected in breaking open her trunks, has been caught by the New York police.

☞ On Thursday, at Milton, Mass., Charles F. Hobart, who for several years past has been engaged in school teaching at the East School District at Milton Lower Falls, was arrested upon a charge of having practiced the grossest immoralities with scholars under his charge. The details too revolting to be laid before the public. The accused denies the charge.

CHINESE CUSTOM.—When the Emperor of China is crowned, a stone-cutter appears at court with specimens of the most magnificent marble, and says to the ruler of the Celestial Kingdom: "Choose, O Celestial Emperor, the stone beneath which thy bones shall one day rest."

DEER IN NEW JERSEY.—The deer in the lower part of Camden county, and the country contiguous, are said to be quite numerous the present spring. The increase in their numbers is attributable to the salutary laws prohibiting the killing of game by poachers and others for a number of years. Newark Eagle.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose locks are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, pronouncing it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for gray heads." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose locks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—[St. Louis Herald.

SEDUCTION AND MURDER IN KENTUCKY.—During part of our circuit court, a Mrs. Eno and her husband (formerly of Bardstown, but now living in or near New Haven,) made complaint that she had been seduced by means of chloroform, &c., by Robert Ford; that she had become enciente by him; and that he had endeavored to procure abortion. Finding it not probable under all the circumstances, that she could get any satisfaction at law, she determined to get satisfaction some other way. On Wednesday last, while Ford was in a store at New Haven, making some purchases, Mrs. Eno entered, drew a pistol, fired, and shot him through the body. He died next day. Mrs Eno was arrested, and is now in the hands of the officers of the law.—Bardstown, Ky. Gazette.

"A CRUEL INDISCRETION."—Rev. S. Creen of St. Marks Church, Niagara, C. W., has been suspended for life with a life-pension of $400 per year, for adultery. Rev. Mr. Reynolds, his assistant, through whom his scandal became public, for refusing to be present at Creen's communion, giving as a reason the rector's adulterous and drunken life, has been adjudged guilty of "a cruel indiscretion," and indefinitely suspended from clerical duty, without pension.—Lowell News.

Doubtful.

VIRGINIA AND MARYLAND are making efforts to get paid back to them the sums they appropriated for public buildings in the District of Columbia, at the time it was set off for a National Capitol. Virginia voted $120,000 and Maryland $72,000, which they now discover was not a gift but a loan! They got a bill through the U. S. Senate at the last session to repay them, but we do not learn that it passed the House. By and by, these chivalrous States will want Uncle Sam to pay for the ten miles square of land.—Lowell News.

WHAT IS THE FRUIT OF TEETOTALISM?—Behold it in houses furnished, cupboards filled, children clothed, wives made happy, minds expanded, morals elevated, jails forsaken, workhouses deserted, churches crammed, the Sabbath revered, the Bible reverenced; tens of thousands of drunkards reclaimed, with their vices given up virtue practised, and very many of them fast ripening for endless glory.—"If the fruit be good, then so must the tree be good also."

THE WINE BOTTLE.—"I think the intimacy which is begotten over the wine-bottle, has no heart," says Thackeray. "I never know a good feeling come from it, or an honest friendship made by it: it only entices men, and ruins them: it is only a phantom of friendship and feeling, called up by the delirious blood and the wicked spells of wine."

LOCAL.

WESTERN EMIGRATION.—Epidemics seldom prevail in our goodly city, but at this time, in common with many New England places, the Western fever has set in to some extent, in Portsmouth. We learn some enterprising mechanics, among whom are Hon. John Dame, Councillor of this District; Wm. B. Randall, Commissary General of the State; D. Pierce Clark, Chas. E. Grant and others, contemplate leaving this city about the first of April, for Minnesota. The past winter has been quite dull for business here, as it has been everywhere, and the want of employment felt by those who have formerly had good work at ship-building, has turned their attention towards employment at the West.

It is not reasonable to suppose that all who go West will make a good fortune there, but if a man takes the "fever," it is apt to have its course, like other fevers.

PORTSMOUTH CITY PHALANX.—We learn that the independent military company, in this city, which has been known as the Fremont Phalanx,—at their meeting on Wednesday evening last,—voted to change their title to that of the Portsmouth City Phalanx. Capt. John Dame being about to leave the city, renders a choice of new officers necessary. He has been a most efficient officer; and is, we believe, the first teetotaller we ever had at the head of a full grown company of soldiers—where too often, other spirit, besides military spirit, is found. The Phalanx will have no connection with politics or parties.

☞ In our report of the vote of the First Senatorial District, published on Wednesday morning, there was an error. Samuel P. Dow's vote in the second ward in this city, should have been printed 347, instead of 371, as our type setters made it.

☞ We would call the attention of ladies to the Stock of Dry Goods of H. A. Bigelow, about to leave this city, advertised in another column, to be sold at auction—every day and evening till closed.—Among the Stock is a good assortment of Bonnets, Flowers and Ribbons, affording a rare opportunity to get a Spring Bonnet very cheap.

"Old horse John 's ever faithful,
His work is now most done;
He 's slow, but ever sure,
I never can endure
Parting with my old horse John."

The old dark bay horse "Billy," who belonged to the family of the late James Rundlett, Esq., of this city, and of whom we have once or twice spoken as a very aged animal, died on Wednesday morning. His age, as near as can be ascertained, was about 43 years—his only ailment, old age. Twenty-five years ago he was purchased in in Boston, and ridden to Portsmouth, to be used as a saddle horse in the family of his owner. He was then considered an old horse, and was probably about eighteen years old.

From that time almost to the present, he has done good service in various ways.—During the last summer, he was used sometimes under the saddle, and would leap a ditch with his rider, if desired, in a manner which would puzzle most of the young ones. For a year or two past, however, he has not willingly gone far from his stable—but after going a very short distance, would wish to return. He has not been used or shod during the last winter; but has ate and appeared well, till within a day or two—when he seemed to be paralyzed, and quietly died.

We mention the old fellow thus particularly, as a remarkable instance of equine longevity, and of the endurance of a noble horse when well treated. Many a reader will recollect Old Billy, as he might be seen most any time within the last quarter of a century—handsomely doing the pleasure travels of a large family, of which he was the property and almost a member.—Peace to his manes!

DR. KANE'S DOG.—The Arctic dog brought home by Dr. Kane, has become the property of James McArthur, timber-dealer, in Oramel. The recent intense cold weather, has kept this large, black, shaggy animal in high spirits. When they take him into the forest among the timber hewers, where he can do no harm, and remove his muzzle, he cuts all sorts of pranks, seeking the deepest drifts, and actually burying himself for delight; you can see the dry snow move, but no semblance of a dog, till, on a sudden, out he pops, giving his hairy fleece a tremendous shake, and away he runs for another dive. Mr. McArthur calls him "Es-ke-mo" (Esquimaux,) not a very smooth name, but characteristic. To look "Esk" fair in the face, you see almost the likeness of a black bear, though his eyes are rather languid. His long, soft, shaggy covering is nearly equal in bulk to his body. When left to run at large in the village, he wears a muzzle to prevent his destroying the pigs and chickens.—Newark Advertiser.

FROM EUROPE—4 DAYS LATER.

By the Kangaroo, at New York, and the North America, at Portland, we have Liverpool dates to Feb. 25. Breadstuffs, provisions, and cotton, dull and unchanged.

The House of Commons has decided against Mr. D 'Israeli's amendment by 80 majority, and has therefore virtually carried the Ministerial budget.

The House of Commons Committee on the Hudson's Bay territory, is in session. Mr. Ross of the Canadian Parliament, gave evidence.

The London Atheneum learns that the British Government has determined to send a final Arctic Expedition in two steamers, to discover further traces of Franklin's fate. In Parliament, however, a motion in its favor was withdrawn.

A letter from Cadiz states that the difficulty had assumed a new phase. After having exhausted all means of conciliation, M. Sorela, Minister of Spain, had demanded his passports, quitted the City of Mexico, embarked on board the "Perla" frigate, and anchored in the Bay of Vera Cruz.

Several French officers have asked permission to serve with the Spanish expedition against Mexico.

A case has occurred at Naples, which has rendered necessary an application to the government from Mr. Owen, U S. Minister. A man called Ignazio Laurie about two years ago called upon his Excellency, and put in his claim for bounty land, as having served on board an American vessel in 1812.

KANSAS.—Some of the laws passed by the Territorial Legislature of Kansas, which has just adjourned, are justly denounced by free State men as more wicked and anti republican than those passed by the first bogus Legislature. They are intended as traps to catch free State men, and will doubtless be used to keep the territory clear of them. One of these laws is thus described by the Lecompton correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette:

A most dangerous power has been conferred on the County Courts. These Courts have been created and the Judges appointed by the Legislature. They have got extended jurisdiction, to an amount as regards civil cases, that will embrace ninety-nine out of every hundred cases. They have also got criminal jurisdiction in all cases where the death penalty is not to be inflicted. Thus, without jury, they can try and sentence to imprisonment or fine any persons brought before them on a charge, and the party thus tried need not ever be indicted, but shall be put on trial at once, on the charge of any one, and the bogus judge, without jury, shall try and sentence; and there is no provision for appeal from these decisions. There are to be public prosecutors appointed by these courts in every county.

CONGRESS.—On Wednesday, in the Senate, Mr. Benjamin presented the report of the majority of the Committee on the Judiciary, upon the disputed election of Mr. Cameron, (republican) Senator from Pennsylvania. The report sets forth that there are no apparent grounds for declaring the election invalid, and ask to be discharged. Mr. Pugh, however, dissented from the report, and claimed that the contestants should have the privilege of a hearing before a committee. After a long discussion, a resolution declaring Mr. Cameron legally elected, was presented and laid over. Several hours were spent by the Senate in executive session.

THE POSTMASTER AND THE SPECIAL AGENT. In a small village in Vermont, the post office is kept in a building which is principally devoted to the purpose of a railroad depot. In a little ante-room connected with the post office stands a desk, where one may write a letter, or do any little job in a scribbling way that he may have occasion for. One day, upon the arrival of a train, a gentleman, dressed like a traveller, walked into the room, and going up to the desk, commenced writing. presently the postmaster was about leaving the office to go to dinner. He accordingly locked the inner room, and told the stranger, who was still busy at the desk, that he should be obliged to disturb him, as he wished to "lock up." "But I should like to write here a little longer," said the traveller politely. "Can't help it," said the P. M., "I must lock up." "But you have locked up the post office room already—you don't lock up this room too, do ye?" "I do" said the postmaster, getting a little nettled at the immovability of the stranger—"I always lock it up—that is when I can get the loafers out!" "Look here," whispered the stranger, smiling almost aloud—"My name is Holbrook—secret agent of the department—say nothing—I see you understand your duty. What pay do you get here?" The official mentioned the sum. "Too small, I'll have it raised." And so he did, and may the fellow long live to tend that office and lock "the loafers" out!—Post.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir;—Having made trial of your Carminative, in several severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.
NAPH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.
Epping, July 22, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.
Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.
Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1853.

Mr. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infancy,—a class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

Hutchins' Hair Dye.
The very best now in use, as the many thousands that have tried it will testify.

THE great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

Possessing one of the LARGEST-SIZED CAMERAS, and larger than any in use in this vicinity, expressly adapted to the purpose, together with other facilities, I can offer to the public a much better article than cannot fail to be satisfactory.

A highly important feature in this connection, is the invaluable process of enlarging a small-sized picture up to a Cabinet or even Chalk size of LIFE. This process also I have obtained, so that any one possessing a small picture of a lost friend, for instance, can have a beautiful lifely copy of Photograph executed from it. A. GREGORY.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

PLEASE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, read their Effects, and Judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURGH, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have suffered from the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do the others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PEEBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1, 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the bowels is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1855

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife great good. She can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had had bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as your Pills, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: Your Pills have met with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them admirably adapted to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Renowned Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for two years. Her neck was so badly affected by afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled upon my joints, which soon developed severe neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until I thought I should be a cripple. Great agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SAMUEL HAYNES, Collector, La., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SIDDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill. These pills contain no mercury nor any other mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN CIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where, but what can not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disease of the throat and lungs. With it the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the fatal, subtle and dangerous disease of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in their dwellings, as the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents from fixing their fangs in the lungs, and cures your colds while they are curable, nor yet fact then until no human skill can master the invaluable remedy that fastened on the winds, cuts your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not ignore than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their use.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interest of parties who invest in a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all prizes drawn in their lottery are payable for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders will be filled in the fullest manner, take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent out to any more for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tertary consumption. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1836.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Research made in the Patent Office of Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THIS PATENT AGENCY, the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind can offer as favorable terms, or such moderate charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor in Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in the form to secure for them a speedy and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner of Patents.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most competent and respectable practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55

"Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold upwards of SEVEN THOUSAND. Our Testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. I have been played upon by Walmisse, Dost, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very truly yours, JAMES P. ELLY."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are thinking of buying, that we can show them, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

From the Portsmouth Journal.

Messrs. Editors,—Anciently, the most successful warriors won the greatest battles by surprising the enemy. So of late have the most liberal gifts been bestowed and love manifested by taking the friend by "surprise."

A short time ago you gave an interesting account of a "surprise party" which came off with such good feeling and affection. Since then, one of a similar nature has occurred, which we had the pleasure of attending. On Monday evening last, the members of the Methodist Society paid their pastor, Rev. Mr Holman, who is about to leave them, a visit. The act of the evening, while he was preparing to go out, one and another of his people began to drop in, until room after room was filled, and the halls, stairs and chambers, so that in a short time there was from 100 to 150 present. The evening was very stormy, and probably kept many from attending, but notwithstanding the storm was raging without, the best of feeling pervaded within, and all was life and gaiety among the large company congregated.

Mr. Holman received his parishioners and others who were present, with his usual kindness and attention, and the time flew rapidly in conversation till the hour of ten, when the assembly was called to order. John Trundy, Esq. then addressed the pastor in a very appropriate and touching manner, at the same time presenting the pastor, as a token of affection from the people of his charge, a purse containing $68,00. The speech was responded to, and the gift gratefully acknowledged, at some length, from the pastor. He spoke of the relation which had existed between them for the last two years, and of the many kindnesses he had received from their hands, and giving them assurance that he should ever remember them and pray that the smile of a gracious providence might ever rest on the pathway of those friends who have manifested liberality and kindness during his sojourn in the city. After the pastor had concluded his remarks, the company joined in singing "Old Hundred;" after which they sought their homes, well pleased with the manner they had spent the evening.

Besides the money, which "answereth all things," a wise selection of useful presents was left, all of which were gratefully acknowledged.

March 11, 1857. S. W. C.

RESULTS.

WILLIAM HAILE is elected Governor by over THREE THOUSAND majority. JAMES PIKE, our representative in Congress is probably re-elected by about five hundred majority, and Messrs. TAPPAN & CRAGIN are unquestionably re-elected. Not less than eight of the twelve Senators will be Republican, and the House by about 60 majority.

COUNCILLOR RETURNS.—In District No. 1, in 29 towns the votes stand 4289 for BAILEY, and 3753 for Parsons. As the votes run very even with the Governor returns there is no doubt of the election of the Republican candidate.

In No. 2, in all the towns but five, Whitehouse has 6423, Cogswell 6115. This leaves the election of the Republican candidate beyond a doubt.

SENATORS.

In No. 1, MARCY, the Democratic candidate is elected by 49 majority. Last year he had a majority of 150.

In No. 2, ORDWAY, Republican, is elected by a large majority.

In No. 5, BURLEIGH, Republican, has a majority of 749.

In No. 6, WEBSTER, Democrat, is elected by a majority of 124. The Dem. candidate last year received about 400 majority.

LATER RETURNS.

Just as we are going to press we have received the Concord Statesman of Friday, which gives returns from 207 towns, leaving only 22, mostly small towns, unheard from. In these towns the Republicans have elected 187 Representatives, and the Democrats 110. Allowing the remaining towns to come in as last year, the Republican majority in the House will be SIXTY THREE.

The Recapitulation of the votes for Governor is as follows:

	Haile.	Wells.	Scat.
Rockingham, (complete,)	5374	4530	45
Strafford, (complete,)	3149	2507	3
Belknap, (complete,)	1901	2134	7
Carroll,	1894	2042	5
Merrimack, (complete,)	4621	4452	28
Hillsborough, (complete,)	6280	4965	43
Cheshire, (complete,)	3372	2174	21
Sullivan,	2031	1799	23
Grafton,	4398	4157	14
Coos,	728	676	2
	33748	29776	201

Twenty-two towns remain to be heard from, gave last March—Metcalf 675, Wells 1504. Supposing them to come in the same this year, they will make Haile's whole vote in the State 34,423, and Wells' 31,280. These footings will make Haile's majority over Wells, 3,143, and his majority over all about 3,000. The full vote of the State will be about 66,000.

CONGRESS.—Mr. Pike's majority in the first Congressional District will be about 600, Tappan's in the second 1500, and Cragin's in the third 1100.

GEN. JAMES WILSON.

It will be recollected that a paragraph was circulated a few months since, stating that "General James Wilson, formerly of New-Hampshire, and distinguished as an eloquent whig stump speaker of 1840, now resides in California, and just before election came out for Buchanan."

This paragraph we are pleased to see has met the eyes of Gen. Wilson, who now resides in San Francisco. He writes to his friends in New-Hampshire, that the above statement must not go uncontradicted in the neighborhood of the tombstones of his ancestors—that ancestry which fought through the Revolution with John Stark for Freedom. He adds that the imputation of having at any time sympathized with the principles upon which Buchanan was elected, "cannot in truth be made against the real Long Jim of New-Hampshire in 1840."

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 1857.

CUTTING LOOSE.—The Boston Courier, in summing up the results of the New Hampshire election, says:

The voters of New Hampshire appear to have cut themselves loose and apart from the Democracy of the nation, with whom they have formerly been so familiarly assimilated. The anti-slavery feeling has run over New Hampshire like fire upon a prairie field, and the State which was once the most determined and most consistent in ranking itself among the Democracy, has given way to the new issues which are made in politics.

The Douglas Nebraska bill, being endorsed and pushed through Congress by Franklin Pierce as President, made the new issue in New Hampshire, defeated Mr. Pierce's re-nomination, and defeated his party in New Hampshire and throughout New England. If the reader will substitute the word slavery for the italicized word Democracy, in the above extract from the Courier, it will read about right.

We do not believe that the terms democracy and slavery are synonymous, but antagonistic, tho' the Courier does say the anti-slavery feeling made the Democracy give way—but the editor evidently means, not the whole people, not even a majority of them—but only the "Democratic party," which is quite another thing.

ATHEISTS.—The Boston Courier of the 13th says:

The Witness Bill was ordered to be engrossed in the House of Representatives of our State Legislature yesterday, by a vote of 167 yeas to 110 nays.

The Courier appends a column of remarks:—among them the following:

Our Constitution is based upon the fact, as a fundamental truth, that there is a God; a Supreme Intelligence, who controls the destinies of governments and of nations, as well as of individuals. It is upon that the foundation of society and of government stands. * * * It was thus—upon this deep and broad and permanent base—the obligations of man to God—that our fathers laid the foundation of the Commonwealth.

This looks like a belief in the "Higher Law."

☞ The closing scenes of the Nebraska Legislature were exciting. The Governor vetoed six bank charters because it was alleged that they were corruptly passed. A crowd of the indignant people pursued the members charged with corruption, into the office of the Territorial Secretary, to inflict personal chastisement. A member pulled out his revolver, and the Secretary drove the whole crowd into the street, when the members made their escape.

☞ A gigantic enterprise is contemplated in London, namely, the adoption of Mr. Stephenson's magnificent plan, to construct a railroad from London to Calcutta, direct—the only interruption being at the Straits of Dover and the Bosphorus. By this route the distance will be accomplished in less than a week. It will occupy ten years in constructing. A surveyor is now making flying levels.

HINDOO WIDOWS.—The removal of the prohibition of the Hindoo widows to marry, has been taken advantage of; not in a corner, but with considerable pomp and parade, a gathering of Hindoo magnates, and altogether with a look of triumph which appears designed to call public attention to the event. The bridegroom is described as a "Koolin of Koolins," and a "man of the very highest sacerdotal rank." The bride, for whom the Hindoo religion designed perpetual weeds, has just attained the advanced age of twelve. The union of this grave Ecclesiastic with this venerable matron, was attended by "hundreds of Bahmins," who are, of course, prepared to take a similar step, themselves, when circumstances make it desirable.

☞ A Wedding was solemnized in a car on the railroad from Springfield to Bratleboro' on Tuesday, which was the result of railway mistakes and delays, the bridegroom and the clergyman not being at Whately, the residence of the bride, on Monday evening, when the union was to take place. The bridegroom was the first at the bride's house, he was obliged to start immediately for the West, took his girl, met the clergyman at the depot, persuaded him to go back with him, and in the cars, to the great edification of the passengers, and after much circumlocution, the twain were made one flesh.

HAMPTON.

Moderator—Mesheck S. Akerman.

Town Clerk—John J. Leavitt.

Selectmen—Simeon Shaw, Joseph Johnson, Jesse Lane.

Representative—Edmund Mason, rep.

ANOTHER MISSING MAN.—Mr. Charles F. Cutler, an assistant in the Lunatic Hospital at South Boston, has been missing from that institution since Sunday, the 22d ult., on which day he left the hospital for the purpose of attending Rev. Dr. Neale's church, in Somerset street.

RESTORATION OF JUDGE DAVIS.—The Legislature of Maine has passed a law making an additional Judge of the Supreme Court. The vote in the House was 107 to 22. Governor Hamlin has appointed to the place Judge Woodbury Davis, removed by address of the Democratic legislature of last year.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A NEGRO.—On the 28th ut., at an auction sale of negroes at New Orleans, La., a stout hearty looking man was put on the stand with the announcement that no guarantee of health would be given with him, in consequence of which he was sold for $60. He had hardly stepped off the stand when he fell to the floor with a sharp cry, and instantly expired. An inquest found that he died from "organic disease of the heart."

☞ On Friday, in Market Square, a market man from Quebec offered for sale, and sold, a large number of Canadian Turkies, at 14 cts. per lb. These turkies, he said, were killed in November, and had been frozen ever since. They had the feathers taken from the carcass; but the wings and tails were entire, and the birds had not been drawn; i. e. the crop, the gizzard and all the inwards were in the place where nature put them. This is the Candian fashion of dressing poultry for the market.

☞ The young soldier Morel, who shot Mr. Morey in the Paris prison, has been tried by Court Martial, acquitted, and has rejoined his regiment. He was placed as a sentinel, and instructed to prevent prisoners from showing themselves at the window; and if they refused, after three warnings, he was ordered to fire on them. Morel had warned Mr. Morey to leave the window, six times, before he fired on him.

☞ Edward Baker, the brakeman who had one leg cut off and the remaining foot crushed, at the collision of two freight trains at Wallingford, Ct., last week, died at New Haven on Tuesday afternoon. He resided at Norwalk, Ct., but had no family.

HOSIERY MILL BURNED.—The Franklin Hosiery Mill, in Franklin, N. H, took fire in the picker room about half past two o'clock on Friday morning, the 13th inst., and was totally consumed. The looms were saved. Loss $75,000; insured for $45,000.

☞ The last mail from Constantinople brought intelligence of a satisfactory nature from Jerusalem, where complete tranquility prevailed. Pilgrims were flocking into the Holy City, and more than 3000 were there on the 20th ult.

☞ Fast Day in New Hampshire, on Thursday, April 2.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, pronouncing it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for gray heads." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose locks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—[St. Louis Herald.

PLEDGES.—A new generation has come up, since the Washingtonian pledge.—At Westfield, Mass., the other evening, the Methodist Church was crowded to hear Rev. Mr. Thompson, of the State Temperance Committee. He gave one of his characteristic speeches, full of argument, plain speech and spicy anecdotes. At the close the pledge was circulated and 291 signatures obtained. These, with others signed at the County meeting, make about 325 who have thus renewed their vows or made them for the first time. So entuusiastic a temperance meeting has not been held in the town for a dozen years. It was an entirely new thing to the great mass of the congregation.

DECISION SUSTAINED.—At a meeting of the Democratic Convention of the fourth district of Connecticut, last week, Hon. Wm. D. Bishop was nominated for Congress, and the following resolution, among others, was adopted:

Resolved, That the recent decision in the Supreme Court of the United States, declaring the Missouri Compromise null and void, because unauthorized by the Constitution, is a most gratifying confirmation of the views and doctrines of the Democratic party on this long disputed question and affords additional reasons for faith and confidence in its principles.

This does not look much like "suppressing agitation."

A MODEL MINISTER,—not one of the 3,000, not a fanatic, but a bogus patriot in Kansas, is described in the following item:

In a discussion in the Kansas bogus legislature, the Rev. Martin White, a member, made a ferocious speech, in which he admitted that he killed Frederick Brown. He said that he was with the advance guard of the army that destroyed Osawatomie last August. They met Frederick Brown on the road before they got to Osawatomie. White ordered him to halt, which he did not do, when White 'let him have it, and he whirled over.' This was received in the Legislature with tremendous applause.

NORTHERN EMIGRATION TO VIRGINIA.—Several gentlemen in the neighborhood of Buffalo are about to remove to the interior of Virginia with their families for a permanent settlement. It is the intention of the parties to form a company large enough to make it pleasant for themselves, and to enable them to stand up within their own circle, against the stain so universally cast upon "free labor" in the Slave States. Land is dog cheap in Virginia, and is about as valuable as a poor kind of dogs. The President of William and Mary College lately bought 450 acres of land within four miles of the State capital, at an average price of $6 per acre! One hundred and seventy-five acres of it are cleared, and in "fine productive condition. How the people of Virginia foresees such consequences from slavery at the time of the adoption of the Federal Constitution, they would have favored its abolition to a man. —Lowell News.

Mr. Shoemaker of Leavenworth, Kansas, who was removed from the office of Receiver General of the Public Lands for being a free State man, has been murdered. His death is thought to have been previously planned. He was invited to drink, by six pro-slavery men, at a hotel, and unfortunately complied. Some one proposed the health of the border ruffian Mayor of Leavenworth, Mr. Murphy. He put down his glass and refused the toast. At this, the six suddenly attacked him, and so injured him that he soon died of his wounds.—Boston Chronicle.

The family of the lady in Brooklyn, N. Y., who married her father's coachman, have made up the affair with the "young man," who is to be educated, and then receive his bride. The party most to blame in the affair is the clergyman (Rev. Mr. Hatfield), who secretly married a pair whose very appearance should have taught him caution.—New York paper.

ARRIVED HOME.—We understand that Hon. Robert B. Hall, member of Congress from this District, has arrived home. His health is much improved. He boarded at the National Hotel, and was afflicted with the same disease that attacked Mr. Buchanan and many others stopping at the hotel. New Bedford Standard.

LOW FARES.—We learn that the result of the low fare experiment on the Boston and New York Central Railroad has been thus far very successful. More money has been received at the new rate, (two cents per mile,) than was received at the old rate (three cents.)—Boston Telegraph.

MISSING EMIGRANT SHIP.—The ship Hungarian, which left Liverpool for Philadelphia, has now been out one hundred and thirty days, without any news being heard of her. As she has never been seen or spoken, she is most probably lost.

☞ Ann Hopkins, a dissolute woman in New York, was murdered on Wednesday night, by John Dorsey, a St. Domingo negro, who has since been arrested, and is in jail.

☞ The trustees of Liberia College propose to locate that institution at King Bromleya, on the north bank of St. Paul's river, about 12 miles from Monrovia.

PORTSMOUTH POLITICS.

Portsmouth is the only large place carried by the Democrats, and that has gone from some two hundred Republican last year, to fifty Democratic this.—Newburyport Herald.

The large cities and towns, excepting Portsmouth, generally went with the majority—Manchester gave 1530 votes for Haile to 854 for Wells, and the Republicans had a majority in every ward of the city, carrying the great number of fifteen representatives, which is more than twice as many as any other town or city is the State is entitled to.—Boston Courier.

Does any reader wish to know why Portsmouth differs in this matter from matter from Manchester, Dover or Concord? The answer will be that Portsmouth is the seat of the only Custom House in the State; and that the possession of a few good offices connected therewith, is earnestly coveted by a large number of patriots who are ready to cement the Union and uphold the Constitution in that capacity: that a new Custom House is to be built here, on which it is supposed the faithful may have some advantage over infidels, though there are to be contracts: and lastly, but not least, that there is a grand crushing machine at the Navy Yard, which though located in Kittery, Maine, yet does the work of "crushing out abolitionism," "black republicanism," and similar heresies, in Kittery, Eliot and Portsmouth.—During the reign of Franklin Pierce, this machine has been in active operation, under the direction of a viceroy, who has brought about the dismissal of one hand and the appointment of another—not because of doing more work or better, nor of being an old or a new hand—but because he would or would not vote as some manager dictated.—No officer of the Navy is to be blamed for this—but a contrivance or connivance between high power at Washington, and some very high powers here, has made employment at the Yard to depend, in some cases, on the vote of the mechanic or artizan!

The management has a two-fold operation—it influences some men who lack bread or lack nerve, to vote per order.—And it sends away another class to work elsewhere.

These causes, and others similar, make our city so much more patriotic than her sister cities.

For the Chronicle.

ENCOURAGE YOUR OWN.

A few years ago the greater portion of the ship carving, for vessels built on our river, was done out of town; but recently a young firm commenced this business here, and the carving for vessels building here and in the neighboring sea ports, is done in Portsmouth equally as well and cheaper than in Boston. There have been many changes in the materials required in fitting and furnishing vessels, and by reason of them no one class of mechanics has been more affected than the coopers. Formerly every new ship required a large number of water-casks, which were always needing more or less repairs on their return to port; now their place is supplied by large iron tanks, which are presumed to last forever, "and then be worth something for old iron." This important branch of labor required for every new ship, and for which our builders pay large sums of money, is now entirely done out of the city; while the amount paid for it would remunerate quite a number of mechanics, who, if the labor was done here, could live as cheaply here as elsewhere, and the builders would save cost of transportation, and have the work done at home. It certainly cannot require much machinery for this kind of manufacture; why will not some of our blacksmiths undertake the business, and save to mechanics and laborers the sums that now go abroad to pay for this labor in other places?

CHANGES AND IMPROVEMENT. — Our old friend Albert Laighton has removed his quarters to the old stand of Wm. J. Laighton, next door to the store he has recently occupied. This is the change. The improvement is, that the store has been handsomely refitted, and a new stock of seasonable goods got in—so that Mr. L. is all ready for spring trade. We wish him only the success due to his merits, as a man and a trader.

We shall miss Mr. W. J. Laighton from the place he has so long occupied on Market street—where he has ever been found courteous and fair; but his old customers will find his successor no less so. In fact, his service of ten or twelve years in the two stores named, has enabled the public to find this out for themselves.

The store recently vacated by Mr. Albert Laighton, is being remodelled inside, and very much improved, for Mr. Frank Allen, who is to open a large stock of dry goods in a few weeks.

The publication of births in the newspapers, is advocated, on the ground that they are of more importance than deaths; for when a man is dead, he is done with, but when he is born, he is only begun with.—Exchange.

That is just what we think—and so we go in for chronicling the increase of population. The newspapers contains almost the only complete records of marriages and deaths—and there is now no quick and sure way of numbering the births. In New York, Philadelphia, and many other places, the birthe are published, and if any parents will inform us of the "children God has graciously given them," we will make a note of the interesting event.

☞ We are indebted to our neighbors of the Ballot, for the loan of the Election returns, which we publish on the first page, this morning. Mr. Whittem has given the most complete report we have seen; which could have been procured only at considerable expense and trouble.

☞ We would call the attention of ladies to the Stock of Dry Goods of H. A. Bigelow, about to leave this city, advertised in another column, to be sold at auction—every day and evening till closed.—Among the Stock is a good assortment of Bonnets, Flowers and Ribbons, affording a rare opportunity to get a Spring Bonnet very cheap.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—A large number of gentlemen arrived here to-day direct from Kansas for the pupose of getting Gov. Geary removed. I understand that they have some pretty strong hopes from leading men n Kansas and Missouri, and that the movement is backed up by South ern men friendly to Judge Lecompte.

The Dallas-Clarendon Treaty has been ratified to-day with amendments, which are not radical, and which are believed to be entirely acceptable to England. The amendatory recommendations reported by the Committee on Foreign Relations, in the shape of resolutions. To-day these were tabled, and amendments made by Jefferson Davis, were adopted.

The amended Treaty was ratified by 33 to 15. Douglass and his friends voted in the negative.

It is understood that the sloop-of war Saratoga went to Greytown, with orders to operate with the British fleet in re-opening and keeping the Transit Route, in opposition to both Walker and Costa Rica.

March 13.—The Senate will adjourn tomorrow sine die, the President having no further communications to make that would render it necessary to prolong the session.

REJECTED—END OF THE MEXICAN AFFAIR. New York March 12.—The Washington correspondent of the Evening Post announces by telegraph that the President has rejected the Mexican treaty without submitting it to the Senate.

Mr. Cameron explicitly denies the rumor that he intends to act with the Administration party. He says that in his previous Senatorial term he always supported the Wilmot Proviso, and the distinctive doctrines of the Republican party, and shall in no case swerve from those principles.

EIRE.—Patterson, (N. J.) March 12.—The print works of D. G. Scott, known as the Waverly Mill, and the cotton mill of J. English, were burnt this morning at half-past 4 o'clock, with nearly all their contents. It is supposed the fire originated from the boiler. The loss is estimated at $60,000 to 70,000. One man was killed by the falling of the walls: several others were more or less injured.

RIOTING AT CHICAGO.—On the occasion of the recent municipal election in Chicago, there was a great deal of rioting, and several of the polls were taken possession of by mobs of Irishmen, infuriated with drink. Mr. George Armour, of the firm of Munger & Armour, was knocked down in the seventh ward, dragged about the streets by his hair, and otherwise maltreated so that he had since died.

A severe fight occurred between the Irish and Germans, the former being the aggressors, in which firearms were freely used. The police themselves were in many cases leaders in the fights, and as far as the city authorities were concerned, the city was during the entire day at the mercy of a mob of drunken and ferocious men.—Charles Walter, a peaceable German, was set upon by several Irishmen as he was leaving the polls, and beaten and wounded in such a manner that he cannot survive his injuries. Charles Steiffert, another German, has died from injuries received, and the wife of a Norwegian was killed while riding through the streets

DREADFUL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Toronto, March 12.—The train which left Toronto this afternoon for Hamilton, ran off the track at the Des Jardines Canal, above Hamilton, precipitating the engine, baggage and two passenger cars into the water, and killing about 60 persons. Samuel Zimmerman is among the killed. Many of the bodies have not yet been recovered from the water.

☞ Wednesday afternoon R. S. Laighton was killed by being caught in a belt and whirled around a shaft in the planing machine shop of Fiske & Norcross, in Lowell.

Lawrence's Carminative,
OR
CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.

THIS Invaluable Preparation is a favorite scientific prescription of one of the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in New England, and one who has been as successful as any other in the treating of

DISEASES OF CHILDREN,

and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically

A CHILD'S MEDICINE,

and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy sure to be followed by a "Dose of Physic!"

The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty, and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues.

The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhœa, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness,

and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; sure to regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour Stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS,

and parents who value rest not fail to buy a bottle, as they may depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir;—Having made trial of your Carminative, in several severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.
NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.
Epping, July 23, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear, Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.
Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.
Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1853.

Mr. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infancy,—a class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

For the West.
BENJAMIN NORTON

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than it sold here. Or Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense.

Also, for sale 440 acres of fine Timber Land.

Also 39 Lots in the town of Stockton, 8 miles from Winona; Title indisputable,—having a warranty deed from the Judge of Probate for Winona County. A Plan of the Town can be seen on application to the subscriber.

I intend leaving for Winona, Minnesota, by the 1st of April; and all business entrusted to my care will be promptly attended to. AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., March 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a bad stomach, which they clean out at once. If they will do others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, RD. W. PEBLE,
Clerk of Monongahela Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1855.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the most perfect cathartic we have. Their mild but decided action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organs. Indeed, I have seldom found a case in which they did not effectually yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HAVILAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 14, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Cathartic Pills are a source of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and yielding away for months. Went off to be with friends at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our children of bloody flux, and of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctor bills, and lost a great deal of time. Your Pills are valued even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

Yours, &c., DR. J. GRIFFITH, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. P. Bloss, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in illness. They regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood better than any other medicine I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. P. BLOSS.

DR. AYER: Have your Cathartic Pills been tried in this place, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Physician of Medical College of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of Scrofula, which had run her blood and life almost favorable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her of her SALT RHEUM.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkins, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PITTSBURG HEIGHTS, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

MODERED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your Pills have afforded me, if I did not report my case. I was crippled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Now thoroughly cured by the use of your medicines, I feel free to give my testimony. Such, in the hands of you excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I was cured. Yours, &c.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1854.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and efficacious.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although valuable remedies in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN CIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American Union, the wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities in any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the fearfully fatal and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for children and invalids. Parents may now have in our store against the insidious enemy that stealts upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the timely protection it prevents from disease, than any other medicine. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, or repel them until no human skill can master the incurable rather that, fastened on the vitals, seals your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them of its presence, that the best it can do, it will do in such cases, as fail to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Fenton & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with the drawing is strictly honorable and fair manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call special attention to, is, that persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is conducted on the plan of Public Benefit. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The price of tickets range from $1 to $20. No tickets are forwarded sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tertian combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

American and Foreign Patents.

E. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 78 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers connecting for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the patentability or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have more success for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered from other sources. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IN THE PRACTICE OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so reasonable. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents, and possess advantages of extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, rendering his aid in any question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents, and while there, did any person acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success, I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. I have found him perfectly well versed in the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55

"Messrs Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufactures."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold twenty-five hundred PIANO FORTES, every testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give our testimonials we have received.

MISS ANN BENT.

At the good old age of four score and ten years, this venerable woman has recently departed. She expired on the 27th ult., in the town of Canton, Mass.

Ann Bent was born in Milton, Mass., June, 1768. Owing to the absence of her father and the poverty of her mother, she went to Boston at the age of sixteen, to be an apprentice to Saxon & Wainwright, dealers in crockery ware and dry goods in Exchange avenue—now Exchange street. The late Hon. Wm. Reed, M. C., of Marblehead, was employed by the same firm at the same time. As soon as she was of age she engaged in business on her own account, on the east side of Marlboro', now Washington street, a little north of Summer street; the first female, probably, who undertook such an enterprise in that city. She kept in the same locality for more than half a century; and this store will be long remembered for the excellence of the fabrics sold at its counter, the high respectability of its customers, the systematic, courteous and kind conduct of its affairs, under the supervision of its lady like proprietor.

To the duties of a shopkeeper she early added those of a housekeeper, also; and became the head and centre of a hospitable and happy home; for sisters, cousins, nieces, and other young friends, belonging to three generations, received from her truly maternal care and affection. One of this company that from time to time formed the pleasant family circle, was Mary Pickard, afterwards Mrs. Henry Ware, whose biography has had so wide a circulation and exerted such a benign influence.

The Boston Transcript, from which we gather these facts, closes a notice of her thus:

Her evening was without a cloud. Her end was peace. None weep for her. All think of her with reverential remembrance. We hope her memoir will be written by some one who can tell the whole story of her upright and lovely life, so that in the legacy of her rich example she may continue to speak.

SENTENCE FOR BURGLARY AND ASSAULT.—In the Supreme Court at Portland, before Judge Davis, on Thursday, Barney Jordan was convicted of burglary upon the premises of Judge Potter, of the Probate Court of Cumberland county, and of making a murderous assault on the Judge. The evidence was circumstantial, but was very close, and Jordan was sentenced to imprisonment for life in the State Prison.

TRUTH AND FALSEHOOD.
BY JOHN PIERPONT.

On the page that is immortal,
We the brilliant promise see:
"Ye shall know the truth, my people,
And its might shall make you free."

For the Truth then let us battle,
Whatsoever fate betide!
Long the boast that we are freemen,
We have made and published wide.

He who has the truth, and keeps it,
Keeps not what to him belongs,
But performs a selfish action
That his fellow mortal wrongs.

He who seeks the truth, and trembles
At the dangers he must brave,
Is not fit to be a freeman;
He, at best, is but a slave.

He who hears the truth and places
Its high promptings under ban,
Loud may boast of all that 's manly,
But can never be a Man.

Friend, this simple lay who readest,
Be not thou like either them—
But to truth give utmost freedom,
And the tide it raiseth stem;

Bold in speech and bold in action,
Be forever!—Time will test,
Of the free-souled and the slavish,
Which fulfils life's mission best.

Be thou like the noble Ancient—
Scorn the threat that bids thee fear;
Speak! no matter what betides thee!
Let them strike, but make them hear!

Be thou like the first Apostles!
Be thou like heroic Paul;
If a free thought seeks expression,
Speak it boldly! Speak it all!

Face thine enemies, accusers;
Scorn the prison, rack, or rod!
And it thou hast truth to utter,
Speak, and leave the rest to God.

A DANGEROUS COLLISION.—A discussion is in progress between two savants, the one French and the other German, in relation to an anticipated collision between the earth and a comet, which is to take place on the 13th of June next. The French astronomer, M. Babinet, takes the common view, that a comet is composed of nebulous vapor, and is consequently harmless; but the German states it as his opinion that the centre of this expected visitant is composed of solid fiery matter, which he pleasantly assures his readers, will reduce the surface of the globe to lava. The Home Journal, in mentioning the circumstance, wittily recommends its subscribers to send in their two dollar bills as quickly as possible, as the less paper they have about them, the less likely they will be to take fire.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, MARCH 16, 1857.

THE POINTS DECIDED.

The Boston Courier of Friday, says:

Our advices from Washington enable us to state this morning with greater precision than they were given by telegraph, the points decided by the Supreme Court of the United States, in the Dred Scott case. We understand that five of the judges, viz.,—Chief Judge Taney, and Justices Wayne, Daniel, Grier and Campbell,—have held that neither Dred Scott and his family was made free by residence in a territory north of the Missouri Compromise line, because Congress had no constitutional power to prohibit the relation of master and slave in that territory. In coming to this conclusion, we understand the opinion of the Chief Justice, to admit, that what is called the territorial clause of the Constitution ("Congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property of the United States") did give a full power of legislation over the Northwestern territory, but that this power dot extend to any territory acquired since the adoption of the Constitution.

Mr. Justice Nelson did not express any opinion upon this question, or that of citizenship, but held that Scott and his family were not free, even if the Missouri Compromise act could constitutionally create a free territory, because by a return to the state of Missouri, where their condition of slavery originated, that condition re-attached to them under the decisions of the courts of that state, which he considered binding in this case.

The Chief Justice; and Justices Wayne and Daniel, held that a negro of African blood cannot be a citizen within the meaning of that clause of the Constitution of the United States, which gives "citizens of different states" a right to sue each other in Federal Courts. But Justices Grier and Campbell are understood to have filed opinions, in which they do not agree that a negro cannot be a citizen. Mr. Justice Curtis held that Congress has power to govern the territories; but that the treaty with France restrained Congress from excluding slavery from this particular territory. He gave no opinion on the question of citizenship. Mr. Justice McLean gave no opinion on the question of citizenship; but held the Missouri Compromise act to be valid, and Scott to have been free on his return into Missouri. Mr. Justice Curtis held that Scott was a citizen, that the Missouri Compromise act was valid, and Scott and his family were free persons by reason of their residence in free territory, and notwithstanding their subsequent return to Missouri.

If this be correct, then only three judges were against negro citizenship.—Three expressed opinions in favor of it. Three gave no opinions on this point.

A majority decreed Dred Scott to be a slave—and beyond this, there is scarcely a majority for any thing.

DISPUTED SEATS IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE.—The case of Mr. Cameron, Senator from Pennsylvania, was decided in his favor on Friday. After debate, the resolution of the Judiciary Committee of the Senate, that it be discharged from the further consideration of the subject, was accepted, and Mr. Cameron retains his seat.

In the Senate, it was agreed on all sides, that the informalities presented in the protest offered, do not affect the rights of Mr. Cameron to his seat, and it was held that the question of alleged fraud and corruption in the election properly belonged to the Legislature of Pennsylvania and not to the Senate.

The Indiana election case of Messrs. Bright and Fitch then came up, and Mr. Benjamin, from the Judiciary Committee, proposed that the parties take testimony in the matter. Mr. Trumbull of Illinois, objected to this, and wished the Senate to proceed at once to the consideration of the right of the Senators from Indiana to their seats. Messrs. Fitch and Bright replied. Mr. Butler said, in reply to a question, that the credentials of Messrs. Fitch and Bright were never referred to the Judiciary Committee. Messrs. Fitch and Bright made some retorting remarks in reply to Mr. Trumbull, and the former Senator was called to order by the President of the Senate. The question was not decided when the Senate went into executive session.

SUDDEN DEATH.—About two o'clock on Friday afternoon, the body of a dead man was discovered lying behind a barn on Front street in Exeter. The deceased was recognized to be an old man named Vickery, who has been an inmate of the Poor House, and who has been subject to fits. He was an old soldier, having fought in the battle of Tippecanoe. We believe no Coroner's inquest has been held over him.

☞ The telegraph gives a mass of confused and contradictory accounts from Walker, at the Isthmus, of which we can make out nothing intelligible.

ANOTHER POISONING CASE.—In Stoughton, Mass., a Mrs. Briggs, whose husband lived under the same roof with her, but was not on good terms with her, died on the 27th ult. She had been in poor health for some time, but the peculiar symptoms which attended the last days of her sickness, and the conduct of her husband, gave rise to the suspicions which resulted in the exhumation of the body of Mrs. B. The traces of heart disease were found upon her, and the contents of her stomach being subjected to analysis, showed arsenic. As Mr. Briggs and a Miss Adeline Drake, who boarded, to say the least, with Mr. Briggs, had had the mixing of the medicines, they were suspected as the poisoners, and on Thursday night, were arrested to await the action of the Coroner's jury, which began its session on Friday. They will undoubtedly be committed, and are probably guilty.

WHAT WE DRINK.—It appears from the report of Secretary Guthrie, of the Treasury Department, that during the year ending June 30, 1856, 8,843,370 gallons of wine, spirits and malt liquor have been imported into this country. The total value of these drinkables is $6,176,939; a snug little liquor bill for Uncle Sam to foot up. Brandy forms the largest item in the bill; 1,715,717 gallons have been consumed, at a cost of nearly $3,000,000.

The grain spirits imported fall a little below brandy in quantity (1,582,132), but much below in value ($772,276.) Nearly a million of "other spirits" besides are consumed, at an expense of $538,000. Over a million and a half gallons of claret and nearly 700,000 gallons of other red wines were imported, at an aggregate cost of about $850,000. We have drank also 1,100,000 gallons of English and Scotch ale. The importations of Madeira, Port and Sicily wines have fallen off; the supply of Sherry, however, has increased from 4,685 gallons in 1853 to 400,000 gallons in 1856.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.—Wentworth and Stone, who were arrested last week for placing obstructions on the track of the B. & M. R. R., were examined before Justice Perkins on Thursday last, at Great Falls, and were bound over for their appearance at the next term of Court to be holden at Dover next week, in the sum of $5000.—Failing to procure the requisite bonds, they were committed to jail.

CURIOUS DISCOVERY.—The Central Texan learns from a gentleman near Navisoto, that while he was cutting down a tree, near that place, he made a most remarkable discovery. He cut down a very large cotton wood with a hollow in it, and aperture from the outside some six feet above the ground. Upon splitting open this tree, the hollow was found to contain an Indian's skeleton, which was perfect, not a bone missing. The conjecture is, that at some time or other, the Indian got into this hollow tree, to make his escape from some enemy or wild animal, and was unable to get out again, and so perished.

☞ The Phrenological Journal for March, contains likenesses of Dr. Burdell, the murdered man; of his brother, Dr. John Burdell; of Gov. John A. King, of Hugh Miller,—and many likenesses of the people of Japan, with interesting letter press.

The Water Cure Journal for the same month, is also just received from the same publishers, Messrs. Fowler and Wells, New York.

Life Illustrated, an elegant newspaper, from the same publishing house, contains likenesses and brief notices of Buchanan and Breckinridge.

Truth and love are the poles of humanity.

PREMIUM AWARDED.—The premium of $200 for the best tract on "The Family Relation as affected by Slavery," has been awarded to Charles K. Whipple, M. D., of Boston. Mr. Joseph P. Thompson, of New York, who offered the premium, intends to submit the tract to the consideration of the Executive Committe of the American Tract Society, in the hope that a manuscript which has been unanimously approved by eminent, judicious and impartial censors from the Baptist, Episcopal, Congregational and Presbyterian denominations, may prove to be 'calculated to receive the approbation of all evangelical Christians.'

A BIGOT DESCRIBED.—John Foster of England, thus describes a bigot:

He sees religion, not as a sphere, but as a line; and it is the line in which he is moving. He is like an African buffalo—sees nothing on the right or left. He would not perceive a legion of angels or devils, at the distance of ten yards, on the one side or the other.

The State of New Hampshire.

A PROCLAMATION,

BY THE GOVERNOR.

"Turn yo, even unto me, saith the Lord, with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning."

Such is the command of the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, and it is our duty, and should be our pleasure to obey; and that all the people of the State may have one and the same time for such important purpose, so, in accordance with the invariable custom of the "Pilgrim Fathers" and their decendants, and by and with the advice of the Executive Council, I appoint Thursday, the Second Day of April next, to be observed throughout the State as a day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer.

In connection herewith, I recommend to the people that on this day they omit their ordinary and all other pursuits inconsistent with its objects, its duties and its solemities, and assemble at their places of public worship, and there humbly, penitently and devoutly confess to God the full wickedness of their hearts and their numberless sins and transgressions; their own utter unworthiness and their entire dependence on His infinite goodness and mercy for favor and forgiveness; and with one accord, and unfeigned sincerity of heart, pray that He will not render unto us according to our deserts; but that He will forgive us all our sins and continue to us His merciful kindness, and protection; that he will preserve us in health and prosperity; that He will extend to our nation His guardian care; that He will preserve our Union in fact as well as in name, in harmony as well as in sovereignty, and in peace and amity with all mankind; that He will give to us the blessings of good government, extend the blessings of freedom, and lighten the burthens of the oppressed; that He will preserve to us inviolate all our rights and privileges throughout the land; that He will bless the toils of the husbandman, and continue to us in abundance the fruits of the earth, and crown all honest labor with its due rewards; that He will prosper all efforts for the promotion and general extension of education, and morality, the holy gospel and the pure religion of our Savior, and grant to us such other blessings, in His bountiful Providence as he may see will redound to our good and His glory.

Given at the Council Chamber, in Concord, this ninth day of March, A. D. 1857, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-first.

RALPH METCALF.

By His Excellency the Governor, with advice of the Council.

LEMUEL N. PATTEE, Secretary of State.

GREAT FIRE IN RUMNEY VILLAGE.—The large factory owned and occupied by Joseph Emerton, Esq., was burned on Monday night. Loss five thousand, no insurance, supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

FIRE IN GREAT FALLS.—On Wednesday night, the Jewelry Store of Albert Wakefield, on Market Square, Great Falls, was discovered by the watchmen to be on fire. The fire was extinguished, after a hard struggle, without great damage.

A BLOODY WITNESS.—It is stated that a nephew of Knight, who has been on trial for the murder of his wife at Poland, Me., testified on Wednesday, that Knight hired him to burn a shirt with blood upon its arm and side. The nephew is now in jail at Auburn.

☞ Justin Wheeler, a boy seven years old, son of Reuben Wheeler of Nashua, while playing in the yard on Wednesday, ran against a post and received so severe a blow on the forehead that he died the same evening.

☞ John Wentworth, the new Republican Mayor of Chicago, has given $400 to the widow of Seiffert, a German who was killed on the day of election by the rioters. He has also given one-third of his salary to the Firemen's Benevolent Association of that city.

☞ Mr. Abel Hunt, the tavern keeper who is now doing the cooking in the House of Correction at Cambridge, is to serve out his sentence. Mr. Train's quibble did not amount to much.

THE FUGITIVES IN CANADA.—The Detroit Tribune publishes a card from Henry Garret, in which he says: "I have just returned to the city from a visit to Canada. I have visited every settlement of the colored people in Canada. As I am frequently inquired of by those appearing to be interested in their welfare, whether they were capable of self-government and industrious, I can say that they are doing as well as other persons, according to their chances."

☞ The Dover Gazette of Saturday says:

We regret to learn that our Senator, Hon. John P. Hale, has returned home very unwell, so much so as to be unable to go out.—His indisposition is supposed to be caused by the poisoned water in the water-tanks at the National Hotel, Washington, where he boarded.

☞ Commodore Smoot, of the Navy, died in Washington, on the 13th.

Comptroller Whittlesey has resigned. Also, Lieut. Conover, of the Navy.

THE ASSAULT ON MR. PUFFER OF WAYLAND.—Three young men, named Rich, Endressel and McCaffrey, were arrested in Saxonville on Tuesday, on the charge of being the persons who committed an assault on Mr. Puffer of Wayland, Mass.—They were taken to the house of Mr. Puffer for examination, as he is still unable to be out. The facts elicited, as we learn from the Traveller, were as follows:

The accused spent the Sabbath in a jaunt to Waltham, and on their return at night, stopped at the house of a woman named Smith, in Wayland, to warm themselves. A boy named Davis made up a fire, but finally getting impatient at their prolonged stay, requested them to leave. In reply, they jokingly proposed to kill him. Terrified at their threats he ran to the adjoining house of Mr. Puffer, and stated the case. Mr. Puffer started with him for the house. In the meantime the men left the house, and McCaffrey got into the chaise and drove off for a short distance, his companions directing him to approach and take them in upon hearing a whistle.—They then, after a few words, attacked Mr. Puffer with their knives, cutting his clothes in more than a dozen places, but wounding him only twice. One of these wounds was near the left shoulder, and in the opinion of the attendant physician would probably have been mortal had it not struck a bone. Having thus disabled Mr. Puffer, they whistled for their accomplice, who drove up, when they drove off. Rich and Endressel, as principals, were committed to Concord jail for trial at the next term of the Middlesex Court of Common Pleas, in default of bail in the sum of $2000 each. McCaffrey as an accessory, was ordered to give bail in the sum of $500, which he obtained and was set at liberty.

MRS. PARTINTON ON THE CURRENCY.—"It 's always so," said Mrs. Partington, turning over in her hand a Spanish quarter of a dollar; and Ike, who was tackling Lion to the clothes basket, lifted up his eyes inquiringly to her face. "It 's always so," she continued, "that the muscular gender is put before the ephemeral. No matter what it 's about. If a baby is born into a family, it is Mr. So-and-so's baby—the mother hasn't anything to do about it. She isn't anywheres in courts of law or iniquity, and her rights is thought no more of than the wind which goeth where it listens. She hasn't nothing to say about the disposition of her property or that of her children, though Heaven knows their disposition would be bad enough unless she did have something to do with it. And everything bad is laid against her.

"Now here's this occurrency business; as soon as its value is decreased, the women is blamed for it." Ike got up and looked at the coin, and thought how many marbles, and how many peanuts, and how many oranges, and how many sticks of molasses candy it would buy, and asked her if it wasn't a good one. "Yes," replied she: "it is good as far as it goes, and this is the mischief of it—when it was worth twenty five cents it was said to be par value, and now that it is cut down it is mar value.

"It 's always so about everything. There aint nothing like justice ever done to the women." She dropped the coin into her pocket, and it jingled merrily among the keys and the seven copper cents and the old silver thimble and the scissors and the steel spectacle case, as if it were not a poor depreciated thing at all, but were yet a full quarter. And Ike thought out this moral from it with the help of Lion: That though the world depreciate us twenty per cent, we should feel just as happy with a self consciousness of our value at heart, and jingle on merrily among the old copper or brass that may be around us.—Sat. Gaz.

TERRITORIES THROWN OUT OF THE UNION! It is a singular fact that the recent decision of the U. S. Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case, throws Kansas, Nebraska, New Mexico and Utah out of the Union! The court decides that the act called the Missouri Compromise was not warranted by the constitution, and is therefore void. It also decides that the constitution does not warrant the acquisition of territory.—By the same token, then, the acts for acquiring territory are void, and the people of the territories above named owe no allegiance to the United States.—Lowell News.

Fifteen Italians just released from prison and sent to this country at the expense of the papal treasury, have just arrived. They are a fine set of men, and if they prove as industrious and worthy as the former consignments, they will do the State some service and the Pope will again prove himself a benefactor to his republican friends on this side of the Atlantic.—Boston Chro.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, pronouncing it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for gray heads." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose locks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—[St. Louis Herald.

I was truly a victim to indigestion, with constant sour stomach, without energy of body or mind, cast down, afflicted, tormented, almost loathing any society, until I commenced the use of your COLUMBIAN PILLS, and thank fortune and you too, they have done me! THE LYCEUMS.—Although the fact is not officially announced in the advertisement, we understand that the lecture by Rev. Dr. Peabody is to conclude the Mercantile Course for this season. His subject, we hear, is "Art in its relation to Nature," or something like this.

We are glad to see some of our home talent brough into requisition, at the Lyceums, even at so late a day in the season.—Lectures vastly better than half we have had from abroad, this winter, might have been procured at home.

Several disappointments, and the non-fulfilment of agreements, by distant lecturers, and the fact that the course was not so liberally patronized as was reasonably to be expected — has rendered unavoidable some alterations in the programme of the Mercantile course—which has been well managed by the committee.

We also learn that one more lecture will finish the Mechanics' Lyceum. As no speaker is yet announced, and so probably none is engaged, we would suggest that some home lecturer be invited to fill this place also. We have several times heard Dr. Fuller's name mentioned in this connection, by those who heard his lecture before the City Lyceum a couple of years ago, and his Mercantile Anniversary lecture subsequently. The first was one of the most finished essays we ever heard; and we have no doubt Dr. F. would do himself and the Mechanics' course much credit, if he could be induced to devote himself a little to this object.

We may perhaps be allowed to suggest a little, since we have had some experience in these public matters, and have become satisfied that the expensive "great guns" from abroad, bag no more game than those who claim less calibre at home.

DEATHS IN FEBRUARY.—The record of mortality in Portsmouth, during the past month, as furnished by Robert Bell, Superintendent of the City Hearse, is as follows:

Males five—aged 1 year, 32, 57, 64, 72,
Females four—aged 1 year, 8, 9, 72.

Total number of deaths for the month, nine, in a population of more then ten thousand.

☞ The contract for building the Custom House Building in this city has been awarded to Charles H. Merrill, of Georgetown, D. C. His bid was stated to be $82,728

☞ We understand that Samuel Spinney, Esq., of this city, Dockmaster at the Navy Yard, has been appointed Master Mason there, in place of Mr. Henry Whittemore.

☞ We would call the attention of ladies to the Stock of Dry Goods of H. A. Bigelow, about to leave this city, advertised in another column, to be sold at auction—every day and evening till closed.—Among the Stock is a good assortment of Bonnets, Flowers and Ribbons, affording a rare opportunity to get a Spring Bonnet very cheap.

LARGE FISHING FLEET.—Over one hundred sail of clipper schooners are now prosecuting the halibut and cod fishery on Georges and Western Banks, from the port of Gloucester. Some of the number have been very lucky so far this spring.—The schooner "Serena Ann" arrived a few days since, after being absent only nine days, with 70,000 pounds of fine codfish, which sold for about $1 50 per hundred, the crew sharing about $80 per man.—Salem Register.

☞ The prophecy of Dr. Cummings, a Scotchman, that the affairs of this world will be wound up on the 13th of next June, is creating considerable excitement in Paris.

☞ A free bridge is to be built immediately over the Merrimack, between Boscawen and Canterbury, at an expense of $8000.

☞ The severe frost of the last few days has completely frozen the Hudson river over.

THE GREAT RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Toronto, March 13.—We learn the following particulars of the railroad accident at Hamilton, C. W., from a gentleman who left the scene of disaster this morning:—

The accident occurred on the Great Western Railway, at the bridge over the Des Jardines Canal, which is elevated some 60 feet above the water. The bridge swings, and it is supposed that the train which passed for the East a short time before, had sunk the bridge so much that the locomotive of this train was obstructed by the abutment to such a degree that the passenger cars were raised up and thrown into the canal.

The number of passengers was estimated at 75 to 100 of whom only 15 were taken alive from the wreck, and of these 5 have since died.

The water in the canal is 18 feet deep, and nearly all those not immediately killed were drowned.

The engine and tender, with the engineer and firemen, were pitched into the canal, and are buried 20 feet below the surface. The baggage car and two passenger cars were completely shattered, and one of the latter turned bottom side upwards and nearly submerged.

In an outhouse adjoining the station house at Hamilion, about 50 or 60 corpses of men, women and children were laid out on one floor.

Most of the passengers were from Hamilton, Toronto, and the adjoining towns.

Samuel Zimmerman of Niagara Falls, Isaac Buchanan of Hamilton, Vice President of the road, and Capt. Twokey, a popular commander on Lake Ontario, are among the victims.

Only one of the lady passengers was saved, and she was considerably cut and bruised.

57 bodies were recovered up to the evening of the 13th.

WATERTOWN, MASS.—The town meeting held in this town on Monday last, resulted in the entire triumph of the citizens' ticket made up of 19 Republicans, exclusive of the moderator, who is also of the same stamp,—1 American and 1 Democrat.—20,000 dollars were granted to defray the town expenses for the ensuing year. Abel Hunt's appeal for the recovery of some $300 which has been received into the Treasury from said Hunt's fines for violation of the liquor law, was read to the town by his friend Mr. Adams; a spicy debate ensued, but the meeting refused to pay Abel the money.—Boston Tel.

St. Patrick's day, the 17th of March, occurs on Tuesday, to-morrow.

THE NEW SENATE.—The Senate commenced its extra session on Wednesday, and the oath was administered to Mr. Mason of Va. by Mr. Pearce, and the former was chosen President pro tem. The newly elected members present were then qualified. The Vice President elect took the oath and made a few appropriate remarks. He is ex-officio the presiding officer of the Senate. The following is a list of the members who will constitute the United States Senate for the next two years, and to whom the appointments of the new President are to be submitted for confirmation:—

CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.

DISEASES OF CHILDREN,

and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically

A CHILD'S MEDICINE,

and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy sure to be followed by a "Dose of Physic"

The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty, and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues.

The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhœa, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness,

and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; sure to regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour Stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all.

and parents who value rest not full to buy a bottle, as they will depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir;—Having made trial of your Carminative, in several severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.
NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 27, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.
Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1853.

Mr. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir; We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the disease incident to infancy—cases of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians,

For the West.
BENJAMIN NORTON

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than it sold here. Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense

Also, for sale 440 acres of fine Timber Land.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

DR. J. C. AYER, Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to cure them to a Mismanch, which they clear out at once. It they will a ' ' ' others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PIERLE, Clerk of Supreme Court.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb, 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say that you have contributed to the relief of public suffering and to the benefit of the race in quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organs. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

FORT OFFICE, HARTFORD, LIT. CO., Miss., Nov. 10, 1855

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be cheated at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They effectually cured her of her long standing disease of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and got no cure. Your Pills are doing good here, even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

Yours, C. GRIFFITH, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the best medicine I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WABASH, WYANDOT CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1854.

DEAR SIR: I am selling your Cathartic Pills to the people, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. BEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of S. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of a long standing and most malignant Scrofula, that proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA GREENLEAF.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has bestowed on me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Nevertheless, by the use of Dr. Ayer's physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATOR CRAWFORD, EUTON HOUSE, LA., 6 Dec., 1854.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, Gravel, Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN CIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Yet, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities are to be found, in which not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disease of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the fearful diable and dangerous disease of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the sudden attack every hour exists upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents, than Quinine by the fevers it cures, and cure your colds while they are curable, for neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable tinker that fastened on the Widow, and you take your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and so they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them of its existence, that the best it can do. We spare no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which H. Faires & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honest manner, and that the money in payment of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the public should attend to, is, that no one can have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is now conducted by the same parties, after the plan established, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $50. No tickets will be sent out unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan) and Tontary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1836.)

No. 73 State st, opposite Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to ascertain the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of any Patent furnished by forwarding One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not decidedly superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS DEPENDS MUCH UPON ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of Patents, or the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, enable him to settle any question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All the necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office for Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration of their claims.

EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1856.—"During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful Solicitors with whom I had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000 of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Patent, 22d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued—Heretofore, all Melodeons have been so, till our furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, 1855.

"Messrs. Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufactures."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Volumes of testimonials to the excellence of our instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisement has seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855.

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played on by Wallace, Dodworth, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very really, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally good. Our instruments are finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

BOUND TO MARRY SOMEBODY.

A young couple from Southern Illinois, or Egypt, came to St. Louis the other day, for the avowed purpose of getting hitched together in the traces of matrimony. The bride was a full-grown, red-cheeked, sandy-haired maiden, with a well developed bust, and a foot like the Cincinnati platform—broad enough to cover the whole country. Her gallant was six feet and an inch, with a fist like a sledge hammer, and a shock of hair like the remains of a hurricane. He was rather verdant to be so far from home, but as love can transmogrify an oyster into a sword fish, it was working wonders in the enamored sucker. He "put up" with his intended at a boarding house up town, and immediately started to get a shave and a justice of the peace. The barber took off his wiry beard in short order, and gently hinted that he needed shampooing.

"Sham what?" said the Illinoisian—never having heard the term before. On being told what shampooing meant, he consented to undergo the operation. His head was thoroughly scoured and scrubbed, lathered and rubbed, washed and squeezed, and he felt like a new man. But the shampooing had so bewildered his brain that when he left the barber he was perfectly oblivious as to the course he should steer to return to his bride. He wandered about the city in perfect bewilderment, and has not been seen since.

The lady, in the meantime, had awaited in great anxiety the return of her swain, and finding he did not come, concluded that he had incontinently absquatulated. She declared, however, that she would never go back to Egypt without a "feller" of some sort, and hinted that she was not over particular what name she went by hereafter. A good looking young boatman, who was stopping at the house, hearing of the young lady's distress, concluded to "buck up" himself. He was not long in making known his intention, and his advances were received in about the same spirit that a pet cat submits to the caresses of a soft hand. When the boatman put the important question, the girl replied:

"Well, I don't kere if I do. I was fotched over here to git married, and I'm bound to marry somebody, afore I go back. The gals in the bottom would never git done laughing at me, ef I went home with a feller."

The couple were accordingly united in due form, and when last heard from were the happiest pair this side of Salt Lake.—St. Louis Herald.

☞ A correspondent of a New York paper wants to know which side of a lady a gentleman should take, when he walks out with her. We should say keep on the right side of a lady, always.

Why are good resolutions like fainting ladies?
They want carrying out.

Why good are husbands like dough?
Women knead them.

OVERWROUGHT BRAINS.

The early breaking down into invalidism of our American women, is the subject of frequent remark, says the Boston Courier. Our young maidens are, as a class, beautiful but delicate, and hardly do hosts of them get out of their teens, before they become more or less the victims of disease. Several of our cotemporaries, we perceive, are calling attention to one cause of this evil, viz: the overworking of girls at school. Where the blame of this is to be laid, we are not prepared to say. We doubt, however, whether it is all to be put at the doors of teachers, for we have heard many of them lament it, especially those having charge of public schools. The docility, love of approbation, and emulation, quite characteristic of the sex, taken in connection with the early age at which they are seated at the desk, and the early age at which they are called from their studies, may account for much of the error. Not only the acquisition of the common branches of education, but likewise the acquisition of accomplishments, is crowded into a few years; and this, too, with a premature entrance, oftentimes, into the excitement of society. Natural consequences of this are headaches, crooked spine, disordered nerves, weak eyes, debility—chronic complaints, that occasion more mischief, moral as well as physical, than many imagine.—What must follow where the wife and mother is the victim of ill health, can be easily fancied.

And how many instances there are of this ill health traceable to the grievous mistakes of parental vanity or thoughtlessness, in subjecting mere children to the inevitably deleterious effects of overtasking the mind, keeping to sedentary pursuits, involving confinement, unnatural positions, unrelieved by vigorous open-air exercise? This is a subject that demands very serious consideration. It concerns the prosperity and happiness of thousands. It concerns the comfort and joy of numberless homes. It concerns the cause of humanity; inasmuch as the abuses alluded to, threaten to bring on, in some respects, an alarming degeneracy in posterity—and that posterity only a generation or two behind us. The hosts of physicians, the statistics of the death of infants, daily occurring facts within the observation of every one, are all indicative of a great wrong, which threatens to produce bitter fruits, to disappoint many of the hopes of a progressive and prosperous civilization.

TUESDAY, MARCH 17, 1857.

CHOICE EXTRACTS.

No. 1. From the Concord, N. H., Democratic Standard, March 7,—before election.

The popular delusion on the subject of slavery has, in a measure, passed away.—Our opponents are for many reasons disheartened, and cannot be rallied by their interested and excited leaders, who are straining every nerve to rouse their party from the lethargy of political death which is fast creeping over them.

Thus, there is everything to incite the Democracy to an earnest and vigorous endeavor to redeem the State, on Tuesday next. It requires but a change of 3000 votes. That can and will be made. Many who voted the abolition ticket in November, will now vote with the Democracy.—And many of the abolition party will stay at home and not vote at all. From these causes alone we anticipate sufficient gains, to secure the election of the Democratic ticket.

No. 2. From the N. H. Patriot of March 4.

Black republican Hindooism is rapidly dying out everywhere. One vigorous blow from the Democracy of Hampshire will finish its career in this State.

Voter, if you would not give your countenance to the corruptionists in Congress, vote for the Democratic candidates for members of Congress.

No. 3. From the Patriot of March 11.

"Bring us no more reports!" The result of the election can be easily gathered from the returns given in this paper; and that is, in a word, a complete black republican triumph. They have carried their governor by over three thousand majority; they have elected their three members of Congress; they have carried the Council, the Senate and the House.

No. 4. From the Lowell Citizen.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Returns only confirm what we published yesterday.—The American Republican majority for governor will be over 3000. The election last fall, felled the democratic party to the earth; this election runs them into the ground so far that it will take them ten years to recover.

No. 5. From the Portland Advertiser.

The Granite State has done herself honor again. The vote was of the usual size for a State election, and might, we suppose, have been larger if there had been any need of it. As it is, John S. Wells, the hero of innumerable defeats, has missed again by the handsome minority of 3000. We well recollect when this gentleman was introduced at the Democratic Convention here last summer by a would-be cabinet member, as "the man who had been cheated out of the Governorship of New Hampshire." "But wait till next March," exclaimed the introducer, "and you will see him lay his enemies out cold in the streets." The "out cold in the streets" was delivered with such tremendous solemnity, that we were astonished to hear the audience break into lively cheering.—But March has come, and now both the introducer and the introduced may sing a sorrowful duet, with the chorus, "out in the cold," &c.

No. 6.—From the Boston Times, its Dover, N. H. correspondence.

We must confess we were utterly unprepared to see a Democratic press, whose weekly issues from time immemorial have been swallowed up better than Bible doctrine, running night and day, printing bogus democratic tickets to deceive honest and upright voters. Our eyes were hardly to be trusted, when we saw openly at the polls, heretofore leading and influential politicians and party leaders, who have surfeited at the public crib for years, circulating piratical looking tickets without any member of Congress, and backing it up with the assertion that it was the true genuine ballot for every man in the party to carry to the polls. How often have we heard in conventions these very gentlemen advocate with earnestness of feeling a strict adherence to party nominations. * * * They have shown their hands, and openly opposed the regular ticket, aiding and abetting in foisting on to this district that blackest of all black republicans, James Pike, for the next two years. * * *

A breach has been opened, unfortunately, which time alone can heal, and the almanac maker is now unborn, who will chronicle the healing up of this malignant political sore. What the party want, and what they must have, particularly in Strafford county, is a new set of leaders, or else we shall be confined to the tomb of the Capulets, with a hard prospect of ever again seeing daylight.

TOBACCO TRADE.—A singular feature was exhibited in the tobacco markets of St Louis and Richmond last year. Tobacco was shipped from Richmond and sold at St. Louis at a profit, the market being much higher at the latter than at the former place, and the same difference in price is said to exist now. Connecticut seed leaf tobacco has advanced in price 100 per cent. the present season.

BAD NEWS FOR THE BOYS.—Owing to the news from China, the price of fire-crackers has advanced. The last sales were at $2.50 per box, but the article cannot be had at that figure now. This is bad news for the juvenile patriots, who are looking forward to the 4th of July; but rather welcome intelligence for the people who abominate pyrotechnics in the public streets.

POWERS OF CONGRESS.

The Boston Courier, in speaking of the Missouri Compromise, and the Taney decision, says:

With respect to the power of Congress to prohibit slavery in the territories—we presume that there is hardly an intelligent man in the United States,—who has not had a decided opinion, one way or the other; that there is no such man in the free states, not committed by party affinities to the opposite view, who did not believe that Congress possesses the power, and that their are many Democrats who hold the same opinion; and that this opinion has been held by many men of all parties in the slave states, including many of the best judicial minds in that section of the country, although others of equal eminence and ability have constantly denied the power.

Under these circumstances, it should not be a matter of surprise, that the decision of a majority of the Court has given a great shock to public opinion in this part of the country. Although not unprepared for such a result by the rumors that have from time to time come from Washington, so general was the conviction entertained in the free states, that Congress has a complete power of legislation over all the territories, that the public cannot receive, without extreme surprise, the announcement that a majority of the Judges have denied the existence of the power; and there is some danger that the public feeling on the subject may run beyond the bounds of moderation and justice.

Really and truly, there does seem to be some danger that anti-slavery fanaticism will overrun New England, when the Supreme Court becomes a mere echo of the Slave power.

We think it, for example, extremely unfortunate, that the unconstitutionality of the Missouri Compromise was a party dogma. It ought to have been foreseen, by those who made this a party doctrine, that its ultimate adjudication as a question of constitutional law, would sooner or later come into the Supreme Court; that in that adjudication, the opposite sections of the country would take a deep sectional interest; and that it the doctrine adopted by the party should finally triumph through a decision of a majority of the Judges from one section, those Judges would be exposed to a charge, the bare existence of which, however unfounded and unjust, is a great public misfortune.

Exactly. It is a great calamity to be obliged to say, that Judges Taney, Wayne, and Daniel, are sectionalists, having made a mere southern, slave-driving decision;—and that Grier and Campbell are accessory. Yet so it is.

BACKING DOWN.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune writes:

Several of the Supreme Court Judges are getting their opinions privately printed, and have revised them to conform to the points of Judges Curtis and M'Lean. Chief Justice Taney is altering his materially, and Judge Catron has suppressed some portions clearly announced in the Court. As the majority disagree upon various propositions among themselves, and changed ground since the decision was promulgated, the whole moral effect of their concurrence is destroyed.

We think the moral effect of the decision is not wholly destroyed.—It will set freemen to calculating the value of such a court, and to pondering the infallibility of the judges.—As a specimen of the thought read this from the Lowell News.

The opinion of Judge McLean in the Dred Scott case was published in full in the New York Tribune of Tuesday; that of Judge Curtis in the Atlas of this morning. They are both very lengthy, and it is needless to say they will be the rallying points of a greater Northern party than has as yet been seen or even dreamed of. The Nebraska bill was a holy thing compared with this last piece of iniquity. Both Judges McLean and Curtis stood aloof, last fall, from the Fremont party. The latter has ever been considered a bitter hunker, Fugitive Slave Law Whig. His optics, politically blind, have been judicially opened. He now sees the designs of the slave power in all their naked deformity. He is now by his position placed in the very front rank of the great party in opposition to the slavery propaganda. He is a Republican to-day, in spite of himself; and for once stands out to the world a man and a patriot.

A resolution ordering the printing of twenty thousand copies of the recent opinions of the Supreme Court Justices in the case of Dred Scott, was introduced by Senator Benjamin this morning and lies over for consideration to-morrow. It will probably invoke an interesting discussion on the subject of the late extraordinary decision of that body, which has already rekindled the agitation it was designed to quell.

Apropos to this decision, it is said General Cass, who was invited to hear the reading of it, and who occupied a prominent seat in the hall of the court, was not much pleased with the result. He had listened with manifest impatience to Judge Taney's elaborate refutation of squatter sovereignty; but when the venerable Chief Justice had uttered the declaration that the constitutional provision, empowering Congress to make all needful rules and regulation for the territories, applied only to territories in possession of government at the time the constitution was adopted, he seized his hat and marched out, in a manner indicating his dissent to every one who saw him.—This was more than he could stand, and he did not care to hear the remainder of the decision.—Wash. cor. of N. Y. Eve. Post ☞ Uncle Toby was heard to remark, several days since, that the Lyceum is a great institution, as well as the pulpit; yet very small men do sometimes get into both, and then they are no larger than before. Also, that the Supreme Court of the United States was a great institution, and even now essays to do great things, after the manner of Jeffries, and Shallow, and Dogberry, those ancient judges who flourished, one in the History of England, the others in the well worn drama. And he remembers that one judge, who now makes a great figure, was put upon the bench, as the reward for a most contemptible piece of truckling to executive will and pleasure. He supposes that may be the reason why some people are making a great noise about this time, over an independent judiciary.

A law of Congress has just come into force which makes it obligatory, to prepay the postage of papers sent out gratuitously. This law, as we are informed by the Albany Postmaster, was designed to head off lottery prospectuses, "gift enterprize" advertisements, and such like projects. It falls upon all religious, moral, and philanthropic movements, as well, and to a degree which we feel sure would secure an amendment, if its operations were brought home to Congress. In the case of the Prohibitionist, sent gratuitously, 1 cent must be prepaid on a single copy, and ½ a cent on packages. Until this provision is repealed, our free list must be suspended.—Albany Prohibitionist.

Either the Albany Post Master, or the editor of the Prohibitionist, mistakes the law entirely.—A free paper, sent regularly from our office, is entitled to all the privileges of one sent to a subscriber who pays double price. It is our business, and not Uncle Sam's, whether a subscriber pays us, or not. If we send a list of papers, directed through the post office, and the recipients pay their postage in advance, the recipients are subscribers in the eye of the law.

THE KANSAS CONVICTS.—A Lecompton letter says that Governor Geary has not pardoned the Free State convicts, and they are now supported by government at the rate of about $800 per month. The prisoners who were confined at Tecumseh have all escaped with one exception, a man named Gates. At Lecompton, there are 16 Free State Convicts confined in jail, waiting trial, among whom are four Massachusetts men, one from Maine, and one from Rhode Island.

☞ Ex-Secretary Dobbin is a sick man. The Portsmouth Virginia Transcript, of the 11th, says:

The late Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Dobbin left this morning, for his home in North Carolina. The steamer Water Witch which brought him from Washington, and on board of which he has been since he arrived here, dropped down from the Yard, this morning, to the Railroad Wharf, where the freight and baggage of Mr. Dobbin was delivered, and he was assisted on board the cars by his attending physician.

He is supposed to be far gone in consumption.

BRUTAL OUTRAGE.—The Providence Transcript states that on Tuesday last an aged lady named Ann Baggott, arrived in that city from Hartford by the night train, which being behind time failed to make the usual connections, and the passengers were obliged to remain in the city. Mrs. Baggott inquired of a man where she should go for lodgings, when he pretended to show her, took her to his shop, where he attempted a brutal outrage. The old lady, near 70 years of age, resisted with all her strength till she was overpowered, being terribly beaten and bruised, and her ribs broken. In the morning she escaped from his den and made her case known to the police. She was taken to the Asylum, and now lies in a very critical situation, her age and wounds rendering it probable that she cannot survive. The police have arrested one John Wilson, who keeps a shop on South Water street, as the perpetrator of this fiendish outrage, and he has been committed to jail to await an examination.

☞ Another beautiful No. of Godey is that for April. A superior steel plate, The Tableaux. The Fashion Palate contains five very prettily colored figures, and then we have a Collar for a lady, printed in green and red, and a Travelling Bag for a lady; also, a whole page of Children's Dresses for Spring, with full descriptions. Two Spring Mantillas—a Mourning Collar and Cuff—a full review of Dr. Kane's Arctic Voyage, with engravings—Patchwork, Caps, Sleeves, Mantles, Embroidery, and a very interesting series of articles, entitled How to Cut and Contrive Children's Clothes, a Diagram of a Shirt, &c.

☞ A Methodist paper in Charleston, S. C., regrets that there is more jewelry and superfluous dressing worn by the Methodists of this day than by any other class of religious professors.

☞ A young man living a short distance above Jacksonport, on Black river, Arkansas, a short time since married a young lady by the name of Anderson. A few days ago she was found lying about thirty steps from their residence with her throat cut from ear to ear, and on entering the house he was found in the same condition, with a bloody knife in his hand. Both were quite dead. He was a sober, industrious man, and both of their families stood high in the community. It is suspected they were murdered.

PRESENTS.—The master workmen of the Philadelphia Navy Yard have given to Secretary Dobbin a splendid "constitution" cane. Some citizens of Savannah, through Senator Toombs, have presented a dinner service of silver plate to ex-President Pierce. It is very richly ornamented, and has upon it:—"The Democracy of Savannah to Franklin Pierce, President of the United States from 1853 to 1857."

☞ The Columbian Pills will be seen advertised in another column. Much obliged for a sample—but not having "made arrangements" for a trial of them yet, we shall have to refer to the advertisement for a list of their virtues. The proprietor is a gentleman, at any rate.

MARRIAGE OF WILLIAM MASON.—William Mason, the eminent pianist, son of Lowell Mason, was married in the Swedenborgian Church in Boston, by Rev. Dr. Worcester, to Miss Mary Webb, daughter of Professor Webb. The church was crowded, and a large number of children were in attendance. After the ceremony, which was very long and quite imposing, a hymn was sung by the choir.

"MR. I was truly a victim to indigestion, with constant sour stomach, without energy of body or mind, cast down, afflicted, tormented, almost loathing any society, until I commenced the use of your COLUMBIAN PILLS, and thank fortune and you too, they have cured me! I feel better, look better, and weigh 20 pounds more than when I commenced their use, and I verily believe them worth all the pills ever made.'

BROKE JAIL.—A couple of boys—a negro who was convicted of stealing a roast turkey, and another boy of whiter skin but not cleaner character, who stole some caps—escaped from the stone jail in this city, on Friday night last. They were in the cell from which several prisoners escaped by cutting off some timbers overhead several weeks ago. The timbers were spliced and secured with bands of iron;—and it was between these bands the boys escaped, after sawing the timbers. They must have stripped, and then "shrunk" to the smallest possible dimensions, as a man's head will scarcely pass between the irons.

They would have been discharged at the next session of Court; and have only gained a chance of further imprisonment, by running away. No reward is offered for their return, as the game is not considered worth the powder.

P. S.—The negro boy was captured by our City Watch, on Sunday night, and returned to jail.

BITTERS.—Dr. S. Gilbert, who has had much experience in preparing and dispensing Botanic Medicines, in this region, advertises a new sort of Elderberry Wine Bitters, prepared under direction of a regular physician. Mr. G.'s Elderberry Wine has long been acknowledged excellent—and the public can well have confidence in his bitters, as a pleasant, safe and efficacious Spring Medicine. We recommend it to all who have need of such. See advertisement.

☞ Mr. Waldo Woods was found in Lovering place, near Harrison Avenue, Boston, about 2 o'clock on Sunday morning, wounded and bleeding, having been beaten and stabbed. He was taken good care of, but died in a few hours.

The deceased was an American, about 49 years of age, and unmarried. He lived with his brother (also unmarried) at No. 15 Rochester street. He left home about a quarter past seven on Saturday night, and said that he should not be back until 12. It appears that he spent the evening in a bar-room at No. 143 Federal street, kept by a man named Pitman, which place he left at about half-past 12, in company with two others, and proceeded down Sea street, as far as the residence of Pitman, at which place the others stopped, and he started for home.

While at the Station he said he was stabbed in Federal street, and that he knew who did it, but would not tell. The probability is, however, that it was done in or near Harrison avenue.

The deceased was very respectably connected, and it is said, at one time worth $50,000; but of late years has been dissipated, living in a miserable condition, and doing no work. He had the reputation of being a quiet and peaceable man, even when intoxicated.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE SENATE.—The United States Senate closed the business of the extra session and adjourned sine die on Saturday. Another attempt was made by Mr. Trumbull to have the Illinois Senatorial question taken up, but it failed. Mr. Stuart of Michigan was called to the chair. Mr. Fitzpatrick of Alabama proposed to elect Mr. Rusk of Texas President pro tem, and on motion of Mr. Wilson, a ballot was taken, and Mr. Rusk had 29 of 47 votes.

THE STOUGHTON MURDER CASE.—The evidence given before the Coroner's jury in this case, shows that Briggs endeavored to get some arsenic of a drug seller in the town, for the ostensible purpose of killing rats, which animals two persons who lived with Mr. Briggs had never seen in the house. Dr. Jackson testified that he had found arsenic in the fœcal matter of the intestines; not enough, however, to have caused death.

FIRE IN MARLBOROUGH, MASS.—TWELVE CATTLE BURNED.—About half past seven o'clock, Friday evening, fire was discovered issuing from the barn of Mr. Lambert Bigelow, in the West Village, Marlboro, and before it could be checked, the barn with its contents was destroyed. Besides a large quantity of hay, there were in the barn, six cows, two horses, and four head of young stock.

SAP SUGAR.—We learn from the Keene Sentinel that Mr. Calvin Randall, of Surry, from the sap which he gathered in February, made over three hundred pounds of sugar. He has about 400 trees, and reckons them of more net profit than a large flock of sheep. This is something to be thought of.

☞ Snow fell at Baltimore and Washington, on Friday night, to the depth of eight inches, which was the cause of detaining the morning train between the two cities two hours.

FROM CALIFORNIA—14 DAYS LATER.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The George Law arrived this morning from Aspinwall, with California dates to Feb. 20. She left Aspinwall on the evening of March 6th, and brings upwards of $1,000,000 in specie.

The Sierra Nevada left San Francisco Feb. 20th, with several hundred recruits for Walker.

The news from California is unimportant. The mining news is rather favorable.

There had been heavy rains in various parts of the State, causing heavy damage.

The markets has been extremely dull.—Flour is quoted $11.

The California Legislature had impeached Dr. Bates, State Treasurer, and G. W. Whitman, Comptroller, for misappropriation of State funds, to the amount of $250,000. Bates resigned, and Jas. English, ex-Mayor of Sacramento, succeeded him.

Twelve of the band of robbers who recently murdured Sheriff Barton, have been hung by the people of San Diego.

An affray occurred at San Francisco, between F. A. Cohen, banker, and Thomas King, editor of the Evening Bulletin. Cohen, who was the aggressor, received a pistol shot through the jaws.

Two shocks of an earthquake were felt at San Francisco on the evening of the 5th. Much consternation ensued. No damage occurred.

Oregon dates are of Feb. 12. An Indian outbreak had taken place near Fort Scencoe. Four white men and a large number of cattle were carried off.

Advices from Washington Territory state that the Legislature adjourned Jan. 9, after having censured Gov. Stevens' course in the Indian war, and the martial law affair.

Dates from Australia are of Dec. 2. The mines were yielding immensely. A fire at Adelaide had destroyed property to the amount of half a million.

A flood at Nevada, California, had done damage to the amount of $70,000.

PROVIDENCE, March 15.—Grace Church, (Bishop Clarke's,) took fire from the air box of one of the furnaces to-day. It was damaged to the amount of $5000, which is fully covered by insurance.

NEW YORK, March 15.—A fire occurred this morning at Tompkinsville, Staten Island, in the bakery of Mr. Holtkampt, and destroyed that and six adjoining buildings and dwellings.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Maj. Ben. McCulloch of Texas, has been tendered the Governorship of Utah, but declined. The President received, late last evening, a telegraphic dispatch dated St. Louis, from Gov. Geary, informing him that he had resigned the Governorship of Kansas, to take effect the last of this month.

☞ Hon. Edward Everett is announced as the orator before the Literary Societies of the Wesleyan University, next Commencement.

☞ Rev. E. W. Jackson, late Temperance Agent in New Hampshire, has accepted the Agency of the New York State Temperance Society. They will find him able and efficient.

☞ We would call the attention of ladies to the Stock of Dry Goods of H. A. Bigelow, about to leave this city, advertised in another column, to be sold at auction—every day and evening till closed.—Among the Stock is a good assortment of Bonnets, Flowers and Ribbons, affording a rare opportunity to get a Spring Bonnet very cheap.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like many most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, pronouncing it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for gray hairs." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose locks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—[St. Louis Herald.

CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.

THIS Invaluable Preparation is a favorite scientific prescription of one of the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in New England, and one who has been as successful as any other in the treating of
DISEASES OF CHILDREN,
and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically

A CHILD'S MEDICINE,

and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy sure to be followed by a "Dose of Physic."

The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty, and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues.

The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhœa, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness,

and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; sure to regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour Stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS,

and parents who value rest not fail to buy a bottle, as they may depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir;—Having made trial of your Carminative, in several severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.
NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 23, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.
Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1853.

Mr. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infancy,—a class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

BENJAMIN NORTON

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than if sold here. Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense.

There was an assessment made, last year, of 15 per cent. on its capital stock, which was paid in on the assurance that it could go along. At a late meeting, it was estimated that it could be disposed of so as to divide 14 per cent. among the share-holders. Original stock, 1 per cent. worse than nothing.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSFIELD, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to relieve the stomach so much they cleanse at once. If they will do to others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PRESLEY, Clerk of Storms Claims.

Billous Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot do other than say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their range being action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable antagonist of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of Columbian Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. Her health had been entirely broken for six months. Was off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from $50 to $100 for doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. T. Hines, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in the city. To regulate the stomach and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. T. HINES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountain of blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my child of a most virulent scrofula upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair, after our child was cured, she took your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Sheridan, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PLANTERS' HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the benefit your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which yielded to no remedies. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effect was speedy, and a few days sufficed for purging in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 7 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease, which has troubled me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, ASTHMA, IN CIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and indeed throughout the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe that Consumption, which annually slays by the consumptives it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, not neglect them until no human skill can avail. Prepare beforehand that fastened on the vitals, sets your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, but need not be more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can bestow on their cause.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCE & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to be superintendent, and verify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as safely protected as if they were personally present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to the Managers of the Lottery in Baltimore, by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received in advance. The Managers are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tertary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $20,000. Orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,

ARES an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Also, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or foreign patents, to ascertain the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Opinions of the claims of any Patent found by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY. he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for official services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him far beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All a necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents, more extensively than any other person acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and accuracy. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in securing inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 11, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, E. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business at this office. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Messrs. Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufactures."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN HOUSAND MELODEONS. Testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately created one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855.

"G. A. Prince & Co.; Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played on by Wallace, Dodt, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and Wm. Vincent, others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very truly, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

RUM AND DEATH.—A physician of Boston relates the following incident as having lately occurred under his supervision at the Massachusetts General Hospital:

A few weeks since a laboring man of about forty five years was brought in with a severe injury to one knee, which he then stated was caused by a fall. He was put under treatment, but erosipelas set in and a consultation was had upon his case. The assembled physicians again enquired of the patient the exact circumstances under which he received the injury. He then, with the fear of death before his eyes, probably stated the truth, that his son (whose guilt he at first desired to screen) had, while under the influence of intoxicating drinks, struck his father with a stick of wood over the knee. The operation of amputation was performed, but the patient died of gangrene on the 28th of February last, a day or two after the operation.

CARRYING FIRE ARMS.—Here is another terrible warning against the carrying of fire arms habitually. A company had gathered in Lebanon, Ohio, for a wedding, when one of the guests took off his overcoat from the pocket of which dropped a small pistol. A young lady present picked up the weapon, when Frederick Spohr asked her to hand it to him, in doing which it was discharged, and the ball entered the left corner of the right eye of Spohr, causing death instantly. The marriage was deferred, and with stricken hearts the guests left the scene. The deceased was an enterprising citizen, and has left a wife and three children.

THE PRICES OF SLAVES IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—At a recent sale in Pickens District, of Mr John Couch's personal property, fifteen slaves, men, women and children, brought upwards of $16,000.—Greenville (S. C.) Patriot.

We attended the sale of property belonging to estate of Smith Bradley, deceased, on Tuesday last. Ten negroes were sold at an average of $730. One negro man, field hand, sold for $1,900; a boy fifteen years old, at $1,000; another at $970. Negro women and girls brought as high as $900. Of the number sold, there was one child two years old and one five years old.—Greenville Enterprise.

A RICH CABINET.—The following is an estimate of the wealth of the individual members of the Buchanan Cabinet:—

Lewis Cass, say	$2,000,000
Howell Cobb	500,000
Jacob Thompson	1,000,000
John B. Floyd	500,000
Messrs. Toucey, Black, Brown	500,000
Total,	$4,500,000

Even the Mississippi Legislature, at its late session, allowed its laws to go to Boston to be printed, and made an appropriation of three thousand dollars to pay one of its members to go there and read the proof sheets, instead of having it done in the State, and thereby assisting in building up a Southern publishing house. What a commentary on the Yankee-haters!—Vicksburg (Miss.) Whig.

It has been said that it is easy enough to resist the gospel according to Matthew, but is quite another thing to resist the gospel according to Adam Smith. Even Yankee-haters can "conquer their prejudices," but the grand law of economy is too much for them.—Boston Tel.

We trust that Black Republicanism will indeed pass away. It can do nothing to extirpate slavery or prevent it from extending itself wherever great natural causes shall send it. It has already done much to cause slavery to become fixed and permanent, and the more it does, the more it rants and raves, and threatens and shrieks, the firmer will slavery become established.—N. O. Bulletin.

If Black Republicanism has done so much for your blessed "institution," why assail it so fiercely? The logic of despotism is as faulty as its morals. It betrays itself on every side.—Boston Tel.

FAILURE OF THE DORCHESTER HORSE RAILROAD COMPANY.—It is stated that this Company have failed. The amount of capital paid in is $70,000, and the company owe about $60,000. Some parties who are largely interested having failed, there seems to be no disposition on the part of the old company to lift the concern out of its embarrassment; and we further learn that if a new company, which has been talking about assuming the debts and sinking the amount paid in, do not take hold forthwith, the creditors will ask leave of the town of Dorchester and the city of Boston, to take up the rails, and sell all the property, and divide it among the creditors.—Boston Tel.

☞ The Norfolk Herald publishes a letter from a runaway negro in Canada to his mistress, in which he says he has had enough of freedom, and will come back, if she will promise never to sell him. This is a very essential if, wherein lies the chief horror of the slave all his life long.

☞ Rev. Hugh S. Carpenter, of State street Church, Portland, sought a dismission last fall, on account of ill health, supposed to be caused by the climate.—He has now renewed his requests as he has accepted the unanimous call of the Westminster Church in Brooklyn, N. Y., to become their pastor.

BURDEN'S

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1, 1857.

DOWN ON MARROW BONES.

The Eastern Argus says:

But in this case, as in all others, the country—Maine, as well as any other section, —must take the judgment of the Court as a whole, and bow before the majesty of the Constitution as by it expounded. It will not do to say, that because there was not entire unanimity among the members of the Court, therefore its judgment is not binding. Nor should any feel, that because the reasoning of the dissentient opinions may seem more congenial with preconceived opinion, or more in accordance with their views of truth, that the duty to acquiesce with cheerfulness in the result is any the less obligatory. * * *

The true doctrine is for every man to live up square to the obligations of the Constitution, when they have been once defined. Unless the Republicans are prepared to raise the standard of revolution, they might as well submit first as last.—They may succeed for a while in keeping each other countenance while howling the dismal notes of discontent.

Clay, Webster, Madison, stand back!—Marshal and Story, McLean and Curtis, shut up! Taney defines our obligations once, and reverses all your dicta, in a moment. Ergo, we must submit, and ask no questions,—must not even "howl!" Well, we shall see whether that will stop the howling.

"ERROR IN THE BILL."—The National Era undertakes to correct a misconception in relation to the decision of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case, and says that one point alone was decided. "The statement has already gone out to the public," remarks the Era, "that the Supreme Court decided the questions concerning the validity of the Ordinance of 1787, the Powers of Territorial Governments, and the constitutionality of the Missouri Compromise; but this is a grave misconception. The single decision made by the Court, was, that the Circuit Court had no jurisdiction of the case, and it therefore reversed the judgment of said Court, remanded the cause, and directed the Circuit Court to dismiss the case. This decision, according to its own rules, precluded it from deciding any question arising upon the merits of the case, inasmuch as it refused to entertain it. 'If I thought,' said Justice Catron, 'that this Court was without jurisdiction of this case, I should go no further, as I hold that a Court having no power to decide the case, or to deal with it in any way further than to docket and dismiss it, has no right to discuss the merits, as no jurisdiction exists to give a judgment on them. But, as I hold that there is jurisdiction to decide the merits, I will proceed to examine the case.'"

"Judge Curtis took a similar view, and announced, if we understood him correctly, that he should not hold the opinions expressed by the Court, on the issues, arising out of the case and its merits, as decisions upon them. And such we understand, is the position of Justice McLean.

"The simple question decided, was a question of jurisdiction: the elaborate argument read by Chief Justice Taney, merely presented the opinions of the majority of the Court, on questions not before the Court for decision, and the decision of which was precluded by the declaration of a want of jurisdiction in the premises. So far, then, as the points named are concerned, they are still undecided by Judicial Authority, the individual opinions of Justice Taney, having no more authority in settling what is Law, than the individual opinions of Justice McLean."

MORE STRAWS.—The Lowell News says, of the Dred Scott case:

It is a singular fact that the whole decision was made by one man—Judge Campbell of Alabama—who was six or seven years ago, President of a disunion convention at Nashville, Tenn.! He was appointed to the bench by Frank Pierce. The court stood five to three, one Northern man—Nelson of New York—dodging. Thus this nullifier and disunionist turned the scale.

The intimation we gave the other day, that the decision throws the acquired territories out of the Union, strikes other minds. The New Palladium says:—"It seems to amount to the declaration that Congress has no right to establish a government in the territories at all."

The N. Y. Herald says:

Had the partizans of anti-slavery principles hired the United States Supreme Court to give them help and comfort, they could not have more faithfully, more dexterously or more opportunely served them.

The New York Times points to the remedy—"appeal to the people." The opinions of Justices McLean and Curtis are the standards about which all believers in a pure, unadulterated Declaration of Independence must rally. That they will rally [illegible]

☞ Before the inquest on Waldo Woods, the last murdered man in Boston,—S. C. Seavey, bar-tender at Curtis Pitman's, 143 Federal street, testified that he last saw Woods alive, about half past 12, on Sunday morning, at which time he left the store, after having drank brandy three or four times.

Chas. E. Varney, who lives at 224 Federal street, and is a business clerk at Pitman's wine store, 143 the same street, testified that he had known Woods for nearly a year. He last saw Woods alive at half past 12, Sunday morning. He then appeared sober, and was on his way home from Pitman's, where he had been since 8½ o'clock the previous evening. The witness left deceased opposite 224 Federal street, after giving him twenty-five cents, for which he had asked to pay his rent. Woods was in the habit of being at Pitman's on Saturday evenings. Never saw Pitman pay him any money but once.

Henry Fairbanks (the man who was with Woods when the latter was found,) on returning from a friend's at the South End, at half-past twelve Sunday morning, met three young men about 20 years old, on Harrison avenue, going towards Dover street. They were quite noisy. Soon after he found Woods lying on the sidewalk, who told him somebody had struck him, and where he lived. Witness was endeavoring to get him home, when he met the policeman.

Hundreds of such dens exist in Boston, as that in which this poor fellow spent his last evening, and some such in smaller cities.

COURT MARTIAL.—A Court Martial has been ordered, and is now sitting at Charlestown, Mass., to examine and act upon the charges of drunkenness while on duty, disorderly conduct, &c., preferred by Capt. Hazard, of the Receiving Ship Ohio, against Lieuts. Cornelius Vanalstine and Horace N. Crabb. The board of officers consists of the following named gentlemen; Captains Long, Green, Hitchcock, Walker, Winslow, Selfridge and Van Blunt; Purser John A. Bates, Judge Advocate. A singal of "one gun" announces the time of meeting each day during the sitting, and a flag nicked the "blue Peter" is flying on the staff at the Battery, emblematic of what is transpiring.

☞ In the Municipal Court, Boston, on Saturday, among the bills returned were indictments against the parties concerned in the late affair in Williams court.—Against James White and Robert Sullivan two indictments were returned,—one for rape and the other for aiding in the assault upon Ellen Desmond. A bill was also reported against James Holland, who has not been arrested, for a felonious assault upon Ellen Desmond. Samuel A. Goodrich was charged with an assault with intent to commit rape upon the unfortunate woman.

☞ We have received the Cosmopolitan Art Journal, No. 3, just published. It is a well printed quarterly, of 48 pages; and contains among other articles of interest, a statement of the Association's doings the past year. On the 28th January, the books were closed up, the drawing or distribution made; and the result is published in the Magazine. The drawing was made by means of two hollow cylinders—the tickets in one and prizes in the other. We have hunted in vain for our numbers, among the lucky ones; nor do we notice the name of our neighbor of the Journal in the list—though several editors are there.

The Cosmopolitan Art Association is nothing more nor less than a well conducted lottery or Art Union, of the least objectionable character; and its continued success bespeaks the fairness and ability of its management. The receipts last year were upwards of one hundred thousand dollars. The Actuary is Mr. C. L. Derby, who makes all the arrangements in the most satisfactory manner. r.

☞ An attempt has been made to implicate Dr. Chaffee in the proceedings against Dred Scott.—The implication was charged with purely malicious motives, and ought not to affect his anti-slavery reputation in the least degree. The Springfield Republican is assured that the estatte to which Dred Scott belonged, long since passed out of the control of Mrs. Chaffee. Neither of them held any proprietary interest, or were parties to the suit.

☞ The Black Hawk Horse, owned by Snow Town, of Montpelier, died some two weeks since. From an examination made by two physicians, says the Watchman, it was decided that he was poisoned. The rascal who perpetrated so dastardly a trick deserves a permanent situation in the State Prison.

Correspondence of the Chronicle & Phenix

RUMSELLING THE CAUSE OF CRIME.

SALEM, N. H., March 15, 1857.

Messrs. Editors:—I write to give you a short sketch of some of the criminals at the Supreme Judicial Court held at Exeter last week.

The first case was that of a man named Stephens. He was one of three who resisted an officer, while he was attempting to take one of them for selling liquor. It appeared by the evidence, that the one who was on trial was not so bad as the other two. It was said the father was sick, and the brothers had left for some other part of the world. The Jury's verdict was guilty. It appeared to me that the other two would have killed officer Keyes, if the one on trial had not been there. I understand they kept a low groggery—so it appears that rum was at the bottom of this trouble.

The next case was that of Samuel Layman. He plead guilty to four or five charges of stealing, and was sentenced to nine years in the State Prison on one indictment. Samuel Drew was indicted in connection with Layman, on three cases, and had his trial on one, and was found guilty. I inquired particularly about these young men, and it appeared evident that they used spiritnous liquors freely, and that they would be more likely to be found at some grog-shop than at any religious meeting, on the Sabbath or any other time. I pitied Drew. He was young, and I have no doubt that if he had been brought up under religious and temperance instruction, he might have been a virtuous young man.

The next case was a man named Hilton, of South Newmarket, for burning his brother's barn. This was no doubt the effects of drunkenness. The evidence was that he had been drunk most of the time for two years, and had the delirium tremens often, and his counsel tried to get him clear on the ground of insanity; but he was sent to the State Prison for three years. It was stated by one of the witnesses that Hilton told him that he had rather be in State Prison than to live as he had for the past two years. Query—had not the man who sold him rum for two years, ought to keep him company at Concord, for two years at least? I would ask every man who is not insane, if our law for the suppression of intemperance is too severe.

There were two young men in Exeter who were convicted of stealing. It was stated by one witness, that one of the young men said, a day or two before the theft was committed, that he was dead broke—which is the true state of a young man who spends his money and time at the grog shop; he is dead to all moral virtues; and he don't earn much money, and what little he gets, he gives for rum.

There were other indictments for stealing—one or two for assault and battery.—One case was Jemmy Chrine of Derry, who beat a Mr. Clendenin very badly. Chrine told a man at court it was rum did it—not Chrine.

Mr. Leavitt, the jail-keeper at Exeter, told me that all the prisoners in jail would drink liquor, and I don't believe that one of the long list of criminals at this court would have been arraigned there, if they had never drank any intoxicating drink.—Well, if rum selling is the cause of most crime, why not put it down? I believe it will be done. Let every town take hold of it, and put shoulder and side to the wheel of temperance, and it will save our young men from the crime of stealing and all other crimes.

I was glad that the court carried out the law for the suppression of intemperance. I believe there were ten or twelve indictments for selling liquor, and I trust they will have justice done them. It has cost the rumseller in Salem about a thousand dollars, the past year; and if they keep on making paupers and distressing families the year to come, we mean to send them down to Exeter, over in that old building across the river, or some other as good place. Let the friends of temperance take hold together, and walk the law into them. Yours respectfully, E. C. G.

P. S.—We had quite a time this week. Town meeting held three days; and the third day we went to the tavern, and took some Lawrence rumsellers, who came up here to sell through town meeting. The tavern was full of rowdies, but we had a team that was not easily backed off. They resisted some, but soon found it was of no use.

☞ The Swanton Journal says that Louisa Parker, thirty-one years of age, a resident in Belvidere, Vt., cut her throat, on Friday last. The cause of the rash act is unknown, as she had always been a pious and exemplary girl, and was at the time of committing the act, a member of the M. E Church.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorised by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every day throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number to each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to worry the purchaser. Prizes vary from $40 to $30,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Democrat, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Use Dr. Clough's Columbian Pills,

IN Dyspepsia and Indigestion, as well as for Liver Complaint. A gentleman in West Stockbridge, troubled strangely for years with indigestion, says:—

"MR. KENNE—I was so terribly affected that sometimes when those fits of 'blue devils' were on me—although myself of a naturally pleasant and jocular turn—I felt as though I wanted to kick somebody, especially if young persons were about, laughing and happy. I was truly a victim to indigestion, with constant sour stomach, without energy of body or mind; cast down, afflicted, tormented, almost loathing any society, until I commenced the use of your COLUMBIAN PILLS, and thank fortune and you too, they have cured me! I feel better, look better, and weigh 20 pounds more than when I commenced their use, and I verily believe them worth all the pills ever made."

These Pills are purely Vegetable!
These Pills expel disease and pain!
These Pills are capital for children!
These Pills are what Mothers need!
These Pills are useful in all diseases!
These Pills never fail to do good!

☞ A session of the U. S. District Court commenced in this city on Tuesday, Judge Harvey presiding.

☞ Rudd & Carleton of New York have just published a neat volume entitled Old Haun the Pawnbroker, or the Orphan's Legacy, a Tale of New York, founded on Facts. We have read with interest and pleasure, half a dozen of its chapters; and find the sketches truthful and lifelike. It is a story with a moral, or rather with many morals.

STOCKING FACTORY AT FRANKLIN.—The loss is variously estimated from $50,000 to $75,000. Insured for $45,000. It was a heavy loss for Franklin and vicinity. The factory was doing a first rate business. John Nesmith of Lowell, George W. Nesmith of Franklin, and the Peabody heirs, were the heavy owners. Their loss is greater at this time, from the fact of their having a large stock on hand.—Manchester Mirror.

BLOOD.—Within twelve hours after the House of Representatives concurred with the Senate in the great remedial measure for the crime of murder, viz: the bill to repeal the law giving the year's probation to convicted murderers, a man was shockingly murdered within sight of the State House.—Boston Tel.

A similar law has been in force in Maine for several years,—and is not likely to be repealed very soon.

☞ In order that a vessel may avoid liability to pay "foreign tonage dues," two-thirds of its crew must be American citizens. Under the extra-judicial opinion of the sectional majority of the Supreme Bench, those vessels which have crews of negro sailors, though every one of them may be born in the United states, are liable to this exaction; for negroes are said not to be citizens of the United States.

BUFFALO, March 16.—The Funeral of Mr. Samuel Zimmerman, killed by the recent terrible disaster on the Great Western Railroad, took place this afternoon at Niagara Falls, Canada. The Masonic display probably was the largest, as well as the most imposing, ever witnessed in this country. Large delegations of Knight Templars and Royal Arch Master Masons were present in full regalia from Western New York and upper and Lower Canada. Many of the members of Parliament, and a great number of the most prominent men of Canada, also attended the funeral. It is estimated that not less than 13,000 persons took part in the demonstration.

☞ Since the anti-slavery discussion commenced in Missouri, the New Orleans Creole proclaims, that the "Scandinavian Alarics are at the gates of Missouri," and warns the country against the army of liberty loving Germans, who are pouring into that State. It reviles them as "free soilers by instinct," and says they must be overthrown by the American party.

☞ Two sons of Guezo, king of Dahomy, one of the most powerful chiefs on the western coast of Africa, have arrived in France, to be educated, and have been placed at the Lycee of Marseilles.

☞ James Peas, a citizen of Piedmont, Va., committed suicide by first shooting himself in the left breast, and then throwing himself in George's Creek,—because of a guilty passion and jealousy, says the local paper.

KANSAS AND GOV. GEARY.—A writer from Lawrence, K. T., Feb. 24, to the Boston Telegraph, denounces Gov. Geary as a "hypocrite all over," and says that Brown, the editor of the Herald of Freedom, is a traitor, bought up by the bogus legislature with grants of land, and is despised and hated by the people there.

A Washington letter writer says that plans are on foot to compel Geary to resign, if has not done so already. Col. Black of Pennsylvania, was spoken of as his successor.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Appointments. the Pennsylvania appointments were considered in the Cabinet, to-day, but not decided upon. These, together with those of New York and California, are expected to be disposed of this week, as persons most interested have been informed.

RESIGNATION OF GOVERNOR GEARY.—There seems to be but little doubt but that the rumor of the resignation of Governor Geary is true.

ST. LOUIS, March 16.—The emigration to Kansas this season equals anything ever known in this country before. Two extra passenger trains were put on the Pacific railroad to-day, connecting at Jefferson, with the "lightning line of steamers" for Kansas.

Gov. Geary and his Secretary, Dr. Guion, arrived here yesterday, en route for the East.

☞ The wife of William White, formerly of Watertown, Mass., but latterly resident at the West, has applied for letters of administration upon his estate, all hope of obtaining any clue to his fate having been giving up, since he mysteriously disappeared, last fall, from a hotel at Milwaukie.

☞ We would call the attention of ladies to the Stock of Dry Goods of H. A. Bigelow, about to leave this city, advertised in another column, to be sold at auction—every day and evening till closed.—Among the Stock is a good assortment of Bonnets, Flowers and Ribbons, affording a rare opportunity to get a Spring Bonnet very cheap.

MAGNIFICENT AFFAIR COMING OFF.—How are the splendid fortunes that we so frequently hear about, and which excite our envy and our admiration, built up, does the reader suppose?—By patient industry? By plodding earnestness? Little by little and in the course of years? No. Not one magnificent fortune in ten is so constructed. The aspiring man takes bold ventures, and in a month, or perhaps by the act of an hour, gains possession of thousands of dollars. Many of our most eminent and successful bankers in New York, and in the cities of the South, commenced their financial career by trying their luck in lotteries. It is the custom, we know, for people who know nothing about the lottery system, to denounce it. In many parts of the world, however, it is deemed an essential part of the national government, and is sustained with zeal by the highest officials. The State of Maryland has taken under its protection one of the oldest authorized lotteries in this country, that of which R. France & Co. are the managers. We learn that a magnificent scheme on the Havana plan of single numbers—the equal of which was never before gotten up here—has been put forth by this concern, and that the drawing will take place on the 30th day of next April, under the superintendence of the State Lottery Commissioner.—Only thirty thousand tickets have been issued, so that those who wish to secure either a whole, a half, a quarter, or an eighth ticket (or any quantity thereof), had better at once send their orders to T. H. Hubbard & Co., No. 89 Fayette street, or Box No. 40, Baltimore, Maryland. The scheme embraces a capital prize of $100,000, $50,000, $20,000, and there are in all, 570 prizes, each one of a handsome and satisfactory amount, there being also 100 prizes of $1,000 each. A whole ticket costs but $20, halves, quarters and eighths in proportion. Think of a fortune for that insignificant investment! ADV.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, pronouncing it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for gray beards." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose locks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, who have been taking serious thoughts about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—[St. Louis Herald.

CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.

THIS Invaluable Preparation is a favorite scientific prescription of one of the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in New England, and one who has been as successful as any other in the treating of

DISEASES OF CHILDREN,

and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically

A CHILD'S MEDICINE,

and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy sure to be followed by a "Dose of Physic."

The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty, and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues.

The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhea, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness,

and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; sure to regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour Stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS,

and parents who value rest not fail to buy a bottle, as they may depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir;—Having made trial of your Carminative, in very severe and severe cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.

NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 23, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.

Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1853.

Mr. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infancy,—a class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

The very best now in use, as the many thousands that have tried it will testify.

THE great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. Mr. Badger, of North Carolina, whose distinction as a lawyer entitles his judgment to more than ordinary value, said at the conclusion of Judge Curtis's opinion, that it was the most clear, compact, and conclusive piece of judicial reasoning, from first to last, he ever heard or read. Mr. Badger is the gentleman who was nominated to the Supreme Bench by Mr. Fillmore, for the vacancy which the slaveocratic Senate kept for Judge Campbell. Had the former been appointed, the recent decision would, probably, not have been made. —Salem Reg.

MALIGNANT WIFE.—At Petersburg, Va., last week, a respectable farmer and his son were prosecuted for selling lard which contained stones in the middle of the firkin, and it was proved upon trial, that the wife of the farmer and stepmother of the son, had put the stones there, to get them into trouble, as she did not live happily with her husband. The case was withdrawn and settled.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians Philanthropists, and their Effects, and Judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any man ever had, by one dose or two of your Pills. It seems tonics from foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do others as they do me, the fame of your Pills will be world wide.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 1, 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their range of adaptation to the ills of the liver is quite extensive, and by them we can administer a most valuable remedy for derangements of the organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M.D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., NOV. 16, 1855

DR. AYER: Your Cathartic Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had fit fed, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctor bills, and lost much time, without benefit. Her health is given them. Your's is medicine as you, which is certainly good and honest, will be prized here.

THOS. J. CHIVEFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. T. Hines, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the best medicine I know. I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HINES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

ADDIN C. ANTHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of scrofulous humors, which had run her blood and poisoned incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. Your Sarsaparilla has cured, and your Cathartic Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has afforded me, if I did not write and tell you so. I took settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I was well nigh crippled, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were those, too, of a charm. By persevering in the use of them, I was soon entirely well.

SERGEANT CHAMBERS, BATON ROUGE, LA., 9 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease, which has troubled me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a family physic, they are specially adapted.

Fits, Suppression, Palsy, Inflammation, and even Deafness have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although valuable in skillful hands, is dangerous in a pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN CIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Few are the families in any civilized country in this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities in which some victim has not been snatched from living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disease of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the fearful and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should bear in mind that the whooping cough is a malady that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by its timely use, than any other medicine. It prevents the first fit, keeps it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable traitor that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Francis Cox and the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything is conducted with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they were present personally at the office. The order for which the managers call attention to, is that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, and forward the money for tickets in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prices vary in amount from $20 to $600,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1836.)

No. 78 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Canada, Nova Scotia, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages, for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that no MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington is obviated, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. The writer feels perfectly confident in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

ABGOT 17, 1853.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R.H. Prince & Co.'s Improved Melodeons.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.

Employing Two Hundred Men, and finishing

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000
of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 23d May, 1855—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the Accompaniment is softly and subdued.—Remember, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Messrs. Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly Twelve Thousand. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have been received to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our Advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately opened one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played upon by Messrs. Dorrt, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched." Very respectfully, JAMES E. HALLOCK

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who have ordered, or who may hereafter order, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and we warrant them to be of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

DELAVAN ON FACTS.
No. 2.
REFORMATION OF THE DRUNKARD.

8. When the Reform began, it was thought that moderation would save the drunkard. Since that time, even Temperance advocates have supposed that the avoidance of ardent spirits would save him. Now it is pretty generally admitted on all hands, that the drunkard is safe only when he abstains entirely from all liquors, wines included. It being admitted that abstinence is of vital consequence to the drunkard, it follows that it is the duty of others to abstain, so as not only to remove every temptation, but to strengthen him by the force of example.

9. The testimony of convicts that their crime began with drink; and of drunkards generally, that they learned the habit from their parents, or from professing Christians, have united with science to impress upon all parents and all good men, the solemn conviction that as Abstinence is the only safe practice for themselves, so it is the only proper example for others.

PUBLIC SENTIMENT TO THEIR HEALTHFULNESS.

10. The belief that all use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage is injurious, and never beneficial, has pretty generally taken the place of the idea that the moderate use of it is safe, and almost entirely of the error, that such liquors are essential to health as a beverage.

11. Since the Temperance agitation commenced, the most eminent physicians of this and other countries, have declared by thousands that intoxicating liquors are not only unnecessary, as a beverage, but positively injurious. That even in sickness it is rarely necessary, while in health it is always injurious, impairing the functions of the brain, the stomach, and indeed the whole human organism.

IN CONNECTION WITH RELIGIOUS SOLEMNITIES.

12. Thirty years ago, liquors were brought forward, as a matter of course, at weddings, at christenings, and even at funerals. After burial, the friends returned to the house to drink. Now intoxicating liquors are the exception at weddings, are seldom furnished at christenings, and never at funerals.

43. It used to be thought that the Bible favored the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage. Now the idea is extensively prevalent that where the Bible approves of wine, as a beverage, it means the unintoxicating wine of the cluster, the press, and the vat. While intoxicating wine is condemned as a beverage, as the "mocker."

14. When fifteen years ago, I instituted an inquiry as to the kind of wine, intoxicating or unintoxicating, which it was proper to be used at the Communion, great numbers of church members were sorely troubled for fear of harm to the solemn rites of Religion. Very many journals, both religious and political, denounced the movement. Within a few months I have caused on my own responsibility some 20,000 pamphlets to be issued, on the same subject, and not one word of disapprobation has yet reached me.

A POET CURED.—Squizzins of the Boston Transcript relates the manner of his rescue from a poetic career. He had composed, on a moonlight night, he says, and sent to the village paper, a beautiful rhapsody to his sweetheart Charity, in which the following verse occurred;

"All sleep!—sleep sailor,—ladie sleep!
There's one that slumbers not;
Tho' shine the stars—tho' hushed the deep—
There's one who sits alone to weep,—
To weep and be forgot."

In due time I received the Herald, with my effort in a conspicuous place; the above verse read in print:

"All sheep,—deep sellar,—ladie peep,— There's one that slobbers not.—
Tho shins the stars, too husk'd the peed,
There sore who sips a bone to woop,
Tow eeq & be foegod."

That did the job for me. From that day to this, the muses and myself have not been on speaking terms.

☞ An editor writing with the fumes of a vile cigar poisoning the atmosphere of his sanctum, ventures the following genial wishes to those who "use the weed:"

"May never lady press his lips,
His proffered love returning,
Who makes a furnace of his mouth,
And keeps its chimney burning!
May each true woman shun his sight,
For fear the fumes would choke her;
And none but those who smoke themselves,
Have kisses for a smoker!"

☞ Some of the Southern folks think the Taney decision is no great shakes, after all. The Columbia, S. C., Times, says:—

"Had the decision of this case been unanimous, it would have carried an importance which does not attach to it as it stands. As it is, we much fear, that the great and important principles involved are by no means settled—that is, removed from the arena of popular discussion, and from thus furnishing still a theme of continued agitation and excitement."

CRUELTIES ON BOARD AMERICAN SHIPS.—The frequent complaints at Liverpool of cruelties inflicted upon the crews by officers on board American ships, have induced the Society of the Friends of Foreigners in that city to investigate the subject, and they have made a report, appealing to the authorities of Great Britain and the United States to take the matter in hand and correct the evil. The Society say twenty-seven cases have come under their notice since the beginning of the present year, in which persons complain of having been repeatedly and grossly assaulted and ill-treated during the voyage, and the truth of these complaints is corroborated by the necessity the abused seamen are under, of going immediately into the hospital. The report says:

It has been proved in the Liverpool Police Court that, on board the Ocean Monarch, men have been forced to draw, with their teeth, iron nails from the deck, into which they have been driven for that purpose to the depth of two inches; that they had been compelled literally to lick up the dust from the deck of the cabin floor; and at the inquest held upon a Dutchman, who had been beaten to death by the third mate and boatswain of the Guy Mannering, the surgeon who made the post mortem examination deposed "that the head presented an enormously contused mass, the face was completely battered in, and there were from 70 to 80 contused wounds upon the feet, legs, thighs and back." The hospitals of Liverpool record many instances of the lamentable condition in which the majority of these victims of savage ferocity are brought in.

The Philadelphia Ledger remarks on the above:

The United States are quadrennially convulsed with discussions upon the condition of the negro slave and the barbarities inflicted upon him; but here are white men on board of American ships, and presumed to be under the protection of American laws, who are treated with infinitely more cruelty than any negro on a plantation. Is it possible that our laws are so imperfect in their construction that acts of Congress but recently passed cannot restrain the masters of American vessels from such arbitrary acts of cruelty, disgraceful to themselves and the nation they belong to? It is true that many of the men who make these complaints in Liverpool are left in that city, and the officers of the ship are, therefore, not held amenable to the laws on their return; but then we have instances enough, as our own police records show, of a cruel exercise of authority on return voyages, which are never prosecuted to trial. A sailor in the commercial marine, like one in our naval service until recently, seems to be an outcast from society, too poor to have influence sufficient to obtain even the protection of the laws, and subjected, without redress, to the insults of any brutal ruffian who may be put in command of a vessel. A society something like that in Liverpool, to see that the laws are enforced against those who maltreat sailors, seems to be necessary in every port. Some other legislation is probably necessary by Congress to correct this shameful abuse.

The Ledger, in the above remarks, incautiously gives a left-handed blow at slavery, in saying that these white men are treated with more cruelty than any negro, &c. Cruelty is neither more nor less than cruelty, whether inflicted on black or white, male or female. And slavery, if good for anybody, should be enjoyed by those who plead for it.

☞ According to the annual returns to the Massachusetts Legislature, the Eastern Railroad paid off $275,601.26 of its debt during the year 1856,—and earned, after paying all expenses and interest, the net sum of $176,855.74, or six and one fifth per cent on its capital stock. At the present rate of progress in liquidating its liabilities by the application of net earnings, and allowing that during the period, sales of real estate belonging to the company will not be less than $300,000; the Eastern Railroad will in two years reduce its debt below two millions of dollars, and earn between eight and nine per cent net on its capital stock.

SALISBURY AND AMESBURY.—A correspondent of the Times, writing from Amesbury, says:—Business in the village is dull as yet, the Salisbury Manufacturing Company not having arranged their affairs so as to warrant any increase to their present operations. It is now supposed that their extensive establishments, consisting of six mills and other real estate, will be all disposed of to new men. The estimated value of their establishment is $650,000, and it will not bring much if any over one-third of that sum. The passage of the new Tariff will probably prove beneficial to this, as well as other woolen establishments; but some time must elapse before they will feel the full effects of that measure.

☞ Hon James Pike, M. C. from Dist. No 1, has 1002 majority, as we learn from the N. H. Patriot.

NO FINALITY.—The Newburyport Herald says, in relation to the Taney decision, it does not agree with the Traveller that such a decision "is the law." If it is unjust and anti-republican, it is usurpation and not law. Nor do we further agree with them, "that from a decision of the Supreme Court—unjust and anti republican"—"there lies no appeal." God forbid there should be laws, Judges, or anything else, in this country, from which there should be no appeal. If it be wrong, we carry the case to the people—the creators of courts and laws, and ask them to speak. In a country like ours, a "finality" is a humbug. The Ordinance of 1787, and the Compromise of 1820, have been swept away by this decision, and a hundred Supreme Court decisions have gone with them; and the next bench of Judges may reverse this, or the people reverse the Judges themselves.

☞ It is rumored in New York that the family whose daughter has lately entered into a matrimonal alliance with an Irish coachman, have decided to put the 'groom' into a crucible, and refine and educate him up to the standard of good society. In the meantime, all the good looking "whips" of the Fifth avenue are getting their walking tickets; and hereafter the advertisements for coachmen will read, none but the ugliest looking (and marred at that) need apply. The Mirror "don't know why uppertendom should turn up its dainty nose at the smell of the stable, while one of its most pretentious representatives kept a small livery stable but a few years since; and all the 'eternal perfume' from the holy city cannot wholly eradicate his native airs."

DEATH OF A NEW HAMPSHIRE MAN IN CALIFORNIA.—We learn from the Nevada (California) Journal, that Mr. Edwin R. Lamprey, aged 28, from Gilmanton, N. H., was killed instantly by the caving in of a bank, while engaged in mining at Wallouga, Cal., Feb. 7th. He was standing in an old cut, and was warned of the danger; but it came sooner than he expected. He was buried six feet, his neck disjointed, and his head and back much bruised. He was highly esteemed, at home and abroad.

A FATHER AND CHILD FROZEN TO DEATH IN THE WOODS.—In Amityville, L. I., on Wednesday last, Mr. James Kafton and his son, a child of six years, went into the woods together to work. After laboring a few hours, it is supposed that they set out for home, and losing their way, wandered wildly about, and finally, worn out with fatigue and despair, they lay down to rest, and perished. The deceased were poor, and lived near Babylon, Long Island.

☞ The Inland City newspaper, at Lancaster, Pa., says it is a fact that President Buchanan was insulted by the know nothing rowdies of Baltimore, who hissed and shouted as his carriage passed them, and threw stones at the procession, injuring several members of the Lancaster Fencibles, composing a part of Mr. Buchanan's escort. Mr. Buchanan raised a company of volunteers to defend that city against foreigners in the last war.

BANK DEFAULTER.—Wm. B. Smith, first teller in the Bond Island Bank at Brooklyn, left his place last week, and acknowledges that he is defaulter to the institution to the amount of about $15,000, which his sureties are able to pay. His extravagant mode of living had aroused the suspicion of the directors, and as they were about to commence an examination, he withdrew.

THE LATE RAILROAD DISASTER.—Monday next has been set apart by the authorities of Hamilton, Canada, as a day of public fasting, humiliation and prayer, on the part of the inhabitants of that city. There will be a general cessation of business during the day, public worship and interments will take place, and congregations will meet in the evening for united prayer in some of the large churches.

☞ Quite a sensation prevails upon the street, says the Manchester (N. H.) Mirror, upon the rumor that a certain man here had forged his brother's name to various notes to the amount of $4000. His brother's notes are good anywhere. The man has been arrested and is under keepers.

☞ An unfinished house, worth perhaps $200, was burned in Concord, Mass., two or three nights ago. Its owner got up in the night to replenish the fire which he had kindled for the purpose of drying the plastering, but was not able to find his house, it having subsided into the cellar.

☞ Fast Day in Massachusetts, Thursday, April 17.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.

☞ The N. H. Patriot of the 18th, has returns from most of the State, giving Haile 34,758 votes, Wells 31,353, scat. 233.—Haile's maj. over Wells 3405, over all 3142. The little places to hear from threw 56 for Buchanan, 20 for Fremont.

The Senate stands 8 to 4; Council 4 to 1; House 190 to 127, maj. 63.

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.

District No. 1. Kittredge 11,222, Pike 12,517, scattering 293; Pike's majority 1002.

District No. 2. Morrison 9,490, Tappan 10,925, scattering 38; Tappan's majority 1377.

District No. 3. Wheeler 9,688, Cragin 11,318, scattering 75; Cragin's majority 1555.

THE COUNCIL.

Democats in italic, Republicans in roman.

One Democrat and four Republicans are elected to the Council, as follows:

District No. 1. W. H. H. Bailey of Concord, by about 480 majority.

District No. 2. Nicholas V. Whitehouse of Rochester, by about 270 majority.

District No. 3. Richard E. Messer of New London, by about 1200 majority.

District No. 4. Allen Griffin of Marlow, by about 1300 majority.

District No. 5. Daniel Rogers of Columbia, by about 150 majority.

THE SENATE.

Four Democrats and eight republicans are elected to the Senate, as follows:

District No. 1. Daniel Marcy of Portsmouth, by 33 majority.

District No. 2. John Ordway of Hampstead, by 541 majority.

District Nor 3. Moody Currier of Manchester, by 826 majority.

District No. 4, Charles Rowell of Allenstown, by 350 majority.

District No. 5, Micajah C. Burleigh, of Somersworth, by 650 majority.

District No. 6, Robert S. Webster of Barnstead, by 345 majority.

District No. 7, Aaron W. Sawyer of Nashua, by 670 majority.

District No. 8, Daniel Paige of Weare, 368 majority.

District No. 9, Charles F. Brooks of Westmoreland, by 1138 majority.

District No. 10. John P. Chellis of Plaingeld, by 130 majority.

District No. 11, Austin F. Piko of Franklin by 380 majority.

District No. 12, William Burns of Lancaster, by 750 majority.

KITTERY ELECTION.—The following are the Town Officers of Kittery, elected Mch. 16th.

Moderator—Daniel Pierce.

Selectmen, Assessors, and Overseers of the Poor — Ephraim C. Spinney, Luther Norton, Albion E. Parsons.

Town Agent—Stillman B. Allen.

Treasurer and Collector—Oliver Berry.

Superintending School Committee—Stillman B. Allen, James H. Rowell.

Auditors — Daniel Pierce, Stillman B. Allen.

Constables — Thomas O. Hoyt, George W. Parker.

These are all Democrats, so called, and were elected by large majorities. We have not the figures, but understand the Democratic ticket had about 80 majority. The Republicans know they would be outvoted, and did not muster.

☞ Messrs. Cass, Cobb, Floyd, Thompson, and Brown have expressed their opposition to proscription, and against the rotation doctrine, which is now considered an unfortunate announcement.

THE BOSTON CUSTOM HOUSE.—The contest in Washington for this prize is quite lively. Mr. Charles H. Peaslee, the Collector under President Pierce, whose commission has expired, is again an applicant for the post; and he is backed by many Boston merchants. The "rotation" rule, and his adherence to Gen. Pierce, in the Cincinnati Convention, will injure his prospects.

So says the Boston Courier.—Similar efforts are made pro and con, for the Portsmouth Custom House and others.

PLEAD GUILTY.—The two Lieutenants of the Ohio, Crabb and Vanalstine, on trial at Charlestown Navy Yard, have both plead guilty, to the charge of drunkenness while on duty; but pleas in mitigation were put in by their respective counsel, and the proceedings have been forwarded to Washington.

We think it is high time to stop the grog in the Navy. Two drunken lieutenants in one ship,—so drunken as to plead guilty! And such fellows to command men! Look at it.

THE ARMY IN FLORIDA.—U. S. steamer Fashion arrived at Key West, on the 6th inst., from Fort Dallas. She reported that two or more companies of troops had arrived at the Miami from Charlotte Harbor, in a starving condition. They had got out of provisions, and were obliged to kill their horses and mules for sustenance. No Indians had been seen.

MARRIED.

In Newburyport, Mr Henry Jensman to Miss Jane Hutchinson, both of N.

In Newton, N J, Mr Samuel C Dunn, of N., to Miss Annie F LeBreton, daughter of the late Edmund L LeBreton, Esq, of Newburyport.

DIED.

In Exeter, 9th, Mrs Lauretta Leadbetter, aged 31, wife of J F Leadbetter.—11th, Mrs Mary C Smith, aged 48, wife of Col Thomas Smith.—13th, Mr John Vickery, aged 68.

In Raymond, Mrs Enoch F Osgood, aged 74.

In Haverhill, Mass, 8th, Mrs Mary Lowd, aged 81, widow of Samuel Lowd, of Exeter.

The funeral of Mrs Jane Walden will be on Thursday, at 3 P. M., from the house of Mrs Derby, No. 6 Sheafe street. 3t

Use Dr. Clough's Columbian Pills,

IN Dyspepsia and Indigestion, as well as for Liver Complaint. A gentleman in West Stockbridge, troubled strangely for years with indigestion, says:—

"MR. RENNE—I was so terribly affected that sometimes when those fits of 'blue devils' were on me—although myself of a naturally pleasant and jocular turn—I felt as though I wanted to kick somebody, especially if young persons were about, laughing and happy. I was truly a victim to indigestion, with constant sour stomach, without energy of body or mind—cast down, afflicted, tormented, almost loathing any society, until I commenced the use of your COLUMBIAN PILLS, and thank fortune and you too, they have cured me! I feel better, look better, and weigh 20 pounds more than when I commenced their use, and I verily believe them worth all the pills ever made.'

LOCAL.

☞ The lecture before the Mercantile, on Wednesday evening, was by Rev. Dr. A. P. Peabody. The subject was, Art, as it is related to Nature.

This relation was shown to be, not antagonistic, but harmonious, auxiliary, and finally identical. The lecture was literary, scientific, and instructive,—abounding in thought, perhaps superabounding for a popular lecture,—and very much above the level of most lectures of the season.

VACANCY FILLED.—Mr. John T. French, elected a member of the Common Council from Ward Two, having declined the office, Robert Lefavour, Esq., was on Friday elected to fill the vacancy.

AN OFFICER IN TWO STATES.—Chas. Levi Woodbury, Esq., was last week elected a member of the New Hampshire Legislature from Portsmouth. This gentleman is one of the United States Commissioners from the District of Massachusetts, in which capacity he has quite recently heard a case in this city.—Boston Transcript.

Not quite so fast. Although elected to the New Hampshire Legislature, Mr. Woodbury is not yet sworn in as a member, and cannot be until it meets in June next. Consequently he is not "an officer in two States" yet.—Boston Times.

☞ We would refer any of our readers who may be in want of a superior pianoforte, which may be obtained at less than the cost of manufacture—to the advertisement of Messrs. J. S. Harvey & Son; who have received peremptory orders to close off a consignment of them. Having purchased one similar, from this lot, we can recommend this as a fine-toned instrument, and sure to give satisfaction.

☞ See the advertisements of Messrs. Moses & Downie. They are enterprising and wide awake—have a large and varied assortment of clothing and furnishing goods, and know how to sell it—the first step, after procuring the goods, being to advertise and let the people know it.

GREAT RIVALRY BETWEEN STEAM AND SAIL.—The famous clipper ship Dreadnought, sailed this forenoon at 9 o'clock, and the steamer Ericsson, at 12 o'clock, for Liverpool. The clipper ship Typhoon will leave to-morrow, and the steamer Persia on Wednesday, both for the same port.

Much rivalry exists between these vessels to reach their port of destination first, and much interest is manifested by the shipping world as to the result. The Persia will probably beat; though the Dreadnought, on her last trip out, made almost as good time as did the Persia.—New York Express, 14th.

The Typhoon was built on the Piscataqua river, by Messrs. Fernald & Pettigrew; the Dreadnought is a Newburyport built ship.

DEATH ON THE RAILROAD.—The 4½ o'clock train on the Saugus branch railroad, Tuesday afternoon, ran over and instantly killed in South Malden, a man named Fisher Kingsbury, a resident of Saugus. The unfortunate man took the 4 o'clock train from Boston for Gloucester, and on reaching the South Malden junction, finding the cars did not go over the branch, got out and told the people at the station that he he would walk on to the first depot on the branch. The train overtook him on the curve in the cut near this depot, and the engineer blew his whistle quick and loud, in vain, for him to leave the road. The whole train passed over him, cutting off both legs, and terrifly crushing the body, so that when the train had been stopped in about twice its length from him, life was entirely extinct. The victim was about 50 years of age, and many passengers on the train who knew him well, testified to his being a worthy man generally, but one who occasionally drank to excess. His appearance when he left the train at the junction, led some of those who observed him to believe that he had been drinking.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ Mrs. Pocock, of Blackheath, England, the mother of three generations of livery-stable keepers, was driven through the village on her hundredth birthday, in a chariot drawn by eight white horses, with out-riders. She afterwards presided at a dinner, and opened a ball in the evening, given to honor her.

☞ In the Supreme Court of New York, Mr. John Boker has commenced a suit against his son-in-law and ex-coachman, John Dean, in an application on behalf of himself and his daughter Marianna Petrinella, to avoid her marriage.

CLERICAL.—Rev. Mr. Pierce of Pawtucket, R. I., has declined the pastorship of the Baptist Church at Manchester, N. H. Rev. Mr. Bartlett left Manchester on Monday, to enter upon his duties at Chicago.

☞ The United States Magazine for March, 1857, is received by A. Williams & Co., Boston; and by J. H. Foster, Portsmouth. It is profusely illustrated, and contains a large amount of matter for the curious.

ST. LOUIS, Mch. 17.—Statement of Gov. Geary.—The Democrat publishes a statement relative to the affairs of Kansas, given by Gov. Geary. From it, it appears that the cause of the Governor's resignation was the failure of President Pierce to fulfil the pledges made at the time of his Geary's appointment. These pledges were to support him with an army of militia at the expense of the public treasury, if necessary; but instead of receiving this aid, has paid $12,000 out of his own pocket. The administration received military support under the most urgent circumstances, while he was thwarted by the judiciary of the territory in every possible manner. The Governor states that 50 men were under oath from the day he entered the country, till he left it, to assassinate him, provided his official conduct did not meet their approbation. He regrets the step he has been obliged to take, but feels confident that had the promised assistance been rendered, he could have administered the affairs of the territory, in a manner acceptable to honest settlers on both sides. In relation to outrages committed by pro-slavery men, he says the half has not been told. He pronounces the murder of Buffum, by Hays, the most cold-blooded and atrocious affair ever witnessed. His version of the Sherrod affair is similar to those already reported. He says, however, that the account published in the Republican, over the signature of Jones, is a tissue of falsehoods. The Governor complains bitterly of the obstructions and mutilation of correspondence. He says the mail bags were constantly opened and objectional matter to or from him extracted. The Governor thinks the establishment of a slavery constitution inevitable.

Reports are, that Gov. Geary has resigned, or will resign, and that Col. Samuel W. Black, who commanded the first Pennsylvania regiment in the Mexican war, will be his successor.—Boston Post.

This Black is the man who made a speech at the Cincinnati Convention, in which he told the Southern members that, in case of the dissolution of the Union, Pennsylvania would go with the South in preference to the North. He is the blackest of the Pennsylvania Blacks.—Boston Tel.

BELFAST, March 17.—City Election.—William Pitcher, Republican, was elected Mayor to-day by 89 majority over H. H. Johnson, strait Whig Democrat. The Republicans carried 4 of 5 Wards. The vote was large, and strongly contested.

ACCOUNTED FOR.—We have the reason for the appointment of Judge Black of Pennsylvania as Attorney General. He is the man who, as the Chief Justice of Pennsylvania, refused to release Passmore Williamson on a writ of habeas corpus.

INCENDIARY SHOT DEAD IN DETROIT.—Cornelius Christie, an incendiary, who has been in the New Jersey State Prison, has met with the violent death his crimes long since merited. It appears that a man shot at him while he was in the very act of firing a house. The first shot missed the wretch, but the second killed him instantly. The shooting was declared to be a justifiable homicide.—Philadelphia Pennsylvanian.

☞ We would call the attention of ladies to the Stock of Dry Goods of H. A. Bigelow, about to leave this city, advertised in another column, to be sold at auction—every day and evening till closed.—Among the Stock is a good assortment of Bonnets, Flowers and Ribbons, affording a rare opportunity to get a Spring Bonnet very cheap.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, pronouncing it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for gray heads." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose locks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—[St. Louis Herald.

Lawrence's Carminative,
OR
CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.

THIS Invaluable Preparation is a favorite scientific prescription of one of the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in New England, and one who has been as successful as any other in the treating of

DISEASES OF CHILDREN,

and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically

A CHILD'S MEDICINE,

and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy soon to be followed by a "Dose of Physic."

The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty, and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues.

The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomack and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhœa, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness, and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; sure to regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour Stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative so low as to be within the reach of all.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS, and parents who value rest not laid to buy a bottle, as they may depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir;—Having made trial of your Carminative, in sivveral severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of the kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.

MARY'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 23, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved them to be successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.

Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1853.

Mr. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infancy,—a class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

For the West.
BENJAMIN NORTON

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than if sold here. Or Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense

TOO MUCH FOR THE GENERAL.—The Mobile Tribune tells the following good story of Jemmy Maher, who has to keep down the gardener of the Presidential mansion at Washington:

Gen. Jackson had heard rumors that Jemmy was accustomed to get drunk and be uncivil to the visitors at the White House; so one bright morning he summoned him to his presence to receive his dismissal.

"Jemmy," said the General, "I hear bad stories about you. It is said that you are constantly drunk and uncivil to the visitors."

Jemmy was puzzled for a reply; at last he said—

"General, bedad, I hear much worse stories about you, but do you think I believe them? No, by the powers; I know they are lies."

DRED SCOTT.—It is stated that by decision of the Supreme Court, Dred Scott and his family will legally become "the chattels" of Dr. Chaffee of Springfield, one of the Massachusetts delegation in Congress, that gentleman having married the widow of Dr. Emerson of Missouri, the master of Dred Scott, who carried him into Illinois. Dr. Chaffee will of course give Dred his freedom, for he would no more claim property in a fellow man, than he would sell one of his own children by public auction.—Boston Transcript.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED.)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK, Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1856.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache by your Cathartic Pills, and also by one of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will do to others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. FREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for all diseases of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO ALDEN, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and paying away her money for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around him, who had tried its twenty dollars doctors bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. They seem to cure all forms of dyspepsia and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of life.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Mo., 4, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. Your Sarsaparilla has cured my little child of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her face, and lost her hair. Your excellent child was cured also by your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the benefit your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which I thought would cripple me. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effect was wonderful. In a few days, by persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease I had suffered from for years. VINCENT SIGNAIGO.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and efficacious.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN CIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its efficacy, and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that has ever been offered for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that stals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL is the safest and surest compound we prepare than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the formidable malady that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not depart from the course them it is adapted to cure. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known MARYLAND CONSOLIDATED Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & CO. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to act impartially and see that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as carefully protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland Lotteries to be filled by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the next drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received in advance of the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tenary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of nearly twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, specifications, assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered in other hands. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS UTTERLY PROPORTIONAL ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The long practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. This, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able to avoid unseen, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, is, in the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I officiated the office of Commissioner of Patents, E. L. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents, and more business, I believe, than any other patent agent, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most correct and most skilful Patent solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and more worthy and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He has brought to my notice many, very many, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the state of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that they operate on a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Managers call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are sanctioned by the Legislature of that State. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to confusify the mind. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

Below is a list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Courier, Nashville Democrat, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent, 23d May, 1855. By means of this Swell the Swell Pedal can be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Heretofore, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment, without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Messrs. Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Melodeon, and during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments from the most distinguished Professionals in all parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were solely confined to what that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 10th Oct., 1855.

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived safely and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played on by Wallace, Dodt, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very truly, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

THE DRUNKARD RECLAIMED.

The following touching incident is related by Mr. John B. Gough, the great apostle of temperance, in one of his addresses. To appreciate fully its pathetic power, one should hear it from Mr. Gough himself.—We have seen an audience of near two thousand people quivering with excitement and with streaming eyes listening to its recital in his inimitable style:

"There is no power on earth will make a man a fiend like the power of drink. One circumstance in my own reminiscences I will give to you. I was asked by an individual to go and see the hardest case then in town. I said,

'I have no right to go and see him; he will say to me: 'Who sent you to me? who told you I was a drunkard? You mind your own business and I will mine; you wait till you are sent for; and when I want you I will send for you.' I have no right,' I said, 'to go to him.'

'Well,' said he, 'he is a hard case; he beat a daughter of his, fourteen years of age, with a shoemaker's strap, so that she will carry the marks to the grave.'

Said I, 'He's a brute.'

'His wife is very ill with a fever, and the doctor says he thinks she cannot get over it, the man has not been drinking for some days, and if you can get at him now, I think you might do him good.'

I thought I would go. I knocked at the door; he came to open it. He had been to one or two of our meetings. The moment he saw me he knew me. Said he,

'Mr. Gough, I believe!'

'Yes, that is my name; would you be good enough to give me a glass of water, if you please?'

'Certainly,' said he, 'come in.'

So I got in. I sat on one side of the table, and he sat on the other. There were two children in the room playing together, and a door half-way open that led into the room where the wife was ill. I sat and talked with him, about every thing I could think of but the subject; I talked of trade and crops, and railroads, and money matters; and then drinking, and he headed me off again. I looked and thought I saw a malicious twinkle in his eye, as much as to say, 'Young man, you are not up to your business yet.'

I was about to give it up; but, I think providentially, I saw the children. I said to him,

'You've got two bright looking children there, sir.'

'O! yes, yes, bright little things!'

Said I, 'You love your children, don't you?'

'Bless the children, to be sure I love them.'

Said I, 'Wouldn't you do anything to benefit your children?'

He looked at me as if he thought something was coming after.

'Well to be sure, sir,' said he, 'a man ought to do everything to benefit his children.'

Then I stood up, so that I might get out of the door as speedily as possible, and said,

'Don't be angry with me; I am going to ask you a plain and simple question; you know who I am, therefore you won't be angry? Suppose you never used any more intoxicating liquor, don't you think your children would better off?'

'Well, well, said he, 'you have got me this time.'

'Said I, 'you have got a good wife, haven't you?'

'Yes sir, as good a wife as ever a good man had for a wife!'

'And you love your wife?'

'To be sure I do; it is natural that a man should love his wife.'

'And you would do anything you could to please your wife?'

'Well, I ought to.'

'Suppose you were to sign a temperance pledge, would that please her?'

'By thunder, I rather think it would; I could not do the thing that would please my wife like that. If I was to put my name down there, why the old woman would be up and about her business in two weeks.'

'As she is sick,' said I, 'then you will do it?'

'Yes, I guess I will do it.' And he at once opened a closet, took out pen and ink, and I spread out the pledge, and he wrote his name.

The children had been listening with eyes, ears and mouths wide open, while we were talking about temperance. They knew what a drunken father was; they know what the principle of abstinence would do for him; and when he had signed, one said to the other.

'Father has signed the pledge!'

'O! my!' said the other, 'now I'll go and tell my mother;' and away she ran into the other room.

But the mother had heard it; and I listened to her, calling,

'Luke! Luke! come in here a moment.'

Said he, 'Come in here along with me; come in and see my wife.'

I went and stood by her bedside. The face was ghastly pale, the eye large and sunk deep in its socket; and with her long, thin and bony fingers, she gripped my hand, and with the other took the hand of her husband, and began telling me what a good husband she had.

'Luke,' said she, 'is a kind husband and a good father; he takes care of the children, and is very kind to them; but the drink, O! the drink makes terrible difficulty.' That difficulty! God only and the crushed wife of the intemperate man know anything about it.

The man shook like a leaf; he snatched the hand from the grasp of his wife, tore down her night dress from her shoulder, and said,

'Look at that! and on her white, thin neck, close to her shoulder, was a bad mark. Said he, 'look at that; and when I saw the mark of a bruise, I felt my flesh creep. Said he, 'look at that, sir! I did it three days before she was taken down upon her bed; and she told you that she has a good husband. Am I: Am I a good husband to her? God Almighty forgive me!' and he bowed over that woman and wept like a child; gripped the bedclothes in his hands, and hid his face in them. And she laid her thin hand upon his head, and said,

'Don't cry, Luke; don't, please don't; you wouldn't have struck me if it had not been for the drink. Mr. Gough, don't believe him; he is as good a man as ever lived. Don't cry, Luke!'"

BURDEN'S
Pressed Boat, Ship, Brad & Countersunk Railroad Spikes

ARE well known in the United States, and are conspicuous for their regularity and finish, their unvarying uniformity of size, and for the excellent quality of iron from which they are made, to which may be attributed their rare strength. They are everywhere considered far superior to the hand made spike of common English iron, and inferior to nothing of the kind yet introduced to the public.

FRIDAY, MARCH 20, 1857.

WASHINGTON AND KANSAS.

From these two points are issued missiles directed against liberty, which will surely reach against slavery, by waking up anew the otherwise slumbering freemen, who, satisfied with their own apparent welfare, are slow to see that the system which enslaves one man would enslave all other men if it had the power.

The Taney decision is an extra-judicial sanction of the Cincinnati platform, of the Douglas and Pierce Nebraska bill, and of the supremacy of slavery generally. Had Fremont been elected instead of Buchanan, this decision would not have been made within the present four years.

But it is made, and the parties must take the consequences.

So also must the same parties take the consequences of another act in the same great drama, viz. the crusade against liberty in Kansas.

The reader will please to look first at an article from the (rather pro-slavery) New York Journal of Commerce.

The resignation of Governor Geary as Governor of Kansas, embarasses the administration and throws upon it an unwelcome responsibility. It was very plain to every one who was acquainted with the character of Col. Geary, that he would throw up his commission unless the government supported him in the manner demanded. By retaining Judge Lecompte in his office as Chief Judge in the territory, they, of course, gave that functionary, a triumph over Col. Geary, and deprived the latter both of influence and authority. He had no alternative, as an honorable man, but to resign. If the President, instead of accepting the resignation, should endeavor to persuade Gov. Geary to retain the post, he must accompany his request with the prompt removal of Judge Lecompte, and the promise also of future support in his attempts to preserve order in the territory. Any person appointed to succeed Gov. Geary, must take the post subject to the embarrassments and mortifications which have been experienced by him.

A correspondent of the New York Times writing from Washington on Monday evening, says:

> I am informed by a member of the Cabinet that it has been decided to retain and sustain Governor Geary on his own terms. It is believed that nothing less will satisfy the country, or promote the true interests of the territory. Lecompte must as a consequence be removed, though no details will be considered until the the consent of Governor Geary shall have been obtained to remain at his post.

The Boston Advertiser, says:

> This is good news if true. It seems to be certain that Governor Geary will remain in office on no other terms than those mentioned; but we greatly fear that Mr. Buchanan has not the firmness to accede to them.

☞ A despatch from Washington to the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser, says: "The President's interview with Gov. Geary, when he arrives—and he is hourly expected—will be of much domestic importance. I think it will end in the re-appointment of Col. Geary, and with assurance of support. If Mr. Buchanan wavers on this trying point, he is a lost man. He is not prepared to meet the question. He did not expect it. Everybody else did expect it.—He has many Missourians around him."

KANSAS.—The correspondent of the Boston Traveller, under date of Feb. 28th, writes:

> We are being invaded again, but this time it is not with pro-slavery hordes of the South, but the hard-handed, industrious sons of toil from the teeming North.—Within the past week the vanguard of the emigrant army of free labor has broke in upon us. The steamer Emigrant landed two hundred passengers at Kansas City, mostly from Indiana and Illinois. Two other boats have arrived at Leavenworth, and brought nearly three hundred. The emigrants themselves are of a superior class, and the majority bring with them the sinews of war, in the shape of pockets well lined. The "Star of the West" brought up fifty persons, the majority of whom intend settling together in Neosho Valley.

B. F. BUTLER, Esq.—We learn, says the Boston Telegraph, that B. F. Butler, Esq., of Lowell, has been ill since his late visit to Washington. He is another victim of what is called the Rat sickness.—The New York Day Book, the editor of which paper was at the National Hotel at the time of the Inauguration, rejects the Rat theory, and says the poison was administered in the food. The National Intelligencer thinks the evil is not yet eradicated from the establishment.

☞ The Unitarian Society of West Cambridge, has increased the salary of Rev. S. A. Smith to $1200. The Madison square Presbyterian Society, New York, has raised the salary of Rev. Dr. Adams to $5000.

For the Chronicle.

THE END OF THE WORLD.

Messrs. Editors:—I noticed in your paper of Monday, 16th inst., an article stating that "the prophecy of Dr. Cumming, a Scotchman, that the affairs of this world will be wound up on the 13th of next June, was creating considerable excitement in Paris;" but whoever will look into his works re-published in this country, will see that he cannot have so prophecied. I am a member of the "Cumming Library Association" of this city, and have carefully read twenty of his thirty volumes which contain his exposition of fulfilled and unfulfilled prophecy, but have discovered nothing to justify said statement. Doctor Cumming not only disclaims all pretension to prophecying, or to predict the day of the Second Advent, but his exposition of prophecies respecting the return of the Jews to Jerusalem, and of the gradual and progressive exhaustion of Mahometanism, symbolized by the drying up of the water of the river Euphrates, that the way of the kings of the East (Jews) might be prepared, (Rev. xvi. 12,) afford plenary evidence to the contrary. He believes that the decline of Mahometan power began about the year 1820, and quoting from the "Annual Register," says, "The Ottoman Empire had reached its meridian strength, free from all foreign invasion and in perfect peace, and in the summer of that very year, Ali Pacha revolted against the Sultan. In the autumn of 1820 the Greek insurrection broke out. Soon after, Northern Greece, the isles of the Ægean Sea, and the Danubian provinces all revolted from the Turkish Empire. In the Morea, the Greeks destroyed an army of thirty thousand Turks. In 1827 the combined fleets of Britain, France and Russia destroyed the Turco Egyptian fleets at the battle of Navarino. In the year 1828 Russia crossed the Balkan and entered Adrianople, and Constantinople was saved by the western ambassadors. Servia, Wallachia and Moldavia are at this time (1854) held by the Russians. The Turkish province of Algiers is now a French colony. Turkey suicidally extinguished the Janizaries, her best troops. During the same period, earthquakes, plagues and pestilences have almost depopulated Bagdad, Mecca and Medina, and within the last twenty years, Constinantinople has lost more than half its population. Two conflagrations destroyed in Constantinople fifteen thousand houses. The silent operation of the plague is continually active. It is no exaggeration to say, that within the period mentioned, three hundred thousand have been swept away in this one city of Europe, by causes not operating in any other capital whatever."

Dr. Cumming further remarks, that "having seen that in all probability we must be near that epoch, let me notice in the next place, that as soon as the Crescent wanes, and the great river Euphrates, the recognized symbol of Turkish power, evaporates, we may expect to see a preparation for the return of the kings of the East, that is, an awakening take place among the Jews, previous to their emerging from the lands of their captivity, and their moving homewards to Jerusalem, an exodus more majestic than that from Egypt.

In particularizing dates and epochs, he says, "It is very remarkable, that all the great times and dates of prophecy meet and mingle about the year 1864. I do not say that year will be the close of the world. I do not prophecy; I do not foretell the future; I only foretell what God has said; but I do feel, that if 1864 be not the close of the age that now is, and the commencement of a better one, it will be a time unprecedented since the beginning, portentous, startling and terrible to the enemies of God, but glorious, holy, and full of joyous scenes to the people of God."

He also says, that "Clinton proves that the seventh Millenary of the world commences in 1863. The Jews of ancient and modern times look to the beginning of the seven thousand years for their Sabbatismos, or Millenary rest. Is the end of the age so near?"

Now, Messrs. Editors, I would ask, will any of your readers, in view of the foregoing, believe that Dr. Cumming has prophecied that "the affairs of this world will be wound up on the 13th of next June?" But "The groans of nature in this nether world, Which heaven has heard for ages, have an end, Foretold by prophets, and by poets sung; The time of rest, the promised Sabbath comes. Six thousand years of sorrow have well nigh Fulfilled their tardy and disastrous course Over a sinful world; and what remains Of this tempestuous state of human things Is merely as the working of the sea, Before a calm that rocks itself to rest."

Thus all fingers point to this rapidly approaching crisis. All things indicate that the moment we occupy is charged with intense and inexhaustible issues. Never was man so responsible. Never, in the prospect of what is coming on the earth, was man's position so solemn! Truth and love will emerge from every conflict, beautiful, and clothed with victory. D. P. D.

AN AFRICAN EXODUS.—The Peterburgh (Va.) Express of Tuesday says:

> Our citizens are beginning to observe the unusual number of slaves that are constantly passing through Petersburgh, on their way South, and to the minds of many the result appears inevitable that it will need but the work of ten or twenty years, to clear Virginia completely of that part of her population. A company of one hundred passed through on Saturday.

SLAVES GOING SOUTH.—The Montgomery (Ala.) Mail of Monday last, says:

> For the last week or two, the number of slaves carried by the Alabama boats down the river, for New Orleans, has been large beyond all precedent. These negroes come over our railroad, mainly from Virginia and North Carolina.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Louisville, March 18.—The train which left New Albany for Salem, Indiana, at 1 o'clock yesterday, while passing Muddy Fort Bridge, precipitated two passenger cars into the creek about fifteen feet below. The locomotive, tender and baggage car passed over the bridge safely. Garrison Smith, the brakeman, was killed; Mrs. Shield of Mitchell, had her leg broken, and Jacob Flaxon, a pedler, sustained some severe flesh wounds.

MUTINEERS.—New York, March 18.—Ship Centurion from St. Thomas, brought home the mutineers of the brig Gen. Pierce, who murdered the captain and crew.

THE NORTH RIVER.—The navigation of the Hudson is again fully resumed, the various steamers between here and Albany making good time.

TROY, March 18.—An affray occurred at the Eddy Foundry, in this city, this morning, between John Allen and Hugh Donnelly. The former struck the latter over the head with a hammer, and injuring him so that he died at 1 o'clock this morning. Allen has escaped.

Use Dr. Clough's Columbian Pills,

IN Dyspepsia and Indigestion, as well as for Liver Complaint. A gentleman in West Stockbridge, troubled strangely for years with indigestion, says:—

"Mr. RENNE—I was so terribly affected that sometimes when those fits of 'blue devils' were on me—although myself of a naturally pleasant and jocular temper—that though I wanted to kick somebody, especially if young persons were about, laughing and happy. I was truly a victim to indigestion, with constant sour stomach, without energy of body or mind cast down, afflicted, tormented, almost loathing any society, until I commenced the use of your Columbian Pills, and thank fortune and you too, they have cured me! I feel better, look better, and weigh 20 pounds more than when I commenced their use, and I verily believe been worth all the pills ever made."

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

We send bills this week, to every subscriber who is in arrears on our books—including even those who have paid up to the beginning of the present year. This of course refers to our Weekly list, on which are charges for one, two, and a few for three years. Of our Daily subscribers, not one, we think, owes so much as a year's subscription!

When we commenced printing the Chronicle, we adopted the plan recommended to us by that veteran newspaper publisher, Mr. Earle, of the Worcester Spy—to strike from our list the names of any who could not or would not settle their bills at least once a year. In adhering to this rule, we don't remember to have marked off more than dozen name, or so, from our Daily list. But these few, for the four or five years we have printed, would have amounted to two or three hundred dollars.

With regard to our Weekly list, we can speak about as favorably of that portion which we gathered ourselves, or which actually were a part of the Chronicle list. There has hardly been a dead-head among them. We used to make an annual trip among our patrons in the neighboring towns, till they got to be too numerous, and increasing business prevented our absence from the office. Latterly we have depended entirely on the individual honesty and attention of subscribers—we say honesty, for that man is certainly dishonest as well as mean, who receives and reads a paper for which he refuses or neglects to pay. Our Weekly subscribers generally, are not of that sort—most of them can show a clean record.

It is mainly of that portion of our list which was transferred from the Phenix books, that we have to speak. In the many and various changes which that paper has undergone, it is not strange if there are some names on the list which are more addition than improvement to it—if some receive the paper who never wished it, and some who never pay for anything except when obliged to.

Now all we have to say, is, that such games don't pay the printer. We prefer to print one thousand papers, paid for, rather than two thousand, to get the pay if we can. We are not complaining—we have no occasion for that; we only state facts, and ask fairness. We have now printed the Phenix a year, and it is time the books were squared—and we are going to square them. To this end, we send every subscriber information of the amount due for his paper; and we request that all such will at once attend to this little matter—small, indeed, to each, but by no means trifling in the aggregate. Is this asking too much?

We forward bills to-day, to all who are in arrears, and also to those whose subscriptions, as paid, expire in March. From this time, henceforth, we shall inform distant subscribers, of the expiration of their subscriptions, a week or two previous; and unless the money is forthwith forwarded, we shall consider them as not wishing to continue on our list. Unlike some publishers, who advertise that "no paper will be discontinued till all arrearages are paid," we respectfully announce that we shall discontinue sending all papers on which arrearages are not paid—and then avail ourselves of the best means we can to collect our dues. We don't want to earn the money twice. If our paper is not worth the price, to you, please pay up and stop it. Hereafter, our terms are cash—only $1 a year, in advance.

Postmasters generally will forward money without expense.

In conclusion, we would not forget to acknowledge our obligation to those of our subscribers—by no means few—who always keep the balance of our accounts where it should be—on their side. May they live a thousand years, and remain subscribers to the Chronicle!

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Watson Freeman is reappointed Marshal of the District of Massachusetts; Charles L. Woodbury, U. S. Attorney of Massachusetts, vice Hallet. It is said that Fletcher Webster, Surveyor, and Chas. G. Green, Naval officer, will be re-appointed.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Arthur W. Austin, of Roxbury, has been appointed Collector of Boston, vice Peaslee. E. E. Pratt, son-in-law to Rufus Choate, is appointed sub-treasurer at Boston (in place of I. W. Beard.)

Gen. Pierce made two personal requests to the President in reference to persons whom he wishes to be retained in office.—One of them has already been superseded, and the other will undoubtedly be.

The Board of Health have decided that the recent sickness at the National Hotel was caused by the poisonous miasma generated in the sewers and sinks about the establishment.

☞ Rev. Rufus W. Clark, of East Boston, has accepted the call extended to him by the South Congregational Church in Brooklyn, N. Y. He leaves mainly on account of the feeble state of his wife's health.

☞ Governor H. J. Gardner, of Massachusetts, in closing his proclamation for Fast Day, says:

And may those called to minister at God's Altar, impressed with the truth that national transgressions can only be corrected by removing individual sins, abstain from political discussions, and secular considerations, to address the spiritual wants of the individual heart, that this season, consecrated by our father's prayers and practice, may not degenerate from a holy day to a holiday, nor its especial associations of humble gratitude and devout aspiration be lost in those material considerations which usurp so much of life; but may its hallowed influences, as of old, penetrate each heart, and the day become again indeed a day of Humiliation, Penitence and Prayer.

To our mind, there is something ludicrous, in all this, as coming from Gov. Gardner. His excellency seems not to know, that the practice of the old puritan fathers of New England, was to preach Sermons for the Times on Fast Day.—Politics, law, rulers, everything in church State, was freely discussed by them on these occasions. The Governor herein displays his ignorance of New England History in a very important particular, viz. the civil influence of her ministers, and the manner of their preaching. Who, but Gov. Gardner, does not know that the New England ministers, nine out of ten of them, preached up the American Revolution—and perhaps gave it more moral character and power than any other class.

The Salem Register says:

Gov. GARDNER, in his Proclamation for Fast, which we publish to-day, has undertaken to suggest to to the Clergy, what topics they should avoid, and what they should treat of, in their discourses on that occasion. This is a novelty in our Gubernatorial Proclamations. With due deference to his Excellency, it may be considered as a fact, that the Clergy, as a body, are amply competent to select their own subjects, and have discretion enough to treat them properly without any executive interference. There is a great deal of loose and exaggerated invective uttered against the Clergy, for meddling with politics, by people who, if they were fond of preaching of any kind, would much rather hear anything preached than religion; and we are sorry to see a Governor of Massachusetts even appear to give countenance to chages which, as commonly preferred, are unjust and deceptive.

THE BOY LIQUOR SELLER.—It will be remembered that a lad, named Owen Hoye, of Woburn, nine years of age, was convicted at the Common Pleas Court at Cambridge, Mass., a short time since, for liquor selling. He was sentenced by Judge Sanger to the Reform School, for one year. We learn that the mother of this boy is an old hand-at the liquor business, and has been training her son in the same trade. Judge Sanger acted wisely in sending the boy to the Reform School.—Tel.

SLAVERY TRACTS.—New York, March 18. The Committee appointed by the American Tract Society to consider the subject of publishing slavery tracts, are holding a session at the Bible House. An animated discussion is going on between Rev. Albert Barnes, Drs. Schoonmaker, DeWitt, McLeod, and others. Numerous letters from all parts of the country have been received. The session will continue for several days.

THE ALLEGED FILLIBUSTERS.—The examination of Col. Fabens and Henry Bolton, charged with a violation of our neutrality laws, was decided to-day, by the commissioner holding the defendants for trial.

THE WALKER VICTORIES.—Letters received in New York deny, upon Costa Rican authority, the stories of the victories of Walker's partizans, and particularly that of Castillo.

☞ We would call the attention of ladies to the Stock of Dry Goods of H. A. Bigelow, about to leave this city, advertised in another column, to be sold at auction—every day and evening till closed.—Among the Stock is a good assortment of Bonnets, Flowers and Ribbons, affording a rare opportunity to get a Spring Bonnet very cheap.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, pronouncing it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for gray heads." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose looks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—[St. Louis Herald.

Lawrence's Carminative,
OR
CHILD'S PAIN-KILLER.

THIS Invaluable Preparation is a favorite scientific prescription of one of the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in New England, and one who has been as successful as any other in the treating of

DISEASES OF CHILDREN,

and it has been used with never failing success. The Carminative is emphatically

A CHILD'S MEDICINE,

and is the only child's medicine in this country; intended to do away with the excessive and injurious use of Paregoric, a remedy sure to be followed by a "Dose of Physic."

The ingredients of which the Carminative is compounded are known to the Medical Faculty, and it is now extensively used, and approbated by the Physicians living in the vicinity of the Laboratory, where opportunity has been had to test its virtues.

The Carminative is offered in full confidence for the rapid cure of

Colic, Pain in the Bowels, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Green Stools, Diarrhea, Nervous Affections, Sore Mouth, Restlessness,

and other disorders incident to Weaning and Teething; sure to regulate derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, which often afflict young children; correct debilitated and sour Stomachs, relieve Pain and give tone, energy and strength to the whole system.

Due regard has been taken to have the price of the Carminative as low as to be within the reach of all.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS,

and parents who value rest not fail to buy a bottle, as they may depend upon its giving relief to "worrisome children."

Sold by country traders and all Apothecaries throughout the United States and Canada.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE,—Dear Sir:—Having made trial of your Carminative, in several severe and very critical cases of Bowel Complaints, attended with Prolapsus, with entire success, and from a knowledge of its virtues, I cheerfully recommend it for the complaints for which it is designed, as the best medicine with which I am acquainted.—A medicine of this kind has long been needed, and I doubt not will be a favorite with all mothers and the Medical Faculty as soon as known.

NATH'L BATCHELDER, M. D.

Epping, July 23, 1853.

MR. LAWRENCE:—Dear Sir—I have used your "Cherry Pectoral," and "Carminative" ever since they were first introduced by you, and am now purchasing them by the gallon. They have proved themselves successful in every case of trial, and I regard them as very valuable medicines.

Yours truly, JOSEPH DALTON, M. D.

Brentwood, Aug. 10, 1853.

MR. W. F. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir: We find your Carminative to be a very valuable medicine for the diseases incident to infancy,—a class of complaints which often baffle the skill of experienced physicians.

For the West.
BENJAMIN NORTON

HAVING spent most of the past year in Winona, Minnesota, and become acquainted with business matters there, will give his attention, the coming season, to the location of Land Warrants, buying and selling Land, paying Taxes on the same, &c. Those holding Warrants would do well to have them located, as the land can be readily sold for cash, and will yield a much larger sum to holders of Warrants, than it sold here. Or Warrants will be taken to Minnesota and sold for Cash—the cash price being much larger there than here—and prompt remittance made, at a small expense

Also, for sale 440 acres of fine Timber Land.

Also 39 Lots in the town of Stockton, 8 miles from Winona; title indisputable,—having a warrantee deed from the Judge of Probate for Winona County. A Plan of the Town can be seen on application to the subscriber.

I intend leaving for Winona, Minnesota, by the 1st of April; and all business entrusted to my care will be promptly attended to. Money will be taken, and invested in Land, or put to interest—as may be desired, as money lets in Winona for from 3 to 6 per cent per month, on the best of security. Residence 14 AUSTIN STREET,

Hutchins' Hair Dye.

The very best now in use, as the many thousands that have tried it will testify.

THE great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.
